

Carolina Watchman.

JULY 8.

The Robesonian has just completed its second year under its present editor, Mr. W. W. McDiarmid, Mr. Mc. is a real newspaper man and as clever as he is enterprising.

Mr. Turner, of the Sentinel, has unearthed a most infamous bill, which was rushed through the Legislature during the last hours of the session, 1875; and notwithstanding the bill was most appropriately called one to plunder the State, there are men and newspapers that have the effrontery to defend it and the incompetents by whose negligence and want of foresight it became a law.

We visited the little farm of Wm. Howard a few days ago, and we were delighted with what we saw. We do not believe there is as much raised on the same quantity of ground anywhere else in the county.

The Supreme Court has at last decided the new charter act of Wilmington void. Some of the points made by the Court are extra-judicial and show that Court to be, according to its own construction of the Constitution, the government of North Carolina.

There is no dissatisfaction with our present Constitution on the part of the farmers, mechanics and laboring men of the State. It is only the grasping nabobs and hungry lawyers, with a few sly politicians, who are endeavoring, for selfish purposes, to create discontent in the minds of the masses.

The N. Y. Observer recently published a story of some Millerite negroes in Georgia, in 1842, who worked themselves up to the point of a firm belief that the world would come to an end on a certain Sunday, proximo.

Resolved, That in our opinion it will be the duty of the delegate chosen to represent this county in said Constitutional Convention to take in good faith the oath required by the Act of the General Assembly calling the Convention, and faithfully observe and keep the same.

The above is clipped from the proceedings of Carteret County Convention. We notice that a similar resolution was passed by the Convention of Richmond county. The object of these resolutions is to validate an unauthorized act of the Legislature, to give force and authority to what is universally regarded as a usurpation of power.

Mr. Beecher's temporary escape by disguise. The disagreement of the jury in the Beecher case is a conclusion which was almost inevitable from the start of the trial. It was simply impossible to convict the Plymouth pastor in Brooklyn.

forces by its integrity and soundness the lessons he offers to his brethren. Suspicion even of dereliction shatters his influence. His voice is no more than a sounding brass and tinkling cymbal, if it does not speak the words of a conversation and life of morality and consistent religious order.

Mr. Beecher mounts the pulpit after this disturbed by a majority of his countrymen, not having been able, after his efforts during a long investigation and with the aid of able counsel, detestable attorneys, and vast money resources, to clear his character from reproach.

Meeting of the Board of Town Commissioners. A regular meeting of the Board of Town Commissioners was held at the Mayor's office at 8 o'clock p. m.

On motion—Resolved, That the election of Chas. F. Baker, and Ben. F. Fraley, as Commissioners of the West and East Wards, be, and is hereby rescinded.

On motion—Resolved, That the election of J. D. McNeely, (of the West Ward) and Alex. Parker, (of the East Ward), having received a majority of the votes cast, were declared duly elected.

On motion—Resolved, That the Mayor, be, and is hereby authorized to employ such teams and laborers to work on the streets, dig gravel &c., as in his judgement are necessary, and the Board would further recommend that work on the streets and other improvements should be pushed vigorously.

On motion, Commissioners, Meek and Snider were appointed a committee to superintend work on cemeteries.

The Boston Post says: Having given a detailed account of the political and social condition of Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Arkansas, Mr. Nordhoff's last letter to the New York Herald summarizes his observations in regard to these four States. In all of them there has been since 1866, great misgovernment, mostly by men who called themselves Republicans, but who were for the greater part camp-followers, adventurers, soldiers of fortune, etc.

We publish the following for the benefit of all concerned: Chicago, June 24th 1875. Blackberries a Specialty.

Owing to an article in the Atlanta Herald of the 18th inst stating the enormous quantities of Blackberries that are annually shipped from N. C., and the fabulous prices obtained for the same, for the last three days our desk has been flooded with letters and telegrams of inquiry from various points in Ga.

With a hope of preventing you all a serious loss, we will call your attention to the past crop. In the month of August 1874 we commenced the consumption of the new crop of Blackberries by sending you 25 lbs. of the best information we can get of the crop of 1874 was about 260000 lbs. of 300000 lbs.

Mr. Beecher's Great Speech. The Brooklyn Eagle, which is a strong champion of Mr. Beecher in the scandal suit, pays the following handsome compliment to Mr. Beecher's speech:

OATS AS A MANURE. A Kentucky farmer writes as follows to the New York News on the subject of oats as a manure: I have seen frequent inquiries how to reclaim old and worn out lands.

USURY LAW. The Ring papers are full of plaintive stories of the ruin wrought by the Usury law. A gentleman from Asheville tells us of the misery brought by the law upon that town.

Quick Passage to Liverpool. From a Liverpool paper of recent date we see that the new human steamer "City of Berlin" on her return to Liverpool made extraordinary good time, the passage from New York to Queenstown requiring only eight days, four hours, forty-eight minutes.

Reasoning by a Horse. In a new book by Rev. J. G. Wood, showing the reasoning powers of animals, he gives the following as an example: A neighbor of mine possessed a young foal which with his mother used to pass our house daily early in the morning.

Revolutionists. Judge Pearson—good authority among the Radicals—pronounces the programme of the Radical leaders to defeat the Convention call, revolutionary. Pearson seems to have a pretty accurate idea of the Radical leaders in this State and ain't slow in expressing his opinion sometimes.—Greensboro Patriot.

The Public Confidence Well Placed. Although the world has been seeking spots for diseases for many centuries, few indeed have been found. Prominent among these few is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which years ago received the endorsement of the medical profession, and was hailed by press and public as the great restorative and preventive of the age.

FROM DRUGGISTS. There is no case of Dyspepsia that Green's August Flower will not cure. Come to the Drug Store of Theo. F. Klutz and inquire about it. If you suffer from Costiveness, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, or derangement of the System, try it. Two or three doses will relieve you.

The Masonic Journal. TO THE MASONIC FRATERNITY IN NORTH CAROLINA AND THE SOUTH. This is emphatically an age of progress. The world moves apace, but with us, especially of the South, Masonry languishes, because lacking a proper dissemination of those pure principles peculiar to our old Order.
