Liberal Club last evening a physician's For sale by Theo. F. Kluttz, Resolved, That his family have our sincerest view of death, his subject being "The Physiology of Death." The history of death embraces three periods, the fabulous, the superstitous, and the philosophical. The fabulous period was in mythological times, in which death was personified as the came and cut off life from the whole body at once. Ours is the philosophical age.

The lecturer had experimented on dogs, to discover the order of time in which the senses die. To one dog he gave arsineous acid. The second died instantly upon his introducing a needle into the medulia oblongata; and the third he bled to death. In the last, the order of death was, sight, taste, smell, hearing, touch ; which estab. lished the fact that the senses disappear
