All the old flannel shirts were hunted up esterday morning.

We had a killing frost here last Wednesday horses morning.

The State Fair this year is a success, as learn from the Baleigh papers.

The elegant new church at Franklin built by Meesrs. John Fraley and George Shuman speaks well for their skill as mechanics.

We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket to a ball to be given at the Boyden House on Oct 26th inst.

In the notice of Marshals of our Fair' last articles they have on hand. Do not fail to read week, the names of Messrs. G. A. Harrison and M. C Rufty, were left out by mistake.

Superintendents and Judges will report to the Secretary on the Fair Grounds promptly on Tuesday and receive their badges and instructions.
