The Carolina Watchman.

Faichini, an Italian gentleman, who arrived in the city several days ago, and who is now stopping at the Irving House.

No. 923 Walnut street, has in his possession a monument of art which will prove

Moses and the prophets, Noah and the Rattlesnakes and Wild Cats.

We learn that a colored man by the SALISBURY. N. C., AUGUST 24, 1876.

THE HAMBURG AFFAIR. - The South WASHINGTON. Proposition to Raise Troops to Fight S. B. -The School Bill Amendment Falls

-All Night Sesson Monday Night-Defense of Tilden, dec.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 15 .- of much of interest to archeologists and The House passed a bill this morning antiquarians generally. It is said to be authorizing the President to raise five at least 1,000 years old, and has attracted thousand volunteers for the Indian war, considerable attention in the different and appropriated a million dollars for the countries of Europe. The said monument expense. is of wood, about three or four feet square,

The Senate, at an early hour this morn- and is composed of an immense number ing, rejected a substitute for the House of figures representing the various stages amendment to the Constitution, relating of the world's history from the creation of to schools, by 28 to 16 -not two-thirds. Adam to the Crucifixion. It certainly Adjourned at two o'clock. shows ingenious skill and wonderful pa-

Both houses met at noon. The situa- tience, and an examination by the aid of tion of the school amendment is as fol- a glass reveals remarkable carving. One lows : Blaine's amendment was passed of the chief attractions, singularly enough, by the House. It was amended in the consists in the ugliness of some of the Senate by a majority vote, and the ques- figures. On the right is a representation tion being on the proposition as amended, of Eve holding the forbidden fruit, while on it was rejected for want of a Constitution- the left is Adam, partly attired in his figal two-third vote. The original resolu- leaf dress. In the foreground is seen the tion fails, with the amendment made by Garden of Eden, with its numerous anithe Senate and the proposed amendment mals, trees, etc. ; while on the sides are to the Constitution is rejected.

Monday night's session of the House ark, the grim skeleton of Death, and huncontinued until 6 o'clock this morning, dreds of other historical and Biblical charmost of the time after midnight being acters. In the background is represented taken up in dilatory motions and manœuv. the crucifixion, with its attendant scenes, res to prevent Cox from resuming his while below it is shown the dark regions speech in reply to Kasson. At last, about of perdition; 'where the worm dieth not 5 o'clock in the morning, a truce was and the flames forever burn.' There is a effected between the opposing forces, and long history connected with the monnau opportunity was afforded to both Cox ment, dating back many years, and Mr and Kasson to make due apology to the Faichiai has documents from leading House and each other for the exhibition archeologists and men in authority autions in Prospect-Unfolding of a of any angry passion, or the violation of thenticating its antiquity." any paliamentary decorum that either might have been guilty of. Hewitt, of New York, then took the floor, and in a speech which was rapturname of Donas Robinson kill ed a rattledefended Gov. Tilden from the assaults

A RELIC OF ANTIQUITY. WHAT THE SEVENTEENTH SEC-TION OF THE CINCINNATI The Philadelphia Bulletin says : "Mr PLATFORM MEANS.

> Seventeenth. The national administraion merits commendation for its honorable work in the management of domestic and foreign affairs, and President Grant deserves the continued and hearty gratitude of the American people for his patriotism and his immense service in war and in peace .- Cincinnati Platform.

NO 45

Thus the Republican party and the Republican press endorse Grant throughout his presidential career and continue to hail him as their chief. They must therefore be held responsible in common with Grant for the sins of omission and commission that have disgraced the couptry during the Grant period. It is now in order to proceed with the indictment of Grant, and as one of the counts we submit the following exhibit of official dishonesty and fraud under his administration ; the administration which in the language of the Ciacinnati Platform, "merits commendation for its honorable work in the management of our domestic and foreign affairs and entitles Grant to the hearty gratitude of the American people": Joshua F. Bailey, Internal Revenue Collector in New York ; amount of defalcation $232,000 .- Escaped.

Barton Abel, Internal Revenue Collector in Missouri, $250,000.-Unpunished. John Spencer, Internal Revenue Collector in Kansas, and deputies, $150,000. -Unpunished.

John A. Phillips Deputy Internal Revenue Collector in New York, $30,000 .--Morgan L. Harriss, Collector in New York, $240,000 .- Unpunished.

J. D. Orner, Collector in Mississippi,

W. B. Stokes, Supervisor in Tennes-

C. S. Stanton, Collector in Maryland,

Englishman, taking up the pistol, "I will my leg, for I should have feared repenthumanity."

"How so, sir ?"

pistol, and that, too, before your eyes," answered the Englishman, who accord. WAS IT WORTH A LEG ingly seated himself, nocked the pistol, and then took deliberate aim at his knee-It was in the autumn of the year 1782 joint.

that a surgeon in Boulogne, of the name Lefebvre rushed forward to prevent him, but the Englishman coolly exclaimd Etienne Lefebvre, received a letter, not bearing any signature, requesting him to ed :

repair on the following day to a country "Do not come near ; if you do, I fire. house which was situated on the road Now only answer me this question : Do lerding to Calasi, and to bring along ins you wish to prolong my suffering needstruments as would be required for perlessly ?' forming an operation. Lefebvre was at tor in despair ; "but have your own way- a portly personage, whose size was so I am ready to do as you wish." Everything was ready for the operation. As soon as the doctor took up his instru- Monsieur Lefebvre" exclaimed the hoge ments the Englishman lighted his cigar, Englishman. "Do not be offended at my and declared that he would smoke until receiving you in this manner, but my the operation was concluded. He kept his | cursed wooden leg won't allow me to do word. The lifeless leg rested upon the anything. You have come, uo doubt my floor, but the Englishman still smoked friend, to see if in the long run you were to Dr Lefebvre's skill and attention, the among you. patient soon became perfectly recovered.

with a wooden leg. He rewarded the you know, my dear Lefebvre, that had it surgeon, whom he had learned to esteem not been for this abomniable wooden leg more and more every day; thanked him rendering me useless, I should by this with tears in his eyes for the great obli | time have been Admiral of the Blue.] gation under which he had laid him ; and spend my life in reading newspapers, and curses that I am tied here when every-leparture the surgeon received the follow- you shall comfort me." ng letter from England :

regard to the disposition to be made of the army confirms the statements made ously applauded by his side of the house, my boundless gratitude -a bill of ex. "On, as for that, uo. Her wooden leg change on my banker in Paris for 6 500 prevents her from gadding about and in these dispatches some six weeks since francs. You have rendered me the hap | dancing ; so she has, as a resource, given | piest of men by ridding me of a limb herself up to cards candal. There is no concerning the purposes of the adminiswhich was an obstacle in the way of my possibility of living above with her; in tion with regard to the South. It is unal Democracy. happiness. Lears, then, the reason of other respects, she is a good enough wo- derstood that the letter, which as stated by the Secretary of War, is written by what you termed my maduess. -You as-" man." sured me that there could be no justifia "What, was Lright, then ?" exclaimed direction of the President, was matured in cabinet deliberation. Before finally ble motive for so singular a multilation. surgeon. completing it the Secretary of War had I offer you a wager, and I think you were "Oh, a thousand tim-s, my dear an interview with the President this afterright in refusing it. After my second Lefebvre ; but say no more on that subreturn from the East Indies I became ac- ject. I was an unutterable fool. If I noon. If a large portion of the army is to be used to terrorize over the people of quainted with Susan Black, the most ac- had my leg back again, I would not part South and do duty in that section it complished and fascinating of women. I with the paring of a single nail. Between fully sustains those members of the House sought her hand in marriage. Her for- ourselves, I must have been crazy ; but of Representatives who insisted that there tune and family were such as met with keep that to yourself." was no necessity for an increase in the the entire approbation of my parents. As number of enlisted men, but the present for me, I thought only of her charms. I A LESSON FOR NORTH CARO- force was amply sufficient for all the needs REPUBLICAN EXTRAVAGANCE. cat was killed in the same neighborhood $8,000.- Unpunished. was soon happy enough to gain her affecof frontier service. It is apparent now tions, -a fact which she did not attempt LINA. why the Senate forced the House to agree to deny ; out she, at the same time firm-The recent overwhelming Democratic to the bill recruiting the cavalry by ly refused to become my wife. In vain victory in Alabama has a lesson for us, threatening until that was done no adjourndil I beseech her to do so; in vain did which we may profit by. The voting ment resolution should be passed. her relations all second my desire. She It will be seen that it is now proposed population of Alabama, according to the was inflexible. For a long time 1 could to go further than ever before in the matnot discover the reason of her opposition last United States census, is 202,046. Of ter of using the troops for political purto a marriage which she herself confessed this number, 97,823 are colored, and poses. There are but four Southern would make her happy; until at last 105,474, white, giving the whites a ma- States in which there are now republican one of her sisters revealed the fatal jority at the polls of 7,651. This white executives: North Carolina, South Carosecret to me. Susan was a marvel of plurality is now increased to perhaps be apprehended that from any of the beauty, but she was so unfortunate as to have lost a leg, and had consequen-10.000 in round numbers, owing to the other States there will be a call of the ily, condemned herself to eternal celibary emigration of negroes and the dispropor- constituted anthori ies for federal inter-My resolution was quickly formed, and I ference. But the language of the Secretionate death-rate. determined to become like her. Thanks to The Republicans got possession of the tary Cameron to General Sherman that yon, my dear Lefebvre, my wishes were the troops are to be used to "assist" in soon accomplished. I returned with my State in 1868, by means of the colored preserving order indicates that the conwooden leg to London .. I hastened to vote. Supported by the Federal Admin- tingency is contemplated of interfering in should compile a few facts like this for a gain information of Miss Black. The reistration, they held the negroes in solid the internal concerns of the States, irresport had been spread, and I myself had mass against the whites. What was the pective of their lown authorities. This taken care to write to my friends in Engresult? The color line was forced upon attitude of the administration, and this the white people. They accepted it; early unfolding of the plot to carry cermassed their strengh; and went to the tain of the Southern States for the repubfront in solid phalanx -and triumphed, lican ticket, will be very apt to overreach electing Honston Governor by about 13,- itself, as it is not possible that it will be 000 votes. This was two or three years sustained by the people of the North, more especially as the inference is from presenting myself. She was for a long ago Radicalism then received its death blow; the words of Secretary Cameron, that his time inconsolable, but at length she consented to become my wife. It was only and on the 7th of the present month, it present order is to be followed by new was buried forever, under the crushing acts of asarpation. - Dispatch to the Baltion the mouning after our marriage that I weight of forty thousand majority. And more Sun.

not fire upon you, and yet I will compel ance for the rest of my days. Had I Carolina Hamburg affair, about which so you to cut off this leg. What you refuse | really done so, I should have every mo- much has been said in order to make poto do to oblige, me, through love of gain ment said to myself. "Lefebvre, you are litical capital, has turned out rather an or fear of a bullet, you shall do through a madman." With highest consideration, unprofitable affair for the Radical politiyours very obediently,

"I intend to shatter my leg with this

on. The operation had been performed not right." in a most masterly manner, and thanks "I am a fugitive seeking an asylum

"You shall stay with me, for you are really although, of course, he had to be supplied a wise man. You will corsole me. Do in a short time started for England. Abuo: two months after his patient's body else is up and doing. Remain here;

"Your charming wife can doubtless do Inclosed you will receive a token of that better than I can.

cians. It was proven, when application for ball in behalf of the parties accused of ETIENNE LEFEBVRE. In the year 1793, during the Reign of complicity in the Hamburg riot was made. Terror, the surgeon of Bologne, having that the shooting was commenced by the been accused of being an aristocrat by negroes; that the negroes, for days preone of his younger professional brethren vious, had thrown out threats of a determwho envied him his practice, was obliged ination to force a fight upon the whites : to take refuge in London, in order to that ammunition and cannon had been eave his neck from the guilotine. Being ordered by the negroes and stored in their without employment or acquaintances, he armory several days before the collision. inquired for the residence of his former That a number of negroes had freely and patient, Mr. Oxley. He was directed to publicly declared their intention of killing it, and on arriving at the house he sent up out the whites in their section before the his name, and was immediately admitted. election ; that the negroes only ob-In a huge arm-chair, seated before the structed the highway, in order to create

"Sir, you are mad," answered the doc- fire, with a bottle of wine beside him, sat a collision.

A large number of affidavits show that not a single man among the fifty or sixty great that it was with difficulty he could rise to welcome his visitor. "Welcome. white persons charged with murder was present at the time of the alledged killing, especially proving alibies in cases of Gen. Butler, W. J. Butler, Harrison Butler, Thomas Butler, Henry Gaston, Thomas Oliver, John Oliver and John Lamar. All the parties were admitted to bail to make their appearance at court to answer such charges as might be preferred against them by the grand jury, and were discharged.

Desperate Plot.

The Army and the South-Cameron's

Letter to Sherman - Buyonets in the Political Campaign-Attempted Usurpa-

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.-The letter of the Secretary of War to Gen. Sherman in othe place where he was anxiously expreted. Accordingly, next morning, sure mugh on the stroke of 9, a carriage drove up to his door. The doctor no longer made my besitation, but at once took his seat in the carriage. As he was getting in he inquired of the coachinan where he as to be taken to; but the man appeared either not to know, or did not choose totell; but, as he spoke in English, Lefebrre said to himself. "So it is an Englishman to whom I am summoned." and he accordingly prepared himself for my exhibition of eccentricity on the part of one of that Nation which even now is solidle understood by Continentals At length the carriage stopped, and the dector hastened into the house.

YOL. VII.-THIRD SERIES.

WEEKLY-J. J. BRUNER, Ed. and Propr hat period well known as a distinguished ad successful operator ; so much so, iu-indeed, that he was not unfrequently sent for from great distances. He had served for a considerable time in the navy, and his manners had, therefore, acquired a cer tain degree of bluntness; but, when you otee became acquainted with him, you and unaffected goodness of his heart.

could not help liking bim for the natural

He was naturally somewhat surprised at this anonymous communication ; for although the time and place were, as already stated, mentioned with great mins states, there was no clue afforded by which the writer could be identified. He theidur, came to the conclusion that mur at his jocular friends were making fun of him, and he did not keep the ap-

Three days afterwards he again receiv

da fam liar summons, but conched in more pressing terms than the first, and he

we stormed that at 9 o'clock in the morning a carriage would be sent to bring him wintment.

patract rates for months or a year.

ADVERTISING

T. K. BRUNER, Associate Ed.

He was received at the entrance by a fue-looking young man of about twenty five years of age, who requested him to walk into a large and haudsome nom on the first floor. His accent showedhim to be an Englishman. The following meversation then ensued between them "You have sent for me," said the doc-

"Iam very much obliged to your for the trouble you have taken in coming here," rejoined the Englishman. "Be so good as to seat yourself at table, where you will find chocolate, coffee, or wine, in cuse you would like to partake of anything before commencing the operation. "But first show me the patient, I wish to satify myself that an operation is absolutely necessary."

"It is necessary, Monsieur Lefebvre ; pray be seated. I have entire confidence in you; only listen to me. Here is a parse containing 100 guineas, which offer you as a fee for the operation you ate asked to perform, no matter what the teault may be. In case of your refusing compliance with my request, you see this pistol It is loaded, and you are in my power. As I hope for salvation, I will blow your brains out."

"Sit, I am not to be deterred from do ing what I consider proper by any fear of your pistol. But what do you desire ? What am I expected to do !"'

"You must cut my right leg off " "With all my heart," answered the surgeon, thinking that this was a characterlatic specimen of those mad English; "and your hand, also, if necessary or desirable. However, unless I am greatly mistaken, your leg is perfectly sound. I saw you valk down stairs with the greatest activi-17. What can be the matter with your

"Nothing ; but it must come off." "Sir, you are mad."

"That is no concern of yours, Monsieur Lefebvre." "What harm can that handsome limb have douc?"

"None at all ; still you must make up previously mignificently remunerated for your mind to amputate it." we me some proof that you are in sound mind," naturally demanded the doctor. "Will you consent to my wishes, Monsieur Letebyre ?" "As soon as you can assign any adequate or reasonable motive for so unneceasery an operation. "I can not at present enter into any explanations-in a year, perhaps, I will do so. But I will bet you, sir, that to my former opinion. For the present then you will acknowledge that my reatons for my present seemingly extravagant in the honeymoon ; but at some future conduct are most pure, manly, and noble, and even rational." "It is quite impossible for me," remonstrated the surgeon, "to comply until you tell me your name, place of residence, position and family." "You shall be made acquainted with all these particulars at some tuture time, but be at present. I beg you to consider "A man of honor." "A man of honor does not utter unjualand to the same effect, that I had had the misfortune to fracture my leg, and that amputation had been found absolutely necessary. Every one expressed the greatest concern at my misfortune. Sasan fainted on the first occasion of my confessed to her the sacrifice by means of Alabama enjoys that peace and repose which I had at length been enabled to gain her consent to be mine. The avowal the victory won. increased her love. Ob! my excellent friend, had I ten legs to lose, I would give them all up for the sake of my beloved Susan. So long as I live, rely on my gratitude. If ever you visit England, do not fail to come here, so that I may make yon acquainted with my wife ; and then senses.

Yours, faithfully, ARTHUR OXLEY. Mons. L-t-byre answered the letter of his English friend in the following terms : Sir : Accept my best thanks for your very generous present-for so I must term what you have sent me, having been faithfully and persistently. my trouble, as you were pleased to term "Sir, I have no acquaintance with you; it. I wish you, as well as your charming Radicalism is ended forever in this State. man denied everything. The young wo wife, all imaginable happiness. True it With our race plurality of sixty odd thouis that to give a leg in exchange for a sand, we can surely do what has been beautiful, tender and virtuous wite is not done by the white men of Virginia with too much, provided the happiness endures. their fifty four thousand majority: Georgia Adam sacrificed one of his ribs to become with her ticenty-six thousaand; Arkansas tion. possessed of our common mother with her fifty one thousand; Mississippi Eve, and more than one man has laid with her five thousand minority; and Aladown his life for the sake of his beloved. bama with her small majority of ten thou-Notwithstanding all this, allow me to adhere sand white voters. If we fail to do as these gallant Democrats have done, it is you are doubtless right, for you are now because there are white men in large numbers among us, who are notrue to their time you will acknowledge the truth of race, their kindred and their country; and what I advanced. I beg your attention are living in open rebellion against the to what I am about to say. I fear that nstincts which the God of Nature has in two years you will repent of having implanted in every Anglo-Saxon breast. had your leg amoutated about the knee--Ral. News. joint. You will think that to have it cut lower down would have been quite sufficient. In three years you will be per-Ku Klux Jim Boyd who remained a suaded that the sacrifice of a foot would Ka Klux till he found it would pay to have answered all purposes ; in four, that puke up the Kn Klux, and turn Rad and and he took the homestead and the girl of the big toe; in five, the little one; and, mix up with Internal Revenue nosing, has only gets a pro rata part which will be the threats against his guest. I have at last, you will have confessed that to been nominated by the office holders of about two thousand dollars. Young Pool, of Pasquotank county, ex U.S. to perform a duty even towards you, who have parted with a nail, without necessity, this district for Congress, against Gen. Stevenson, of Statesville, the partner of ate a stranger to me. My reasons for would have been a piece of egregious Scales. If the rank and file of the hon- Mr. Clements, made a two hours' appearrefusing to accede to your absurd request folly. All this I assert without in the est tax-paying Republicans had been cou- ance for the girl, and his effort has won late Hon. W. A. Graham and other promby as you must admit, sound and just slightest degree impugning the merit of sulted, can any one believe that a person him much applause all through that coun- inent men in this State, to fill vacancy in like him, who changes his politics when try. Her counsel only charged her fifty the office of Superintendent of public In-"Well, Monsieur L febvre," replied the given my life for my mistress, but never nominated ?-Randolph Regulator. Vance.-Ral. Sentinel.

which comes when the conflict is over, and A Judge Shows Father and Child to the Jury.

In this brief history lies a most valua-In Iredell county, between Statesville ble lesson for us. The voting populationof North Carolina is 214,516. What is and Mocksville, a country store is closed the obvious policy suggested by these and a farm-house has taken the homefigures, viewed in connection with the stead. A poor girl, a Miss Safret, lives fact that the negroes are massed solidly near, and the farmer, named Lowery, is tell me whether or not I was out of my against us, and in the light of the experi- said to have seduced her under promise ence of Alabama, to say nothing of that of marriage. But he married another of Georgia. Mississippi, Texas, Arkansas lady and the poor girl, with her baby boy and Virginia? Manifestly, that we fol- at her side, brought suit for breach of low the example set by our sister States promise for four thousand dollars. The of the South, and ACCEPT THE COLOR man fought it hard with the best legal LINE, which the negroes themselves es, talent in the State, and the finest effort tablished, and to which they adhere so ever heard was said to have been made Republican party must cut loose from by Judge Fowle at the last term of When the white men of North Carolina Rowan court where the suit was moved. once make up their minds to this, then He was of counsel for the defence. The man showed his letters. He denied the hand-writing. Her counsel proved it by his own witnesses. She swore Lowery offered her medicine to produce an abor- Hayes. Boss Shepherd goes for Hayes.

made on him by Kasson, and eulogized snake near Mr. E. Thomases' place, in $19,500 .- Unpunished. him as the standard bearer of the Nation. Brunswick county, a few days since, which measured six feet in length and $6,500 .- Unpunished.

about seven inches through the body, The House concurred in the Senate bill being the largest monster of the kind authorizing the President to raise five ever seen in these parts. He had been thousand volunteers. The Senate amendthe terror of the neighborhood for a long $15,000. - Unpunished. ment proposes to raise calvary companies time, having frequently been seen before. to the standard of 100 men. It was shown by the Chairman of the Military Commit- and it is stated that some of the men em- $15,000 .- No arrest. tee that the recent army appropriation ployed in chipping turpentine boxes in Wm. A. Lawrence, Pension Agent at that vicinity actually stopped work for New York, $47,000 .- Absconded. bill gives the President this power, and fear of encountering him. He was found five thousand volunteers was really in to have sixteen rattles and was as $35,000.-Unpunished. addition to the proposition of the Senate. large around in the middle as a man's A conference was asked.

thigh.

[From the New York Tribune.] on Saturday night last, which measured

The Senate gave yesterday another three and a half feet on the back and was ed out of the Albany Penitentiary for point of advantage to adminers of the as large around the body as an ordinary grabling $300,000. Democratic House. The joint resolution sheep. When discovered the "varment" for printing the Agricultural Report was was seeking to make his way into a house robbing money order office of 8,000 .under consideration, the House having occpied by colored people, and it made a Unpulished. limited the number of copies to 25,000, circle of the house three times in its ef-which was more than enough. Straight- forts to get at its inmates before it was 5,000 .- Unpunished. way the Senate passed an amendment to shot down. Mr. Thomas secured the print 300,000 copies. A Senator had the skin and stuffed it, and intends bringing P. O. Department, $30,000 -- Unpunishgood sense to point out that there was no it to the city soon for exhibition .- Wil. ed.

money to pay for so many, and thereupon Star. the amendment was reconsidered. But the Senate was bound to show its independence of the House, and so, money or no money, it passed a bill to print 300,-000 copics, appropriating $130,000 therefor. It would be a great stretch of average political wisdom -if the Democrate campaign document on the topic of econo- beauty beneath the graceful folds of a my.

of August 1st, confesses the iniquity of Grantism, and candidly acknowledges in substance that if the party in the present canvass do not cut loose from it they are marks of corner loafers. Nor was she hopelessly gone. It says that "the only pinned back so tight she couldn't step, escape is for the party to say distinctly and her heels didn't kick her tilter as in its State Conventions in the first place by its nominations, whether it proposes the continuance of Grantism, and in the ness on and flies bad. No; she wasu't second place by its resolutions whether it approves the course of the Reformers who have been kicked out by the President, and of these she commanded the utmost or the conduct of the President, in kick- respect, and it was paid her by all who, ing them out. That is a question that in meeting, admired her. has pertinence, and it will be wise in the light of recent occurrencies to consider it seriously." If anything further than the of Catawba have nominated Dr. D. Mc. above serious opinion expressed by that Yount for the House from Catawba coun-

able Republican Journal were wanting ty. Maj. S. M. Finger is the Democratic to show that its expression of opinion is candidate for the Senate to represent Lincorrect, it is to be found in a multitude coln and Catawba. of letters from Republicans published in that Journal. Then according to the Jonas Cline was nominated for Sheriff; opinion of this able Journal, as well as its H. P. Rudisill for Treasurer; Reuben numerous Republican correspondents, the Yoder for Coroner; J. M. Brown for Reg-

Grantism if it hopes to win in the approaching election.

Columbus Delano goes for Hayes.

THE MEN WHO GO FOR HAVES -

see, $68,000 .- Unpunished. Horatio Jenkius, Collector in Florida, John A. Harper, Collector in Illinois, W. F. Forbes, Agent at Philadelphia, W. T. Collins, Ageat at Washington, $60,009 -- Unpunished.

We also learn that an enormous wild G. A. Batchelder, Dakota Territory.

Maj. Dodge, a Penison Agent, pardon-

R. W. Francis, P. M. in Louisiana.

W. J. McLeon, P. M. at Atlanta Ga.,

F. A. McCatney, Disbursing office of

-. Reed, P. M. at Jacksonville, Fla., $17.000. - Unpunished.

J. W. Morton, money order clerk of New York Post Office, $115,000 .- Unpunished.

W. T. Clark, P. M. at Galveston, $10,day. She wore a neatly fitting, plainly 000 .- Unpunished, cut and modestly trimmed calico dress. M. S. P. Lowe, clerk Boston Post Her modest face beamed with youth and Office, $30,000 .- Unpunished.

J. W. Wood, P. M. at Indianpolis, gauzy green weil, and her tosy checks $4,000 .- Unpunished.

shone_through it like a pair of large cher N. G. Hayes, New Naven Poet The New York Tribune, Republican, rice. She didn't carry one-half of her Office .- $2,000. - Unpunished.

dress in her hand high up to gratify the Charles D Edwine, U S Treasurer; yulgar gaze of blackguards or to draw convicted of embezzlement $8,500 .-forth ludicrous and ungentlemanly re- Pardoned.

Seth Johnson, Clerk of the Treasury. $50,000. - Unpunished.

F A Marden, clerk in Treasury, $12,high as the small of her back. She didn't 000 .--- Unpunished.

J J Johnson, clerk in Stamp Departwalk like a mule with a loose set of harment of New York Sub-Treasury. $180 .dressed in a style calculated to attract 000. - Absconded.

G II Dunning, Superintendent of U 8 the attention of any but true gentlemen, Assay Office, $20,000. - Unpunished.

B P Rankle, in charge of Freedmen's Bureau in Kentucky, sentenced for fraud and embezzlement .- Pardoneo.

In November, 1874, $4,000 were stolen from the Redemption Barean of the Treasury Department, and last year $47,. 000 were stolen .- No arrests.

Gen Stammard, Collector at Burlington, Vt., pocketed $35,000,- Unpunished. Une Bobb, Collector at Savanah Ga., ook $14,000 .- Unpunished. R N Bowerman, Deputy Collector of Baltimore, took $12,000. - Unpunished. Nathaniel Gale, Boston Naval Office, $5.000 -- Unpunished.

-, Miller, Collector of Mobile, $27,-

Colonel Robert Des Agnes, Deputy

Judge Fowle-"What did you say to that ?" Hayes.

Witness rising, and her eyes flashing -"I told him I'd die first !"

The court applauded

Here it was proposed to show the little boy to the jury.

Judge Cloud - "Stand its little feet on draw poker and disgraced Minister to the railing and let the jury look at it, (to the man): "And you, Lowery, d'you England, goes for Hayes.

stand up there by it and let the jury look at you."

The man moved up and the jury exall the defrauders of the Federal revenue amined both. The verdict was found in go for Hayes.-East Saginaw Courier. the girl's favor for four thousand dollars.

but it threw many other debts upon him. Raleigh Sentinel: In spite of Governor Biogden's efforts at secrecy, it has leaked out that he has appointed John Holden to employ pirates to murder the Boss Grant goes for Hayes. Babcock, the bribe-taker, goes for Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind.

missioners,-Char. Democrat.

Among the benevolent Institutions of the country, there is none that is doing more for the Belknap, the bribe-taker, goes for unfortunate of our race, than the "Institution for Pardoned. the Education of the Deaf and Dumb and the Lindaulet Williams goes for Haves. Blind," located at Raleigh, and vet, we regret $38.000 - Unpunished. Credit Mobiller Colfax goes for Hayes. to learn that there are many deaf and dumb McKee, Avery, McGuire, Joyce, and and blind children in the State, growing up without the benefits of an education which has all the other whiskey thieves in State been liberally provided for them by our State prisons and penitentiaries are for Haves. Legislature. All who have deal and dumb or Robert C. Schenck, the professor of blind children should at once correspond with the Principal of the Institution, and obtain all necessary information as to the manner of gain-

CATAWBA COUNTY .- The Democrats

For county officers of Catawba, Mr.

ister; T. L Bandy for Surveyor; Daniel

Wyant, Wm Rockett, G. M. Beatty, F

L. Herman and G. M. Wilfong for Coming admission, &c.

All the corruptionists in Federal office Ice Water .- Ice water is denounced on grounds that it tends to produce congestion of the brain, impairs the digestive organs of the stomach and destroys the teeth. A physician says he regards water as the most wholesome beverage we can use, but it should be taken at a tem-Senator and ex-advisor of ex-Governor perature above thirty two degrees to be safe. - Ral. News.

> Iowa juries hold that in case a marriage engagement is broken the parties must return all presents, or their worth in money.

Collector of the port of New York, swind led the government to the amount of $200,-000 before his "irregularities" were interferred with. He was arrested, convicted and sent to the Albany penitentiary .---

W J Healy. Paymaster in the Navy

Paymaster Hodge, of the War Department, convicted of embezzling $445,000, was sent to the Albany penitentiary for ten years. Pardoued by Grant.

W A Britton, U S Marshall for Arkan . sas, was found a defaulter in the sum of $121,000, was dismissed but not prosecuted, and was afterwards restored.

This is but an imperfect count in the ong and terrible indictment against the Republican party. Can honest Republicaus swallow the Cincinnati Platform 1-Landmark.

Boston has the most intellectual girls, New York the most stylish, Brooklyn she pretticst, Baltimore the most refined, Chicago the smallest and St. Louis the most froliegome. Unlike as they are in characteristice, the "Domestic Paper "Fashions" are the universal preference of them all.