Carolina Watchman.

FEBRUARY 3, 1876.

Mr. R. M. Ackerly's loss by the late fire in Mocksville is estimated at between a thousand and three hundred dollars.

Mr. Blackburn, of Illinois, defeated for Speaker, is a Kentuckian by birth, and began his career as a printer in the office of the Louisville Journal.

Mr. Oscar, of Illinois, defeated for Speaker, is a Kentuckian by birth, and began his career as a printer in the office of the Louisville Journal.

Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, defeated for Speaker, is a Kentuckian by birth, and began his career as a printer in the office of the Louisville Journal.

Mr. Blackburn, of Kentucky, defeated for Speaker, is a Kentuckian by birth, and began his career as a printer in the office of the Louisville Journal.

Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, elected Speaker, is a Pennsylvanian by birth, and began his career as a printer in the office of the Philadelphia Ledger.

Mr. Kerr, of Indiana, elected Speaker, is an Indianian by birth, and began his career as a printer in the office of the Indianapolis Journal.

Mr. Blaine, of Maine, defeated for Speaker, is a Pennsylvanian by birth, and began his career as a printer in the office of the Philadelphia Ledger.

Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, elected Speaker, is a Pennsylvanian by birth, and began his career as a printer in the office of the Philadelphia Ledger.

Mr. Kerr, of Indiana, elected Speaker, is an Indianian by birth, and began his career as a printer in the office of the Indianapolis Journal.

Mr. Blackburn, of Kentucky, defeated for Speaker, is a Kentuckian by birth, and began his career as a printer in the office of the Louisville Journal.

Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, defeated for Speaker, is a Kentuckian by birth, and began his career as a printer in the office of the Louisville Journal.

Mr. Oscar