

LOCAL

"Star Fire Company" out on parade last Saturday evening made quite a handsome appearance.

The Senior Cornet Band was out last Monday night serenading the four newly married couples now in the city.

Business is certainly improving many wagons from this and the surrounding counties are visiting Salisbury, loaded with produce of different kinds.

Mr. E. Q. Henderson, of Vermont, for some time past employed at Silver Hill, Davidson county, died of pneumonia at the National Hotel, in this place, Tuesday night, after an illness of about two weeks. His wife was with him in his last hours.

Caught.—Noyan Miller, colored, was detected last Saturday night, in the act of hiding and attempting to carry away a pair of shoes from Mr. Step Swicegood's store, but now, he is meditating over his ill luck in a cell of the county jail.

Married.—November the 5th, at the residence of the bride's mother, by Rev. Dr. Bille, Mr. M. L. Brown, of Concord, to Miss FANNIE A. SMITH, of Rowan.

May life's most endearing happiness, like beautiful flowers, follow your path with joy through life.

The Young Men's Christian Association are observing the week of prayer in accordance with the general programme. Their meetings are held alternately at the Methodist, Lutheran and Presbyterian churches.

Refined Sorghum.—Mr. Thomas Thomason has tested a refining process in the manufacture of sorghum which has been found to work to the satisfaction of many who use it. It removes much of the objectionable flavor heretofore damaging the sale of other syrups in this market.

How They Talk.—A clump of boys from 10 to 15 years old on the street, busy talking. One of the smallest addressing one a little larger said—

"Jim, didn't we have more fun four or five years ago than we do now?"

"Yes, a sight," was the answer, without raising his head—he was cutting something with a pocket knife.

Little boy: "Confound it, I don't know what's the matter," and he glanced up at the sky with a puzzled look.

Cutting Scape.—Paul Bailey and Peter Jones, both colored, had a falling out in the back yard of the National Hotel, Thursday evening last. They were attacked of the hotel as servants. The altercation ended in a blow from Paul Bailey with a knife, the blade penetrating to the bone above the left temple near the eye, and raking down towards the neck. The blade was broken off and was removed by Dr. Caldwell.

Hard to be Satisfied.—Geo. Pethel, charged with poisoning his wife on Sandy Ridge, in this county, had his trial moved to Iredell county. The case came up at the Iredell Court this week, and an affidavit he caused its removal to Mecklenburg county. He has secured the services of one of the ablest lawyers in Western N. Carolina for his defense—Arnfield, of Statesville, Shipp & Bailey, of Charlotte, and J. M. McCorkle, of Salisbury.

False Alarm.—One of our citizens, a night or two since, ran into C. R. Barker's drug store, seemingly quite excited, saying that some one had broken into and was robbing Mr. Lewis Vogler's meat stall, and called for help to catch the thief. Several gentlemen promptly responded to the call, went with him and quickly surrounded the premises, when one of the bravest entered, preparatory to bagging the game. But it proved to be a large cat, which was, no doubt, frightened away from a nice supper of beef, and as he rushed out, came near causing a general stampede of the crowd.

We Smokes.—A couple of young men called on some ladies one night not long since, and as the hours rolled by, they enquired of the ladies: "Can we smoke?" When this beautiful and loving answer came: "O, yes, we smoke." But they refused to participate, all the while insisting that the young men enjoy their smoke, adding that they liked the perfume of good tobacco. The young men smoked; the clock struck ten, and still they smoked; the hour was eleven, and the blue smoke curling to the ceiling formed a canopy, which hovered over the little group, as if weary, hiding them from the wretched "mama," whose curious eyes peered from the head of the stairway anon. The young men left in time to say: "was not the midnight hour, but ere they reached the gate, a rustling noise and quick step arrested their attention. To the inquiry: "What's the matter?" the reply came hearing, "Polly's sick."

Found Dead.—Our town was greatly shocked yesterday to learn that Mr. Geo. L. Gibson was found dead in No. 1 American Hotel. He left his place yesterday evening, went to the hotel and requested Mr. Utzman, the proprietor, not to disturb him until late the next day. Not returning to business, one of his associates investigated a search, and he was found cold in death as above stated. George was a general favorite in the town and his death is lamented by all.—Concord Sun.

Further information reveals the fact that Mr. Gibson came to his death from purposely taking an over-dose of morphine.

A bite from a rattlesnake is sometimes not more dangerous than a severe cough or cold. A well merited reputation has Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and this remedy is sold by all druggists. Price 25 cents.

Big Potato.—At the Agricultural Museum is shown a sweet potato, raised by J. G. Berkeley, Nash county, weighing 1 1/2 pounds.

China Grove Items. Rev. J. J. Renn is to preach at Harris Chapel next Friday.

A little boy adopted by Mrs. Hampton, living near here, fell from a wagon, fracturing his collar bone.

Capt. Lowrey, with his train, has spent several nights with us this week. We are always glad to have him stop with us.

Horse Thieving.—Last Monday morning, Alex. Hayes, colored, a thrifty farmer of this community, came into our office for the purpose of advertising a thief who had stolen a horse from his stable the night before. Hayes had, in the mean time, sent telegrams to various points, describing his horse; and before he had sent out any of his posters he received a dispatch from the authorities at Concord stating that his horse was there and the thief safe in jail.

And again, Monday night, Mr. Nath. W. Neely, near Third Creek, had a fine filly stolen from his stable. He also promptly came to town—sent out telegrams as in the above case, and but a few hours afterwards, received this answer from Charlotte: "Your filly is here and the thief is caged."

This is good, but it would be better if the punishment for horse thieving and other crimes could be made swifter and more terrible. It ought to be lawful to hang certain offenders on proof before a magistrate and twelve jurors, and thus save expense.

Concord Sun: On Wednesday evening, the 6th inst., at the Presbyterian church, Mr. J. F. Ross, of Salisbury, was united in marriage to Miss MOSELLE FOARD, of Concord.

At the appointed hour the attendants marched slowly down the centre aisle, in perfect time to the "Wedding March," sweetly rendered by Mrs. Laura Galloway, and took the positions assigned them in the following order:

Mr. Baldy Boyden and Miss Minnie Penick; Mr. P. B. Fetzer and Miss Mamie Mock; Mr. Hiram Ford and Miss Lila Springs; Mr. Tom Fetzer and Miss Nora Ford; Mr. P. B. Means and Miss Cunningham; Mr. Frank Young and Miss Katie McKenzie; Mr. Sam'l McCubbin and Miss Lou Allison; Mr. Hugh Jones and Miss Zeta Morrison.

The bride was given away by her brother, Capt. N. P. Ford, and immediately with the groom, took their position beneath a large floral bell, when the interesting ceremony was performed by Rev. L. McKinion, in the presence of a densely crowded house, after which the bridal party and invited guests took carriages for the residence of the bride's mother, where a sumptuous repast was given, and quite a number of beautiful presents were exhibited.

China Grove Items. Rev. J. J. Renn is to preach at Harris Chapel next Friday.

A little boy adopted by Mrs. Hampton, living near here, fell from a wagon, fracturing his collar bone.

Capt. Lowrey, with his train, has spent several nights with us this week. We are always glad to have him stop with us.

Jess, a son of John Brown, colored, while working at Sechler & Co's. cotton gin, had his hand caught in the cogs of the machinery, severely mauling several of his fingers, which were amputated by Dr. Cline.

Mrs. Jennina Stirewalt, while attending Mr. M. M. Ketchey's corn husking, was taken violently ill and could not be moved to her home. After a few days of intense suffering, her soul took its everlasting flight. She leaves two sons to mourn their irreparable loss. May God comfort them in their sad bereavement.

The Robbins Debating Society have just disposed of the subject, "Is Childhood the Happiest Period of Life?"

The debaters were: Affirmative, F. S. Starratt, J. C. Hinson, J. X. Maxwell, Geo. R. Platt. Negative, F. S. S. After a discussion of 20 minutes each, the question was decided in favor of the affirmative.

Business Local Column. For Choice Cakes and Crackers go to M. M. LINTON & Co's.

A choice lot of delicacies, Cooked Corned Beef, Salmon, Sardines, Shrimps, Potatoes, &c., at LINTON'S.

Breakfast Strips, Hams, Lard, Ham Sausage and Dried Beef, at LINTON'S.

Sugars, Coffees, Teas, Spices, &c., at LINTON'S.

THE RE-ADJUSTMENT OF SALARIES AND FEES.

From the Raleigh News. THE RE-ADJUSTMENT OF SALARIES AND FEES.

When the currency began to be inflated, the office holders plead for and received an increase of salary on the ground that the prices of everything else had risen. Now that the prices of everything else have fallen, salaries also should go back to ante-bellum prices.

The News has again vindicated its title of the "people's paper" by being the first to bring this subject prominently before the public eye and endorsing it with the weight of a successful and influential party organ.

There is some danger that some advocates of economy may injure the cause by their demanding too much retrenchment is needed. The next Legislature is confidently looked to, to reduce salaries and fees to a proper accordance with the stringency of the times, the enhanced value of the medium in which salaries are paid and the diminished income of taxpayers.

But care should be taken to leave all salaries sufficient to command talent and honesty. "The laborer is worthy of his hire." As one of the people the writer claims to have a right to speak on this subject, and as your paper has not hesitated, in the public interest, to shock some office-holders by advocating retrenchment, doubtless you will give the following considerations on the subject: SALARY OF GOVERNOR.

No reduction made in the salary of Governor can take effect during the present term, it being very justly forbidden by the constitution. Having agreed to take the office at a fixed sum, the incumbent is properly protected against any change in his salary. The proposed reduction must therefore be made by the Legislature this winter, as new incumbents will be elected before the next Legislature and then their salaries can not be touched for four years to come.

The salary of the Governor now by law is $4000 per annum and the use of a furnished house. At present the Governor's mansion not being occupied by reason of its bad condition, the Governor receives the rent therefrom. It is to be hoped however that a suitable mansion will at an early day be fitted up by the State for our Governor to occupy. Besides this the Governor is now allowed by law a Private Secretary, who gets $750 per annum, besides sundry fees and has leave to employ an additional clerk at $600.

The latter appropriation our present popular Governor uses only in part, but the Legislature, it will be remembered, is not for him but an unknown successor. To sum up; the Chief Executive for himself and his clerks is now entitled to $5,350 besides house rent, postage and incidental expenses of his office. Before the war Graham, Bragg, Reid, Ellis, and others received $3000 and no clerk hire. Why then should there continue to be this increase of $2,350 in one office to be paid by a people not half as wealthy as we were in 1861?

ATTORNEY GENERAL. The increased salary of this officer is another of the expenses entailed on us by the Radical Constitution of 1868. Up to that date the Attorney General was paid a salary of $200 per annum, i. e., $100 for each term of the Supreme Court, and the office combined with that of Solicitor of the Raleigh District. By the constitution of 1868 the office of Attorney General was more properly united with that of Reporter of the Supreme Court but unfortunately while retaining his salary of $200 aforesaid, and fees, an additional salary of $1,500 was added so that at present the salary of the Attorney General is about $3,500, to wit: As Attorney General, $1,500 Allowances for attending Supreme Court, 200 Fees allowed for State, 300 As Reporter, 1,500

The duties of the Attorney General, aside from those of Reporter, are almost nominal. He is allowed to practice in all courts, from that of Justice of the Peace up to the Supreme court of the United States. His duties, so far from interfering with practice, are a good advertisement. Why the tax-payers should continue to pay $3,500 for Attorney General when there are at least 100 competent lawyers in the State who would be glad to get the place at $1,500 per annum (or certainly at the present Reporter's salary plus the old Attorney General's salary of $200 per annum) is a question which this General Assembly must be prepared to answer. We have now the anomaly of the Chief Justice and his associates, debarred from all practice at the bar, getting $2,500 and their Attorney General getting $3,500, with full liberty and opportunity to practice.

SECRETARY OF STATE. The emoluments of this office are generally estimated at $6,000 to $8,000 per annum. Doubtless we could safely say they are $6,000. As we pay the Chief Justice only $2,500 we could probably get a good Secretary of State by giving him $2,500 in lieu of all fees and salaries. The saving to the tax payers in these three offices after reducing the Governors to $3,000

Attorney General to 1,500 Secretary of State to 2,500 (which are fairly good salaries for these times) would be as follows: Saved on Governor, $2,350 Attorney General, 2,000 Secretary of State, 3,500 Total reduction, $7,850

In what has been said there is no intention of reflecting on the present incumbents. They are entitled to receive their salaries as fixed by law. It is but right that the amount of their salaries should be discussed that the salaries of their successors may be adjusted at a proper figure. The writer has not been criticizing the income of these gentlemen but the salaries affixed by law to the positions they occupy, and those salaries the public will agree with him in saying, should be greatly reduced.

A FARMER.

THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION. Which has been in session in this city since Wednesday last will formally adjourn to-night. As to the place of meeting next year, this is left in the hands of the board of missions. Two places have requested the session to be held with them—Goldsboro and Oxford; it is probable, we are told, that the latter place will be chosen.

The convention now about ended has been one of great interest. The large and influential body of Christians which has had its representatives with us for four days past has had much wise legislation perfected in its behalf. The deliberations have been harmonious, the discussions have been temperate, and many of the addresses have been marked by vigor and ability. This dignified body has comprised among its members quite a number of distinguished gentlemen—some of them eminent in their holy calling, others known as sagacious men in the councils of the State. The convention has been in all respects creditable to the Baptist church of North Carolina; it well sustains the reputation of that denomination for intelligence, piety and zeal, and its labors last week must result in the spiritual up-building of the soul the welfare of which it has so plainly shown it has close at heart.—Char. Observer.

THE PRIESTER CASE.—Discharge of the Young Man. Ex-Cadet Priester, accompanied by his father, attorney and witnesses, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon, from Lincoln. Upon the arrival of the party at Shelby, Friday, Judge Schenck issued a writ of arrest to the sheriff of Cleveland county, who at once took the young man in custody. At the same time Maj. W. W. Fleeming, representing the young man as counsel, applied for and was granted a writ of habeas corpus, and the party came down to Lincoln where an investigation of the case was had the same evening. The witnesses were examined, the testimony being the same as that taken before the coroner's inquest in this city, and the judge, sitting as a committing magistrate, considering the motive of self-defense fully made out, discharged the prisoner from custody.—Char. Ob.

RECAPTURED. Last week we mentioned the escape from the stocks of Henry Husky and Bill Ross, two negro convicts. They were recaptured at the Cross Roads, in Burke county, by Mr. John Perry in a bold, brave and somewhat novel manner. Mr. P. met them in the road, and espied the well-known convict stripe beneath an old pair of pants on one of the negroes. He discovered that Henry had a pistol (the one stolen from the stocks when they left), which he proposed to buy. The negro offered it for $3, and Mr. P. took out the money to make the purchase, but before paying for it asked the privilege of examining it. The negro handed it to him. He then stepped back and cocked it, and ordered them to "stand," and with their own pistol brought them to the stocks and delivered them to the authorities. He was satisfactorily rewarded.—Lenoir Topic.

DYING OF STARVATION.

Our people of the South, says the Petersburg Post, who have recently suffered so severely the scourge of yellow fever, are not the only people in the world who are under a similar affliction. The United States Consul at Tangier has transmitted a dispatch to the Department of State at Washington, giving an account of the fearful ravages of the cholera in the interior of Morocco. The Consul, at the request of the foreign representatives, the Governor of Tangier and the Minister of Foreign Affairs, has retained the Presidency of the Board of Health, and has organized a quarantine for the empire by placing a sanitary cordon, with lazarettos, along the outskirts of Tangier. The misery among the people is great. Business and traffic are almost completely paralyzed. Hundreds are dying of starvation. To all these miseries small-pox and malignant fevers add their horrors. Never before has Morocco passed through such a fearful ordeal. All the leading Israelites and many Europeans have fled from Tangier, panic-stricken. While immense numbers of persons are starving in the very streets of Tangier, and while the merchants are selling all breadstuffs at cost, the authorities still persist in levying a tariff of ten per cent. on all imports of provisions. Add to all these fearful visitations the further fact that neighboring countries have almost completely cut off Morocco from communication with the outside world, and no gloomier picture can be imagined.

The Romance of a Tramp. Some years ago, at West Chester, Pa., lived an old man and a beautiful daughter, the latter of whom was addressed by a young man from Wilmington, Del., whose devotion was reciprocated. Finding that the young man was a relation to W. E. Underwood, who was hung for the murder of Goss, the father forbade him to come to the house, and to make the separation sure he moved with his daughter to the West. The young man entered upon a career of dissipation, and finally last week appeared at the farmer's house in Ohio in the capacity of a regular tramp, begging for bread. The door, in reply to his knock, was opened by his former lady-love, who recognizing him fell into his arms. A few moments later the old father made his appearance on the scene, and not liking the situation, fell a-foul of the young man and nearly beat him to death, so severely, indeed, that his life is despaired of, and he is now tenderly nursed by the young lady in her father's house. In the meantime the old man has become insane and ill, and his life is despaired of. Such, at least is the romantic story told by a Lebanon (Ohio) correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial.

The Lumberton Tragedy.—Trial of Alleged Accessories on Habeas Corpus. Mr. Melke, of the firm of Melke & Jones, merchants in Lumberton, and Mr. Mackenzie, both brothers-in-law of Miss Luck-haw, the young lady who shot and killed Ed. Hartman about two weeks ago, were taken before Judge Ashe, of the Supreme Court, at Wadesboro, Friday, on a writ of habeas corpus, having been arrested by the authorities of Robeson county, charged with being accessories to the crime. Messrs. French and Norment appeared for the defendants and Messrs. Roland and the solicitor, W. S. Norment, conducted the prosecution. The case was fully argued and at its conclusion, the judge ordered Melke to be discharged from custody, but Mackenzie was retained, and will be tried at the next term of Robeson court.

On the day before this trial, Miss Luck-haw, who has recovered from her illness, was confined in jail in Lumberton to await trial.—Char. Ob.

Nevada has gone Radical. This makes a tie of the States, supposing Indiana votes with the Democrats, and California to hear from. It will certainly go Radical. The Baltimore Gazette is trying to draw comfort after this sort: "There is every reason to believe that Daggett, the Republican elect in Nevada, obtained his seat through bribery and corruption. Sharon and Jones have manifested the States, and Mr. Daggett represents their money and not the State of Nevada. The first duty of the next House should be to examine Mr. Daggett's baggage, and if the taint of corruption is found clinging to his garments he should be promptly hurled from the battlements of the Capitol into the stagnant moat known as the old canal."

We advise Democrats in Congress to act with caution and do what is right and honest. They were rather swift in seating Patterson from Colorado, and the election in October showed how little the people of that State relished it.—Wilmington Star.

Decision in the McElwee-Blackwell Case. About three weeks ago, the McElwee-Blackwell case for the right to the use of the Durham mill sign of smoking tobacco was argued before the commissioners of patents, in Washington, the commissioner reserving his decision. The Raleigh News learns that the decision has been announced and is favorable to Blackwell. Our information is that this does not end the case, but that another appeal will be taken. McElwee's counsel are still persisting in the face of two decisions against him.—Charlotte O.

Vote of Mecklenburg.—There were cast in this county for Col. Steele 913 votes, and for different parties 14. For the election of 77 the total vote of the county was about 6,100 votes; thus the falling off of this year is more than 5,000 votes. This is due to the fact that Col. Steele had no opposition.—Charlotte Observer.

From the time a boy is eight years old until he is thirteen, he devotes two solid hours of every day of life, to learning how to make a new kind of noise. By the time he is thirteen years old he has accumulated noise enough to last him the rest of his natural life, and use three kinds of noises the same day, too.—Burlington Hackney.

PRICE CURRENT.

[Corrected by J. M. Knox & Co.]

Nov. 14, 1878. Cotton—firm Middlings, 8@84 low do 7@81 Bacon, county, hog round 6 BACON—country, hog round 15@25 EGGS 10 CHICKENS—per dozen $1.50@2.00 CORN— 45 MEAL—moderate demand at 48@50 WHEAT—good demand at 80@1.00 FLOUR—best fam. $2.50 super. 2.23 POTATOES, IRISH 75 ONIONS—no demand 75 LARD— 8@10 HAY— 30 OATS— 25@30 BREWERY— 20 APPLES, dried— 6@7 SUGAR— 10@12 1/2

Blackmer and Henderson, Attorneys, Counselors and Solicitors. SALISBURY, N. C. January 22 1876—tt.

Wilmington Sun. Under the above name A Daily Democratic Newspaper of twenty-eight wide columns will be issued in the city of Wilmington, North Carolina, on or about Thursday Morning, October 17, 1878.

The Sun will be published by the SUN ASSOCIATION, from the Printing House of Messrs. Jackson & Bell. It will be printed in first-class style, on good paper, and its contents will be the best that can be obtained. It will be published in this State. The Sun will be edited by Mr. C. W. Harris, a well-known journalist and business man, and will be in complete accordance with the public interest. It will be published at the following rates: For one year, $10.00; for six months, $6.00; for three months, $3.50; for one month, $1.00. Single copies, 5 cents. The Sun will be published at the following rates: For one year, $10.00; for six months, $6.00; for three months, $3.50; for one month, $1.00. Single copies, 5 cents.

SUFFICIENT CAPITAL. For all purposes, and it will use its money freely in furnishing the people of North Carolina with the most reliable information on all subjects of current interest. Above all things it will be a NEWS PAPER. And yet an important feature of the Sun will be the publication of the names of the members of the North Carolina Legislature, and of the names of the members of the State Senate, and of the names of the members of the State House of Representatives, and of the names of the members of the State Council of Education, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Agriculture, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Health, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Charities, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Prisoners, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Lunatics, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sailors, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Widows and Orphans, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Invalids, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Poor, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Deaf and Dumb, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Blind, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Idiots, and of the names of the members of the State Board of the Paupers, and of the names of the members of the State Board of Soldiers and Sail