

See Col. C. S. Brown's ad.

Gen. Tom Thumb breakfasted in the same time to aid in this great enterprise.

The girls look rather lazy like and wear their shoes.

A terrible tornado passed over a part of the city of Chicago, last week, destroying property to the estimated value of $200,000.

The little communication headed "Lines" was put on the outside through mistake.

We acknowledge the receipt of invitations to attend the Commencement Exercises of Davidson College, and Carolina Military Institute.

The Salisbury Silver Cornet Band, so well known, are engaged to play at the Commencement exercises at Chapel Hill, commencing on the 31st inst.

People are beginning to feel like soaring up to some kule scody mountain and spending their heat, but the Drug Stores have not opened yet, O, how long!

Mr. George B. Ennis now fills the position of city Editor for the News. George was raised by our side in this city and we know him to be a clever fellow. We welcome him with a fraternal embrace, and wish him abundant success.

We return thanks to D. H. B. for the invitation to attend the Leap year hop to be given by the young ladies of Raleigh, at Tucker Hall, on the evening of the 19th inst. We regret we cannot be there to enjoy the occasion.

A PROTRACTED MEETING is now going on at the Methodist church in this place, under the management of the pastor, Rev. L. W. CRAWFORD, assisted, occasionally by Rev. J. REMPLE, of the Presbyterian church.

LOOK HERE.—We have a great many goods that have accumulated on our hands and must be sold. They are handsome and desirable and you can buy them at your own price. Come and see them for we mean business.

News.

Indeed we will, and obliged to you we are, for saying so. We'll hold up our reputation as Mr. Howard stated it to the Grand Lodge, see if we don't.

Ye lovers, take heed, with much diligence, we beseech you, peruse the poem headed Courtship. It is rich, rare and racy, and gives you many a little hint which other words would have escaped your attention and you would have gone on courting and being kidded times without number. Now you have only to read and proceed. May success crown your efforts. Without any reflection on the author, we would respectfully suggest that he is a goner, his day of grace has past and we say, farewell, for he is irreparably lost.

MATCH GAME.—The Base Ball match game between the Gold Hill Club and the "Surprise" of this place, which took place on the 13th inst., resulted in a victory for the former. The score stood, Gold Hill 21, Surprise 14.

A Surprise player says he believes his Club would have been victorious had not the ladies gone back on them, so f'w witnessed the game. The ladies are always expected to, press in—no invitations at all.

PRESENTATION.

The Rowan Rifle Guard had a flag presented to them on Friday evening last by Misses Eugenia E. Rousee and Hattie Gordon. It was a beauty. A fac-simile of the Aute Bellou Flag.

MEETING OF TOWN COMMISSIONERS.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, May 15, 1876. Present, R. H. Broadfield, Mayor, and Messrs. Kerr, Craig, A. L. Clarke, J. A. Snider, E. H. Marsh, M. L. Holmes, T. C. McNeely, Alexander Parker, and T. F. Klutz, Commissioners.

Moses L. Aray was elected Town Constable and Tax Collector. Ordered, That one Chief of Police at a salary of thirty dollars per month, and three assistants at twenty-five dollars per month, each, be elected.

ODD FELLOWS—BANQUET AT THE NATIONAL.

Last week the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows met in Raleigh, and had a most pleasant and harmonious meeting. The streets of the city of harks were thronged with fellow odd, and as the shank of the day advanced they gathered like martins around the door of the National, chatting, laughing and spending merrily the soft, mellow hours of the fading twilight.

A DISAPPOINTED DOG.

Philip Hamilton told a more beautiful story than the following: "A dog was bereaved of his master, and became old and blind, passing the dark evenings of his existence sadly in some corner, which he hardly ever quitted. One day came a step like that of his master and he suddenly left his place. The man had just entered wore ribbed stockings; the old dog had lost his scent and referred at once to the stockings that he remembered rubbing his face against. Believing his master had returned after those weary years of absence, he gave way to the most extravagant delight. The man spoke, the momentary illusion was dispelled; the dog went sadly back to his place, lay down wearily and died."

THE CONFEDERATE HOUSE.

The North Carolinian following in the footsteps of the Yankee Radical newspapers, designates the "Confederate House," as the "Confederate House."

THE TRUTH.

Pinchback, one of the most prominent negro politicians, said in the late Convention of colored men at Nashville, Tennessee: "If we consolidate the white people of this section together, or any other section of it, against the black man and make it an issue, there is no question about it. There once belonged to this very land a race that for chivalry and daring, for true valor and courage, has not an equal on the face of the globe."

A FEW QUESTIONS.

In consideration of State aid having been voted by the Legislature to the North Carolina University at Chapel Hill, is not each county in the State entitled to have one Student taught in that institution free of tuition? We understand that is the law; and if so, how many such students are there now in the University, and which counties are represented and which not? We ask for information and for the benefit of such young men as may wish to take advantage of the free tuition rate.

AN APPEAL TO PARENTS.

Parents, do you love your children? Then preserve their health. Next to the blessing of life it is the enjoyment of perfect health. How many are stricken down in their infancy almost without a moment's notice by that insidious disease, Croup, simply through the neglect to be provided with the proper remedy? The tender parent is nipped and withers ere it blooms.

COURTSHIP.

Sometimes you saw a girl, Who was very pretty and fair; She had a little round face, And very long black hair. Hurrah! for the long black hair. And she's the girl that took my eye, I saw her in daylight; I tell you boys, without a lie, I courted her about right. Hurrah! for the courtship sight. She was a very solemn girl, Sometimes, I heard her singing; But still she was so awful grave, I seldom caught her grinning. Hurrah! for a little grinning. The reason why I loved her so, Perhaps you all can guess; For I presume you all do know, That first love is the best. Hurrah! for the first love. The first time I went to see her, She was very near alone; But I sat about and waited, For I might be hurried on. Hurrah! for that night's fun. I talked with her pretty long that night, And as well as I remember; Before she left me in the room, A kiss she did surrender. Hurrah! for the kissing spree. Next morning I went to my room, Perhaps I went to drinking; But one thing sir I really know, I did my part of thinking. Hurrah! for the thinking spree. And what do you think I thought about? With few words I can tell; I thought about my darling girl, The one I loved so well. Hurrah! for my darling girl. But sometime after all of this, This tender love grew cold; And then my darling girl did miss, My presence to behold. Farewell! Miss &c.

A Widely Applicable Remedy.

Few remedies are applicable to such a wide range of disorders as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and this not because it has special properties adapted to the cure of each—such a pretense would be manifestly absurd—but on account of its wonderfully improving effect upon the general tone of the system, and its alterative action upon the organs of nutrition, secretion and discharge.

A FLOWER THAT CHANGES ITS COLOR.

Botany is a division of natural science which treats of plants, and a study of Vegetable Physiology must be the foundation of botanical knowledge—a study only possible by the improvements in the microscope and in organic chemistry. As plants are not scattered haphazardly over the earth, botanical geography must be studied, and, with this, plant-history. Botany may be applied to the wants of every-day life, as in Agriculture, Horticulture, or Medical Botany.
