

The Carolina Watchman.

VOL. XI.—THIRD SERIES

SALISBURY, N. C., AUGUST 19, 1880.

NO 44

The Carolina Watchman,

ESTABLISHED IN THE YEAR 1862.

PRICE, $1.50 IN ADVANCE.

CONTRACT ADVERTISING RATES.

| Length | 1 mo | 3 mo | 6 mo | 12 mo |
|-------------|--------|--------|--------|---------|
| One line | $1.50 | $4.50 | $8.00 | $15.00 |
| Two lines | 3.00 | 9.00 | 16.00 | 30.00 |
| Three lines | 4.50 | 13.50 | 24.00 | 45.00 |
| Four lines | 6.00 | 18.00 | 32.00 | 60.00 |
| Five lines | 7.50 | 22.50 | 40.00 | 75.00 |
| Six lines | 9.00 | 27.00 | 48.00 | 90.00 |
| Seven lines | 10.50 | 31.50 | 56.00 | 105.00 |
| Eight lines | 12.00 | 36.00 | 64.00 | 120.00 |
| Nine lines | 13.50 | 40.50 | 72.00 | 135.00 |
| Ten lines | 15.00 | 45.00 | 80.00 | 150.00 |

ROSADALIS

THE GREAT SOUTHERN
REMEDY for the cure of Scrofula, Syphilis, Eczema, Tinea, Ringworm, Warts, Swelling, Gout, Gravel, Consumption, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, Headache, and all diseases arising from an impure condition of the blood, skin or scalp.

ROSADALIS CURES SCROFULA.

ROSADALIS Cures Rheumatism.

ROSADALIS Cures Syphilis.

ROSADALIS Cures Malaria.

ROSADALIS Cures Nervous Debility.

ROSADALIS CURES CONSUMPTION.

ROSADALIS has its ingredients published on every bottle. Know it to your Physician, and he will tell you its compound is the most complete and reliable of all. It is a ROSADALIS is sold by all Druggists.

BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA

For MAN and BEAST.
External and Internal.
THE GREATEST PAIN RELIEVER OF THE AGE.

Mott's Liver Pills.

THE GREAT VEGETABLE CATHARTIC
REGULATOR.

Dr. Rogers' Vegetable WORM SYRUP

Destroys WORMS, and is recommended by Physicians as the best WORM DESTROYER.

For sale by all Druggists.

JOHN HENRY CURRAN & CO., SOLE PROPRIETORS, New York.

For sale by T. F. KLUTZ, Druggist, Salisbury, N. C.

JAMES M. GRAY,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law,
SALISBURY, N. C.

Office in the Court House lot, next door to Spruce Hauling. Will practice in all the Courts of the State.

LEE S. OVERMAN,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,
SALISBURY, N. C.

Practices in the State and Federal Courts.

KERR CRAIG,

Attorney at Law,
Salisbury, N. C.

Blackmer and Henderson,

Attorneys, Counselors
and Solicitors.
SALISBURY, N. C.

UNITY HIGH SCHOOL.

The Fall term of this School will open, Tuesday, August 3rd, 1880.
For terms, &c., address,
E. O. McNEILL,
33-1/2 W. Wood Leaf, N. C.

Greensboro Female College,

Greensboro, N. C.

The 4th Session will begin on the 25th of August.

This well known Institution offers superior facilities for mental and moral culture, combined with the comforts of a pleasant, well-ordered home.

Charges per session of 5 months: Board (including washing and lights) and Tuition (including full English course, $75. Extra Studies moderate. For particulars apply to
T. M. JONES, Pres't.

LETTER AND NOTE HEADS, BILL HEADS, CARDS AND ENVELOPES printed to order at very low rates. Call at this office.

Notice!—The Milk of one cow is reserved expressly for infants at MRS. D. L. BRINGLE'S.

POETRY.

For the Watchman.

The Dark Horse.

Mr. Cyrus B. Watson, a prancing dark horse,
Came galloping down to the Yadkinville
race,
Having fixed it at home the convention
to boss,
Being big with the thought, "tis my day
of grace."

Tho' hitched up, he managed to kick out
the traces,
And to free himself from them, went secretly to work;
But he talked mighty fair to some honest
men's faces,
And they certainly belied all the words
that he spoke.

He fixed up the trick nice, to keep Robbins out,
"Put it to seven and a fourth," he told
bolting Lenny,
The Democratic strength will ruin us to
vote,
For by not doing this we'll send Robbins
to Guinea.

As for Armfield, I'm sure I'm much stronger than he,
And look! when the Robbins men certainly know
They can't nominate him they'll come
over to me,
And by this smart maneuvering to Congress I'll go.

Ah! wasn't it awful, when so near the goal,
With the Washington monument almost
in sight,
To be suddenly deserted and left out in
the cold;
The star of hope set in the blackness of night.

Mr. Cyrus B. Watson some advice I would give,
When next you aspire to a Congressman's
seat
Don't be a dark horse, for as sure as you
live,
Nine chances in ten you are sure to be beat.

—DEMOCRAT.
Statesville, N. C., Aug. 13, 1880.

POLITICAL.

OUR CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

We merely had time in our last to announce the nomination of the Hon. R. F.
Armfield for Congress by the Yadkinville
Convention which assembled on the 5th
of this month.

This nomination, no doubt, gave great
surprise to the people of the district, since
it was well known that the Hon. W. M.
Robbins was, not only the choice of a
large majority of the people, but that they
had so expressed themselves in their county conventions. Nothing that we can do or say, however, at this date will
remedy the matter, or change the nomination. Mr. Armfield stands forth as the nominee of the Democratic party in this district for Congress, and as a strict disciplinarian and consistent advocate of
party fealty and party organization, it is our duty to support him. Mr. Robbins
desires him and will do what he can to secure his election; and we sincerely hope
that every true democrat in the district
will join with us and labor to effect his
triumphant election by the largest democratic vote ever yet given in the district.
Let no questions of preference, or prejudice, warp our judgements or control our actions. Let us remember that the success of Democratic principles and the blessings of good government are of vastly more importance than the mere triumph
of this or that man; and that they can be secured only by the election of our Democratic nominees. We are not worthy to succeed, and we need not hope to do so,
if we allow ourselves to be scattered and
disorganized by the mere whims of politicians, or our own selfish desires, likes
or dislikes. Honest, patriotic men, struggling for great political principles and
honest, local self-government, can not afford to be daunted by insignificant personal preferences, or have their purposes
thwarted by the ill-founded private claims
of this or that individual.

Mr. Armfield is a sound democrat, an able man, a faithful representative, and
the chosen nominee of our party, we should, therefore, march forward in solid
phalanx and give him our united support.
Anything less would be unworthy of us
as men proud of our manhood and principles, and vigilant of our sacred rights.

Canst Thou by Searching Find Out God?

BY JENNIE JONES.

God in eternal glory dwelt,
Ere earth's revolving mass,
In living grandeur o'er it felt
The Holy Spirit pass.

His hand th' world with goodness crown'd,
When early time began,
While all the morning stars around
Creation's order sang.

He smiles upon the flowers that grow
Beneath the torrid rays,
And those that skirt Siberian snows,
Where raging Boreas plays.

He saw the flaming chariot high
The Hebrew prophet bear,
The fiery steeds ascend the sky
And paw the trembling air.

He bade Elijah share his love
With those who never fell,
And in those azure heights above
With kings and priests to dwell.

He fills the boundless realms of space
Where worlds unnumbered roll,
Yet sheds the blessings of his grace
On every humble soul.

His glorious works extend afar,
In regions dark—serene;
Beyond the farthest twinkling star,
By optic glasses seen.

Here wonders grand he will display
Eternal ages o'er,
Beyond the dreadful judgment day,
When time shall be no more.

WORDS WORTHY THE GREAT SOLDIER-STATESMAN.

One of his letters to General Sherman—
What He Thought of the Political Situation in 1876—His opinion of Inaugurating Presidents—The Peace
and Prosperity of the Country His
Sol. Aim.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The World,

publishes the following. This letter
was written in reply to two letters on the situation received from Gen. Sherman:

COMMUNICATED.

Just in Time.

Capt. J. L. Graber, of Litaker township, through the solicitation of his numerous friends of Litaker, Gold Hill, At-
well and other townships, has consented
to become a candidate to represent the county of Rowan in the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the primary and nominating conventions. If he fails to get the nomination on the 25th
instant, he will not bolt but retire, giving
his hearty co-operation to the nominees
of the convention, Hancock and English, as well as the entire ticket of the State officers.

Capt. Graber, we think, will make a good representative, being a gentleman
of the highest character; is well qualified
to discharge the duties of the responsible position. One great feature about him is,
he is a farmer, the thing much harped
upon in these days, and being so he will undoubtedly labor earnestly for that class
as well as for others.

P. S.

Franklin.

MR. EDITOR: The 21st and 22nd are fast approaching, and many of us think it is high time the people settle down on
the men that are to represent them in the next Legislature. Every week declares
new candidates. It is very true every man can run as a candidate if he pleases,
but it frequently happens that the whole
political machine is turned bottom up,
and men that are the most obnoxious to the people receive the nomination. Now
many of us (I don't say all), in Franklin
think that two among the very first of all
the gentlemen recently named for the County, to wit: J. J. Stewart and Frank
Brown would make a most excellent team
for Rowan. They are both able men
and can make a thorough canvass, and if both these gentlemen are chosen on the 22nd, our forces will be solidly launched
with such unanimity of strength as shall
crown our county ticket with overwhelming success. Many of us are opposed to
"dark horses, or old grand-ma."
The farmers of Rowan could not be more fully represented in all their inter-

POETRY.

For the Watchman.

The Dark Horse.

Mr. Cyrus B. Watson, a prancing dark horse,
Came galloping down to the Yadkinville
race,
Having fixed it at home the convention
to boss,
Being big with the thought, "tis my day
of grace."

Tho' hitched up, he managed to kick out
the traces,
And to free himself from them, went se-
cretly to work;
But he talked mighty fair to some honest
men's faces,
And they certainly belied all the words
that he spoke.

He fixed up the trick nice, to keep Rob-
bins out,
"Put it to seven and a fourth," he told
bolting Lenny,
The Democratic strength will ruin us to
vote,
For by not doing this we'll send Robbins
to Guinea.

As for Armfield, I'm sure I'm much strong-
er than he,
And look! when the Robbins men certainly know
They can't nominate him they'll come
over to me,
And by this smart maneuvering to Congress I'll go.

Ah! wasn't it awful, when so near the goal,
With the Washington monument almost
in sight,
To be suddenly deserted and left out in
the cold;
The star of hope set in the blackness of
night.

Mr. Cyrus B. Watson some advice I would give,
When next you aspire to a Congressman's
seat
Don't be a dark horse, for as sure as you
live,
Nine chances in ten you are sure to be beat.

—DEMOCRAT.
Statesville, N. C., Aug. 13, 1880.

POLITICAL.

OUR CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

We merely had time in our last to announce the nomination of the Hon. R. F.
Armfield for Congress by the Yadkinville
Convention which assembled on the 5th
of this month.

This nomination, no doubt, gave great
surprise to the people of the district, since
it was well known that the Hon. W. M.
Robbins was, not only the choice of a
large majority of the people, but that they
had so expressed themselves in their
county conventions. Nothing that we
can do or say, however, at this date will
remedy the matter, or change the nomination. Mr. Armfield stands forth as the
nominee of the Democratic party in this
district for Congress, and as a strict dis-
ciplinarian and consistent advocate of
party fealty and party organization, it is
our duty to support him. Mr. Robbins
desires him and will do what he can to
secure his election; and we sincerely hope
that every true democrat in the district
will join with us and labor to effect his
triumphant election by the largest democratic vote ever yet given in the district.
Let no questions of preference, or prejudice, warp our judgements or control our
actions. Let us remember that the success of Democratic principles and the
blessings of good government are of vast-
ly more importance than the mere triumph
of this or that man; and that they can be
secured only by the election of our Democratic nominees. We are not worthy to
succeed, and we need not hope to do so,
if we allow ourselves to be scattered and
disorganized by the mere whims of politicians, or our own selfish desires, likes
or dislikes. Honest, patriotic men, struggling for great political principles and
honest, local self-government, can not afford to be daunted by insignificant personal preferences, or have their purposes
thwarted by the ill-founded private claims
of this or that individual.

Mr. Armfield is a sound democrat, an
able man, a faithful representative, and
the chosen nominee of our party, we
should, therefore, march forward in solid
phalanx and give him our united support.
Anything less would be unworthy of us
as men proud of our manhood and principles, and vigilant of our sacred rights.

Canst Thou by Searching Find Out God?

BY JENNIE JONES.

God in eternal glory dwelt,
Ere earth's revolving mass,
In living grandeur o'er it felt
The Holy Spirit pass.

His hand th' world with goodness crown'd,
When early time began,
While all the morning stars around
Creation's order sang.

He smiles upon the flowers that grow
Beneath the torrid rays,
And those that skirt Siberian snows,
Where raging Boreas plays.

He saw the flaming chariot high
The Hebrew prophet bear,
The fiery steeds ascend the sky
And paw the trembling air.

He bade Elijah share his love
With those who never fell,
And in those azure heights above
With kings and priests to dwell.

He fills the boundless realms of space
Where worlds unnumbered roll,
Yet sheds the blessings of his grace
On every humble soul.

His glorious works extend afar,
In regions dark—serene;
Beyond the farthest twinkling star,
By optic glasses seen.

Here wonders grand he will display
Eternal ages o'er,
Beyond the dreadful judgment day,
When time shall be no more.

WORDS WORTHY THE GREAT SOLDIER-STATESMAN.

One of his letters to General Sherman—
What He Thought of the Political Situation in 1876—His opinion of Inaugurating Presidents—The Peace
and Prosperity of the Country His
Sol. Aim.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The World,

publishes the following. This letter
was written in reply to two letters on
the situation received from Gen. Sher-
man:

COMMUNICATED.

Just in Time.

Capt. J. L. Graber, of Litaker town-
ship, through the solicitation of his numerous friends of Litaker, Gold Hill, At-
well and other townships, has consented
to become a candidate to represent the
county of Rowan in the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the primary and nominating conventions. If he
fails to get the nomination on the 25th
instant, he will not bolt but retire, giving
his hearty co-operation to the nominees
of the convention, Hancock and English, as
well as the entire ticket of the State officers.

Capt. Graber, we think, will make a
good representative, being a gentleman
of the highest character; is well qualified
to discharge the duties of the responsible
position. One great feature about him is,
he is a farmer, the thing much harped
upon in these days, and being so he will
undoubtedly labor earnestly for that class
as well as for others.

P. S.

Franklin.

MR. EDITOR: The 21st and 22nd are
fast approaching, and many of us think
it is high time the people settle down on
the men that are to represent them in the
next Legislature. Every week declares
new candidates. It is very true every
man can run as a candidate if he pleases,
but it frequently happens that the whole
political machine is turned bottom up,
and men that are the most obnoxious to
the people receive the nomination. Now
many of us (I don't say all), in Franklin
think that two among the very first of all
the gentlemen recently named for the County, to wit: J. J. Stewart and Frank
Brown would make a most excellent team
for Rowan. They are both able men
and can make a thorough canvass, and if
both these gentlemen are chosen on the 22nd, our forces will be solidly launched
with such unanimity of strength as shall
crown our county ticket with overwhelm-
ing success. Many of us are opposed to
"dark horses, or old grand-ma."
The farmers of Rowan could not be
more fully represented in all their inter-

POETRY.

For the Watchman.

The Dark Horse.

Mr. Cyrus B. Watson, a prancing dark horse,
Came galloping down to the Yadkinville
race,
Having fixed it at home the convention
to boss,
Being big with the thought, "tis my day
of grace."

Tho' hitched up, he managed to kick out
the traces,
And to free himself from them, went se-
cretly to work;
But he talked mighty fair to some honest
men's faces,
And they certainly belied all the words
that he spoke.

He fixed up the trick nice, to keep Rob-
bins out,
"Put it to seven and a fourth," he told
bolting Lenny,
The Democratic strength will ruin us to
vote,
For by not doing this we'll send Robbins
to Guinea.

As for Armfield, I'm sure I'm much strong-
er than he,
And look! when the Robbins men certainly know
They can't nominate him they'll come
over to me,
And by this smart maneuvering to Congress I'll go.

Ah! wasn't it awful, when so near the goal,
With the Washington monument almost
in sight,
To be suddenly deserted and left out in
the cold;
The star of hope set in the blackness of
night.

Mr. Cyrus B. Watson some advice I would give,
When next you aspire to a Congressman's
seat
Don't be a dark horse, for as sure as you
live,
Nine chances in ten you are sure to be beat.

—DEMOCRAT.
Statesville, N. C., Aug. 13, 1880.

POLITICAL.

OUR CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

We merely had time in our last to announce the nomination of the Hon. R. F.
Armfield for Congress by the Yadkinville
Convention which assembled on the 5th
of this month.

This nomination, no doubt, gave great
surprise to the people of the district, since
it was well known that the Hon. W. M.
Robbins was, not only the choice of a
large majority of the people, but that they
had so expressed themselves in their
county conventions. Nothing that we
can do or say, however, at this date will
remedy the matter, or change the nomination. Mr. Armfield stands forth as the
nominee of the Democratic party in this
district for Congress, and as a strict dis-
ciplinarian and consistent advocate of
party fealty and party organization, it is
our duty to support him. Mr. Robbins
desires him and will do what he can to
secure his election; and we sincerely hope
that every true democrat in the district
will join with us and labor to effect his
triumphant election by the largest democratic vote ever yet given in the district.
Let no questions of preference, or prejudice, warp our judgements or control our
actions. Let us remember that the success of Democratic principles and the
blessings of good government are of vast-
ly more importance than the mere triumph
of this or that man; and that they can be
secured only by the election of our Democratic nominees. We are not worthy to
succeed, and we need not hope to do so,
if we allow ourselves to be scattered and
disorganized by the mere whims of politicians, or our own selfish desires, likes
or dislikes. Honest, patriotic men, struggling for great political principles and
honest, local self-government, can not afford to be daunted by insignificant personal preferences, or have their purposes
thwarted by the ill-founded private claims
of this or that individual.

Mr. Armfield is a sound democrat, an
able man, a faithful representative, and
the chosen nominee of our party, we
should, therefore, march forward in solid
phalanx and give him our united support.
Anything less would be unworthy of us
as men proud of our manhood and principles, and vigilant of our sacred rights.

Canst Thou by Searching Find Out God?

BY JENNIE JONES.

God in eternal glory dwelt,
Ere earth's revolving mass,
In living grandeur o'er it felt
The Holy Spirit pass.

His hand th' world with goodness crown'd,
When early time began,
While all the morning stars around
Creation's order sang.

He smiles upon the flowers that grow
Beneath the torrid rays,
And those that skirt Siberian snows,
Where raging Boreas plays.

He saw the flaming chariot high
The Hebrew prophet bear,
The fiery steeds ascend the sky
And paw the trembling air.

He bade Elijah share his love
With those who never fell,
And in those azure heights above
With kings and priests to dwell.

He fills the boundless realms of space
Where worlds unnumbered roll,
Yet sheds the blessings of his grace
On every humble soul.

His glorious works extend afar,
In regions dark—serene;
Beyond the farthest twinkling star,
By optic glasses seen.

Here wonders grand he will display
Eternal ages o'er,
Beyond the dreadful judgment day,
When time shall be no more.

WORDS WORTHY THE GREAT SOLDIER-STATESMAN.

One of his letters to General Sherman—
What He Thought of the Political Situation in 1876—His opinion of Inaugurating Presidents—The Peace
and Prosperity of the Country His
Sol. Aim.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The World,

publishes the following. This letter
was written in reply to two letters on
the situation received from Gen. Sher-
man:

COMMUNICATED.

Just in Time.

Capt. J. L. Graber, of Litaker town-
ship, through the solicitation of his numerous friends of Litaker, Gold Hill, At-
well and other townships, has consented
to become a candidate to represent the
county of Rowan in the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the primary and nominating conventions. If he
fails to get the nomination on the 25th
instant, he will not bolt but retire, giving
his hearty co-operation to the nominees
of the convention, Hancock and English, as
well as the entire ticket of the State officers.

Capt. Graber, we think, will make a
good representative, being a gentleman
of the highest character; is well qualified
to discharge the duties of the responsible
position. One great feature about him is,
he is a farmer, the thing much harped
upon in these days, and being so he will
undoubtedly labor earnestly for that class
as well as for others.

P. S.

Franklin.

MR. EDITOR: The 21st and 22nd are
fast approaching, and many of us think
it is high time the people settle down on
the men that are to represent them in the
next Legislature. Every week declares
new candidates. It is very true every
man can run as a candidate if he pleases,
but it frequently happens that the whole
political machine is turned bottom up,
and men that are the most obnoxious to
the people receive the nomination. Now
many of us (I don't say all), in Franklin
think that two among the very first of all
the gentlemen recently named for the County, to wit: J. J. Stewart and Frank
Brown would make a most excellent team
for Rowan. They are both able men
and can make a thorough canvass, and if
both these gentlemen are chosen on the 22nd, our forces will be solidly launched
with such unanimity of strength as shall
crown our county ticket with overwhelm-
ing success. Many of us are opposed to
"dark horses, or old grand-ma."
The farmers of Rowan could not be
more fully represented in all their inter-

POETRY.

For the Watchman.

The Dark Horse.

Mr. Cyrus B. Watson, a prancing dark horse,
Came galloping down to the Yadkinville
race,
Having fixed it at home the convention
to boss,
Being big with the thought, "tis my day
of grace."

Tho' hitched up, he managed to kick out
the traces,
And to free himself from them, went se-
cretly to work;
But he talked mighty fair to some honest
men's faces,
And they certainly belied all the words
that he spoke.

He fixed up the trick nice, to keep Rob-
bins out,
"Put it to seven and a fourth," he told
bolting Lenny,
The Democratic strength will ruin us to
vote,
For by not doing this we'll send Robbins
to Guinea.

As for Armfield, I'm sure I'm much strong-
er than he,
And look! when the Robbins men certainly know
They can't nominate him they'll come
over to me,
And by this smart maneuvering to Congress I'll go.

Ah! wasn't it awful, when so near the goal,
With the Washington monument almost
in sight,
To be suddenly deserted and left out in
the cold;
The star of hope set in the blackness of
night.

Mr. Cyrus B. Watson some advice I would give,
When next you aspire to a Congressman's
seat
Don't be a dark horse, for as sure as you
live,
Nine chances in ten you are sure to be beat.

—DEMOCRAT.
Statesville, N. C., Aug. 13, 1880.

POLITICAL.

OUR CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

We merely had time in our last to announce the nomination of the Hon. R. F.
Armfield for Congress by the Yadkinville
Convention which assembled on the 5th
of this month.

This nomination, no doubt, gave great
surprise to the people of the district, since
it was well known that the Hon. W. M.
Robbins was, not only the choice of a
large majority of the people, but that they
had so expressed themselves in their
county conventions. Nothing that we
can do or say, however, at this date will
remedy the matter, or change the nomination. Mr. Armfield stands forth as the
nominee of the Democratic party in this
district for Congress, and as a strict dis-
ciplinarian and consistent advocate of
party fealty and party organization, it is
our duty to support him. Mr. Robbins
desires him and will do what he can to
secure his election; and we sincerely hope
that every true democrat in the district
will join with us and labor to effect his
triumphant election by the largest democratic vote ever yet given in the district.
Let no questions of preference, or prejudice, warp our judgements or control our
actions. Let us remember that the success of Democratic principles and the
blessings of good government are of vast-
ly more importance than the mere triumph
of this or that man; and that they can be
secured only by the election of our Democratic nominees. We are not worthy to
succeed, and we need not hope to do so,
if we allow ourselves to be scattered and
disorganized by the mere whims of politicians, or our own selfish desires, likes
or dislikes. Honest, patriotic men, struggling for great political principles and
honest, local self-government, can not afford to be daunted by insignificant personal preferences, or have their purposes
thwarted by the ill-founded private claims
of this or that individual.

Mr. Armfield is a sound democrat, an
able man, a faithful representative, and
the chosen nominee of our party, we
should, therefore, march forward in solid
phalanx and give him our united support.
Anything less would be unworthy of us
as men proud of our manhood and principles, and vigilant of our sacred rights.

Canst Thou by Searching Find Out God?

BY JENNIE JONES.

God in eternal glory dwelt,
Ere earth's revolving mass,
In living grandeur o'er it felt
The Holy Spirit pass.

His hand th' world with goodness crown'd,
When early time began,
While all the morning stars around
Creation's order sang.

He smiles upon the flowers that grow
Beneath the torrid rays,
And those that skirt Siberian snows,
Where raging Boreas plays.

He saw the flaming chariot high
The Hebrew prophet bear,
The fiery steeds ascend the sky
And paw the trembling air.

He bade Elijah share his love
With those who never fell,
And in those azure heights above
With kings and priests to dwell.

He fills the boundless realms of space
Where worlds unnumbered roll,
Yet sheds the blessings of his grace
On every humble soul.

His glorious works extend afar,
In regions dark—serene;
Beyond the farthest twinkling star,
By optic glasses seen.

Here wonders grand he will display
Eternal ages o'er,
Beyond the dreadful judgment day,
When time shall be no more.

WORDS WORTHY THE GREAT SOLDIER-STATESMAN.

One of his letters to General Sherman—
What He Thought of the Political Situation in 1876—His opinion of Inaugurating Presidents—The Peace
and Prosperity of the Country His
Sol. Aim.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The World,

publishes the following. This letter
was written in reply to two letters on
the situation received from Gen. Sher-
man:

COMMUNICATED.

Just in Time.

Capt. J. L. Graber, of Litaker town-
ship, through the solicitation of his numerous friends of Litaker, Gold Hill, At-
well and other townships, has consented
to become a candidate to represent the
county of Rowan in the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the primary and nominating conventions. If he
fails to get the nomination on the 25th
instant, he will not bolt but retire, giving
his hearty co-operation to the nominees
of the convention, Hancock and English, as
well as the entire ticket of the State officers.

Capt. Graber,