ooking as bright as a new pin. Judge Kerr's health continues bad, and is likely that all the courts on his cirgit will fail, Sturgeon, fresh, has been on sale here

The catch of this fish bew Wilmington is said to be large. Pine rains in the southern part of the county Tuesday night. Crops looking

There is very general and pleased satisfaction with the nomination of Mr. terr Craige for Mayor,

A. L. Clinard, formerly a clerk at the Boyden House, was committed to jail in sufferer from spinal meningitis for several days. His condition is reported to be improving.

We acknowledge the receipt of complimentary tickets from the Marshals and Mr. James Horah, at Davidson College. Commencement there June 11th, prox.

The annual meeting of the Stockholers of the Salisbury Gas Light Company will be held at the office of J. Allen Brown, Saturday, 10 o'clock, A. M., May

Mr. GEORGE MORGAN, of Winston has ent us a bottle of superior black writing ink. Those wanting such an article by the quantity can doubtless obtain it on liberal terms by addressing him.

mentioned in comparison.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Frank Williams of Davie, who was so badly hurt

A Mission Meeting has been going on in St. Luke's Episcopal church for about fen days, conducted by the Rector, assisted by Rev. Mr. Byann, Rev. Mr. Curtis stomachs. and Rev. Dr. Sutton. The attendance has been good, and it is believed the been in vain.

Mr. John Whitehead's numerous friends here will be more gratified than surprised to learn that he has lately obtainfour, in a class of more than a hundred that received perfect marks.

Enochville Items.

We notice that quite a number of persons, from a distance of several miles. requent the mercantile houses of this place, which goes to prove that the merchants have won for themselves a reputation for honesty and fair dealing which they justly deserve.

the last Enochville Items, it should have from one to two.

The Sunday School was organized here W. E. Litaker, Superintendent ; J. H. Eagle, Assistant; A. Yost, Secretary, and J. Goodnight, Treasurer.

For the Watchman.

liver, and so drinks enough whiskey to or dry," that I have been in, during the tion of drunkenness, he might "peach" logue prices.

nerve him to the execution of the fiendish past 4 years, in either of the Carolinas. in his "cups." conceptions of his sober nature,-is But should the unwise policy of, ostensi- I am entirely impersonal, but have drinking the cause of his crimes? Who ble, prohibition prevail, I predict that in many noble men in my mind when I say tional government permits and encoura- "Tempters" now are Quixotic figments: weakness." The above portraitures of

of these three postulates to common sense. secret and unutterably dangerous, though observation, reading and calm thought. mation of drinking habits in youth that on this now no further than to say that, death; and their prototypes are of the is more prevalent than is generally legislative attempts to advance reforms whole world, past and present: and they thought of; habits which are not formed that pertain wholly to individual affairs are drawn solely for the evolution of corin saloons, and which prohibitory laws and conscience, only spur up resistance rect general principles, from which to are powerless to prevent, but rather tend to law and order. I will here transcribe draw true deductions, and to prove that, to strengthen and increase. I will pre- an epitaph copied from a tombstone in an while drunkenness is the cause of utter Mr. Yopp has improved the internal sent it through a truthful portraiture of Italian graveyard; "I was well: wanted misery to its victims, it is not the cause grangement of his book store, and it is the main cause applied to one case.

hopes blasted when brightest.

Youths of the most pure and fine grained natures, reared with the utmost tenderness and watchful care, devoted to study and diligent in self-improvement, about the eventful epoch when their ity. But when it takes the form of grave "tempters" at all, it would be of the jugs voices change from the treble to bass, pronunciamentos against drinking as the of genial friends, which will abound when begin, in obedience to the promptings of main cause of all crime, it is fruitful of saloous are non est. our highest humanity, to feel a lively in- misguided good intentions and redolent I thank "More Anon" for stating a fact, terest in the opposite sex. Par example, of the inspiration of spiteful bitterness. of which I was previously ignorant, viz, we will take one whose studious habits it assumes that drinkers have no rights that a man cannot keep a saloon unless have so intensified the diffidence of his that tectotalers are bound to respect : and he has a proven "good, moral character." reffring nature, that he would be less ap- arrays the latter against the former, as It will be of use when I reach that point, palled by the alternative of sleeping alone terriers against rats. To illustrate forci- where a defense of that much abused in some dismal and remote haunted bly this fallacy, I will present one rank class of citizens is in order. house, during a wild stormy night, than section of crime, in which the natural facing the array of enchanting young depravity of one sober man, is the cause beauties he expects to meet at his first of much drunkenness, and crime, in party, knowing, as he intuitively dors, others. that the dear creatures are always merry, The "Champion" rascality, and master quizzing and provokingly self-possessed. spirit of crime is the seduction of the vir-He feels certain that he will blush and tue of girls and young women; it is instammer; be awkward, self-conscious and finitely worse than the combined essence absent-minded whenever any one of the of murder, arson and robbery. And seyoung ladies speaks to him: In short, he duction is pre-eminently a crime of sobri-Lexington, a few days ago, on the charge will appear at a disadvantage when he ety. I have often wished that women wishes to be most prepossessing. But were empowered to legislate so far as to the instintive impetus is irresistible, so enact laws for the utter extinction of Mr. John C. Deaton has been a terrible he puts "Excelsior" on his banner, nais these incarnate fiends. I would have it to the staff, and seeks counsel and sym- them pilloried and pelted for a day and pathy from some trusty young friend, then crucified after a nameless mutilation. who has past his novitiate in such affairs. The seducer is worse than the garroter, For the last six or seven years I have His friend, with sincere well meaning, for he needs courage: but the seducer prescribes a dose of whiskey or brandy, makes his cowardly attack on unprotected just before starting, with the accompani- female weakness. He is worse than the ment of a few cloves or other de-odorizers thief, for he steals perishable goods: the in his vest pocket. He acts on the ad-seducer steals character, happiness and vice: finds it a charmet acquits himself the crown of female loveliness, which is beyond his highest hopes: and at all fu-virtue, and then tries to conceal the ture like re-unions, -indeed, where-ever turpitude of his foul crime, in the more he goes, where diffidence might interpose perfect ruin of his victim, by slander. a barrier to the enjoyment he would im- He is worse than the poisoner, who plies company with comrads of "light heart," part and receive, this dangerous antidote his black art to destroy physical life: the social glass is handed round, with at the bottom of it know perfectly well is used with increasing frequency and while the seducer puts his woeful chalice happy smile and pleasant repartee. 'Tis what they are about. They have for their recklessness, until it becomes a daily ne- to the lips of the spirit, and, with fleudish cessity. To pursue the tracks of the atrocity, false pretences of affection and first false step in the above example of cause and effect, is unnecessary: a tender and delicate, but too devoted young men, all of good society, would re-All know that, in many cases, it leads to lover, to partake of a crime that entails an early manhood of obscured intellect, upon her a life-long disgrace and misery! blunted energies, sensual proclivities and And while he pays hardly the shadow of they studiously avoid. It would be a flame of sectional strife and hate, regarda nominal penalty to law, (strangely Speaking of fine fish, the memory of some speaking of fine fish, the mem Yarrows, will not allow "coast fish" to be buoyancy could be obtained with no dan- the other hand, is "a lost star." She is harm" they, say in drinking a glass pri- ports it knows to be infamous and inger of ruinous results, as above. In even fortunate if her mother still lives: vately, but it would set a bad example, human. addition to the danger of excess at all otherwise, she has not one friend. Even and injure themselves socially, to enter a Mr. Whitthorne's proposal is of the first times, the use of ardent spirits creates a her own sex (strange anomaly) turn piti- bar and drink a friend's health in public. consequence. Let him proceed with it. morbid appetite, almost irrepressible, in lessly against her. She is shunned as a those of warm and extreme social temper- leper; and to retrieve is impossible. She by being thrown from his buggy last week, ament, while pure wine and beer do not. is an outcast from every chance to earn a is doing well. His physicians, thinks The ancient churchmen were such lovers respectable living, even in the humblest he will be able to travel to his home early of the juice of the grape that, while incul- menial capacity. "Man's inhumanity to temptations I have just described are saying what it says. The census explacating temperance in the use of it, as in such, makes countless thousands mourn." all good gifts, they, in all their writings, Poor girl! Vile humanity! If instinccall the church the vineyard of the tive fear of death prevents the culmina-Lord." A moderate use of pure wine is tion of suicide, there is but one avenue of is beset with more subtle and tempting States, colonize them in Northern States, a social virtue, while total-abstinence is escape from starvation left open to her, - baits. "Be jolly for once in your life." the conscience of weak and disordered prostitution. There is no scope now to "Sip from the flowing bowl, just with me, 1880 can be completed. By this means the whole of France is cultivated in she, in turn, corrupts others until the wine exported, the Gov't returns make to untold bounds ! This Medical College. He is one out of among the 3,000,000, in New England." gin, earmine and ragged soiled muslin: a century? The Hon. D. M. Barringer, in his agri- thing too hideous to show in daylight; a While it may do good to some, I am concultural address at Charlotte, in 1858, in fond lamp glimmering out its dregs : every vinced that the temptations of the young alluding to the culture of the vine, an- vestige of hope long lost; with no desire men of the better class will be greatly innounced the astonishing fact, that outside left for anything but money enough to Says an exchange: Mr. John M. White- of England, he had not, in all his travels insure food and shelter, and to buy ardent head, son of Dr. M. Whitehead, of Salis- in Europe, seen an intoxicated man! spirits to inspire the glee of the damned bury, recently passed his examination at "Every body," he said, "drinks light beer, or the oblivion of the deal. The vile the force law, and necessarily, from the the close of his second year's course in and pure wines, but drunkenness is altenements of such pandemoniums teem increased number of moderate drinkers the medical school in the University of most unknown." The Rev'd Dr. Crosby, with like sediments of wretched human- who are compelled to buy by larger quanlenselvania with high honors. He was in a very recent address on the subject of ity, as hives do with bees. Their only tities, these meetings become more freone of only four out of a class of 126 who "True Temperance Reform" in the Anthon fear of prisons is the denial of whiskey to quent—consequently more dangerous. received the perfect marks of 100. Du- Memorial Church, New York, said, "The drown their despair. Is it strange that This force law does not strike me as the ring the recess he has been appointed as- off-repeated assertion, that drunkenness crime, and nothing else, abounds in these thing-why use force? The heart of man sistant physician to Dr. Chase in the dis- is prevalent among the European nations last retreats of fallen women? No. But rebels against it. When God, in his great pensary of the Presbyterian hospital of where wine-drinking is the common cus- is it not strange that grave teachers of wisdom, placed Adam and Eve in the no question of the validity of their claims tains has never been so enjoyable as the tom, is an absurd slander, as any person, Ethics, to save the tax, I suppose, on garden of Eden, He knew their weakness in case the bill passes. The provisions coming summer promises. who had lived abroad, could testify. The their analylitical reasoning faculties, take greatest amount of drunkenness is to be these horrid effects of sober crime and eating the forbidden fruit. Why did He tobacco dealers in the country a rebate of found in our own country, where total- present them as irrefragable proof of the not use force to preserve His newly made eight cents on every pound of tobacco abstinence reformers do most abound." I truth of their dictum that drinking is the people? Why not build a great wall now in their stores, except that which is travelled all through Maine and Massa- cause of nearly all crime? As compared around the tree of forbidden fruit, and in the form of cigars and cigarettes. This chusetts in 1852 when the "Maine liquor with them, the squirrel would be wise, thus prevent gratification, if his people legislation will, of course, receive the law" was in full force in both States. I "in its generation," that tried to begin were tempted? No! He only said: "Ye hearty support and co-operation of that in the State, and found, in every place, enables him to abuse it. that at hotels and elsewhere, liquor is There is one class of crime crushers, of try to coerce, or force temperance. As well sold and no questions asked. In this, as the most blatant "stop thief" species, might Adam have cut down the tree of in every other State where a similar law who, themselves ought to be crushed to forbidden fruit and cast it from the gar-The Only Route to Sobriety, Prospected. has been in force, people with money and silence, at least. They are those who den of Eden. influence can freely engage in the traffic, daily commit the most gross and afro- These are my humble opinions-they end in view, differing only as to the route. Every informer who can secure the con- loosely covered. As affecting themselves, of them and myself, prompted this effort With the, necessarily, scrimp space avail viction of any person, receives a share of they hold detection as the only crime: to call attention to at least one bad effect able in the Watchman," I can only pre- the fine imposed: and the class who en- and their high standing in society &c., of local option. ent a mere epitome of "facts and fan- gage in this work, are the lowest people comes of brazen self-assertion, and defavoring my views; and even that, in the community. They are despised by traction of others. In proof of this, apdiversified and multiform as are the in- cates temperance principles, shows the ln all the higher and more intricate gard only to receiving the return of the hate educated attributes of humanity. feudency of the prohibition movement in grades of crime, complete and systematic cost of production.—Charlotte Observer.

which makes it a crime for a man to sell ered ones, who "smile and smile and still human race to the last generation.

are his tempters? And what will pre- six months from date of saloon closing, it that there is much truth in the common vent his procuring whiskey while the na- will be a hotbed of drunken sottishness. saying, "drinking is the good man's ges its manufacture? I leave the solution then they will be countless realities; some criminals, I have drawn from wide There is one prolific cause of the for- unintentional and genial. I will dilate They are as true as birth and sure as to be better : took medicine ; and here I of crime against society, to any great ex-

W. H. NEAVE.

For the Watchman.

Local Option-Probable Effect on the Better Classes of our Young Men.

I do not, by any means, set myself up sides a colored family. A piano is seen as an example to be immitated by others; but merely wish to state a few facts in connection with this local option movement now on foot in Salisbury township. It is of personal observation and experience that I wish to speak. In the first place, I am a young man who has, as yet, his first social glass of whisky to swallow. been fighting against whisky drinking, (I mean personally) and have so far come out victor. My temptations have been as great, if not greater, than the average young man. The greatest temptation of a young man, is not the public bar, where all classes, white and black, go to indulge thing that will not be to Mr. Whitthorne's the craving appetite; but in the private room or boudon of some friend where, in here the appetite is formed, and the germs object the falsification of the next cenof a vice leading to shame, ruin and a sus. death blow to the jolly, social, oc- less of his fate.

Now, on the other hand, remove all the follow the grade of her brief career and my friend." "Come, my hearty, we'll the representation of the Southern States The Rev'd Theo. Parker, of Boston, rapid descent, during which, is she, poor, drink your health." Brighten your wits in Congress will be decreased and the rewrote home from Europe, "One third of lost heart, to be blamed if, in self-defense, and we'll take a game," &c., &c.

abors of these able gentlemen have not grapes : and besides the great quantity of seducer's crime spreads evil and misery these new and dive temptations which are made under the new census the "nigger" it appear that the French people drink By a "short cut" we reach her in the because I look on local option as a force back to the South or stay in the North-850,000,000 gallons of wine a year, which is about 22 gallons to every inhabitant, of such a rendezvous as, for instance, the century may have been mythical, but the This is, in all old and young. And I do not believe "five points," in New York city, a mere ear marks on local option show a close re- object had in view by the Republican there is as much drunkenness among the repulsive shadow of the "lost girl," mad, lation. Shall the mythical of the 17th be- projectors of this heartless scheme; it may ed marks of extra merit at the Philadel- 39,000,000 people in France, as there is pale and ghastly, -a creation, almost, of come a reality in the enlightened 19th be that it is some lower object; certainly creased, and, as I take it, is a risk too great to be lightly thought of. As it is, these social gatherings are few, but add that they would fall, and fall, too, from of such a bill would give to the $50,000 had never drank anything intoxicating up to that time, and I was 27 years old. I One more exposition of that ulcer on the dience led to their destruction. So, now, directly benefitted by the passage of the had the most ample opportunities to know society, the seducer, and I am done with whisky, a tree of forbidden fruit, is in our bill. the "outer and inner" workings of the him. Even in the rare cases where the land. We cannot remove it, let so-called We her some complaint about the law; but I reserve my own observations seducer of virtue succumbs to fear of the reformers say what they will to the conbridge over Irish Buffalo creek, on the and late documentary evidence of its chastisement of the male relatives of his trary. God says, "be temperate." Some road leading from here to China Grove. hollowness, for next issue. 1 may now victim, and reluctantly marries her, the are, and pass unharmed. Some are not, Some of the flooring plank are rotting and state however that in Massachusetts the poor girl is saved, to be sure, but there is and like our first parents, must suffer for several holes have been broken through. law was rescinded, as a failure, after one intent, still stands; and his act of osten-I will give a synopsis of the workings sible reparation only rates him among the his family and friends." Just so, and read from one to four miles, instead of of "prohibition now in force in Vermont, lowest class of seducers,—the white liv- Adam's disobedience effected the whole even a glass of cider! The correspondent are villains;" who stab behind in the In all sincerity and simplicity of faith, last Sabbath with the following officers: of the N. Y. World, resident of Mont-dark in every relationship of life. A I think these matters are in a higher and pelier, says he thas visited Rutland, thorough rascal, who values the confi- more powerful hand, and it ill becomes Burlington, St. Albans and other towns dence you repose in him only so far as it the followers of the meek and lowly Jesus to go outside of their legitimate work, and

HOPEFUL.

chigramatic compression. There everybody, except fanatical temperance peals to other times and countries are BIBLES AT TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.—We fore, while I must threttle some, to notice reformers, who employ and encourage unneeded. This land has teemed with have received from the American Bible all the dieta, data and deductions of the them. A prominent citizen, who has dismantled immaculates, during the past Society, in New York, a specimen copy opposite theorists, is impossible; and if I held high office in the State, and is one of decade, in every social and public posi- of a Bible, and another of the New Testtried, it would involve such a "spread" of the substantial business men, said the tion in life. To these must be added ament, which they offer for sale at 25 redundant verbosity and diffuse pleo- other day, "The result of the prohibitory those hordes of "highly respectables" cents and 5 cents per copy, respectively. tasms, as would swell my "com:" into law, has been to honey-comb the social who are only on, ade of State prisons for It seems somewhat marvelous that the such a plethoric mass, as to insure its re- community with hypocrisy and immoral- "grand larceny," by sufferance of faulty books can be printed so cheaply, espejection by Editor Bruner, with the terse ity. I have closely investigated the cause civil law, and whose highest self-justifi | cially as the work is done with so much advice, "So hire a hall," My mode of of events since this "Temperance Wave" cation is, that others, (often myths) neatness. The books are printed in agate bate, then, must be based on the fact has swept the State, and I find that, robbed them, which obliged them to rob type 24-mo, and are substantially bound that truth dissipates illusion, where the while drunkenness is not on the decrease, others: just as the common freebooter The managers of the society announce convictions are not hermetically sealed other forms of immorality are certainly says, in pallation of his robberies, -"The that they design to secure a wider circupreconceived prejudice. Teachers of on the increase. I would not permit my world owes me a living." Common hon- lation of their books through the channels who confound effect with cause, daughter, nor any respectable young lady, esty seeks no subterfuges, and owes no one. of trade; and, to make it for the interest either from ignorance or mental fatuity, over whom I might have any influence, Without a basis of common honesty to of dealers in books to accommodate their conducting very many, by false induc- to even attend the meetings of these build on, all superstructed virtues are customers by keeping for sale the Socition, to erroneous conclusions and mis- temperance societies, as I think it has hollow mockeries and dangerous preten- ety's Bibles and Testaments, they offer chievous ideas, are as "the blind leading been conclusively proved that they pro- ces: and those lacking this one attribute, to such dealers, and to them only, a dismote immorality." Such a statement should forfeit all right to an ipse dixit in count of ten per cent. from the catalogue Drinking, as a rule, is an effect, not a coming from an influential and respected social ethics, just as a penitentiary con- price. The Society does not seek profit, The causes for drinking are as citizen, who himself practices and incul- vict is shorn of his rights of citizenship. and in offering its books for sale has re-

Hence, if a man, known to be utterly bruthis State.

I will "rest" from quoting for the present in gangs of common thieves and barglars, a member would be at once expelled who is heart, but white cowardice in his like heart heart like heart heart like heart l

How the Negroes of the South are Cruelly Swindled and Deceived.

I saw a letter to-day written to Gen. King, member of Congress from Louis- days with regard to the health of the iana, by a lady of that State who owns a Queen., I have hitherto alluded to these large plantation, and whose daughter is reports, but they have become so permarried to a well-known English Earl. She writes that agents have been among ignore their existence. It is said that the negroes of Concordia parish and told for some time past Her Magesty's health them that the United States government has not been in a very satisfactory state. has ordered them all to leave Louisiana The death of the Duchess of Hesse gave and go to Kansas, where they are to have land and a good start as farmers. If they remain, however, at the end of eighteen months the Indians are to be of Connanght exercised a depressing inmen, women and children without mercy. There is another story current among Jenner considered that a change of scene time, the children have showed no signs do not leave she will put them to the sword. This lady tells of a well-known cotton and corn crops-both well under

A South Carolina member came up while Gen. King was giving me the contents of the letter referred to, and said the Radical agents in some parts of Louisiana are distributing among the negroes. Mr. Ellis says, chromos giving a rosy picture of farm life in Kansas. In a beautiful cottage, surrounded by trees, flowers and attractive home comforts, rethrough a front window, and in a rocking chair on the verandah sits a well dressed aunty, as contented as plenty and nothing to do can make her.

The Negro Exodus.

Here is another of those double-leaded. sententious articles from the Louisville something:

If Mr. Whitthorne, of Tennessee, does not press his resolution to investigate the 'exodus" villainy, we engage to do someadvantage.

This whole "exodus" scheme is a piece of scoundrelism. The monsters who are sent as an insult, an invitation to go into used, as the Republicans have always a bar to take a glass, for that is what used him, as so much fuel to fan the

From this they shrink. They do "no cruelty, which every vaillian who sup-

The prominence which the Courier bars, and force all whisky drinkers to buy Journal gives the above, and the exceedby the gallon, and keep in their offices, ing vigor of the language which it emand private rooms, the "horrid stuff," The ploys indicate that it has good cause for brought to bear in a greater and more nation is very plausible. The Republiuniversal way. On all sides, the young cans will have made a ten-strike if they man who has fought a good fight so far, can run all the negroes out the Southern and keep them there until the census of presentation of certain Northern States Ah, young heart! can you withstand increased. After the apportionment is about to be forced upon you? I say forced, can take care of himself; he can come

This is, in all human probability, the it is none higher .- Charlotte Ob.

Important Decision.

The Juror's Test Oath Before the Superm Court-The Act Declared Unconstitutional and Void. By telegraph to Wilmington Sun.

WASHINGTON, April 28 .- The following important case was decided in the U.S. Supreme Court to-day : Geo. Burt vs. The present consideration of the tem- with none to molest or make them afraid, cious, but trackless crimes. They have may be wrong, but they are honest. It is obliged than a witness is, to state on oath, pleasant result of the enterprise display-Perance question partakes but little of the batter of adelebate; for all have the same is by what is known as the "spy system."

| County the tents of make them at a display to the tents of the tents der him infamous. Whether pardoned by a general amnesty or not, the crime of treason is one which a juror cannot be required to disclose in this manner. If NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH BY (Stanly), Sophia Kirkpatrick or her heirs (in it by other competent testimony. and the insurgent States were restored Charlotte Observer. to their normal and constitutional relations to the Union, it was as much out a law quartering a soldier in every Southern man's home."

and has a weak back. -- Norristown Herald. 1 noon.

Queen Victoria's Abdication.

Rumors of a vague but somewhat alarming character have been current for some sistent that it would be useless longer to turned against them, and will slaughter fluence on her health. The journey to doing everything they can to star the Italy is not a mere holiday t. ip. Sir W. dreaded effects of hydrophobia. To this them that the Queen of Spain has pur- and an almost entire absence from official of pain, more than the flesh wounds, chased the land they occupy, and if they duty of any kind were necessary for the | There is but little doubt that the dog Queen, and this is the reason why she referred to was a genuine mad dog. Mr. has barried herself on the secladed shores W. H. Lutes, of Claveland county, was in colored man who sold his mule for $10, of an Italian lake. It is no doubt in couse- Hickory this week and informs us that a hogs for 50 cents apiece, and, leaving his quence of the somewhat gloomy state dog, filling the same description, had been ments regarding Her Majesty's health through his section. It was first seen on way-has gone to the promised land of which are passing in society that other Wednesday about eight miles below Shelreports connected with the succession to by-it came to some hunters in the woods, the throne are also current. It is said bit their dogs and made its escape. that unless a considerable change in Her Thursday it came by Senator Hoyle's Majesty's health takes place she will no store at Black Rock, bit his dogs and sevlonger be able to discharge the functions eral ducks and geese. Later the same day which belong to the sovereign of the it bit one or two little negroes who were country, and rumor points to the posi-bility of an abdication. It is an un-young lady who was recently married to several times seen the Prince of Wales. beating it away from her. The dog then duration, and the prince would seem to Mr. James Keever's, showing fight with be since to some extent discharging the dogs, cows, chickens and everything of duties of the Queen with regard to pub- the kind with which he came in contact. lic affairs during her absence in Italy. In Friday night he came to Hickory and a matter where there is necessarily a jumped on a negro man, who beat him of Courier Joural which always means ling surprise is in store for the Parlia- well's children, several gentlemen guardment before the present session closes.

Orange Presbytery.

Orange Presbytery convened in its three hundred and eighteenth session at ham, was chosen moderator, and Rev. S. M. Smith and Maj. John A. Womac, fects of hydrophobia.-Hickory Press. secretaries. Matters of great importance were considered and acted on. The new book of discipline, sent down by the Gen- LIQUOR, LOTTERIES AND ELEVATED RAILadopted by a vote of 37 to 7. The Rev. eral Sessions grand jury made a presentthe Rev. E. Hines, his pastorial relation liquors, and calling on the police and quarter of a century, was dissolved. The following delegates were elected to from 11 p. m., to 5 a. m. the General Assembly, which meets in Attention was called to the fact that Louisville, Ky., on the 15th of May; the Herald and Express were violating Rev. J. C. Alexander, Rev. F. H. John- the lottery laws in publishing lottery ad-

I. U. Faucett, Col. T. M. Holt, C. G. elevated railroads.

The next meeting of the presbytery will be held at Alamance church, in Guil ford county .- Raleigh News.

The Western North Carolina Railroad.

Raleigh Observer 26th. Maj. Jas. W. Wilson, president of the Western North Carolina Railroad, arrooms at the National Hotel. The progress of the road is quite satisfactory, morning. Price per day 65 ets. The cars are running to the eastern approach of the Swannanoa tunnel; track aving is going ahead quite rapidly on the western slope, and in a short time the very safest and best burning oil made, passenger cars will be running on the THE TOBACCO DEALERS' PLAN. - A cir- other side of the Blue Ridge in the direccular is being sent to all the tobacco tion of Asheville. Summer travel to the dealers in the country by prominent to- mountains this summer will be by rail bacco manufacturers of New York city, across the Blue Ridge for the first time stating that an effort will be made to get in the history of our State, and every aca bill through Congress allowing the to- commodation and facility for the enjoybacco dealers a rebate on their stock of ment of the magnificent mountain scenery tobacco on which has been paid the of Western North Carolina will be affortwenty-four per cent. tax. They are, ded from the cars of the Western North therefore advised, before May 1, to take Carolina Railroad. Open cars like those account of the stock of tobacco on hand used on the centennial grounds at Philaand have it properly attested before a delphia, are being built for the mountain notary public, in order that there may be section of the road, and a trip to the moun-

Parole's Victories.

The London Field, a sporting journal, backbone out of us. But a few days ago Salisbury, N. C. and almost to a nan we were prepared to bet our bottom dollar on England vs. America on the race-course, but our bottom dollar would have gone, and now we fain acknowledge that we must concede the priority to the horse from over the sea, for it is more than probable that at the present moment Parole is the best horse on the English turf, except, per-Maria M. Ponjaud, from the Circuit Court | acclamation, and had his plucky owner croup, etc. Use Coussens' Honey of Tar. of Florida; judgment affirmed. In this been present he would probably ere this Price 50 cents. For sale by C. R. Barker, case, one of the assignments of error in have biceps considerably stiff from the Salisbury, N. C. the court below brought up the question handshaking that would certainly have of jurors disqualification on account of been inflicted on him. Absent, however, NORTH CAROLINA, 1 IN SUPERIOR COURT. participation in the rebellion, and the as the owner of Parole is, our handshakconstitutionality of the juror's Test Oath ing must be done on paper, and heartily, Act. The Court held in an opinion by we congratulate Mr. Lorillard and his Justice Miller, that a juror is no more confrere and friend, Mr. Robbins, on the tackle English race horses on their own L Canup, and Sarah L Canup (the last two battle ground."

he be guilty, his challengers must prove STRANGULATION. - Yesterday morning, Indiana), and Caleb Canup's heirs in Himois), Miss Sallie, daughter of Dr. F. Scarr, who Defendants. In a separate concurring opinion, Jus- is a sufferer from an asthmatic affection, tice Fields gave his views as follows: "I suddenly experienced a failure of her reagree with the Court that Mr. Holmes spiratory organs to perform their fuctious, dered by the Court, that publication be made in this case, could not be required to ans- and in a very brief time was in a critical wer the questions put to him, but I go condition. Medical aid was summoned weeks, notifying Sophia Kirkpatrick or her further: I do not think that the act of and was speedily at hand. By this time heirs, and the heirs of Caleb Cannp, who are Congress, which, by requiring the test the young lady's muscles were contracted non-residents of the State, to appear at the ofoath as to past conduct, excludes a great and her face discolored. After forcing fice of the Clerk of the Superior Court of said majority of citizens of half of the country her mouth open Dr. Gibbon, with the as- county, on Monday the 9th day of June, A D. from the jury box, is valid. In my judg- sistance of Dr. Graham, lost no time in 1879, and answer the complaint which has ment the act is not only oppressive and cutting into her wind pipe and inserting been filed in the above entitled action, and if odious, and repugnant to the spirit of our a tube through which she was enabled to they fail to answer the complaint, the Plaininstitutions, but is clearly unconstitution- breathe after her langs were again filled tiff will apply to the Court for the relief deal and void. As a war measure, to be with air blown into them by means of the enforced in insurgent States when domi- tube. After a brief time she was restored Clerk of the Superior Court, Rowan county. nated by national foes, the fact could be and last evening was quite comfortable, sustained, but after the war was over but is still breathing through the tube .-

AN IOWA CONGRESSMAN DIES SUDDENof place and as inoperative as would be Ly. WASHINGTON, April 28 .- Congressman Rush Clark, of lowa, died suddenly in this city this afternoon. He was in good health yesterday and was seized at | [hereby announce myself a candidate for "Our First Baby," is the title of a new 3 o'clock this morning with meningitis, mayor of Salisbury, at the election to be held book. It is bound in muslin, of course, which terminated fatally at 3 this after- on the 5th of May next. R. W. PRICE,

Since last Saturday there has been a great deal of excitement throughout this community, caused by a mad dog. Two children, one nine and the other eleven years, sons of Mr. G. Caldwell, were very severely bitten by the dog early Saturday morning. The children wers playing around the yard at the residence near Hickory when the dog came up and attacked them. The dog seemed to be very terocious, and bit them in several places doubted fact that since the departure of the Mr. James Wells. She received several Queen for Italy the prime minister has severe wounds but finally succeeded in On Tuesday he had an interview with his came on through the "Hog Hill" settleroyal highness of more than an hour's ment, then through the neighborhood of good deal of speculation it would be idle with a board, not, however, until he had to make definite statemets, but there are lost part of his overcoat in the fight. Satthose who think that a somewhat start- urday morming, after he bit Mr. Calding at the railroad works, followed the rabid animal and gave him a silent grave near the Catawba river.

The Mad Dog.

The above is another illustration demonstrating the decessity of a dog law. We learn that there have been quite a Eno church, in Orange county, on Wed-number of the dogs killed through the uesday last, 23d. There was an unusual- communities above mentioned, and we ly full attendance, forty-nine members say that it would be better to kill every being present. Rev. A. Currie, of Gra- dog in this and Cleaveland counties than to endanger human life to the deadly el-

NEW YORK GRAND JURY REPORT ON eral Assembly to the presbyteries, was ROADS. - NEW YORK, April 29 .- The Genwith the Shiloh church, in Granville excise authories to enforce the Sunday county, which has extended through a liquor law, and recommending that future legislation cause licened houses to close ston, Maj. Thos. Sparrow and A. M. Mc- vertisements, and the grand jury recommend the matter to their successors. Alternates-Rev. J. H. Fitzgerald, Rev. and also the question of safety on the

MARRIED.

Married—In Atwell township, April 24th, by J. F. McLain, Esq., Mr. James lienry Hall to Miss Annie B. Vanpelt.

WORK WANTED -- A steady, able and a gardener by the day. Persons leaving orrived in this city last evening and has ders at the Watchman office the day before service required, will be waited on early west

The low price at which the celebrated Pratt's Astral Oil, acknowledged by all as can now be afforded leaves no reas in wly it should not in all cases have the preference of consumers.

J. D. GASKILL, Agent.

As spirituous liquors will injure men, so opium or morphia will barmfully affect the baby. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup is the remedy for the baby. It is free from opium. Price 25 cents.

The Mexican Dollar.

What is the difference between the Mexican dollar and Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment? One does what it promises and the other does not. The Mexican dellar says, "I am one hundred cents;" but when you come to invest it you find it is only eighty-five. Tabler's in a lengthy article on the recent victories | Buckeye Pile Ointment says "I will cure you of Mr. Pierre Lorillard's American horse of Piles;" and upon trial it is found to do so in Parole, says: "Our American cousins every case. It makes but one promise-to have on the race-course fairly taken the backbong out of us. But a few days are 50 cents a bottle. For sale by C. R. Barker, Conssens' Compound !Ioney of Tar has been so long and favorably known that it needs no encomium. For coughs, colds, sore throat, hoarseness, etc., it affords speedy relief, and is a most pleasant and efficacions remedy, honey and tar being two of its ingredients. The skill of the chemist, and the knowledge of a physician were united in its preparation, the result haps, his stable companion and fellow- being a compound which is the favorite remecountryman, the Duke of Magenta. The dy in this severe climate, and has no equal as second victory of Parole was hailed with a cure for coughs, colds, hoarseness, bronchitis,

> ROWAN COUNT !, 5 26th April, 1879. John W Frick, Adm'r of John Canup, Plaintiff, > minors), Vina Campbell (of Cabarrus), William Campbell, David Campbell, Sally Green

Petition to sell land for assets. Upon the affidavit of the Plaintiff, it is otin the Carolina Watchman for six successive manded in the complaint.

Witness, J. M. HORAH,

ANNOUNCEMENTS!

All announcements under this head will be charged at the same rate of business locals, viz: 15 cents per line for 1st insertion and 10 cents per line for each additional insertion.