TIME TO ME.

BY CHARLES SWAIN.

Time to me the truth hath taught, "Tis a truth that's worth revealing; More offend from want of thought, Than from any want of feeling.

If advice we should convey. There's a time we should convey it; If we've but a word to say, There's a time in which to say it.

Many a beauteous flower decays. Though we tend it e'er so much, Something secret on it preys. Which no human hand can touch.

So, in many a loving breast, Lies some canker-grief concealed, That, if touched. is more oppressed, Left unto itself-is healed.

Oft, unknowingly, the tongue Touches on a chord so aching, That a word, or accent wrong, Pains the heart almost to breaking.

Many a tear of wounded pride. Many a fault of human blindness, Has been soothed, or turned aside, By a quiet voice of kindness.

Time to me this truth hath taught, 'Tis a truth that's worth revealing; More offend from want of thought, Than from any want of feeling.

Be Thou True.

Care thou not what others say, Be thou true ! If they gossip to betray, Be thou true! Be consistent and do right For the truth makes a good fight; Do what thou dost with all thy might! Be thou true! Be thou true!

Let thy loves be all sincere-Be thou true ! Only God hast thou to fear; Be thou true! Since our joys must pass away Like the dewdrops on the spray, Wherefore should our sorrows stay ? Be thou true! Be thou true!

Friendship's very hard to find, Be thou true! ove is not always blind;
