The New York Commercial Advertiser, generally good authority, assures the Southern people that, excepting a few in- Wheat, Raisins, Currants, Fresh Macaroni, curable fanatics who have little money or influence, the people of the North feel no Mustard, Tapioca, Fresh Nuts, Sardines, desire to break up the present Southern labor system, and will contribute a hundred dollars to transport the refugees back to their homes from Kansas, to every one dollar given by any rabid hater of the South toward depriving her capitalists of the only available labor for them. As long as Southern whites treat the blabks fairly, they may rest assured that no such unfriendly scheme will find many friends in the North.
