The Charlotte Observer of this morning reports that Rufus Deaton, a hard-working man of Mallard Creek township, went suddenly mad on Sunday, and has since been a raving maniac. Such an event without premonitory symtoms is very rare.

SUDDEN DEATH.-Mr. A. L. WATSON, of Lexington, N. C., was struck with appoplexy, while sitting at the dinner table of the Charlotte Hotel, Friday last and died in a few minutes. Aged about 60 years.

The Maryland republicans in convention went for Blaine 89, nays 14. A resolution denouncing third-termism was negatived by avote of 81 to 27. The republicans are going back on their record onthis as on other subjects in which there was virtue and honor.
