COME UNTO ME.

Art thou weary ? Art thou languid ? Art thou sore distressed ? "Come to me," saith One ; "and coming Be at rest."

Hath he marks to lead me to him, If he be my guide ? "In his feet and hands are wound-prints, And his side?

Is there diadem as monarch, That his brow adorns? "Yea, a crown in very surety, But of thorns !"

If I find him if I follow, What his guerdon here ? "Many a sorrow, many a labor, Many a tear."

If I still hold closely to him, What hath he at last? Many a sorrow, many a labor, Many a tear." If I still hold closely to him, What has he at last ? "Sorrows vanquish'd, labor ended, Jordan past !

If I ask him to receive me, Will he say me nav ? "Not till earth, not till heaven, Pass away !"

Tending, following, keeping, struggling, Is he sure to bless? "Angels, martyrs, prophets, prilgrims, Answer, Yes !

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU SAY. In speaking of a person's faults. Pray don't forget your own ; Remember those with homes of glass. Should seldom throw a stone. If we have nothing else to do

But talk of those who sin, 'Tis better we commence at home, And from that point begin.

We have no right to judge a man, Until he's fairly tried ; Should we not like his company. We know the world is wide. Some may have faults, and who has not ? The old as well young; Perhaps we may, for aught we know, Have fifty to their one.
