Platform of the Democratic Party in North Carolina Adopted by the Democratic State Convention at Raleigh, on 14th June, 1876.

WHEREAS, The republican party of the United States, for the last sixteen years, has had the complete control of the government in all its departments, and by its disregard of Constitutional limitations; by its unequal and oppressive taxation; by its extravagant and wasteful expenditures; by its unwise and mischievous financial policy; by its unexampled official corruption pervading all branches of its administration—has brought disgrace upon our government and unparalleled distress upon our people; therefore Resolved, 1. That in this centennial year of our existence, we invite all patriots to ignore all dead issues, to disregard the prejudices engendered by the past events, and to unite with us in the effort to restore a constitutional, honest, economical and pure administration of the government, and thus promote the general welfare and happiness of the country.

Resolved, 2. That we earnestly and cordially recommend the adoption, by the people, of the amendments to the Constitution proposed by the Convention of 1875, and thus largely reduce the expenditures of our State and county governments and simplify their administration, so that we may be enabled to establish a thorough and enlarged system of public schools for the benefit of all the citizens of the State.

Resolved, 3. That notwithstanding our repeated disappointments and impoverished condition, we still cherish the North Carolina project so long labored for by Morehead, Saunders, Fisher, Wm. H. Thomas, and others, of uniting the harbors of Beaufort and Wilmington with the great West, and for the completion of the Western North Carolina Railroad to Paint Rock and Dicktown, and of our unfinished railroads, we pledge the continued use of the convict labor of the State, and of such other judicious legislative aid as will secure the completion of these great State works at the earliest practicable period.

Resolved, 4. That the people of North Carolina now have it in their power, by an earnest, determined and united effort, to relieve our people from the evils of republican misrule, extravagance and corruption, and restore the prosperity of our State.

Resolved, 5. That we denounce official corruption wherever found, and we hold honesty to be the first and highest qualification for office.

Train Stealing at Lynchburg, Va., July 10, was more successful than in this State: it was loaded with cattle and the thief took them to Richmond and sold out, making a cash "raise" of $1,200. The Cubans repulsed a Spanish attack recently, with fearful loss to the assailants.

The 30th Senatorial District Nomination.

The name of Mr. John S. Henderson, having been somewhat freely used, during the last few weeks, in connection with the nomination for State Senator from the Counties of Rowan and Davie, we are authorized by that gentleman to state, that he has no aspirations for the position, and that there are personal reasons, which would prevent his accepting the nomination, if it should be tendered to him.

The above announcement is made by request, and we know it will be read by many with a feeling of remonstrance. Thinking men all over the county have had Mr. Henderson in mind for months as an eminently fit man to represent Rowan and Davie in the Senate, and we are assured that the county of Davie is in full accord with this feeling, divided it may be, between Mr. H. and his able contemporary, Kerr Craigie, Esq. Either of these gentlemen would receive as cordial support in that county as they would in Rowan. Each has their respective friends here, and although both have signified either privately or publicly that they do not desire a nomination, we do not consider that that constitutes a reason why the people should drop them. The office should seek the man, not the man the office, and in this view of the matter, the people should insist on carrying out the programs of this Centennial year, and select their ablest and best men to fill the offices. The careful attention which Mr. Henderson has bestowed on the proposed Constitutional Amendments eminently qualify him to discuss this subject before the people. We suppose there is not a man in Western North Carolina who is so well prepared as he for this work, and it is the most important State matter to come before the people this Fall. We trust, therefore, that the friends of State reformer in this county will throw on Mr. Henderson the responsibility of refusing to serve them at a time when his services are urgently demanded.

North Carolina Republican Nominations

RALEIGH, N. C., July 13.—The Republican State Convention. Judge Thomas Settle, of the Supreme Court, was nominated for Governor; Hon. W. A. Smith, of Johnson, for Lieutenant-Governor; and J. W. Albertson, of Perquimans, for Secretary of State. The old Auditor, John Reilly, was renominated by acclamation. The other nominations made were W. H. Wheeler, of Forsythe, for Treasurer; Taswell Hargrove, for Attorney-General; Rev. J. C. Carson, of Henderson, for Superintendent of Public Instructions. Judge Russell of Brunswick and J. H. Dockery of Richmond were appointed Electors at Large. J. T. Young, Internal Revenue Collector, was nominated for Congress from this district.

PROVIDENCE TOWNSHIP CONVENTION.

There will be a Convention of the Conservative party of Providence Township held at the Hatter Shops at 9 o'clock, P. M., on Saturday the 5th day of August to appoint Delegates to the Democratic county Convention to be held in Salisbury on the 26th of August.

Also recommend a choice of candidates to be run for the various county offices at the next election and to appoint delegates to the Senatorial Convention to be held at Ford's Mills, the last Saturday in September.

The Campbell Perfecting Printing and Folding Press on exhibition at the Centennial in Philadelphia, is certainly one of the greatest mechanical achievements in the world. It turns out 30,000 newspapers, printed on both sides and folded, each sheet with two folds, in one hour—500 in one minute—about 8 1/2 every second. There is also a counting attachment to this press, so that the sheets are delivered in neat piles ready counted. This is about 120 times faster than ordinary hand-press printing.

The Republican State Ticket fails to give entire satisfaction. We have heard of at least two respectable men of the party here who have denounced it as a miserable failure, and predicted that it would be utterly defeated. Col. W. S. Pearson, of Morganton, another strong man of the party, we see by the Charlotte Observer has declared he will not support it. He is particularly opposed to Smith, whom he accuses of evil things.

The Granites are becoming more desperate every day. They are now mutilating records to prevent the discovery of frauds. Grant has ordered the re-instatement of the men Bristol turned out of office, and in every way in his power is trying to perpetuate Grantism after his term shall expire.

Some wise men at the North, with records for comparison, we suppose, has announced that the present heated term has been longer and more severe than any we have had in the last 90 years. It has proved fearfully fatal in the cities north, and even in Canada.

The reformers in Congress succeeded in saving about $11,000,000 on the Sanitary Civil bill, the Senate having proceeded from its opposition.

Grant is trying to capture Indiana for Hayes, but it is said he has turned out and put into office the wrong men to do it.

TOWNSHIPS IN CONVENTION.

The Township Executive Committees of Rowan County met at the Court-House on Saturday last for the purpose of harmonizing their organizations with a view to greater efficiency. The Chairman of the County Executive Committee being absent.

On motion of Mr. G. A. Bingham, Jos. A. Hawkins was called to preside. Mr. John S. Henderson explained the object of the meeting.

Every Township except Atwell's was duly represented. Mr. J. J. Stewart submitted the following resolutions, which after discussion, were adopted:

Resolved, That the present County Executive Committee be authorized to increase their number to seven, if they think proper—and that the present Township Executive Committees be authorized to increase their number to five—and that both the County Executive Committee and the Township Executive Committees have power to fill vacancies in their respective bodies.

Resolved, That the Executive Committee of each Township be requested to organize a Tilden and Vance club, and actively endeavor to get as many of the voters of the Township to join it as possible.

Resolved, That the Executive Committee of each Township prepare a private registration list for each voting precinct, containing the names of all the voters in their respective Townships, and that they have these books at the polls on the day of election and that they see to it that all the voters be brought to the polls.

Resolved, That the Executive Committee of the respective Townships of Rowan do most earnestly recommend to the people of this county that they attend the township meetings.

Resolved, That we do most earnestly recommend the great importance of harmony among our friends. That Conservatives of each Township have at least one mass meeting.

Resolved, That each Township elect delegates to the Senatorial District Convention at the regular Township meeting.

Maj. N. F. Hall, in a stirring speech declared himself in favor of thorough organization, with forcible and impressive words pointing out the necessity for it.

While gentlemen were preparing resolutions Mr. J. G. Fleming also addressed the meeting, and recommended frequent meetings of the Executive Committee.

Mr. J. S. McCubbin offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we will use every effort in our power to bring every Conservative vote to the polls, and that we will canvass our respective neighborhoods to bring about this result.

Mr. Bost offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the action of this meeting so far as it affects the action of Townships in Conventions be considered only as suggestive.

Maj. N. F. Hall submitted the following:

Resolved, That we recommend that the Senatorial Convention be held at Ford's Mill on the 1st Saturday in September.

Adopted: These various propositions elicited more or less discussion which brought out the sentiment and feeling of the committees, all of which were highly encouraging to the friends of the Democratic Conservative cause.

The proceedings were ordered to be published in the town papers, and the meeting adjourned without day, with the general understanding it was subject to the call of the Chairman of the County Executive Committee.

VANCE ON BILLY SMITH.

"They told me," said Vance, "that Smith charged last night I ran away from Raleigh on a backbeared mule—Well, I confess I did have, but I left on a horse and retired in good order. Smith was in Johnston, and had lost his horn, and couldn't get his dogs up, and what was I to do but run for it? There was no one to signal the enemy's approach. [Roars of laughter.]

"Give it to him!" yelled the crowd. "No; I cannot do it, gentlemen; Bill Smith was my right-hand man during the war. He was the fiercest officer after conscripts and deserters I had, and helped me weed out the red stragglers. No, I can't do it. I feel like the Irishman when he killed his pet pig, and held it up by the tail, while his son held the axe to knock it in the head, 'kill 'im easy; 'buz his feels nigh to me.'"—Raleigh News.

GOV. VANCE'S APPOINTMENTS.

Gov. Vance and Gen. Jas. M. Leach will address their fellow citizens at the following places and times: Rutherfordton, Rutherford Co., Tuesday, July 25th. Columbus, Polk Co., Wednesday July 26th. Hendersonville, Henderson Co., Thursday, July 27th. Asheville, Buncombe Co., Friday July 28th.

Gov. Vance will speak at the following points: Marshall, Madison Co., Monday July 31st. Burnsville, Yancey Co., Wednesday Aug. 2nd. Bakersville, Mitchell Co., Thursday, Aug. 3rd. Boone, Watauga Co., Saturday, Aug. 5th.

Jefferson, Ashe Co., Monday Aug. 7th. Wilkesboro, Wilkes Co., Wednesday, Aug. 9th. Taylorsville, Alexander Co., Thursday, Aug. 10th.

Western papers will please copy. Let Grant take his heavy hand off the South. Of our soldiers we may say in his honor. Richard III said to Stanley: "What do they in the South when they should serve their country in the West? Why should Mississippi be strongly garrisoned while troops are wanted to fight Grant in Dakota and all that region which is now threatened with a long, cruel, and possibly a disastrous war?"—N. Y. Herald.

PERSONAL GOVERNMENT.

The New York Herald of the 15th concludes a leading editorial as follows: "The country shows a profound dissatisfaction, not with Grant alone, but with the Republican party, and more especially with the Senate. It is well enough for Grant to treat the party as a sack of oranges, but why should the Republican leaders permit it? That is the astonishing question. If the Senate were to say 'check' to Grant to-morrow, his game of Caesarism would stop. But no one has the courage to do so. Unless it is stopped, and the Washington government shows some respect for the rights of the people—unless we have an end of this personal government—Hayes and Wheeler will be defeated by as large a majority as Scott and Graham or Greeley and Brown.

Squeezing Women's Thumbs.

Some of the radical press are charging that Vance during the war had women's thumbs put under the fance and squeezed to make them tell where their husbands were. Vance met this charge as follows yesterday: "The man with a bled shirt on who makes that charge in my presence I will make him swallow the lie. An infamous liar. [Pause]—the crowd cheered. 'The man who says I ever squeezed a woman's thumb or squeezed her in any other way against her consent.'"

He couldn't finish the sentence for cheers and roars of laughter.

An opportunity is presented Gov. Brogden, in filling the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench, caused by the resignation of Judge Settle, to reflect some credit upon the close of his weak but partisan administration. This Gov. Brogden can do by the appointment of J. M. McCorkle, Esq., of Salisbury, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.—Statesville Landmark.

A very good suggestion.

Gov. Vance and his Correspondents. We are requested by Gov. Vance to say that owing to his constant absence from home, he finds it impossible to answer the many letters he is daily receiving. He desires his correspondents who have written inviting him to speak at different points, to know that he cannot comply with their requests in the manner and at the times they suggest. That as far as possible he intends to canvass the entire State, but to do so successfully will have to operate on a system revised by himself in conjunction with his associates on the ticket, and the Executive Committee. This plan, when devised, will be rigidly adhered to, and he will leave to deny himself the pleasure of meeting friends who have or may invite him especially.—Char. Observer.

A Delegate and his Washerwoman.

It actually occurred yesterday at one of the hotels between a white radical delegate and a negro washerwoman:

Washerwoman—"You owe me 20 cents for washin' for you, when you here at Federal Court."

Delegate—"Well, if I do, I ain't goin' to pay it."

"If you don't I'll foller you to de train, an' holler at you ebery toub ab' d'way to pay me dat money you owes me."

"Well, here's a dollar bill; go an' get the change. (To landlady, as negro goes out): 'I wish all the niggers were in Africa!'"

Landlady—"Why they put you in the office you hold?"

Delegate ncm. He just remembered it.

VANCE AT THE WINDOW.

The crowd called uproariously for Gov. Vance on his arrival here yesterday. He stepped to the balcony window of the Yarbrough House and looked down on the crowd below and said: "My friends, I thank you for this exhibition of your kindness, but I cannot make a speech now, and you must not draw my fire in advance. I came on an snake-killing expedition, but I don't propose to kill any until to-morrow." The crowd yelled.—Raleigh News.

Paying for Convicts.—Bring on the revenue. Maj. D. R. Duncan, President of the Spartanburg and Asheville Road, came down Wednesday and paid to the Board of Directors for the Penitentiary fourteen hundred and eighty dollars for use of convict labor for the last three months.

NEWARK, N. J., July 13.—Three young German brothers Fiechern, desperate characters, were arrested and drew revolvers and shot one officer dead, and another fatally, and escaped to the shop from which they had been discharged where they commenced an indiscriminate firing, killing one and wounding two. The workmen turned out en masse and drove the murderers toward the river with stones and knives. They leaped into the river and were stoned to death by the enraged workmen. One of the wounded workmen is dead.

Eloping Party Arrested.

The white girl, Sarah Jane Summers, who eloped with the negro, Bill Wilson, from the home of her father in North Trede-ll, was arrested last Saturday in Ireland county, and lodged in Statesville jail until her father can come after her. The negro saw the Sheriff 400 or 500 yards distant, and ran, making his escape. The girl says he "tricked" her, gave her an apple and said "come on," and she felt that she was bound to go. The girl reports that she and her paramour have been to Charlotte. This being the case, Mr. Packet, who lives 11 miles from here, and who reports having seen the couple, pass his house last Monday afternoon, was no doubt right in supposing the parties to be this Summers girl and Wilson.

Gov. Vance will divide time with Judge Settle in the appointments in herto announced.

THAT LETTER AT LAST.

At last Mr. HAYES and his assistants have completed the letter of acceptance upon which he and they have been engaged for three weeks. It has been hard work for him and for them. He obtained advice about it from Washington by telegraph; he procured more advice about it in Philadelphia, during his late visit there; he had further advice about it from St. Louis, and we cannot tell how many other places. Many hands have been engaged upon it; and it has probably been subjected to more revision than any other letters of acceptance ever written. He could not rely upon himself in a case in which there was so much danger of going astray. A word might have been disastrous to him; a blundering sentence might have wrought his ruin. There were many interests which he dared not offend; there were many men whom it was necessary for him to conciliate. It was, therefore, very proper for him to be cautious about the language to which he subscribed, and to be self-distrustful at the opening of his career as a Presidential candidate.

As soon as he has announced his acceptance of the nomination, he takes up the Cincinnati platform, leaps over the first four planks of it, and lands upon the fifth, which relates to appointments to office. Here he sings the old song, without giving any hope of the adoption of a sound and wise method of action. All parties, he says, up to this time, have adopted the system of spoils, and he might have added that the Republican party, under Grant, have carried this system to an extent never before heard of. Mr. HAYES of course expresses his disapproval of the system. We do not know of anybody who would express approval of it. He holds that office-holders should hold their offices as long as they properly perform their duties; and this of course means, in fact, that the whole existing body of office-holders shall keep their places in case of Gov. HAYES's election.

Mr. HAYES then steps off the platform long enough to say that he will positively refuse a second term of the Presidency.

He next takes up and approves the financial plank of the platform; and then proceeds to ramble around the platform, without regard to the order of planks or of principles, touching on the school question, the Southern question, and the prospects of our country.

He has nothing whatever to say about the reform of the hideous corruption and the gigantic political evils under which the country is groaning, and from which the people are suffering.

He has evidently taken the telegraphic advice that was offered him to say nothing for or against Grantism. He does not even allude to that part of his platform which endorses Grant and Grantism.

It is a weak letter, notwithstanding the fact that so many politicians have assisted him in getting it up. Mr. HAYES is not the man for the times, not the Reformer needed by the country.—N. Y. Sun.

New York Herald: Mr. Hayes has virtually said to the eighty thousand office holders, "If I am elected, you will retain your places; if Tilden is elected you will lose them."

The World calls Hayes the Cabinet candidate, and says: "Its members can make it certain that all the pledges shall be in the interest of Grantism, and that in the event of success none of the pets of the present administration shall be disturbed, not even the brothers-in-law and safe-burglary conspirators."

NORTH CAROLINA FOR GOLD.

New Mines Opened Near Thomasville—Northern Capitalist in Market—Trading for Gold Mines on the Streets.

Times look a little dull in Raleigh, but just now in Thomasville a crowd of Northern capitalists are busy in market buying up the gold mines and fixing up machinery to work them. A Thomasville man tells us he left those capitalists there last Wednesday, and just before he left he learned two or three trades had been perfected. A countryman received for one of these about twenty-five thousand dollars. A goodly number of gold mines have been tested near the place, and one right in sight of the Thomasville Female College. The machinery for one of the mines has already arrived and the railroads that brought it were paid the nice little sum of six hundred and fifty dollars in freight. It came from Ohio. Other machinery is on the way. An old miner at Thomasville, who has been bonding these mines, and has worked the mines at Nevada and California, regards the ore as rich as any he ever saw. There are several more mines near the place for which these capitalists are now bargaining.—Raleigh News.
