

Carolina Watchman. LOCAL. MARCH 16, 1876.

Cotton is looking up. Killing frost at Memphis on the 13th. Fresh Oranges, Lemons, and Cocoanuts, at R. W. Price's.

No fire engines, at least such as we have, would be as efficient in case of a fire, as a well-organized Hook and Ladder Company.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Watson W. Ruple, of this city, now at Davidson College, has been elected first marshal by the Philanthropic society, and will officiate at the next commencement, which comes off in the latter part of June.

A HAIL STORM—Last Sunday evening, struck our town from the West, accompanied with heavy wind and remarkable lightning and thunder. Hail—said to be as large as hen eggs—lay on the ground near here until noon on Monday.

He felt relieved, we mean that chap that came down town with a jug and met his "pop," who said to him: "why, son, what are you doing up town so late?" "Nothing, in particular, pa, dese is 'lasses I've got in the jug." "Well, it's time you were at home." "Yes, sir, I'm going." That's when he felt relieved.

Mr. C. P. Wharton, the Photographer, of whom we made mention before, has been at work in good fashion for the past two weeks, during which time he has thoroughly cleaned out, painted, papered and carpeted the gallery over the Book Store, and is now doing good work. Our citizens will be glad to know that this is a permanent thing. He may be called on at any time and will be found always ready to do your work; go see.

Girls as a general rule are tolerably brave, sometimes daring to do things that boys would shrink from, but there is one thing they cannot brave through, and that is a storm with "aerial fire works." It is when screams of roasting winds and rain, with sheets of fire and horrid thunder comes, with murrain and wrath, that they crawl under a table and stay there till silence reigns. We know of several that did this very thing during the thunder storm last Sunday night.

How some of our country people think bad words when they come to town and hitch their teams to a post, leaving them, with a few bundles of oats for their horses to feed on while they do their trading, and come back to find seventeen cows and eleven hogs examining the scattered fragments of the wagon bed and seemingly accusing each other of the troublesome inconvenience caused by the discarded farmer. To them that needs the patience of Job and the meekness of Moses to quell the rampant emotions that fills his phrenological bump of civility.

"How to WRITE LETTERS."—Mr. Plyler, Book merchant here, has laid on our table a beautiful little book bearing the above title, designed to assist young persons to acquire a proper understanding of the art of letter writing—embracing instructions as regards business, social and all other kinds of letters. It contains many valuable suggestions. Also, "Literature for the Little Folks," exquisitely got up, by Sower, Potts & Co., Phila., designed to initiate the young into the principles of Grammar and correct language by a new and interesting process.

Messrs. Meroney & Bro., are doing up their hall in style, enlarging the stage, putting in private boxes and providing comfortable seats.

The young men will now have more than a chalk mark to show that they occupy "preserved seats." Comforting, ain't it? Mr. Kernor is still at work with his scenery. It will probably be a month before he can finish the whole set, but when done, we can boast of a pretty scenery as any Opera House in the State contains, and our people can attend with genuine pleasure entertainments given in this hall. Messrs. Meroney deserve thanks for their liberality in thus preparing a place for the entertainment of our citizens.

Listen how they talk. He would smoke and chew, his effects were plainly depicted on his countenance. She had used every argument in her power in trying to prevail on him to discontinue the use of the noxious weed. After a long talk about it one night not long since, she seemed to give up in despair, and said in tones of deep regret: "I have done all in my power and still you persist in its use; so I will tell you what you are coming to. My dear, you are destined soon to wear your immortal wings of infernal glory; for no one can enter any better place, to pollute it with fumes of that poisonous weed. It pains me to talk this way, but it's so. Now won't you, dear, stop it for my sake?" And he did—not stop.

Mr. Rufus Morgan called our attention to the fact that the pines around town are teeming with bees gathering the "honey dew," which lays in rich drops, sparkling in the sun light, on all their branches. We do not know positively whether it is an excretion caused by wounds on the tree by insects, or an excretion, or a secretion of the species of plant louse always accompanying it. This we do know, that when ever it is found, by looking immediately above the dew, you will never fail to find these creatures. Mr. Morgan's bees are in splendid condition, and seem to be "making hay while the sun shines," filling fast, the frames as they are emptied, which is done without disturbing the bees in the least, by means of his new combination bee-hive.

The debate between Mr. Theo. F. Klutz and Mr. A. W. Owen, will be repeated in McNeely's Hall, on Friday night. Mr. Posten, of Davy, and others will also take part. Don't fail to hear them.

Gas.—The Scientific American notes the fact that fifty years ago, the 25th Feb. 1876, the first gas was lighted in that city; and that the N. Y. Gas Co., signalled the event by reducing the price of gas from $2.75 to $2.50 per 1,000 feet, which is the lowest price at which gas has ever been sold in the Island.

Salisbury Gas Co., has celebrated the centennial of American independence, (we suppose,) by a reduction of from $7 to $5 per 1,000 feet. We hope they contemplate another reduction, the next time from $5 to $3. Why not! Let some of the company explain the reason, and if it is a good one it will doubtless be accepted, though it may not have the effect of redeeming lost patronage. If it is impossible to produce it at less than $5 it may satisfy those still using it to know the fact. Until it is explained consumers have a right to inquire why so great a difference between New York and Salisbury prices.

We notice that $5 is the price at Raleigh, and we mention it to the relief of our Company, if it can have that effect. Nevertheless, will some one familiar with the cost of production accept the use of our columns to explain to the public the why and wherefore that the price cannot reach down to $3 per 1,000 feet. There must be reasons for it, and we suppose it would not be a difficult task to present them.

Attention Rowan Rifle Guards.—You are hereby commanded to meet at Headquarters in full dress uniform, on Friday, 24th inst. at 2 o'clock, p. m. by order of WMS BROWN, Capt.

That looks something like it. We hardly expected such prompt action to be taken by this company to our call for a "show of themselves." It is gratifying to learn that so many of our young men have joined them, and we hope that others will follow the good examples set. Girls keep your eyes open on the 24th and don't fail to see "him in uniform, he is handsome in brass buttons, but then remember he is not marching under colors, for as yet there has been no move on your part to procure a flag.

We publish below a list of the officers as they now stand: Captain, Wms. Brown. 1st Lieut., Jno. Dean. 2nd " W. L. Arey. 3rd " Thos. Murphy. 1st Serg't., Thos. Ewaldhardt. 2nd " C. W. Pool. 3rd " G. "IN TIME OF PEACE PREPARE FOR WAR." We hear that a gentleman from the country bought at one of our prominent dry goods stores, yesterday, all the necessary trimmings, &c., for a coffin; and upon being questioned about the matter, stated that the acceptor he was preparing to adorn, would be for his own individual use. Upon being asked if he expected to take his departure from this mundane sphere any time soon, he replied that he had no premonition of the "shuffle off this mortal coil," but he could very conveniently spare the money to purchase the articles just at this time, whereas he could not foresee what might be the condition of his finances when the dread messenger should come; he thought it better to "take time by the forelock" in such an important matter.—Wm. Star.

Securing one's coffin in advance of death was less abhorrent to the public mind some years ago, than it is now. We remember several cases of old people who selected the wood and employed workmen to make their coffins, superintending the work as it progressed. They did this in a business-like way and because they knew death was an inevitable event for which every provision should be made in advance of its coming. Possibly they had known of instances in which the charges for coffins had appeared to them exorbitant, and wanted to guard against imposition in their own cases. No matter what the motive, it is not a bad idea, and we believe the world would be better if the practice were more common.

Washington Affairs.—Examination of Geo. E. Pendleton.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Geo. E. Pendleton was before the War Department Investigating Committee to-day. He has been president of the Kentucky Central railroad since December 1859. When he took possession he found a large claim against the government for transporting troops etc. He went to see Governor Stephenson about the claim who told him that it had been hanging on for a long time and that fifty per cent would be great to any one who would take it and have it paid. He then went to see others who were interested in it and made an arrangement by which he was to receive one-half of all he collected. The allowance was for $148,000. The claim was reported favorably and passed. The witness received money from Boutwell. He never paid any to Belknap or agreed to pay any. Belknap nor any of his family were supplicated in the payment of the claims which was paid in June 1871 and no compensation was paid any one to get it through. The bill reducing the President's salary to be $25,000 after the 4th of March next passed the Senate to-day by a vote of 25 to 20. Reports from the New Hampshire elections thus far say no result will be great to any one. Reports from various towns indicate Republican gains in every town. Evidence of fraud on both sides are apparent in Concord. The Republicans increase over last years vote. Both parties suppose,

RETROSPECT OF THE EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The Democracy cheered by the Prospect Opening Before them.—The Party of Corruption Doomed.—The Newly Aroused Zeal of the Administration, and its Cause.—H. H. Wells' Virtue Aroused, and Wherefore.—The Scheme to Intimidate Witnesses.—The Radicals Hedging.—A Desperate Attempt to save the Party.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The week that has just passed has been one of excitement in political and social circles, the former particularly—the Democrats taking heart at the prospects now in the near future of overthrowing the corrupt party power. It has been well said by a leading Democrat of the House that the Belknap exposure is but the breaking of the crust, and unless obstacles are thrown in the way to prevent, revelations of a more astounding character are yet to be made public.

With a view to secure the attendance of witnesses in several of the investigations now pending Mr. Morrison, of Illinois, on yesterday presented a bill to exempt from criminal proceedings witnesses who testify before Congress, or before committees of either House. This will secure from prosecution many important witnesses now known to the several committees having charge of investigations. The flight of Marsh to Canada immediately after giving his evidence in the Belknap case is used by Republicans in and out of Congress as an argument to show the great danger to be incurred in testifying before any of the committees now overhauling the rotten departments. Compulsively active in this work is Henry H. Wells, late of Virginia, but now District United States Attorney. With indignation he now proposes, not only to prosecute those who are guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors, but equally to punish those who inform against them. As was anticipated, after the first shock which the Babcock exposure gave to the Republicans, an effort is now made to ward off the force of the blow by the revival of antecedents in the days of Whiggery and Democracy. Grant's organ has been regaling its readers with reminiscences from the days of Jackson, Van Buren, Taylor and Buchanan, with a view to drawing off public attention from the recent exposure made of his party.

The nomination of Richard H. Dana, of Massachusetts, as Minister to England, to succeed Gen. Schenck, is confirmatory of the impression which has for some time prevailed that the resignation of Schenck was actually in the hands of Grant, but held back by him to afford our envoy an opportunity to escape from England, where he had become liable to arrest from his complicity in the "Emma Mine scandal." His departure from England on the 3d of March, pretendedly on a leave of absence, and the naming of his successor on the 6th by the President of the United States are very suggestive of something rotten.

Grant now appears to be hedging. He has reconsidered his determination to retain Babcock at the Executive Mansion. The rapidity with which unpleasant events have crowded upon him admonishes him to be more circumspect. To-day we find Gen. Babcock at the corner of Twenty-first street and Pennsylvania avenue, as commissioner of public ground and buildings. Rumor has it to-day that a distinguished Confederate—one well known as a guerrilla chieftain in Northern Virginia during the late war—will be named for Secretary of War. The gentleman referred to is said to be held in high esteem by Grant, and that his inclinations lead him in that direction. As I place but little reliance in the rumor, I give it to you for what it is worth.

The whole south will hear with sincere regret that Governor Letcher, of Virginia, gallant and honest old John, was stricken with paralysis in Richmond yesterday. Had he no other claim upon southern regard, the fact that he commissioned and first gave to the cause of the land we love, Robt. E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson, Jeb Stuart and Jubal Early, would suffice to give him a lofty niche in the temple of fame and gratitude.—Lal. Sentinel.

CONGRESS. WASHINGTON, March 2.—House.—The Appropriations Committee agreed to recommend that the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to issue 12 millions silver and redeem all fractional currency. Be it remembered forever and a day, that the first visit of the innocent Babcock when, under pressure of the whole United States government, he escaped the penitentiary, was to the imprisoned felon, his partner and scape-goat, McDonald. Buzzards of a feather.—Lal. Sentinel.

The Democracy has now the most powerful motive that ever animated a party to unite. They must do it. They will be false to themselves and their country, if they do not sink minor differences on the financial question, and rally to save the country from those infamous rascalities, whose gigantic frauds, have made our nation a disgrace in the eyes of honest men.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Davidson County, Superior Court. Elizabeth Ward, Gray Harris and wife Elizabeth, and others, vs. S. D. Stout, Matthew Stout, and others, Defendants. NOTICE.

Prompt Reinforcement. When the physical energies are overtaken or flag through working or disease, they need prompt reinforcement. Renewed vigor is most speedily supplied through the medium of a tonic stimulant, and among medicinal resources of that class, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters assuredly deserves a pre-eminent place. Weakness, whether constitutional or arising from disease or over fatigue, cannot be better compensated for than by a resort to this prime strengthening cordial. The enfeebled invalid, the counterfeited, and the aged and infirm, find in many other irregularities and disabilities, and render it an invaluable protection against malaria, as well as disorders of the stomach and bowels.

IS YOUR LIFE WORTH TEN CENTS? Sickness prevails everywhere, and everybody complains of some disease during their life. When sick, the object is to get well; now to get plenty that no person in this world that is suffering with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and its effects, such as Indigestion, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Heart Burn, palpitation of the Heart, Depressed Spirit, Biliousness, &c., can take GIBBER'S AGENT-FLOWERS, without getting relief and cure. If you doubt this, go to your Druggist Mr. Theo. F. Klutz, and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Regular size 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you.

MARRIED. In Rowan county on the 14th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Boid, Mr. R. T. Cowan to Miss Betty Krome, all opposed to Grant's third term of office.

DIED. In this county on the 2nd inst., Thomas R. Walton, 67 years of age. The deceased was a member and a vestryman of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church of this county, was a worthy citizen, and in every respect a useful member of society.

MR. J. ALLEN BROWN, Agent NAVASSA GUANO, Salisbury, N. C. Dear Sir: I now send you the result of my experiments with Guano, this year. I used eight kinds of Guano, selecting land of as nearly uniform soil as possible, side by side, putting 20 cents worth of each kind to the row; and by the side of all these Guanos, I put into one row 100 lbs. of good stable manure, leaving one row without anything. The rows were 16 rods, (or 100 yards) by measure, and 50 rows to the acre, in the midst of a 20 acre field. I struck my rows, subsided each row, putting the Guano in and planting, all on the same day, being the 6th day of May. Now for the result of the picking, as given below:

NAVASSA GUANO! PRICES REDUCED. Selling this year, cash, at $35 25 On time, 1st Nov., 62 50 Or. Payable in cotton, 450 lbs. READ THE FOLLOWING: Fertilizer. No. lbs. Rows. No. lbs. to Row. per acre. Stable Manure. 21 50 1050 British Lion. 17 " 850 Nothing. 4 " 200 Zell's Phosphate 24 " 1075 Pacific. 16 " 825 Sea Fowl. 22 " 1125 Whann's 19 " 975 Guanahani. 15 " 775 Cat Island. 11 " 550 NAVASSA. 26 " 1300 Now, friend Brown, you see the result. The Agents of the other Guanos are all my friends. I don't speak disparagingly of any of the above Guanos, not at all. The worst may pay, but the NAVASSA most assuredly pays the best of all. Every acre where I used all Navassa, I make one bale to the acre weighing from 410 to 450 lbs. Permit me to say, in conclusion, that taking the above as a basis, I lose 6,550 lbs. seed cotton by not using all of your most noble and best of all Guanos, the Navassa. Yours, &c. E. A. PROBST.
