

Carolina Watchman.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1877.

Yellow fever is still prevalent in Jackson, Fla.

Some of our patrons desire to pay for their paper in fire wood. The time is at hand for such deliveries.

Suspension of Banks, defalcation of officers, failure of large firms, running away of clerks who carry off employers' money, and all other sort of villainy, crowd the newspapers as usual.

There is a breach between the Republicans of New York on the question of endorsing Hayes.

The Court of Appeals, in the State of New York, has lately reached a decision in favor of elevated railroads in the city of New York.

The telephone is still undergoing improvements. They have them now something like a straight ear trumpet.

The Superior Court for Rowan opened at 10 o'clock, Monday. The Hon. F. E. Shober, flanked on his right by John Sloan, Esq., and on his left by Wm. R. Fraley, Esq., Chairman.

A petit jury was then empanelled, and the Court was ready for business. Solicitor, Jas. E. Kerr, came forward with a batch of indictments, had his witnesses called and sworn and sent them before Grand Jury.

It is not doubted that this Court will prove of great benefit to the County, especially as respects civil cases on the docket of the Superior Court.

GOING TO RALEIGH.—The Southern Home announces that Capt. R. A. Shotwell, formerly associate editor of this paper under Gen. Hill's management, has accepted the position of managing editor of the Farmer and Mechanic.

One Republican paper, the Raleigh Register, we are pleased to see, has the independence and honesty to do him justice in this respect.

True, none of the complaints assail his integrity or patriotism; but they, from their injustice and frequency, must be disheartening to a public officer who is so earnestly trying to do right as we know he is.

Now, was there method in this madness, and if so where did it show itself? It is fitting in a Judge to lose his balance one day and regain it next!

WILKESBARRE, PA., Oct. 1.—There was a general resumption of operations this morning at the mines of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Company.

GOVERNOR VANCE AND HIS ADMINISTRATION.

We commend to the attention of our readers the following just and true remarks from the Pee Dee Herald:

We have regretted and yet regret to see attacks, which we conceive to be utterly unjust and unsupported by reason or facts, made upon Governor Vance and upon his official course during the few months which have passed of his executive term.

There must, surely, be some prime motive—some controlling influence at the bottom of this, which time and circumstance may yet develop.

We claim to know something of the history of the State; to know it somewhat thoroughly for at least twenty-five years past; and we do not hesitate to say that during that time—and most likely for a much longer time—no Governor of our State has had a more difficult task to perform than has had Gov. Vance.

After the fiercest and most exciting contest in the political annals of North Carolina, he came into office; the reborn from the thralldom of radicalism being so great that even the cool and calm results which dispassionate and thinking men expected seem small and disappointing.

The telephone is still undergoing improvements. They have them now something like a straight ear trumpet, not exceeding six inches in length.

WILKESBARRE, PA., Oct. 1.—There was a general resumption of operations this morning at the mines of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Company.

THE WAR.

Reported Victory of Osman Pasha Discredited—His Losses—Change in Commanders—Gloomy Accounts of the Russian Army.

LONDON, October 1.—This morning's Standard publishes the following special dispatch:

Sofia Sept. 30.—Trustworthy information has been received here that Osman Pasha has repulsed the Russo Roumanian attack on his front and left, inflicting heavy losses.

These ideas are thrown together hurriedly and unconnectedly; but they embody our views. And we believe they are just and true.

JUDGE KERR AND THE HOSKINS CASE IN DECISION.

The western mail brings interesting accounts from Polk Superior Court.

The Fall term of this Court was held last week, His Honor, Judge Kerr, presiding, and Solicitor Montgomery prosecuting for the State.

The Czarwitsch visited Gorny Studin Saturday, to relinquish command of the Imperial Guard.

The second Turkish convoy for Plevna has returned to Orkani, the Roumanian cavalry having captured eight wagons of grain.

The first Turkish convoy which entered Plevna consisted of two hundred wagons; the number of wagons in the second convoy is not reported.

Judge Kerr—the rugged lines in his face hardening, and his lips closing in sullen and obstinate firmness—aside, Ugh!

"The Federal Court," Mr. Justice continued: "Your Honor is aware that Judge Schenk has been overruled in."

PARIS, October 1.—The Russian telegraphic agency prints a Bucharest dispatch which declares mediation impossible.

Debt statement: Decrease, $3,882,524; coin in treasury, $119,152,043; currency, $14,206,417.

The Indian council closed to-day, the government insisting that the Indians move to the Missouri river, where their supplies will be next spring.

SILVER SENATOR.—Nevada, writes that he will not be able to attend the extra session on account of private business.

MORTON, of Indiana, Republican, and Dennis, of Maryland, Democrat, will be absent on account of sickness.

A full attendance of the Senate, with every Senator faithful to his party, the roll call will show forty Republicans and thirty-three Democrats.

BOSTON, Oct. 2.—The workmen's convention nominated Wendell Phillips for Governor, and a full State ticket.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—The "China" has arrived. The cholera continues severe in many of the coast towns and in the interior.

ROME, N. Y., Oct. 2.—A Republican county convention of Oneida county was held to-day. This is the home of Senator Conkling, and the convention was controlled by his supporters.

But Hayes' friends won't down, and so the split grows.

During the past few years the country has gone through a season of "hard times," such as has seldom visited this country.

MRS. NEAVE'S Music School Re-opens Sept. 27th.

AUGUSTA, GA., Oct. 1.—It is reported that four deaths from yellow fever occurred at Port Royal yesterday, and that a number of citizens have left the place.
