THURSDAY, JULY 4, 1878.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

This body met at Wilkesboro on the 25th June. About 12 o'clock the meeting was called to order, Hon. Chas. Price of Rowan was elected chairman; W. A. Potts, J. S. Ramsay and T. K. Bruner, Secretaries. The roll of counties was called, all answering except Forsythe and Surry; to wit: Alexander, Ashe, Alleghany, Davie, Rowan, Iredell, Wilkes, Watauga, and Yadkin.

Mr. Linsey of Alexander, offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee to prepare rules for the government of the convention, and to verify credentials, which was agreed to and the committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Linsey, Bowers, Beard, Douglas, Hodges, Vaughan and York; who reported that the basis of representation should be that of the House of Representatives—delegates being allowed to cast fractional votes of 1/2—that each delegation should appoint one of their number to cast the vote of the county, and that the nominees must receive 7 1/2 votes to secure his election, &c.

A resolution to adjourn, and directing the Executive Committee of the District to call a new convention in August, was offered, but defeated.

Nominations were now made—Mr. York of Wilkes, nominating R. H. Armfield, and Mr. Frank Brown, of Rowan, nominating Charles Price. The vote was taken and resulted—Armfield, 84; Robbins, 2; Price, 14. Mr. Armfield was declared elected.

Maj. Robbins, by letter to W. H. H. Cowles, Chairman Executive Committee, protested against the call of the convention, and Mr. Cowles' right to call it, to which Mr. Cowles replied in a speech, showing he had the right, wherein he was sustained by a resolution subsequently adopted by the convention.

A resolution of thanks to Mr. Price for the able manner with which he had presided, and a speech from Mr. Armfield, accepting the nomination, closed the proceedings.

ROWAN'S VOTE IN THE CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

The voters of Rowan will desire to know how they were represented at the District Convention. It is expected we will tell them. Rowan cast one of her two votes for Hon. Chas. Price, and the other for R. P. Armfield, Esq. Both votes really belonged to Hon. Wm. M. Robbins, and this is how they came to be given otherwise: Maj. Robbins sent in a letter which was read before the delegates, protesting against the Convention. He took the ground that the Convention was irregularly called, and on too short a notice; that wrong had been done him in some of the counties in the management of the county meetings, &c. His friends from Rowan believed that the grounds of the protest should be considered, and they acted accordingly. His name was not put in nomination before the convention; and when the vote was taken, his friends complimented Mr. Price by giving him one vote. The other portion of the delegation, to wit: F. E. Shober, by his proxy W. J. Mills, and his appointees, Moses Bencini, Jas. C. Lowe, John Beard and D. R. Julian, cast their vote for Armfield. Thus Rowan, which should have been represented as unanimously in favor of Hon. W. M. Robbins, appeared divided and without force. The appointees of Luke Blackmer and James E. Kerr, Esqs., (the other members of the committee on delegates) to wit: Chas. Price, Frank Brown, Jos. W. Mauney, John Heilig, P. P. Mcronney, and T. K. Bruner, discharged their duty with due regard to the wishes of the people of Rowan.

Mr. Shober's delegates, in the discussions between the representatives of Rowan, declared that he (Mr. Shober) was the first choice of Rowan, and on being urged to vote for him, said "no, we will vote for Armfield."

The counties of Surry and Forsythe were not represented in the convention, and the reason assigned for Surry was lack of time; and by persons not delegates, from Forsythe, that they did not consider the convention called by the proper authority.

We regret being unable to give a more gratifying report, but have endeavored to present the facts.

Democratic Prospects.—"In unity there is strength," but without unity, weakness. There is no need of a Daniel or a Jeremiah, just now, to cry aloud to the Democratic party and show them the fate which awaits them. They would not heed if they heard. Like an angry sea the conflicting waves will continue to lash each other with fury until the storm shall exhaust itself. "Democratic prospects!" What are they in North Carolina? If scores of "independents" and factions with cross purposes in almost every county; if secret supplanting and heartless selfishness, acrimonious words and conflicting actions count for anything, the prospect is bright that in a short time the Democratic party will exchange attitudes with the radical party: Will stand with hat in hand and down-cast eyes and meekly "accept the situation" and enter upon a season of repentance. If it shall not so turn out, repentance of the present folly should begin now, and every one consent to prefer another to himself. Magnanimity is a virtue and its reward sure. Narrow-minded selfishness may sometimes seem to succeed, and its reward of elevation and shame is also sure. It is better to have a conscience void of offense than to fill an office richly endowed. It is better to promote peace in non-essential than to make strife.

Thirtieth Senatorial.—It will be seen that we have two Democratic candidates for the State Senate in this District—John S. Henderson, Esq., of Rowan, and J. O. Ford, of Davie. This seems to result from a disagreement between the two counties on the question of right to furnish the candidate. Rowan has hitherto taken it "turn about" with Davie, and has never thought of insisting on any advantage because of her superior strength at the ballot box, though it is just about double that of Davie. When Davie had furnished the Senator two terms in succession, Rowan would then furnish him two terms; and so it has gone on for years with very little contest until now. The record shows that Davie had the Senator for the terms 1866, 1868, 1872, and 1874. And Rowan furnished the candidate in 1868, 1870, and again in 1876. It will be observed that each county has held it two terms in succession; and that counting from 1864, Davie has had it four terms and Rowan three terms. This is what the record shows, and we cannot understand why there should be any controversy over so simple a question of arithmetic.

It has been said that "according to an agreement between the two counties, entered into in 1876, Rowan was to have it for that term and 1878." This statement was made on oral testimony, and as coming from a gentleman in Davie, whose opportunities entitled him to know the facts. But let that be waived, for it is really of no value as against the record, which plainly and undeniably shows that Rowan must have it in 1878 in order to put her even with Davie. It cannot change the record to deny that any such agreement was made, neither would an admission change it. It is immaterial to the question in hand—it may be left out or taken in and still we come back to the main point: Davie has had the Senator four terms and Rowan three terms. Now if Davie must have it five terms to Rowan three terms, it cannot be her purpose to observe the ancient rule, and it acquires Rowan of all blame for the present conflict. Hence we said two weeks ago, "we do not see how Rowan can recede."

But Rowan has another reason besides the record for her course: The name of Mr. Henderson had been put in nomination in Rowan and several of our primary meetings had declared in favor of him, all of which was published in this paper some days (if not weeks) before it was known that Davie would object. We had therefore committed ourselves, and it was too late to recede, except and alone on the ground of error; and as there was no error, of course we could not go back; nor can we understand why our friends have become so desperate as their action at South River on Saturday shows.

Do they object to Mr. Henderson personally? There is no need to speak of his character and qualifications, for they are almost as well known in Davie as in Rowan. He is one of the rising men in Rowan—one in whom her citizens confide with unshaken faith. The people of Davie county know this. It is no secret but is known throughout the State. And yet it is suspected that a few persons in Davie who are controlling the opposition movement there, would willingly admit the right of Rowan to announce the candidate for the Senate if she would drop Mr. Henderson and take up some one else more acceptable to certain men in Rowan. Mr. Henderson is not one of that happy class who is "without an enemy in the world." He has enemies. They are jealous of him, and they dread to see him rising. And they will keep him down if they can. There is a thousand ways in which their opposition may be brought to bear, not because Mr. Henderson is more valuable than other men of his age, but because of the ingenuity and sleepless vigilance of envy.

If this conjectured cause of difficulty has any foundation in fact, it will not be relinquished for anything that may be said in commendation of Mr. Henderson; for in his popularity is to be found the secret cause of hate. If on the other hand, there is no such feeling towards Mr. Henderson or those who are known to be his friends in Rowan, then we are simply overwhelmed with amazement at the anomalous position of the two counties.

P. S.—Since the above was put in type we have received a communication from a gentleman in Davie, signed "W." from which we learn the difficulty originates in the date at which the count is begun. Davie counts from 1864, whereas Rowan has been counting from 1864.

Accepting Davie's starting point, the case stands thus: 1868, Rowan, by W. M. Robbins. 1870, Rowan, by W. M. Robbins. 1872, Davie, by Chas. Price, Esq. 1874, Davie, by Mr. Clement. 1876, Rowan, by W. H. Crawford. Up to this time the rule was to give each county two terms each. It was Rowan's time to come in in 1876, and she then had one term, and of course is entitled to complete her alternate number of two terms. But our friends at Ford's Mill can't see it.

We presume it is now too late to arrange this matter to the satisfaction of those who have created the conflict, and that the question must be settled at the ballot box. Rowan has never cherished any spirit of illiberality towards Davie, and we feel authorized to disclaim for Mr. Henderson's friends every sentiment of unkindness or injustice in thought, word or deed.

The N. York Sun mentions the names of Gov. Vance, Hon. F. L. Clingman, Hon. A. S. Merrimon, and James M. Leach, as candidates in North Carolina for U. S. Senator. The Sun thinks the chances are rather in favor of Gov. Vance, and that the republicans will unite their forces and try to elect Merrimon as they did six years ago.

FALSE ECONOMY.

The present Democratic House of Representatives commenced its work of false economy by cutting down wages, and not satisfied with the amount saved, it seeks to swell the sum by stopping necessary public work. This may make a good showing on paper, but it makes a truer showing in the over-crowded poor-houses of our land. What the people want is more work, not less, and if we are not mistaken, those who have failed to recognize this fact in the dominant party in the House will have an opportunity to attend to their private business after next Fall. Money saved by forcing people to be idle will in the end lead to national bankruptcy. —Ral. Register.

What a strange idea of government! Must not economize; must not curtail expenses and thus reduce the taxes, because it will deprive men of employment! What is the government! It is made up of agents who the people elected to perform certain public duties—collect the taxes and run the public machine for the benefit of all alike. There is no law made any where for devising work for idle hands to do. There is no officer in the national system to take care of the poor, the destitute or the idle; and any one assuming to do any one of these things would transcend the authority derived from the law or the people. The officers are expected to administer the government with the strictest economy, and employ no one except as the public interest requires.

Valuable.—The water of the Artesia Well at Livingston, Alabama, has been found to possess valuable medicinal properties. The analysis, repeatedly made, has shown chloride of sodium in largest proportion, bi-carb. of lime next, then bi-carb. of magnesia, chloride of calcium, chloride of magnesia, bromide of sodium, with other things in lesser proportions. It has been found valuable in cases of dyspepsia, a variety of kidney diseases, debilitation from malarial affections, an enlarged spleen, livers, dropsies, and those diseases which produce nervous derangement. We refer to this subject wholly for the benefit of the public. The water is free to all who choose to try it, and visitors are free to provide for themselves such accommodations as they prefer.

"Interlocutor Extraordinary."—The Raleigh News report of a political talk through a Telephone, with Gen. Clingman, is a very readable thing indeed—masterly in its way—but the General's Speech at Chapel Hill, June 26th, before the University Normal School, is such a handsome contribution to science, and stands so largely for his recent political blunder, that we haven't got the face to gore him with a rehearsal of the telephone. The General ought to be at the head of some grand scientific institution, or some leading college. His varied learning and great abilities fit him for any position requiring these, in this or any other country.

Those of our merchants who have out traveling salesmen, say they have no reason to complain of the condition of business—that it is much better than it was at the same time last year. —Charlotte Observer.

Some of our State papers want to tax these "traveling Salesmen"—"commercial travelers"—$500. We told them that it would not do, and now we reckon they see it won't.

The proposition to reduce the tax on tobacco to 16 cents per pound, after passing the House, failed for want of time to reach the Senate before the adjournment. The discussion of the matter, and delay of final action, has caused considerable loss to tobacco raisers. Maj. Robbins has been blamed for this loss by men who seek his injury. The absurdity of it does not balk them at all.

Mr. R. M. Douglass, Marshal of the North Carolina Western (U. S.) Judicial District, has been re-appointed by the President.

Mr. A. M. Erwin, of McDowell, and Jno. Gray Bynum, of Burke, have been nominated to represent the 36th Senatorial District in the Legislature.

SERIOUS FAILURE.

The most important event of the week to this community is the suspension of "the Bank of Wilson & Shober." The announcement was made on the 25th inst. that they had made an assignment to W. F. Bowman, the largest depositor; Robert Sloan, the Cashier; and F. E. Shober, Esq., of Salisbury. The principle features of the assignment are the following: 1st. All the property belonging to Wilson & Shober is embraced under the first department—to pay the indebtedness of the firm. 2d. Each member of the firm has embraced all his individual property to pay his individual obligations (which are small in each case) and the residue goes to the creditors of the firm. 3d. The creditors all share alike in the assets, which the Trustees hope will be sufficient to pay all the indebtedness. The general opinion is that the assignment is the "fairest instrument ever put on record in the county." The honor of neither of the gentlemen has suffered but shown out in fuller grandeur by this last act of self-sacrifice, so trying to men who are called to pass through it.

The liabilities, we understand, are about $160,000; assets consisting of real estate, mortgages, notes, bonds, &c., $300,000. In ordinary times the assets would be more than ample to meet all liabilities and leave a large margin, and even in the present depressed condition of financial affairs with reasonably good management on the part of the Trustees, who are gentlemen of business capacity, the impression prevails that the property in trust will meet all liabilities. —Greensboro Patriot.

COMMENCEMENT AT DAVIDSON COLLEGE.

Wednesday and Thursday of this week were the two prominent days of the Commencement Exercises at Davidson College. We were present one day and spent a pleasant time with old friends and acquaintances. For special courtesies we are indebted to Chief Marshal W. H. Neel, Rev. Dr. Hepburn and Prof. Martin of the College Faculty, Mr. H. P. Helper, Rev. W. P. Williams and lady, Dr. and Mrs. Holt, Mr. R. A. Brady.

On Wednesday the 26th at 11 A. M., the Hon. G. J. Orr of Atlanta, Ga., (but a native of this county) delivered the Annual Address to a very respectable audience in the College Hall. His subject was "How to choose a Profession," and without any superfluous words or attempts at polished rhetoric, his address abounded in practical thoughts and suggestions to the young men in regard to selecting a business occupation in life. Those who expected the usual abstruse arguments about Science, Literature, Theology, &c., were probably disappointed, but those who are fond of good common sense and practical advice were pleased and delighted.

In the afternoon, at 4 o'clock, Frank I. Osborne, Esq., of this city, delivered the address before the two Literary Societies. The speaker was quite unwell, but he nevertheless pleasantly entertained his audience for nearly an hour with an elegant and well-written address, filled with brilliant thoughts and references to the experiences of every-day life. A copy was solicited for publication but refused.

At 8 P. M. the Hall was filled to overflowing to hear the speeches of the representatives of the Philanthropic and Emancipatory Societies. The following was the Programme: Liberal Education—J. A. Wilson, (Emancipatory Society), of Yorkville S. C. A Heroine of the French Revolution—A. G. Buckner (Philanthropic Society), of Asheville, N. C. The Statesman and Politician—E. T. Brown (Emancipatory Society), of Gainesville, Ga. The Patriots of Warsaw—F. M. Williams (Philanthropic Society), of Newton, N. C. The Tyranny of the Majority—James L. Williams (Emancipatory Society), Charlotte, N. C. The Battle of Jena—J. W. Osborne (Philanthropic Society), Charlotte, N. C.

All the above gentlemen acquitted themselves handsomely, and we heard elderly gentlemen, who have attended many Commencements in this and other States, say that they never heard better addresses from College orators. All did so well that it is hard to tell which excelled, but if there was any difference it was in favor of Mr. James W. Osborne, of Charlotte. At the close of the Society Addresses five young gentlemen were awarded Medals for proficiency in studies.

COMMENCEMENT DAY.

Thursday, June 27th, was greeted by a large attendance of visitors, and at 10 A. M. the large Hall was crowded to hear the Orations of the Graduating Class, as follows: The Latin Salutatory—J. Lindsay Patterson, Salem, N. C. The Labor Insurance of 77—James T. Murphy, Clinton, N. C. The Fall of Constantinople—Wm. J. Tidball, Greensboro, N. C. Sound and its Recent Developments—Jno. P. Little, Jr., Little's Mills, N. C. Russia, the Coming Power of Europe—Wm. H. Neel, Steele Creek, N. C. Music as a Fine Art—Geo. F. Robertson, Asheville, N. C. The Emancipation of Woman—Jas. L. Williams, Charlotte, N. C. The Classics as a Means of Education—William S. Fleming, Wetumpka, Ala. The Norman Conquest—Chalmers C. Norwood, Fort Valley, Ga. Macaulay as a Politician—W. Walter Moore, Charlotte, N. C. Chemistry and Modern Civilization—Henry W. Maloy, Laurel Hill, N. C. The Valetudinary—Charles McG. Hepburn, Davidson College, N. C.

Those who heard the orations speak in very complimentary terms of them, and of the good conduct of the twelve young men who graduated.

At the conclusion of the orations, certain prizes were delivered to students, and degrees conferred, which will be noticed hereafter.

We learn that the Board of Trustees of the College have ordered a change in the time for holding Commencement Exercises. Hereafter Commencement will take place the second week in June, instead of the fourth as heretofore. The Board also consolidated the office of secretary and treasurer into one and elected Rev. J. Rumpke to fill it. The degree of LL. D. was conferred upon the Hon. Kemp P. Battle, of Chapel Hill.

We are pleased to learn that the prospects of the College are very encouraging. The character of the Faculty is high for ability, and the management of the President, Rev. Dr. Hepburn, is very gratifying to the Trustees and the friends and patrons of the institution.

That Little SHOP

AROUND the CORNER. To the Public, GREETING: JULIAN & FRALEY Present compliments to the public and desire to call renewed attention to their efforts to be useful as CABINET MAKERS AND CARPENTERS. Their prices are as low as it is possible to make them, and their work not inferior to any. They fill orders in two departments, and have so far given satisfaction. They have extended their facilities recently, and are encouraged to hope for increased demands. Their ready made stock in hand comprises a general assortment of house furniture—Bedsteads, Bureaus, Clothes Presses, Lounges, Racks, Wardrobes, Book Cases, Cupboards and China Presses, Candle Stands, Tin Safes, Desks, Tables, Washstands, Chairs, &c. They also keep an assortment of COFFINS of walnut, pine and poplar, from $3 upward. Also, Window Sash. They fill orders without vexatious delays. Will contract for carpenter's work and warrant satisfaction. Will take good lumber and country produce in exchange for furniture.—Shop nearby opposite Watchman office. JULIAN & FRALEY. ARTISTIC PHOTOGRAPHS. J. W. Watson, The old original and reliable Photographer, of Raleigh, has taken and fitted up the old Gallery on Main street, Salisbury, N. C., where he is prepared to execute all styles of Photographs, Stereotypes, &c., in the very best style. Call and see him over Plyler's Book Store. Work the best in the State. Hack Line to Albemarle. The undersigned is running a comfortable tri-weekly Hack line from Salisbury to Albemarle, N. C. Will convey passengers to Gold Hill, or elsewhere on the line, cheaper than any Livestock Stable.
