

There's going to be another wedding soon.

Capt. Chas. Price has been nominated for the Convention in Davie. A good selection.

A newspaper has been started at Raleigh called the Daily Constitution. It is Radical.

Crops are looking very fine in this section at present.

Master Joe Rousche has laid on our table the finest Irish potato of the season.

The postponed meeting (Building and Loan) will be held to-morrow night at Meroney's Hall, for the purpose of the redemption of stock only.

Mr. George Carson, of McDowell county, killed a few days ago, a snake with 14 rattles.

A large bear visited the farm of Mr. George Carson, near Marion, a few days ago, and carried off a lamb.

A press of other matter crowds out our usual news this week. Go to church and hear for yourself, reader.

Mrs. Dr. Reeves has bought out Mr. W. T. Linton, and removed to the Boyden House, closing the National for the present.

A negro riot at Vicksburg last Tuesday resulted in the killing of two negroes and the serious wounding of others.

The Rural Carolinian.—This most superior of all the Agricultural papers or magazines, is on our table deeply interesting as usual.

That cake which was presented to Mrs. Hollister, by Fulton Lodge, was disposed for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum on Wednesday night.

Mr. J. C. Turner who has been seriously ill from stroke of paralysis, has so far recovered as to be removed to the home of his son, Capt. Golden Turner, in Georgia.

Mr. D. F. Denton, the popular and accomplished baggage master on the W. N. C. R. R. has been deservingly promoted to a Conductor's place, near Capt. Horace Connelly, resigned.

The schedule on the Mechanics' Mail Route has been revised, and the mails come in now on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, returning on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

In the language of an impassioned and eloquent speaker, we desire to ask: "Gentlemen, where's your Fourth of July?" Gone where the wood-bine twines. Peace to its departed glory.

Five Oats.—Mr. J. W. Fisher of this county raised from 3 bushels of seed, 121 large shocks of Oats, and he thinks it will weigh out between 100 and 125 bushels. This is certainly a good yield.

Somebody has shown Joe Caldwell, of the Observer, a frog which lives and thrives in alcohol. We know Joe envies that frog.

The Radicals haven't put out their candidates for Convention, in this county yet, but we learn that Thos. B. Long, and Isaac W. Jones, are likely to be their men. It don't make any difference who it is. Pink Hall, would run about as well as any of 'em.

Mr. Thos. A. Edison of Newark, New Jersey, has invented a system of telegraphing by which, he claims that 3000 words can be recorded by telegraph in one minute, and that four messages can be sent over one wire at the same time. What next?

There will be a meeting of the citizens of Providence Township at the Hatter shop on the day the sheriff collects his tax there, for the purpose of nominating Township officers for Providence Township: All are invited to attend.

Our Living and Our Dead.—This excellent periodical comes to us this month greatly enlarged. It is gratifying to see that it continues to improve, grow in interest and sell merit. Price only $3 a year. Address, S. D. Pool, Raleigh N. C.

Personal.—Chas. Price Esq. late Senator from Rowan, & Davie was in the city yesterday. Mr. Price has been unanimously nominated as the Conservative Candidate for Convention in Davie County. He will be elected by an overwhelming majority, and will make a capital Congress.

The Centennial in this county will open at Franklin next Thursday. The Candidates nominated last Saturday, Messrs. Shober & Henderson, are two well known to require any formal introduction by us to the people of this county.

Well let there be not such another county in the State as Rowan. People die, and people get married, and nobody thinks about reporting it to the papers. We want our preachers, magistrates, and citizens, to stir up in this matter, and we can't find anything unaided, and don't like to be blamed for not finding it out.

New Telegraph.—We are glad to learn that a new telegraph line will shortly be run from Salisbury to Asheville, and thence to the proposed signal station at Mount Mitchell. The government is to build it from the station to Asheville, citizens there to Old Fort, and the Western Union Telegraph Co., thence to Salisbury. This will supply a long felt want.

Murder! murder! murder! shrieked a young lady on Jones St., one night last week. She had gone to sleep leaving a candle burning, and awaking late at night, found all in darkness, and heard a stealthy noise in the room. Her cries promptly brought help, when it turned out that the wind had extinguished the light, and that a cat had got into the room, only this and nothing more.

Kluttz's Steam Mills, under the energetic hand of Mr. Rufus Miller, are being thoroughly overhauled, and will be ready for work about Aug. 1st. Mr. Miller assures us that when completed these mills will be second to none in the country.

Hon. Thos. L. Clingman, and David Coleman, have been nominated for Convention in Buncombe; and A. C. Avery Esq. in Burke. Capital selections. Everywhere our people are putting forth their best men, and in John R. Henderson and Francis E. Shober, Rowan will have a delegation of which we may well be proud.

Changed Hands.—The Boyden House, has passed into the hands of Mrs. Reeves, who has vacated the National, which is at present unoccupied. Mr. Linton, late proprietor of the Boyden, proposes to enter some other business. Mrs. Reeves has hitherto been remarkably successful in the Hotel business, and with the advantages secured in the Boyden, is better prepared than ever before to display her skill in this line.

We do wish that the intelligent farmers would take more interest in the Watchman. They could help us to make it a much better paper if they would only take the trouble to furnish us items of news in their neighborhoods; reports of crops; experiments with new seeds and fertilizing materials; extraordinary yields of any product; and the means used to do, with any other items of interest that come to their knowledge.

Mr. Jno. Emmert, formerly of Maryland but for several years past citizen of this county, passed through Salisbury on Wednesday last on his way back to Maryland. This step is caused by the recent burning of the Rowan Mills, and Rowan Hands Works, which Mr. Emmert had been running very successfully. Mr. E. is not only a thorough going business man, but a perfect gentleman as well, and carries with him the universal respect and hearty good wishes of our people.

Lockjaw.—Capt. Jno. Ramsey had a valuable horse attacked with this dangerous affection some time since, and as he succeeded in treating it successfully, our readers would do well to make a note of the case. The treatment is simply this:—A strong blow with a hammer was struck in the centre of the animal's forehead, first placing a plank over the forehead, which knocked him down, and at once relaxed the rigidity of the muscles. A purgative dose of pulverized Aloes was then administered, (six drachms) and the horse perfectly recovered.

Among the speakers at the County Convention on Saturday last, was Prof. Abner W. Owen whose happy effort is worthy of special notice. Prof. Owen has a style of his own, which is at once unique, original, entertaining and inimitable. He proved himself equally at home amid the flowers of poetry, the figures of rhetoric, and the stern facts of history, and although called up unexpectedly and speaking under disadvantages he showed himself every inch an orator, and held the audience spell-bound to the close.

"Free from the dotting scruples that fetter our free-born reason." The above is the motto of the man that writes Centennial articles for the Charlotte Observer, and threatens to burn down his office because the Watchman is a better paper than the Observer. Poor fellow if he would just "free" his office of himself, the Observer would improve.

A club of young gentlemen of this city will make a tour of the mountains of this State in a short time. The Officers of the expedition are, Capt. E. B. Neave, Treasurer; J. S. McCubbin, Jr., Commissary; C. R. Barker, Master of Transportation; W. H. Overman, Forage Master; J. A. Brown, Register; H. M. Jones, Wagon Master; E. P. Brown, Surgeon; Dr. J. F. Griffith, Orderly Sergeant; Frank Young & J. H. Heilig, Carpenters. We hope they may have a good time, and return to their homes safe and sound.

The editor and proprietor of the Charlotte Observer is evidently in a bad way. We have so completely befogged and worried him on the Centennial question, that he is now talking about burning up his office. We don't want him to do that. The loss of his services to the State and the Centennial cause would be irreparable. No, don't do that, Jones. We are not angry with you. We were only poking fun at your eccentricities. We are going down to Charlotte soon, and we will take you out to ride. We have already engaged the team from your enterprising liveryman, Mr. J. W. Wardworth. He says we shall have the best turn out in the State. Won't you ride with us, Jones, and give over that idea of burning up your office? We can't do without you.

Mr. Bumples' Concert.—On rather the musical entertainment given by the pupils of that lady's music school, at Meroney's Opera Hall on Monday evening last was a grand success. The stage was beautifully decorated, and with its bowers of flowers, its bevy of beautiful girls, and its echoes of gleesome music, was a picture fair indeed to look upon. The entire programme was superbly rendered, indicating the very best amateur talent. If we had space we should like to mention some of the pieces particularly, but must forbear. The audience was large and appreciative, and the net proceeds amounted to about sixty dollars which will be turned over to the Orphan Asylum. The Salisbury Cornet Band contributed much to the pleasures of the evening.

These Whistles.—It is pleasant, these dull times, while the farmers are so busy in their crops, to hear the whistles of the machine shops and mills in our town. They seem to say—there is life under this sweating July sun, though it is not very pleasant for a fellow to show much of it himself. The Messrs. Meroney and Mr. E. H. Marsh are driving right along, their shops in full work—doing all sorts of jobs, in iron, brass and wood. Calls on them for articles can scarcely fall, from a sixth pick to a steam engine. The Farmer's Plow has given such satisfaction, that the Messrs. Meroney have the pleasure to know it is becoming popular. Kluttz's reconstructed Mill will soon be in full run on the new wheat crop. Orders solicited. Callers welcomed.

A Serious Complaint has been made against the Overseer of the Poor of the County in respect to the manner in which he removed from the jail to the Poor House, Tuesday morning last, a poor crazy negro. If true, as reported, the County Commissioners will doubtless take cognizance of it.

Back into Slavery.—W. F. Henderson, better known as Windy Billy, haranged the darbies in the Court House here, on Monday night last. Among others he told that "the Democrats just want to get into power again to put you colored people back into slavery." It is a wonder that such monstrous lies do not blister and burn the throats that give them utterance. And yet the poor darwinian dupes believe each stuff. That's the way the Radicals propose to fight the Convention question.

Great Sale in Danville.—Maj. W. T. Sotherlin, of Danville, has advertised to sell 100 Building Lots in the town of Danville, Va., on the 13th July, instant. Persons attending the sale can go and return for one fair. Ample accommodations at the Hotels.

Danville is growing very rapidly, and this sale naturally attracts much attention. The town has excellent Railroad facilities for competing lines. It has a splendid water power in the Dan river on which it is situated, and is located in the center of the great Tobacco interest of N. C. and Va., for which it is becoming the leading market. The sale is absolute. Terms one-half cash.

The adjourned Convention of Rowan county met according to previous appointment in Salisbury on Saturday 3rd of July, 1875, for the purpose of nominating delegates to send to the State Convention, Luke Ellicker Esq. being called to the Chair, and Messrs. J. B. Gibson and A. W. Owen appointed Secretaries. The roll of Townships was called, and all the Townships were represented but one. The Convention then proceeded to ballot for delegates: on the first ballot J. S. Henderson Esq. received ten Townships; balance scattering, voting for Messrs. Crawford, Shober, Blackmer, Bruner, McCubbin, and Fleming. On motion of W. H. Crawford, Hon. F. E. Shober, was nominated by acclamation. A committee was appointed to wait on Mr. Henderson and announce his nomination. The Convention was addressed by Messrs. Shober, Henderson and Owen. On motion the Salisbury papers were requested to publish the proceedings of the Convention. On motion the Convention adjourned.

J. B. GIBSON, Sec'y. A. W. OWEN, Sec'y. Intelligencer copy.

Just punishment.—A Quilicoy Ill., dispatched says: "Last night a negro on the Keokuk and North Western Steamboat Line entered a white lady's state-room and attempted an outrage upon her. An engineer hearing her scream rushed in and broke the negro's skull with a hand spike, killing him almost instantly."

4. of July.—The "Glorious Fourth" was by unobscured this year, and as we have no speech to report on the occasion, we cannot do better than to print the grandiloquent exordium of one year which was made by a Radical orator several years ago. Said the speaker:—"Ladies and Fellow Citizens," This is a proud occasion, such a season was never known to the horizon of the people since Christopher Columbus discovered the great ocean. My colored fellow-citizens we have occasion to be proud of the fourth day of July. For it was on the fourth day of July seventeen hundred and ninety-six, that Christopher Columbus landed on Plymouth Rock and proclaimed freedom, liberty, and independence to all mankind. And what was this done here in Virginia at that time? This had their foot on the black man's neck a hollerin' his copper tyrants! (tremendous applause.) My colored fellow citizens if these Democrats ever give into power in this country again, they'll do like they done in Rome. Look at Rome! once the proud master of the land and mistress of the seas, and what is she to-day? Overrun by Greeks, Catholics and other savages." And so on to the end amid overwhelming applause.
