The Carolina Watchman.

VII.-THIRD SERIES.

BISHED WEEKLY-J. J. BRUNER, Ed. and Propr T. K. BRUNER, Associate Ed. SUBSCRIPTION RATES : per Year, payable in advance, $3 00 ADVERTISING RATES : one inch, one publication, $1 90

NOTICE. U. S. INTERNAL REVENUE SPECIAL TAXES, May 1, 1876, to April 30, 1877.

The Revised Statutes of the United States. Sections 3232, 3237, 3238, and 3239, require every person engaged in any business, avocation, or employment which renders him Table to a SPECIAL TAX, TO PROCURE actual advantages. Her citizens, especially IND PLACE CONSPICUOUSLY IN HIS ESTABLISHMENT OR PLACE OF BU-SINESS a STAMP denoting the payment of said SPECIAL TAX for the Special-Tax Year beginning May 1, 1876, before commencing or continuing business after April er try to make it attractive ; but are always 30, 1876.

The Taxes embraced within the provisions of the Law above quoted are the following, viz:

	Rectificrs	200	1
	matters retail liquor	-25	÷ŧ
	mators wholesale liquor	100	(
	matters in malt liquors, wholesale	50	1
2	pealers in malt liquors, retail	20	- 2
1	Finites in leaf 1003000	35
	Retall dealers in leaf tobacco	500
	And on sales of over $1,000, fifty cents for		ĉ
	every dollar in excess of $1,000.
•	maters in manufactured tobacco	5	(
	Manufacturers of stills	50
	Manufa curtat offit manufactured	64

And for each still manufactured. And for each worm manufactured Manufacturers of tobacco..... Manufacturers of clgars Peddlers of tobacco, first class (more than two horses or other animals). Peddlers of tobacco, second class (two horses or other animals). or other animuls). Peddlers of tobacco, third class (one horse or other animal. Peddiers of tobacco, fourth class (on foot or public conveyance) Brewers of less than 500 hundred/barrels..... 100 00 also excellent range for grazing stock. As fine Brewers of 500 barrels or more.....

Any person, so liable, who shall fail to fruits as the continent affords, are grown in with the foregoing requirements will Western Carolina. The mica and other minerals

SALISBURY, N. C., APRIL 6, 1876.

New York, March 28, 1876.

DEAR SIR: -1 can find no record whatever o

Geo. Brown & Co. being now in existence or ever of the city since May, 1875, give no such firm, and the commercial reference books make no such mention, and the principal commercial credit reference office has no such tirm and say they never had.

There is a firm Geo. Brown & Co., quoted as auc-tioneers in commercial reference book, but not in directory. A prominent man whose son is a member of a noted firm within eight doors of 271 firm as G. B. & Co. in that street, that Geo. E.

street.

(203) Canal steet, says they never heard of such a

I am using every effort to send forward the bills and testify vs. Howerton and will be a most im-can place the goods farnished by Brown & Warner much below first class. Two of the parties told me they thought Gorman was buying for himself in a

Gorman were no criter on to jucce Brown & Warner's supplies to the State, for the samples sent to have Vogler and Haling come down and Howerton

A CARPET ON THE FLOOR. Letter from a Distinguished North Caro-

MESSRS. EDITORS .- Few of your readers self, "I must look out for that young man." his clerks going into a low theatre, said to himlinian.

know how highly they should appreciate their The young man soon after was caught robbing $2,25 PER YARD CHARGED BY A FICTITIOUS FIRM the merchant. That clerk had giving up hard AT 271 CANAL ST. work and was living by wits. I tell you, young The proof is coming off and we begin to look inmen. you will get out of the world just so much o things long hid from sight. It has been discovroof, and the limits of their native State to ac-grace of God. Men get nothing in this world ered that Secretary of State Howerton last November charged the State $2,25 per yard for carpeting that is worth possessing of a moral, financial or ostensibly from the tirm of Geo. Brown & Co. 271 Canal street, New York. Closer scrutiny despiritual nature save they get it by their own monstrated a suspicious resemblance between the hard work. It is just so much you can plough around by your own continuous and hard sweathandwriting of the bills and that of the letters of Brown & Warner which are now being made suffiing industries. "Go to the ant, thou sluggard, ciently familiar. A prominent North Caralina consider her ways and be wise." gentleman now in New York was written to and

Another caldron of iniquity is the dramshop. has replied in the subjoined letter. Samples of the Surely there is death in the pot. Every saloon carpet were produced and exhibited to experienced merchants here, and they unhesitatingly agreed builded above ground or dug under ground is they could have bought the same article in New a centre of evil. It may be licensed, and for a York for $1,15, and put down here at $1,25. Here while it may conduct its business in elegant is the letter which we use with apologies to the style, but after a while the cover will fall off author for the use of his name : and you will see the iniquity in its right color-J. D. CAMERON, EDITOR DAILY NEWS: ing. Plant a grog shop in the midst of the finest block of houses in the city, and property will depreciate fifty per cent. Men engaged in the ruinous traffic will say, "You don't appreciate the fact that the largest revenues paid to holders, or rather visitors, who never enjoy the government are by our business." Gladhome, because they are seldom there, and nevstone said on that subject, "Gentlemen, don't be uneasy about the revenue. Give me 30,000,-000 sober people, and I'll pay all the revenue surprised at the success and home enjoyment and have a large surplus." But the ruin of property is a very small part of the evil. This evil takes everything that is sacred in the famiy, everything that is holy in religion, that is nfinite in the soul and tramples it out. The reverend gentleman drew several graphic pictures of the soul-destroying influence of intemperance in society, and concluded by exhorting

A merchant in New York on seeing one of spoken. tions where crops grow so nearly spontaneously. Our citizens should remember, that Sandy Appeal from the Mount Vernon Associa-Ridge and Blackgum Texas, do not comprise tion to the Ladies of North Carolina. 10 00 the entire State. Edgecomb will produce 500

his audience to shun the evils of which he had

By vesterday's mail we received the following from a most estimable and well known lady in Leaksville which we take pleasure in publishing, and have no doubt the press at large will give it free circulation The appeal reads : It may not be inappropriate during the centennial year to refresh our memories with some quantities. If you have serious trouble you must facts connected with this Mecca of our country ; and many inquiries addressed to me recently on the present status of Mt. Vernon induces the

The charter granted by the Legi-lature of the appointment of a committee, to inspect the submitted the reports of the Regent, Vice-Regent will enable the Association to meet the neces-

[Raleigh Sentinel.] SOUL-SICK.

WHO WOULD NOT BE A PAGAN?

busted .--Heigho ! what shall we do ?

up, Sail, ho! for Timbuctoo!

We want to be a pagan, And with the pagan's stand.

Oh, for the wings of a dove, a wild goose or a buzzard, that we might fly away and be at rest among the Fejees the Hottentots, or some other nobler and better race than our own braggadociouslyenlightened Columbian barbarians, our own boastfully-christian heathen. Oh, that we might trade off our mulatto godhaving been as carpet merchants. The directories dess of liberty for the queen of the Cannibal Islands or any similar wenchy potentates. Oh, for a roosting-place among the Kickapocs, Caribs or New Zealanders .- Pagans as they are, they have never vet wallowed in the mire of credit. mob o'-liar, custom house and whiskey-G. Hyate & Co. are carpet men at 271, Canal ring robberies and frauds; or sounded the fanthomless infamous depths of presidential sneak-thievery, nepostistic cormoran-Mr. Vogler promised me without fail to give it to cy, dirty jobberry. office peddling and me by 4 o'clock this evening. Mr. Vogler with very little persuading, will go to North Carolina universal dead-beatery. Oh, for a lodge portant witness for you. Dr. Howerton's general amid the sun-scorched black amoors of behavior is fully known to Vogler as he went the Niger and Zambesi, or the tawny around with him. These persons say that there are the Niger and Zambest, or the tawny from 25 to 30 per cent. difference between goods of savages of Polynesian Archipelagoes.

What of all this ? Just this of it : first and third class. I think Vogler and Huling Tattooed missionary eaters as they are, Marsh has it in his power to atone, i they have a million moral leagues in putpart, for the wrong he has done by sendrifying iniquity yet to sink, before they ing all the money he has made by hi small way, and that samples iurnished by them to reach the nadir of degradation, rottenness bribery, to be divided among the poor and shame-the low, low, bottomless levsoldiers who have been despoiled, by him, Corman were for goods strictly first-class, in small el of our christian patriots, heroes and statesmen .- Ransack all their dark and of their hard earned pay.

Restoration in good, old Bible doctrine. gory caverus; drag out the last slimy rep-I hope to mail you copies of the bids furnished lile from their hideous dens of cruelty, Marsh ought to be very grateful that he defence.

MARSH'S OPPORTUNITY.

smiles and false professions .- No grave-COL. DONAN .- We note the name of stone speculation thieves. No contracting Col. P. Donan has disappeared from the ghouls cutting the carcasses of their dead masthead of the Sentinel. soldiers to pieces in order to draw full > Snow in Hickory was 9 inches deep; in Lenoir, 10; in the Yadkin Valley, 12, and at Old Fort-

NO 26

Myer Myers who was formerly a distiller in Petersburg was arrested the other day in New York charged with removing liquor from his establishment without having paid the duty.

The property of the Carolina Park Association, late the grounds of the New Fair of the Carolinas, is advertised to be sold under execution on Monday, 22d of this pestiferous de bauched nation of frauds, May .- Charlotte Observer.

The prettiest talk made straight out and without any notes during the centennial is said to have been the address by Rev. J. J. Renn at the Sunday School mass meeting at Metropolitan Hall .-News.

Mr. Caleb P. Marsh is a fortunate man. What we mean by that is that he is a There is a story going the rounds of a woman having served six months in Col. Belknap is said to have squandered his Zeb. Vance's regiment without her sex ill-gotten grins. Marsh has husbanded being discovered. Those who know Gov. Vance will find it difficult to eredit so it is stated, to pay his counsel for this yarn .- Richmond Whig. defending him. Marsh has obtained a virtual pardon in advance, and needs no Five young men went to a spiritualistic seance in Terra Haute the other night, with lamp black on the palm of their hands. Then they shook hands with the materialized spirit that appeared, and after the lights were turned up, the medium who had been "in a trance" in the cabinet also had lamp black on her hands.

> A great event has occurred at Jerusa-The Musselmen have permitted the the church of the Holy Sepulchre, to put up bells in it. Such a sound has not pay for burying a body on each carrion fragment. No malefactor president and Things that we've trusted, every one no cabinet of ring-rogues and jail-birds. All these are civilized and christianized Pack all our duds up and, while our blood's commodities, delicacies and Belzebubbles. Ob, that we were a pagan, a cannibalanything but a highly favored United Statian, an enlightened American patriot, statesman, saint or hero ! - For the men of Ninevah, of Sodom and Gomorrah, of Babylon the lewd-the very Sutrahs and Fellatahs, with the clotted flesh of their mother-in-law sticking to their fangsshall rise up in the judgment against braggarts, hypocrites and learned and polished assassins and cut-purses; and condemn the whole vile and hideous compoodle ! Amen ! Vive Le Pagan ! Abas Le Radical Pharisee ! man who has kept his fortune. 'Mr. his. Belknap has hardly enough means.

the subject to severe penalties.

Persons or firms liable to pay any of the Special Taxes named above must apply to J. J. MOTT, Collector of Internal Revenue pleasant and lucrative employment. at Statesville, N. C., and pay for and procure the Special-Tax Stamp or Stamps they need, prior to May 1, 1876, and WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE.

D. D. PRATT. Commissioner of Internal Revenue. OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE. WASHINGTON, D. C., February 1, 1876. (23:2tinM:2tinA)

To AMOS HOWES, Non-resident

Take notice that the following Summons and Warrant of Attachment have been issued against you :

SUPERIOR COURT, Rowan County.

Thomas J. Meroney and Phillip P. Meroney, trading under the firm name of Meroney & Broth- | Summons, er, Plaintiffs, against Amos Howes, Defendant.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

To the Sheriff of Rowan County, Greeting:

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED in the name of the State to summon Amos Howes, defendant in the above action, to appear at the next Term of the Superior Court of the County of Rowan, at the Court-House in Salisbury, on the 6th Monday after the 3d Monday in March, 1876, then and there to answer the complaint of Thomas J. Meroney and Phillip P. Meroney, trading as Meroney & Brother, plaintiffs in And you are-further commanded to notify the said defendant that if he fails to answer the complaint within the time specified by law, the said plaintiffs will take judgment against him for $464 50, with interest on $459 24 since 1st September, 1874, and for all costs and charges in this suit incurred. Witness, J. M. Horah, clerk of our said Court, at office in Salisbury, this the '23d day of February, A: D. 1876.

J. M. HORAH, Clerk Sup. Court Rowan County. ing up a generation of vipers.

(WARRANT OF ATTACHMENT.) Rewan County-In the Superior Court.

Thomas J. Meroney and Phillip P. Meroney, trading under firm name of Meroney & Brother, Plaintiffs.

AGAINST Amos Howes, Defendant. STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

To the Sheriff of Rowan County-Greeting: T appearing by the affidavit to the officer is closing the eyes and loosening the hand from similar offering to the treasury? granting this Warrant, that the printing are entitled to recover from the defendant $464 50 with interest since 1st Sept. 1874. on $459 24, and that the above named Amos Howes, departed from this State with intent to defraud his creditors, and is about removing his property from this State : You are fouthwith commanded to attach and seep all the property of the said Amos Howes in your County, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy said demand, who seem to get along without any work. They with costs and expenses."

J. M. HORAH, Clerk. 24:6t:$16 TIND CONTON

of the same region offer great inducements to It is unnecessary here to review the history 'of miners. No one need leave Carolina to find the purchase of the place by Miss Cunningham of South Carolina, aided by contributions from the women of the land. The payment of one

For the Carolina Watchman.

NORTH CAROLINA.

right of citizenship in the Old North State.

Why is it ? Why do so many of 'our noble hearted youths hasten to leave the paternal cumulate wealth and enjoy life among strangers in other States, where fortune's wheel ever rolls as she does here, carrying the active to the summit of success, and hurling the indolent into the vortex of degredation ? Why are so many of our well to do farmers sacrificing their personal property and domestic happiness for means to leave their families to a land said to offer advantages superior to those of North Carolina ? Simply because the populace is comparatively ignorant of her real value and those who are continually wanting to "sell out and leave," are like a certain class of house-

The Siren's song says; "In the west you can secure large crops with little labor."

It never says anything about, nor does the enchanted farmer dream of the double expenses

treble doctor-bill, and sextuple moral disadvantages, which generally exist in those sec-fbs of lint to the acre ; Columbus yield turpentine by the cargo; Rowan creek bottoms will yield

100 bushels to the acre, Cabarrus 30 bushels of wheat. The mountain section affords much of arable land, adapted to the growth of cereals, of their neighbors.

living by your wits ?

No where in the Union, are the educational dollar made the donor a life member of the advantages better than in Carolina. North Mount Vernon Ladies Association. Carolina, Trinity, Davidson, Rutherford and This Association was organized with a Regent and Treasurer, and a Vice Regent was other Colleges, need nothing but a liberal supappointed from each State by the Regent. port from good citizens to keep them equal in grade to Havard or Oxford, and to make them Virginia was given with limited powers, surpass the present standing of those instituand Virginia holds a reversionary right to Mount Vernon should the Association violate tions in facilities and pecuniary advantages. its pledge to "keep and preserve the home and Let our citizens then, give the worth of emigrant grave of Washington" Therefore it can never and return tickets to institutions of learning, become the property of the general government. and send their sons and daughters there to be It came into our hands in a dilapidated condition ; it is now an honor to the Association. taught two years, instead slaving them dur-

In 1872 malicious persons made a series of ing that time in some western State, to return misrepresentation to the Governor and Legisweaker physically, mentally, pecuniarily and lect &c., of Mt. Vernon. The bequest urged morally.

North Carolinians, your representatives are among the most noble at Washington now: educate vour sons to take their places; if you do not, numbsculls, negroes or scallawags will take them.

C. W. C. Rutherford Coll., N. C.

PUBLIC INIQUITIES UNDER INVESTI-GATION. state that they found everything entirely cor

Sermon by Rev. T. De Witt Talmage.

The Brooklyn, New York, Tabernacle was recently. Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage continued imposed as tools and wharfage, as the only regular source of revenue opened to them the series of discourses on "Public Iniquities." regretted that the limited time at command taking for his text "O, thou man of God, there would not enable the Committee to prepare is death in the pot"-II Kings, iv., 40. and read to the Council the full report that

He said he wanted to go back of all public iniquity and find its hiding place. What are would be sent to the Governor of Virginia, but the sources of its hiding place. What are the he assured them that the Board had full consources of its power ? What are the caldrons fidence in the Association." The Grand Counfrom which these iniquities are dipped out? cil meets in May at Mt. Vernon to which are He believed an unhappy and disciplined home to be the source of a great deal of the iniquity and resident Superintendent. The principle the most part, come from undisciplined homes. and the sale to them of flowers, fruits, lunches Parents harsh and cruel on the one hand, and, and potographs is considerable. We greatly and they go to the same ruin ; at death their on the other, lenient to perfect looseness, rais- need an endownment fund, the interest of which A home in which scolding and fault finding sary expenses of keeping Mt. Vernon in a con-predominate is a blood relation to the gallows dition of perfect repair and also to relieve it and the penitentiary. Petulance is a reptile from the duty of charging an entrance fee. that may crawl up into the family nest and Many of the States were appealed to by the crush it. There are parents who disgust their Vice-Regents for aid and responded on the children even with religion. They scold 22nd of February. I have the honor to ac-their little ones for not loving God. Blessed is knowledge a handsome "Centennial offering the crushing weight of hopeless despair. I uxuries of this enlightened and enchristthe family altar where the children kneel. to Mt. Vernon" from the ladies of Asheville Blessed the cradle where the Christian mother on that day.

Will not the ladies in other parts of the rocks the Christian child. Blessed the song State select the the 20th of May to make a the little one sings at nightfall, when sleep the toy on the pillow. Blessed the mother's It is a beautiful sentiment in the heart heart whose every throb is a prayer to God for the American people, which prompts them to shake away .- Industrial Age. the salvation of her children. O father! O preserve the temple of our patriot, on his national day, but let us adopt the honored day of mother ! in which direction is our influence tending? I verily believe that three-fourths of the 20th of May when our forefathers took the the wickedness of the great city runs out rank initiatory steps towards that freedom which and putrid from undisciplined homes. Washington achieved for us.

Contributions may be sent to the National The second caldron of iniquity is an indo-Bank of Greensboro, or to MRS. LETITIA H. lent life. There are a great many young men coming to ou, city now with industrious habits. WALKER, Vice Regent for North Carolina, Leaksville, and yet they see in the city a great many men N. C.

Howerton by other houses by next mail. 1 wil hope that the interest in the place is reviving. gladly look up anything for you which I can. Do not hesitate to call on me. Yours most truly.

will regret their coming.

J. TURNER MOREHEAD. We hope other of our friends in New York and elsewhere will show the same zeal and willingness in ferreting out like frauds upon the Treasury of the State .- RAL. NEWS.

A MORTGAGE.

In the whole range of sacred and pro- and no perjured, bribe-stained, grinning, recorded which has such staying properties like Colfax. Ob, for a dwelling on Pataas a good healthy mortgage, A mortgage can be depended on to stick closer than a brother. It has a mission to perform which never lets up. Day after day it is right there, nor does the lature of Virginia as to the management, neg- vigor in the least. Night, and day, and at holiday times, without a moment's rest books, the mansion and the farm. Ou the 15th spring of its existence goes on. of May this committee, consisting of Judge Thomas, General Meem. General Fitzbugh Lee and Senator Burgis met the ladies of the Grand Council at Mt. Vernon and the extract will at once refute the charges. Judge Thomas said it "gave him great pleasure to inform them that the committee, of which he was the head, had examined carefully into the workings of the Association, and the financial ex- running on. hibits as shown them, and were prepared to sleep of some restless slumberer, the un- rest of the week; breaking the body of sees the nation robbed on every hand, and rect. He complimented them upon the successful pursuit of their labor of love and warm- paid morigage rears up its giant front in Christ in the sanctuary, and cracking the uses his power to protect the robbers crowded in every part at the forenoon services |y indorsed their action in regard to the charges perpetual torment to the miserable wight bones of their brethren in the office, mar- from punishment, is a national disgrace who is held within its miserable clutch. ket, shop and store; sipping the shed and had better be kept out of sight at such It holds the poor victim with the relent- blood of the Savior at the altar, and vam- a celebration. less grasp of a giant ; not a moment's eva- pirelike draining the last drop from the sion of its hideous presence. A genial hearts of the victimized fellows at the savage of mollifying aspect while the in- counter or desk. No bogus reform legisdestruction when the payments fail.

Other liabilities may be evaded or higger supreme court and law-grinding foully disgraces. smoothed aside; but a mortgage hangs menageries of baboons' grand-sons; no of the day. A good home is deathless in its source of revenue is from the steamer Arrow, on with the pertinacity of a bull dog, or satrap reconstructions; no pantry-rifling influences. Rascally and vagabond people, for which brings visitors from Washington daily, the grip of a blacksmith's vice. It the Beastie Butlers; no ulcerious, fiend ininterest is not paid it is added to swell its spired Leper Morton; no carrion tearing grim parent, the principal, and it holds Jackal Blaines; no blasphemy palsied, up its horrible front with a harder seem- hyena-froth-souled Brownlows; no lobby ing than before. It will have the pound liars and scrap-snatchers; no female days, when the hired men could not work of flesh which is nominated in the bond ; traffickers in legislative oaths, votes and out of doors, it would be found to be of and more terrible than the fearful witches souls; and no itchy handed, beggar's-brat, in Macbeth, the threatening fiend, Fores royalty-aping Grants and Dents. All closure, rears up its dreadful menauce with these are the home products, the peculiar > grim fiend in his household. Every a home where the Bengal tiger wooes his profitably done such times, and just so hour of his life is fraught with one intact dusky mate, with vibratory tail and junendurance of misery and dread, embitter- gle frighting serenade; - Where the Incoming on apace. The day of life will gudgeon, as her civilized-er sister does, soon be spent. The sun, though it may lies down and makes a savory fricassee be up in the mid heaven, will pass swiftly of herself amid the flames of her defunct down the western sky and disappear. one's funeral pyre:-Or where the Mada-

have no business, and yet they are better A DYING MAN'S HEROISM .- Superienten- sun of lite is gone down ? He must trav- court costume of two ostrich feathers, a dressed than industrious men and they seem to have more facilities for access to anusements. dent Fiint, of the Midland railroad, after a el on to the next world; but what shall palm-leaf fan and a string of shell-beads. have more facilities for access to aniusements. They have plenty of time to spare to hang around the hotels or lounge around the City around the hotels or lounge around the City around the hotels or lounge around the City around the more facilities for access to aniusements. The snow-plough and proceeded to clear fall of death, amid the darkness of his in peace, r. i. p. For though upon their The work of the Papuans and the more facilities for access to aniusements. Poisoned Arrows of the Papuans. The snow-plough and engine, which in peace, r. i. p. For though upon their Hall, their hands in their pockets, a toothpick the track. The snow-plough and engine, which in their mouth, waiting for some crumb to fall started half an hour in advance of the mail journey? What questions more impor- untaught ears yct never fell the twang of their implements of warfare are described from the office holders' table, or gazing at the train, had arrived at the trestle work crossing tant, more practical, more solemu, for school-marm's voice or thump of bible- in a private letter recently addressed to criminals as they come up in the morning from the Willowemoc, when, with a sudden crash, the station houses, jeering at them as they leap the whole expedition was precipitated twenty from the city van to the Court House steps. feet into the rocky bed of the stream below-Ah! I would as soon think of standing at the engine, snow-ploughs, rails and bridge timber gate of Greenwood Cemetery to enjoy a funeral in one confused mass. All escaped uninjured as to stand at the City Hall in the morning except Superintendent Flint. He was entangled when the city van drives up to look at the in the ruins. Held fast by the iron monster carcasses of men and women slain for both that had fallen across his lower extremities, wor ds. There industrious people see these enveloped in clouds of escaping steam, he was idlers standing about and wonder how they found by his companions, who endeavored to make their living. I wonder, too. They have extricate him from his perilous position ; but, plenty of money for riding; they have plenty though suffering agony, he rallied his ebbing of money to bet on the boat race and on the strength, and called out, "Stop that mail train!" horse race; they can discuss the flavor of wines; | Having said this, he died. The train was stophorse race; they can discuss the flavor of wines; they have the best seats at Booth's Theatre. But how do they get their money? There are just four ways of getting money—by inheritance, by earning it, by begging it, by stealing it. Now there are a great many people in our community who seem to have plenty of money, won his right to the title of hero. who did not inherit, and who did not earn it, A Dowden, President 1st National Bank; and Samuel Buck, President Millersburg Rant Number Demonstrania and who did not beg it; and I do not like to say how they got it. (Laughter.) There are men who get tired of the drudgery of life, and the ground in Arizona, weighing 2,200

is not sent to the State prison, and he lem. rapine and lust; - and you will find no parallel for the beasts that prowl and the should manifest his gratitude by paying Christians, who dispute the possession of deeds that are done in all our council. back the money.

Will not Mrs. Marsh come to our aid chambers, our social halls and the temples of our God. They have no pillage made in enforcing this advice? If her husband been heard in the building since the day would have been, as she expressed it, a when the Sultan Saladin entered the city millionairey senators like Harland, Sherman, Chandler, and Cameron; no fugitive pig not to make any presents in return for n the twelfth century. stool pigeon and swindlers' decoy-duck a post tradership, will he not be a hog to blackleg foreign ministers like Schenck; keep the money belonging to the poor soldiers ?-N. Y. Sun.

fane literature, perhaps, there is nothing Sunday-school harangning vice presidents Isn't Anxions to hear Grant's Centennial gonian's frigid shores, where shaggyhaired Goliaths welcome the shipwrecked stranger to warm and spacious soup ket-TO THE EDITOR OF THE SUN-Sir : tles, and each hapless guest supplies the see by your paper that Mr. Grant is to shin-bones for his hospitable entertainers' make a speech at the Centennial opening. slightest tendency to slumber impair its broth. Oh, for an arbor of gourd-vines Now, as a citizen of Philadelphia, deeply on the torrid banks of Nyanza's or interested in the success of the Centennial. Ngami's flood, where the gentle bushman I respectfully beg the Commission to refor sickness or recreation, the biting off- dines on his grandmother and nibbles consider its invitation to the President, vermin for desserts. Benighted and and to ask him, out of respect to all till night, will, perhaps, not be deterred The seasons may change, days run in- beastial devil-worshippers as they are, honest and respectable people, to stay to weeks, weeks into months, and months they have no whited-sepulcher, pharisaic away from Philadelphia.

be swallowed up into the gray man of Beechers and Havens, saintly guide posts His presence at a celebration of national zen fast to the window-pane one day last advancing years, but that mortgage on the turnpike to perdition, preaching progress I should consider a deep humilstands up in sleepless vigilance, with the heaven and practicing hell. No long jation. I know a good many citizens and bave the tip of it amputated. Nevertheinterest, a perrenuial stream, ceaselessly faced hypocrites groaning over other neighbors of mine, who believe with me less, the affair cast the radiance of a promen's sins in amen corners Sunday, and that this vulgar man, whose ideas are the found joy over the entire neighborhood .--Like a huge nightmare eating out the dabbling in multifarious villainy all the ideas which govern highwaymen, who Brooklyn Argus.

PHILADELPHIAN. PHILADELPHIA, March 28.

Speech

Or, if he will go, let him risc not to terest is paid ; a very devil of hopeless latures; no Louisiana Pinchback and explain-not to congratulate the American operation, and they will soon leave the Kellogg hellionism; no South Carolina people, but-to resign the place he so

If farmers would keep a slate hanging ip in their barns or work-shops, with a pencil attached by a string, so as to note down work to be done on rainy or stormy great advantage. Have it understood to be referred to for orders, so that if you There are scores of things that can be Gawge.' much time saved in good weather. All the wagons and carriages can be greased, of ed with a grievous load he is powerlee to dian mother tosses her chocolate colored the harness oiled and repaired, the axes, hoes and spades ground or cleaned, floors of barns or outhouses cleaned or repaired, tools or implements repaired or painted.

with sulphur if fowls are lousy, cellars loss of time. Farmers, keep a slate and make a note of what work can be done at such times .- Rurald World.

each reader of our journal to ask himself ? mauler's fist, they are blessed with over- Dr. Hooker. The writer says that no

A NEW PAPER -Jas. H. Enniss & Co. will soon commence in this city the publication of "The North Carolina Far. mer," a Monthly Journal of Agriculture, Horticulture and Domestic Economy. It will be a 16 page quarto and full of practical information for the farmer, gardener and the housekeeper. Price $1.00 per year.-Ral. News.

People who sit at their front windows and stare at their neighbors from morning by the fact that a south Brooklyn woman. in this line of business, had her nose fro-

week, and was subsequently obliged to

If you are troubled with rats get at the Drug Store some crude potash and put it in their runaways and hiding holesthe potash will stick to their feet, and disliking that, they will try to lick it off, and will get their tongues burnt by the premises in disgust. At least so says one who pretends to know how it is him-

> LOVE'S YOUNG DREAM. St. Louis Times.

They were sitting together on the banks of the Chattachoochee, like two ebony images, he staring vacuity out of countenance, and she resting her raven crimps on his heaving shoulder. "Miles away that whenever a rain comes, the slate is from hyar," she fondly murmered, "where de buffomolo rips and ta'rs and frows are away from home, the work can go on. dirt at the settin' sun, dar's whar we'll go

> Gawge's lips moved not, neither did he utter any work, but the whites of his eyes repeated, "Dar's whar we'll go."

The Nashville American, speaking of the death of the Atlanta (Ga.) Herald, bee hives, chicken coops and other things says : "The Herald's suspension sup-The evening of every man's days is flourish of her grief to catch a second made, hen houses cleaned or fumigated ports the proposition we have heretofore advanced, that to each city of not less cleaned, apples and potatoes assorted, and than 35,000 population, only one daily all such work be done and without the journal can have reasonable hope of remanerative existence. One daily to ever 40,000 of population is about the newspaper supporting capacity of the largest and most prosperous cities. Its surviving rival had an older existence and more permanent good will, for papers long established seem to have a marvelous tenacity of life."

Pity for the poor man who has the tianed vankeediddledoodle land. Oh, for cherub to the crocodilian god :- Where the Hindoo widow, instead of drawing a $10 000 policy on her dead husband's life and setting out with ostentatious

What shall light up man's path when the gascar belle receives her suitors, in a full

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, have this day formed a co-partnership for the purpose of purchasing and selling real estate in the States of Virginia and North Carolina, and respectfully ask all persons who have Real Estate for sale, including water powers, &c ... to place it in our hands.

We advertise generally throughout the North and Northwestern States.

> J. W. MCKINSEY, D. F. MELLEN.

By permission we respectfully refer to Messrs, W. S. Patton, Sons & Co., Bankers; Maj. W. T. Sutherlin and W. T. Clark & Co., Danville, Va.: Hon, G. C. Cabbell, member of Congress, Danville, Va.; T. W. Keen, Salisbury; Sutherlin & Johnson, Charlotte, Dr. John Robeson, Statesville, N. C.; and they see these prosperous idlers, and they consort with them, and they learn the same tricks

Address, Danville, Va.; Chatham, Pittsyl vania county, Va.; or Millersburg, Dauphin county, Penn.

Danville, Va., December 8th, 1875. 10:3mo;pd

Cheap Chattel Mortgages, and varios other blanks for sale hers thankfully receive it. pounds. Silver is getting so common we have concluded that if we cannot have departure causing no more mourning than is something better than silver plaited hanfelt for the fast horse they founder and kill by dles on the coffin that we won't have any fold or by the forge, when you can get your of foreign consuls.

of Chapel Hill. - News.

That is a long journey to travel without running cups of negative felicity. They man leaves his dwelling, for his bit of a friend, yet every man must perform it. have no sanctimonious old women snivel- cultivation even, without his powerful were organized by four printers. Frank-The time is not far distant when all men ing over the fly-specks on some sister's bambco bow and a few deadly poisoned lin, Holt, Goddard, and Hazzard, July, will begin the journey. There is an fair escutcheon, and utterly blind to the arrows. These poisoned arrows are only 1775. Congress appointed Franklin the evening star in the natural world. Its whole half acre of swill tub splotches on a few among a great number not poisoned, first Postmaster-General, with a salary of radiance is bright and beautiful, and their own. No sanctified old she pickle the former being distinguished by elabor- $1,000, residence in Philadelphia, and cheering to the benighted traveler, but jars raising their skinny paws in holy ate carving and painting, probably to pre- instructions to establish posts from Fallife's evening star is a good hope of horror at some young girl's gliling vent accident among themselves. They mouth, New England, to Savannah, Ga., heaven. Its beauty and brilliancy are through the graceful mazes of a cotillion, are each pointed and barbed with human with cross posts, and rates twenty per reflected from the Sun of Righteousness, or venturing into a circus.tent to see the bone brought to almost needle-like sharp- cent. below the old Parliamentary charges, whose bright rays light up the evening of giasentus, hippopotamus and wollapus; ness, most carefully and neatly finished : The Secretary and Comptroller got $340 life, and throw their radiance quite across and in the next half moment, retailing they are poisoned by plunging in a hu-each.

eternity. It is of priceless value. A fold sharper than their needles. No sim- blood poisoning that, like other kinds of who has got to go all around the country thousand woulds cannot purchas eit ; yet pering, giggling meeting house flirts, inoculation, does not develop itself for to collect his pay, to a farmer who sells it is offered without money and without dazzling the watery eyes of soft-skulled several days, the slightest scratch being his wheat on credit, and not more than a the ground in Arizona, weighing 2,200 price, to him who will penitently and whipper-snappers, counter-hopping man- sufficient to render almost inevitable a bashel to any person. If any farmer will ikins, leaded-witted fly-up-the-creeks. horrible death. The systoms are accom- try the experiment of distributing the pro-No bare-shouldered, promiscously-hugged panied by violent spasms like tetanus, ceeds of his labor over two or three counts Among the visitors to the Methodist ball-room or watering-place belles with with consciousness until the last .- Na- ties, with an additional one in two or three Centennial in this city was that veteran hearts as empty as their souls, and ture.

The first postal system of the colonies distant States for one year, we will guars too hasty watering at "Tunison's." The mul-titudes of those who get their living by sleight-of hand is multiplying. What is the use of working in the store, office, shop, on the scaf-nov for it.

false calves, false curls, false teeth, false once.