

The Washington "National Republican" of the 13th instant, comes to hand blaring with capital head lines announcing that the President has determined to change his policy of liberal confidence and trust in southern democrats to obey the laws in respect to the freedom of the elections.

Wesley Wycoff, in Catawba county, was shot and killed in his own yard on the night of the 7th inst. Subsequent developments have pointed to a negro as the perpetrator of the deed, and Wycoff's wife as an accomplice. They are both in jail.

The people of Statesville held a public meeting recently, to take the initiatory steps towards the organization of the Statesville Air Line R. R. Resolutions were adopted directing the Commissioners to open books of subscription in their respective counties.

The Charlotte Fair has proved a success in the attraction of visitors, who are there in great numbers. The glass ball shooting is a novelty, and the exhibits of domestic manufactures, &c., is said to be good.

Chamberlain, the radical refugee, is going back to South Carolina to stand his trial on certain charges against him in that State. If he is innocent he has no reason to fear; but if guilty let him not expect the reward of a martyr.

The Neuse Cotton Mills at Newbern, work up cotton into yarn directly from the gin, in which much saving of expense in packing, baling, and afterwards picking, is claimed to be made. No additional power is required to run the gin, from which the lint passes directly to the baling and spinning machines.

The Air Line Railroad between Atlanta and New York, via Salisbury, Danville and Richmond, Va., commenced running on a new schedule Monday last. They have reduced the time to only 38 hours between Atlanta and New York—out only one night, and that in a palace car if desired. This is certainly quick time for a run of about nine hundred miles, averaging nearly 24 miles an hour, all stoppages included.

The bill of cost in the trial of the Bill Locke case, for stabbing and killing Pleasant Barringer, we learn already exceeds $3,000. With the prevalence of crime it is possible for the industrious and law-abiding people of the country to pay such bills of cost! This is a question worthy the attention of the next General Assembly. Justice should be made more speedy and the administration of the laws less expensive.

State Expenses.—We copy from the Raleigh News an article on this subject. Read it. State, County and Municipal expenses are all too large. The taxes are becoming insupportable. The people are groaning under the burden, and they look to their representatives in the legislature for relief. And there must also be a reduction of municipal taxes. There is a way and the people will find it, to reduce these burdens, and the subject ought to be fairly and squarely met by those in position to act on it.

There is a factory at Newbern, N. C., for manufacturing wooden dishes of the sap wood of the sweet gum tree. The logs are split with a knife into slabs of about 1/4 inch thickness, cut into suitable lengths, and pressed into shape by a powerful machine, the dies being hot enough to make the wood retain the dish shape. The work is quickly done. The ware is very cheap and chiefly used by retail grocers to pack up butter and fruit parcels instead of using paper and paper bags.

Negro Suffrage.—Mr. Blaine, in a recent speech at Washington, advertising to the additional strength the negro vote gives to the South, denounced it, and wants to know if the people of the New England and Northern States are going to submit to it. No one is surprised at this. They forced the ballot into the hands of the negro for the purpose of maintaining radical supremacy; but when the negro votes a free ballot then they denounce him and talk of taking away his vote. It will be harder to take away than it was to give it.

Colored Men Voting with the Democrats. A New Orleans dispatch states that throughout Louisiana on Tuesday last the colored people voted with the Democrats en masse, were enthusiastic in support of the cause. In New Orleans hundreds of the most influential colored men stood at the polls all day, and worked heartily for the Democratic ticket. This result, the dispatch adds, cannot be attributed to bull-dozing, as there was no canvass on account of yellow fever, and those who voted did so voluntarily. The Charleston News and Courier says at many of the polls in South Carolina the colored men came up by the hundreds and voted the straight Democratic ticket. This was noticeably the case in the District where Smalls, colored, was the Republican candidate for Congress, and whose overwhelming defeat was accomplished by the heavy colored vote cast against him.

Gov. Vance has designated by proclamation the 23rd day of Nov. inst., to be observed as a day of thanksgiving and prayer in this State. See proclamation in this paper.

Grave robbery is becoming rather frequent in the Northern and Western cities, the object of the plunderers being to obtain a reward for the restoration of the body stolen.

THE CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION.

The Democrats of North Carolina are feeling bad over the results of the late election in this State. They have lost two members of whom they were proud, viz: Yeates, in the 1st Dist., and Wade, in the 3d. The mortification is greatly deepened by the reflection that the seats of these gentlemen will hereafter be filled by incompetent and unworthy men, radicals of the worst sort.

The vote of this District, though not officially stated, leaves no ground to doubt the success of Maj. Armfield by a majority of from 1,000 to 1,500, to-wit:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Includes Armfield's maj., Rowan, Davie, Iredell, Alexander, Watauga, Alleghany, Yadkin, Surry, Forsyth, Wilkes, Ashe, not heard from.

We are indebted to the Statesville Landmark for a portion of the above returns.

The election in other States on the same day, came very near proving disastrous to the Democrats by giving the House of Representatives to the radical party, the best calculations yet made leaving the Democrats the slim majority of three in the House and six in the Senate. And much of this comes to pass by the neglect of the democrats to go to the polls and vote.

MOCKSVILLE, Nov. 7th, 1878.

Mr. Editor:—The following is the vote of Davie county, giving simply the majorities in each Township:

Table with 3 columns: Township, Democrat, and Armfield. Includes Calahan Township, Mocksville, Farmington, Jerusalem, Clarksville, Fulton.

Armfield's majority, 103. Helper received about 20 votes in the county which was his full strength. About one-third of the people came out to vote.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.

The Republicans have carried Pennsylvania, electing their State ticket by a majority of about twenty thousand, and likely to go a little higher as the official returns are received. The oil regions have cut some portions of the ticket, but not enough to defeat any portion of it. The Legislature will be Republican by a majority nearly or quite as large as that in the last Legislature. In the Congressional Districts there has been little change and the probabilities are that the delegation will stand as now, seventeen Republicans and ten Democrats. Steager, Democrat, is beaten in the Eighteenth District, but the Democrats gain Croft in the Seventeenth. From the Eleventh District, where Klotz and Brockway were running against Albright and each other, there is little information and Albright may pull through, but the indications favor Klotz. The State officers chosen are: Henry M. Hoyt, Governor, for the term of four years; Charles W. Stone, Lieutenant Governor, for four years; Aaron K. Dunkel, Secretary of Internal Affairs, for four years, and James P. Sterrett, Supreme Judge for the term of twenty-one years.—Philadelphia Times.

SOUTH CAROLINA'S VOTE.

The South Carolina Democracy surpassed themselves yesterday. They have re-elected Congressman Aiken and Evans in the Third and Fourth Districts. They have elected Cal. Tillman over Smalls in the Fifth District, and there is little doubt that they have elected Capt. Richardson over Rainey in the First District, and Mr. O'Connell over Mackey in the Second District—a solid delegation. Besides this, the Democracy have carried every county from which we have returns, except Beaufort. There could hardly be a more complete triumph, and the public satisfaction will be enhanced by the knowledge that the power now obtained, in the counties which have suffered most, will be used with liberality, beneficence and wisdom. The radicals, in general, did not vote for State officers, and in Aiken and other counties, it was evidently the plan to abstain from voting in order to give a color to the expected stories of intimidation. Happily no single act of violence is reported in any part of the State. This is evidence enough that the purposes of the Democracy are just and their policy is peace.—Charleston News and Courier.

THE NEW ENGLAND VOTE.

The most striking feature of the New England elections is the sudden collapse of the Greenback vote. It will be observed that in the manufacturing towns of Massachusetts, where the Greenbackers anticipated their greatest victories, their disappointment was most grievous. In Worcester, for example, the scene of Butler's great strategic victory, he only polled 3,755 votes, to Talbot's 4,352. In Fitchburg, another Butler stronghold, Talbot has 1,212 to Butler 877; and Lowell, the home of the champion of flat money, gives him the small plurality of 463.—New York Times.

The Colored Inmate Asylum.—The grading of the building site for this institution is being rapidly pushed forward. The building contract has been awarded to Messrs. Wilkins & Harding, of Portsmouth, Va., and we learn, that it is their purpose to commence laying the brick at once, and they hope at least to get down a good foundation while the weather will admit of it this Fall. The building to be erected now, and for which the contract has been given, will consist of a three-story main building and one wing, to afford accommodation for 115 patients. Another wing is to be put up later which will increase the accommodation to something over two hundred. The total cost of the property will stand the State about $50,000, which embraces everything, including the original cost of the farm.—Goldboro Messenger.

When it is remembered that all former estimates of public buildings have been more than doubled before said buildings were completed, it is fair to expect that it will take three times fifty thousand dollars to complete the Asylum at Goldboro—that much at least. The dimensions and expense of such an establishment should be considerably curtailed by the next Legislature.—Charlotte Democrat.

There are several things to be remembered in connection with the possibility that the Republicans and the Democrats may have a fight over the Presidency in the next House of Representatives. First, the chances are as hundred to one that the election will not go to the House at all. Again, if it shall go there, and the Democrats and Republicans divide the States equally between them, the Democrats will have the game entirely in their own hands. They can sit out the time, and yet secure the Presidency for in case of a failure to elect in the House, the Senate, which would certainly have the right to elect a Vice President, who would become President. The Democrats could do the same if the Greenbackers held the balance of power. But it is not yet certain that the two parties will divide the States equally in the next House. At the present writing it looks as if neither party would have a majority of the delegations. If the Democrats have a majority in the House, however, they may capture a State as the Republicans did the Presidency in 1875.—Rich. Dispatch, Dem.

In looking over the field there is another reported Radical success that we imagine the most brazen organ of Radicalism will hardly dare to claim as any indication of reform strength in that party. We allude to the election to Congress from one of the New Jersey Districts, of the notorious and branded thief Robeson, who used to be Grant's Secretary of the Navy, and who narrowly escaped expulsion from the Cabinet for stealing, at the time when Belknap was allowed to resign to escape impeachment by the easy and corrupt equivocation of his imperial master, the proposed third-term. Of all the unclean and hideous birds of prey that were allowed to perch in the government barn during its Radical occupancy, there never was one more nefarious in instinct, of more infamous character, of more predatory habits, or more evil visage, of more ominous name, than this same degraded and disgraced Robeson, whom all decent people had begun to regard as a branded outlaw and pariah, when the Radicals took him up and nominated him for a seat in Congress.—Petersburg Under-Appel, Dem.

The Grand Movement.—The Washington Post is authority for the statement that a conference of Republican leaders is to be held in Washington at an early day to map out a campaign for Grant and start the movement in his behalf in a systematic way. A sort of Hale and Gorham Committee will be organized to correspond with gentlemen in various parts of the country, and a literary bureau will be established to furnish small free country newspapers with thrilling essays on the life and public services of Ulysses. Boss Shepherd, we understand, sat at the head of the Washington end of the enterprise, and Parson Newnam has been detailed to work up the Methodist Church. This is a great power and it is one which the old Grant office-holding ring largely counting on. It is said that Grant will be brought back from Europe about the 1st of December and that a series of orations and receptions will be arranged to keep him in good trim.

American pluck was aptly illustrated the other day in San Francisco. A fine British iron ship of 1,100 tons went ashore at the Golden Gate in a fog, struck upon a rock and tilted. Her crew abandoned her, and the hull was sold as it lay for account of the British underwriters. Some mechanics and stevedore men of San Francisco bought the hulk for less than three thousand dollars, and then set to work to float the vessel and bring it off. They stopped all openings, shored the deck, so as to enable it to bear a heavy pressure, and they forced compressed air into the lower hold by means of powerful pumps. The stranded ship soon floated, was taken into dry dock, repaired, and is being speedily repaired. The whole cost of the venture and of the repairs will be under $12,000, while the ship is estimated to be worth fully $80,000.

Solid South Carolina.—South Carolina is solid at last. Every county in the State, except Beaufort, is reported to have gone Democratic. The Legislature has 142 Democratic majority, thus: Democrats—Senate, 29; House, 121; Total, 150. Radicals—Senate, 5; House, 3; Total, 8. Majority on joint ballot, 142.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA. To the People of North Carolina: Whereas, it is enjoined upon me by law and it is also sanctioned by the precepts of our holy religion, that one day in each year should be set apart by proclamation as a day of solemn and public thanksgiving to Almighty God for past blessings, and of supplication for his continual kindness and care over us as a State and people:

And Whereas, the President of the United States has appointed for this purpose Thursday, the 28th of November instant: Now, therefore, I, Zebulon B. Vance, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this my proclamation setting apart the same day, to-wit: Thursday, November 28th, 1878, as a day to be observed by the people of this State with thanksgiving and prayer as aforesaid, and to request them to suspend all secular business and assemble themselves together in their churches for the worship of God, and that they commend their professions to the Lord by liberal gifts to the widows, orphans and deserving poor, of the abundance which the past season has brought us.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed, at Raleigh, on this 14th day of November, 1878.

Z. B. VANCE, Governor.

CHAS. N. VANCE, Secy. Private Secy.

MRS. VANCE'S FUNERAL.

The party arrived at Asheville at 1:30 p. m., and the corpse was immediately taken to the residence of Dr. M. L. Neilson, the brother-in-law of Governor Vance, where a large number of sympathizing friends and relations were soon assembled. The funeral services were appointed for Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. The Methodist church, which is the largest in the place, was kindly tendered for the funeral services and accepted by the family. The pall-bearers were: Col. A. T. Davidson, Mr. Albert T. Stimmy, Mr. James P. Sawyer, and Mr. E. M. Clayton, of Asheville, Col. L. L. Park, H. A. Gentry, Maj. R. S. Tucker and A. M. McPheters, of Raleigh, who accompanied and had in charge the remains from Raleigh.

The Federal Court, Judge Dick and the Superior Court, Judge Ayers, were both in session, but refrained to attend the funeral. All the stores and places of business were closed during the services. A very large congregation assembled, and both the church and yard were densely packed. The services were opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. J. M. Atkinson, who was the pastor of Mrs. Vance at Raleigh. Rev. Dr. A. W. Miller then announced the hymn to be sung, which was selected for the occasion by Mrs. Vance, "I would not live away." He then announced his text the 15th verse of the 17th Psalm—"As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake with thy likeness." A more powerful, beautiful and eloquent sermon has seldom, if ever, been delivered in the State. It would be in vain to attempt to give any just report of the tender pathos and surpassing beauty of this most able and powerful presentation of the Christian's hope founded on the truths of the Gospel, as compared with the groundless hope of those who reject the Savior and of the infidel.

After the sermon, the remains were taken to the cemetery of the Presbyterian church, where they were deposited in a grave adjoining that of a son who died many years ago. This was laid in this mountain cemetery all that remains of one so noble to enter on that rest that remained for good people, and one who was so loved and admired by those who knew her best.

On the beautiful casket was a large silver plate bearing the inscription: HARRIET EREY VANCE. Born July 11th, 1832. Died Nov. 3d, 1878. Gov. Vance, his three sons and the party of friends accompanying him, resided to the city yesterday.

Ex-Governor Chamberlain's Sent.

A Washington dispatch to the New York World, dated November 7, says: "Ex-Governor Chamberlain, of South Carolina, arrived here from New York this morning, and remained at 1 o'clock this afternoon. During the few hours he was here he was at one of the departments most of the time. He declined to speak of the indictment, which had been found against him in South Carolina, and, on being asked if he had any comments to make, merely said: 'I have nothing to say.' To an old acquaintance who asked him which way he was going, he answered: 'I do not know whether I shall go to South Carolina or not.' His indictment has evidently surprised him very much, for it seems to have been kept a profound secret until yesterday, when he learned of it by a private dispatch from Columbia. Several of Chamberlain's friends who are in Washington do not believe that he will go to South Carolina to stand trial unless forced to by a requisition, duly honored by the Governor of the State in which he now resides."

Mr. Junius Boyer, residing in this county, had a very painful accident the other day. He was homeward bound from a hunting expedition, and in changing his fowling piece from one shoulder to the other, accidentally let it fall.—The gun discharged and the lead entered the front portion of one foot, causing a very painful wound.—Salem Press.
