AN OPEN LETTER TO THOMAS F. LYONS, OF VIRGINIA.

To Thomas F. Bayard, esq , Camden, Del My DEAR SIR: Your very much es teemed and valued letter of the 15th of August, which was directed to Richmond was thence transferred to the White Sulphur Springs, after some delay, where I had the pleasure to receive it about the 1st of this month. I should have replied to it more promptly but for the state of events in the history of our country have been occurring with such rapidity that almost every day which transpired tempt ed me to wait another day to see what would transpire on the next-the march in the progress of revolutionizing our Government being too fast almost for calm thought. On one day we have seen a committee of the Senate, under the control of the dominant party of Grant, Hayes & Co. -miscalled the Republican the Speaker at their head, to keep the party; lucus a non lucendo-proposing, actually, for party purposes, to obliterate many of the States, and with equal right which means not right asserting, if not directly as I think, at least by implica. Columbia marching the President, the tion, the authority to obliterate all of them, and thus to make a consolidated empire of the once constitutional United States. And on another, the right of the States to couduct their own elections peaceably and without molestation, as by the Constitution they are authorized to do, denied; and the people subjected to the military power of, what was, the Uni ted States, under the lead and control of deputy-sheriffs under the name of deputymarshals. Under such circumstances it is peculiarly gratifying to me when you, my old friend, approve and concur in my determination to support with all my heart those honest and Constitution-loving shal or sheriff could anticipate a row and Democrats, Tilden and Hendricks.

A Glance at the Pust.

As conscientious Democrats, you and I could not do otherwise, unless Democrats of a higher order could have been presented to us and had been. In our Louisville Convention the noble band of pledged themselves to make no barter of their principles, but to defend them and the Constitution upon which they are sarily pledged ourselves to the correlative are democrats because that is the true Constitution loving and liberty-loving party. You very properly say that Dol-ly Varden has had her day. She is dead-"peace to her ashes." No one will offend the living eye by erecting a monument to her memory, and the Dem ocrats who were misled by the glare of her veil into false worship, have returned to the paths of duty and sobriety and united with us in the straight-out nominations at St. Louis. And with you I hope that the retlux of the popular tide will be as high as that of 1840, and sweep he is an honest, able, upright man, out those who have so much abused the public confidence of the country and threatened, it they have not destroyed, the Constitution.

A Look at the Present.

Only think of it. A Government reck. ing with planderers, its highest offices filled with thieves, who now seek to defend themselves and protect their places by converting the Government into a military mobocracy, the worst kind of despotism, and disgracing the army of the United States, which lately slaughtered land in blood, to preserve, as they roes of a four years' war, under their gallant leaders, McClellan, Hancock, Mc-Dowell and Bartlett, firing upon the people at the polls under the orders of a deputy sheriff!! and this done in the name of free suffrage and the guarantee of that right, the first and dearest right of a freeman, and the great fundamental principle and characteristic of a republican gov

The Common Law-Powers of a Sheriff.

A marshal of the United States corresponds with a sheriff of a State and the provision, Blackstone tells us that :-

deputies. Wherein a Marshal's Power Differs.

Thus it will be seen that the office of marshal of the United States differs from the office of sheriff very widely, although a potato wink?-Danbury News. Mr. Cushing placed them upon the same footing and clothed the marshal with the common-law power of the sheriff, which has not been granted to him, and without the privileges and limitations which by the common law attach to the office. For want are law suits,

AN ARRAIGNMENT OF ATTOR- instance, by the common law the sheriff NEY-GENERAL TAFT'S ORDER. is a judge and holds a court, while the marshal is not a judge and cannot hold a court. By the common law a sheriff cannot summon a peer in the posse comitatus, BAYARD, OF DELAWARE, BY JAMES but in this country, according to Mr. Cushing, every man and boy over fifteen years may be summoned and must obey. even the President and the judges of the Supreme Court and heads of departments and members of Congress when in session. How supremely ridiculous such a government would be, and how easy for a few rowdy negroes and a deputy marshal to throw it into a state of chaos .-But Mr. Cushing interpolated upon the common law the words, "including the my health and the fact that striking military of all denominations," utterly forgetting that an act of Congress limits his power to command necessary assistance in the execution of his duty.

A Forcible Contrast.

It would be worth a trip to England to behold a deputy sheriff of the county of Middlesex commanding the Queen's Guards or the famous Forty-second, with peace in the Sheriff's Court or at an opera house; and it would be worth a trip "around the world in eighty days" al judges of the Sooreme Court in their surplices, and the heads of departments led by General Sherman to keep the peace between rowdy negroes and white men; but the outrage upon the Constitution and the rights of the people is even more glaring than this. Under even Cushing's law (and a worse law and a worse lawgiver I cannot conceive), in the largest that the marshal can do is to call upon the people of the country who are there when the breach of the peace occurs and the marshal is overpowered, but it never did before occur to any man that the mar breach of the peace, and in that anticipation march the army in detachments into the States in order to control the elections. Never before was there a Presis tion, and insult the people.

A RETURND KU-KLUX.

In looking over the register of th Yarborough House last evening the name of W. H. Gary, K. K. K., stood out in bold relief. Upon inquiring we learned that Mr. Gary, who is a citizen of Sampsom county, was convicted in the early part of 1871, in the United States Circuit Court, in this city, of the hanging of the negro Youngblood. It will be rememed that Youngblood shot and killed a man in the upper edge of Sampson county. was supposed to have been the captain of a klan, and for this he was taken one One inch for night from a steamboat playing between Fayetteville and Wilmington and hanged Four inches for to a tree on the river bank, midway be- & Column for tween these two places.
