The general trade in New York is reported dull, and prices for dry goods unsettled. There is also a depression in railway securities, resulting no doubt, from a general downward tendency of prices.

The Democratic County Convention of Mecklenburg, as we learn from the Observer, was held in Charlotte on Tuesday. It was a spirited meeting, and the leading men of the County took part in its deliberations. The meeting declared in favor of Col. Wm. Johnson for Congress, and the delegates to the District Convention, though without absolute instruction to support him, were advised to use all honorable means to secure his nomination. Resolutions were adopted pledging undivided support to the State Ticket. The meeting also endorsed Gov. Jarvis for Governor. Delegates were in structed to vote for J. Sol. Reid, of Mecklenburg, for Auditor; for Walter P. Caldwell, of Guilford for Attorney General; and John M. Worth, for Treasurer.

The Roanoke News attacks Judge Fowle on his opposition to the call of the State Convention of 1375. It will be remembered that the action of that Convention made it possible for the white people of the eastern counties to secure protection against radical rule and ruin, by giving to the Legislature the right to appoint magistrates and conferring on the latter the right to elect County Commissioners. Judge Fowle wrote a letter to Maj. John W. Danham, in 1874, in which he opposed a State Convention, and for this the Roanoke News thinks he is not exactly the man for the votes of the eastern counties of
