

THE HANDS THAT CAN MAKE GOOD BREAD.

You may talk to me of accomplished girls with hands as white as the lily...

There are hands that are skillful with pencil and brush...

There are hands that can play the piano with ease...

We have industries enough in a world like this...

From the Summit Courier.

AN OLD MAN'S MAXIMS.

1. Tell not your secrets to your friends, for fear your friends become your foes...

2. Deal with every man as an honest man, and every man as a rogue...

3. Early to bed and early to rise makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise.

4. Tell the truth on all occasions, for once you become a known liar...

5. Mind your own business and let other people's alone...

6. Never keep company with a girl in private, that you would be ashamed of in public.

7. Never promise a girl what you do not intend to perform.

8. Never marry but for love, but be sure you love that that is lovely, (love loving).

9. Love covers a multitude of faults.

10. Pretty is as pretty does, for beauty is but skin deep.

11. All ladies are entitled to a decent respect from all well bred gentlemen.

12. When you intend to choose your husbands, beware of four men...

13. The first night after you are married, you must make two bargains with your husband...

14. The great and grand cause of any difficulty between man and wife...

15. Never pretend to be any more than what you are.

16. If you wish to keep your credit up pay your money down.

17. Honor and honesty are the best of policy.

HE WON HIS CASE.

Alexander Stephens, of Georgia, tells this story: A Dr. Royston doubtless a most excellent man...

"I WISH I HAD CAPITAL."

A groat strapping young man exclaims the other day in our office...

During the week it is expected that a sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Pritchard of Raleigh.

That an address will be delivered by the Hon. Alfred Waddell the member of Congress from the Wilmington District...

A Memorial Oration by Ex-Gov. Vance on the life and services of the late Governor David L. Swain...

COMMENCEMENT AT THE UNIVERSITY.

We are pleased to learn that the Exercises at the approaching commencement...

Shame upon you, young man! Go to work with the capital you have...

Then, don't stand about like a great helpless child, waiting for some one to come in and feed you...

THE TRUE CINDERELLA.

Many of the best stories in our story-books are the reproduction of some very ancient bit of history or myth...

We will tell you how it happened; and we think that you will say that the old story is quite as clever as the new...

Rodolphe—a pretty name, to begin with—was the fairest lady in all Egypt.

She went out to bath one day among the white lilies of the Nile.

And the maids were sporting in the water, a great shadow passed over them...

When Rodolphe came up the bank, she found that one of her jewelled slippers had been carried away...

And the maids said, "Then it will bring you good luck. The eagle is a bird of good omen."

Far away, up the Nile, lay Memphis, with her bright-winged temples and palaces...

His name was Psammetichus. His son, the Pharaoh Necho, slew Josiah, King of Judah...

He was sitting in a cool portico of his palace toward evening.

He looked up, and beheld with delight and awe an eagle descending...

He lifted his arms for joy. Just then the eagle began to ascend...

It was Rodolphe's jewelled slipper.

Then, in rapid declamation, he named case after case, well known, but mostly among the negro servants...

"Then knock a pane of glass out and knock out another pane, then he was able to sleep...

A Ventilating Joke.—They have a good joke on a "professor of ventilation" down East...
