New Cotton Press .- A new invention. by Mesers. Butts & Bro., we learn from the Greenville Express, has just been introduced in Pitt county, which for durability, simplicity and cheapness of structure is destined to supercede all other cot ton presses. These gentlemen have also several other valuable inventions in course of construction.

JUDGE GRAVES.

We are glad to learn that this gentleman, who held his first court at Mocksville last week, more than met the expectations of the public. We learn from members of the Bar, that he presided with dignity and ability, and while courteous duty. He dispatches business well. ready without being hasty in his judicial opinions, and gives high promise of honprable distinction on the bench.

"T(0)URNER CASAQUE."

Polities doth oft make strange bedfellows, but who ever expected to live to see Joe Turner nominated for Congress by a Radical Convention presided over by Dick Badger! And yet this actually happened at Raleigh on Tuesday last. Poor Turner! A turner now in very deed as well as name, and likely to be turned out te grass in November. The whole history of American politics shows no sadder example of inconsistency, of disappointed to greed for office. Oh, Lucifer, son of the morning, verily thou art fallen to the estate of devils!

The Times remarks: "He has but to keep on drawing in a million a day by his four per cents. for six weeks more, and he will have dollar for dollar of the issue of greenbacks behind his counter. Resumption must of opoly. necessity be an easy thing for the government if it has little or nothing to redeem; but how business will thrive under such a constrictive policy is the question that now frets the nation. The country does not demand resumption, nor does the condition of af fairs require it, but Mr. Sherman says that resumption must and shall come whatever interests or whoever may suffer from such an unwise policy.

HON. W. M. ROBBINS.

We are truly glad to announce that the differences hitherto existing in the Seventh Congressional District have been amicably and harmoniously arranged Especially does it delight us to announce that this happy consummation has been brought about by the untiring efforts of the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this article. It will be remembered by our readers that the Democratic Convention of the 7th Congressional District failed to renominate Major Robbins for Congress and chose Colonel Armfield in his stead. Major Robbins however, and deservedly so, had many and warm friends and they were much disappointed, and at times it has seemed as if some of them were on the point of sacrificing their allegiance to their party, to their devotion to net be published this week, but presume their friend. Indeed a movement was on foot to call another convention at Mocksville and put out a candidate against Col- dollars. onel Armfield, the nominee of the regular convention held at Wilkesboro. This ging his friends throughout the district already added $875 to the fund.

We repeat that it gives us the greatest pleasure to print the above. It by no means surprises us, however, to learn that Major Robbins is pursning a course so te all, was yet firm in the discharge of praiseworthy, so patriotic and so conducive to the best interests of the party of which he is a distinguished member. Indeed, it is precisely what we expected of him, when, in his judgment, the time for him to act had come. Major Robbins is not the man to bring reproach and defeat apon the party that has so often delighted

Colonel Armfield, we need not say, for we have already said it, is a gentleman in adorn a seat in Congress, and in choosing daily. between him and Major Robbins the Convention would not have erred had it taken and 80 deaths. either. The only regret doubtless was that it could not take both. We have known Major Robbins ever since his apambition, or of prostitution of principle pearance in public life, and whether in its adversity or in its prosperity we have never known him to be otherwise than the truest of the true to his party .- Raleigh

THE MAINE ELECTION .- Our dispatches this morning tell that in the recent Maine election Conner, the Republican candidate for Governor, lacked more than construction of the constitution, is for one blow to the Republican party of New 5,000 votes of a majority. This is a serieconomy, is opposed to the present tariff England. The matter now goes to the and to unequal taxation. Of the finances Legislature which, being largely Republican will, of course elect Conner, but the banks, including the prohibitory tax (10 party had not wanted it to be said that it per cent.) on other banks, to be utterly could not carry an election before the unconstitutional, and therefore to be re- people. Such, nevertheless, has proved to be the case. The Greenbackers have made serious inroads upon the Republi-States potes, and the issue of such notes can ranks, whence, it seems they have to be increased until sufficient for the derived most of their strength, as the Democratic vote, never large, has not been materially diminished .- Char.
