

LOCAL.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1880.

NEW TERMS.

From and after the 1st day of January, 1880, the subscription price of the Watchman will be as follows: One year, paid in advance, $1.50...

REGISTER.—If there be any voters who are not duly registered they should attend to the matter as soon as the books are opened...

Oysters are in Market.

Mr. Williams reports 250 bales of cotton for this week.

Ross & Greenfield have opened their new stock for the fall trade.

Policeman Price has resigned, and M. A. Vanderford elected in his stead.

Theo. F. Klutz, city alderman, has resigned. J. M. Brown was elected by the Commissioners to fill the vacancy.

Messrs. W. H. and E. B. Neave rendered valuable service with Cornet and Trombone at the marriage last Tuesday evening.

Read interesting letters in this paper from Hon. Wm. M. Robbins and Hon. R. F. Armfield.

Mr. E. M. Sumnerell has gone to Philadelphia to complete his medical course.

The girls want just enough rain to lay the dust—we wish they had it.

Latent: they have it.

The festive Skeeter will soon lay his little blade to rest.

The sportsman with his little purp is now seen wending his way to the fields—when the birds are two small to fly, why they just catch 'em and raise 'em at home.

Dave Bringle is trying to smile his way into the office of sheriff—our people don't take taffy. Above all things, never vote for a radical.

Mr. Jos. Brown of the North State Press called last Tuesday. He was enroute for K. M. C. C.

The Rifles took leave of our city last Tuesday for King's Mountain. They will redit credit on themselves and on their constituents at home.

The Inferior Court is progressing smoothly—Judges Fraley, Sloan and Miller presiding. It is a subject of remark that the judgments of this court are seldom reversed at the higher Court.

Young man! remember that you will be twenty-one before election day, and that you must register before you vote.

The Roman Artillery did not go to King's Mountain. They could not afford to furnish their own tents, pay the freight on the guns, &c., unless there would be a general turnout on the part of the State Guards. They will appear on dress parade on the 25th of this month.

ATTENTION H. & L. CO. NO. 1.—You are hereby ordered to meet at Fireman's Hall on Friday night next at 7 o'clock to make arrangements to take part in the Torch Light procession on the 28th instant. A full meeting is desired.

W. R. BARKER. Prest. pro tem.

Notice at the head of the local columns of the Democrat, the name of our young townsman, Mr. Chas. D. Crawford. No doubt he will make a lively sheet for his readers. Success to him in his new role.

C. N. B. writes that a farmer who had adopted the Stock law, had his hogs to break out of the pen last week, and when the dogs were set on them, they made right for the pen. He says that this is an argument in favor of the Stock law, and that it is a great thing—the hogs know it.

The Crowell Gold Mine to have a Hancock & English flag—Mr. Brandreth, general business manager of the Crowell Gold Mine has presented the company with a handsome Hancock and English flag, $2.15. They will have a flag raising at the mine soon.

The "dashedest" thing out is, that Bringle assumes surprise that Democrats know who he is, and what he is. Surely he is not silly enough to suppose they do not know that he is the Boss dog of the Radical meeting house in this county.

It is not our opinion that a Democrat can be so blinded by his prejudices as to cast his vote for any Republican, much less for Bringle, the acknowledged Captain General of Radicalism in Rowan, with Pink Hall as his first lieutenant.

The attention of farmers is called to J. Allen Brown's advertisement in this paper of the standard fertilizer for wheat, which has been satisfactorily tested in this county and endorsed by all who have tried it.

Theo. F. Klutz, Democratic Elector for the 7th Congressional District, will address his Fellow-Citizens of Rowan on the political issues of the day at 3 o'clock Saturday, October 9th. Dr. Ramsay, the Republican Elector, has been invited to be present.

Capt. R. R. Crawford and Mr. C. F. Baker are hauling brick, preparatory to the erection of two new stores. They will front on main street, between the store now occupied by Crawford & Co., and the Boyden House.

BEAUTIFUL COTTON.—Mr. Geo. Pinkston has sent us a stalk of cotton, plucked at random from a large field, having on it 28 open pods and five bolls nearly ready to open. He is said to have a beautiful crop, and judging it by the sample before us it is extraordinary for this region.

FALSE.—It is rumored on the streets that Waggoner's friends have offered to trade D. L. Bringle out of the field as candidate for sheriff. We do not believe a word of it, but whatever there is in it, we will present in our next paper. Mr. Waggoner is not a trading man and has not authorized or assented to any one to propose any trade to Bringle or any one else.

Do not fail to come to the Grand Mass Meeting on the 28th inst. There will be a grand display of military, artillery and infantry—fire companies, &c.—The display of the Meteoric balloons and fireworks at night will be fine.

The torchlight procession will be large. About one hundred Hancock and English parade uniforms have been ordered.—Let every democrat in this and adjoining counties be present.

We learn that the Town Commissioners have passed, for the first time, (an ordinance prohibiting cows, hogs, sheep, &c., from having it all their own way on the streets—from and after November 1st 1880. Now this is a wise thing—most two wise to stand. After the usual order of things, this ordinance will be repealed on the 29th of October. It is presumed that the commissioners want to be flattered, but this must not be done until after November.

Astronomy in Rochester.

The new Warner Observatory which is being erected at Rochester, N. Y., is attracting much attention in social and literary as well as scientific circles. The new telescope will be twenty-two feet in length, and its lens sixteen inches in diameter, thus making it third in size of any instrument heretofore manufactured, while the dome of the Observatory is to have some new appliances for specially observing certain portions of the heavens.

It is to be the finest private observatory in the world, and has been endowed by Mr. H. H. Warner, proprietor of Safe Kahuney and Liver Cure, and other remedies. Professor Swift has labored under numerous disadvantages in the past and the new comet which he recently found was in spite of many obstacles, but as the new institution is to be specially devoted to discoveries there are good reasons to expect very many scientific revelations in the near future from the Warner Observatory at Rochester.

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS Met on Monday last, 4th inst., and transacted the following business:

Allowances were continued from the poor fund to Mrs. Phoebe Hoffer, $2 per month for three months, and Alice Gardner $3 per month for three months.

Mr. Lowrance was exempted from working on the public roads for three years, and Wm. Woods, two years.

The report of Committee showing the extent territory of that part of Morgan township whose citizens have petitioned to be annexed to Gold Hill township, was handed in by Rev. S. Rothrock, which will be acted upon in due course.

N. B. McAnlis was appointed judge of election, at Gold Hill, in place of J. P. Rives, removed to Cabarrus.

Report of the jury, appointed by deputy sheriff Lackey, for locating the route of a new public road in Atwell township, was approved by the Board; but the issuing of the order for the opening of the same was deferred until after the next regular meeting, so as to allow all the dissatisfied parties interested, time to be heard.

The resignation of Theo. F. Klutz, as School Committeeman, of District No. 27, was accepted, and Mr. Wm. Murdoch was appointed in his stead.

A motion was made to appoint one extra registrar in each township; but when it was ascertained that only one of the township registrars (Loeche's) had asked for an assistant, so that he might have time to go fishing, the Board thought it best to make no appointments.

The case of Jones, Gaskill & Co. vs. W. H. Kestler, being again brought to the attention of the Board, after due consultation, declared themselves powerless to act, but hold themselves in readiness to do everything possible for the relief of plaintiffs.

Several claims were allowed, amounting in all to $40.80, when, there being no other business, the meeting adjourned.

FIRM CHANGES.—Dr. M. A. Simmons sold the Simmons Vegetable Liver Medicine to Simmons & Hayden, Sept. 24th, 1879. This firm have recently dissolved, and C. F. Simmons & Co., succeed them in the proprietorship of this valuable preparation. In making the announcement of change, the new firm make the following claims:

1st. This is the Original and Genuine, having been established in 1840, while none of the imitators claim to have had any rights more than 10 or 12 years. 2d. It is most scientifically prepared—the best article—and much more active than any of the Imitations. 3rd. It is put up in larger Bottles and Packages than any of the Imitations. 4th. It costs you less—5th. It does all it is recommended to do (while the Imitations do not) and reputation is saved by recommending it.

A BRILLIANT MARRIAGE.

On last Tuesday evening, at the first Presbyterian Church, in this city, was celebrated the nuptial between Mr. John P. Allison of Concord, and Miss Annie Craige of this city.

Early in the evening the church yard was crowded with spectators, though the ceremony was not to be performed until nine o'clock. About eight o'clock the doors of the church were opened, and the urbane ushers, Drs. John Whitehead and H. T. Trantham, and Messrs. Willie Wiley and Clarence Murphy, seated the audience. Ribbons marked the seats reserved for the invited guests.

The church was handsomely decorated; an arch of evergreen, spangled with bright flowers overspread the pulpit. In the centre of the arch hung a monogram A. C., wrought in flowers and gold; just under this was swung the merry marriage bell—a model of beauty. The pulpit was a pyramid of floral beauty; on either side stood large vases filled with floral offerings. While the spectators were admiring this scene, the organist, Miss Ella Brown, added to their pleasure by rendering several selections from celebrated Masters. All faces were radiant with joy and expectancy, when, without a moment's warning, the Organ, Cornet, and Slide Trombone struck simultaneously the first notes of the Grand Wedding March in Donizette's Opera of Lucia di Lamermore, which had been amplified and arranged for this occasion, by Prof. W. H. Neave. This was the signal, all eyes were turned to the doors, as the procession moved toward the pulpit.

The attendants came in as follows: Miss Susie Roberts and Mr. Frank Goodson; Miss Lou Young and Mr. John Henderson; Miss Maggie Morehead and Mr. W. W. Overman; Miss Sallie Phifer and Mr. Eli Springs; Miss Lou Phifer and Mr. H. S. Paeryear; Miss Jennie Coffin and Mr. W. Phifer; Miss Sallie Erwin and Mr. R. H. Phifer.

These were followed by Lizzie Young and Grace White, Maggie Beall and Nannie Craige; four little girls, who scattered flowers up the aisle. Then came the bride, adorned in rich white silk and satin, leaning on the arm of Mr. Kerr Craige; the groom was attended by Mr. Will Erwing. They stood before the altar a moment before the music ceased, forming a beautiful and impressive tableau; then the pastor, Rev. Mr. Rumpke, rose amid profound silence and performed the solemn and sacred service. Again the swelling strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, from Midsummer night's Dream, with Cornet and Trombone, broke the silence, and the happy couple passed out, receiving congratulations on all sides.

The invited guests repaired to Mrs. Burton Craige's, where they tendered congratulations. On a large table was displayed the bridal presents—the handsome collection ever seen in this city; numbering some fifty odd pieces, all very rich and tasty. It will be impossible in our limited space to describe them, the number and variety forbids it.

A table was spread in the dining hall, decorated with flowers and laden with sweets, wines, and all manner of tropical fruits. The scene here was one of enjoyment; after congratulating the bride and groom, and partaking of the hospitality, the guests bade good night and quitted the lively scene to allow others the pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison took the six o'clock train Wednesday morning, and will make an extensive tour through the northern cities.

This is said to be most brilliant affair of the kind that has ever occurred in this place. Everything was gotten up in the most elegant style, regardless of cost.

We wish the bride and groom as pleasant a journey through life as their happy ceremonies predict.

The Raleigh News & Observer tells of the arrival of an extraordinary traveling "penny-a-liner" correspondent, whose business, it seems, is to write up falsehoods and slanderous misrepresentations of North Carolina politics to be published as sacred truths in the Garfield organs in the North. Yet the North Carolina Republican papers are, no doubt, ready to say this is not done to stir up a sectional feeling.

When you go to cast your vote for Governor, don't forget that Judge Buxton endorsed Holden's infamous Kirk war, the darkest of the many black acts of the Republican party in this State.

THE WADSWORTH FAIR.—Owing to the nearness, Union—and in fact, all the counties contiguous to and surrounding Anson—should feel an interest in this agricultural and industrial exhibition, and tend toward making it a success. The people of our immediate section can make exhibits of their stock, agricultural products, and articles of handiwork, without inconvenience, at a nominal expense, as we suppose the customary reduction in the rates of transportation will be made. As its name would imply, the people of the entire South are invited to take a hand. We hope the approaching fair of the Dixie Agricultural and Mechanical Association may prove it a fixed and lasting institution.—Monroe Enquirer.

Wood Leaves.

Died, Oct. 3d, Mrs. Nancy Elliott, in her 95th year.

This make the nineteenth death that I can recall in this township (Unity), since June 1st, (the close of the census year), as compared with thirteen deaths in the same territory for twelve months preceding. The same death rate, if applied to the population of the United States, would register over a million in the past four months, or about five hundred in the county of Rowan.

There have been, however, nearly as many births in the township, so the population remains about the same.

At the request of the Census Committee (Messrs. Davis and Henderson), our enumerator has endeavored to find some omissions. But we do not think that even the "Fraud" cries among our Northern brethren would succeed in discovering errors.

We have been requested to publish the following recipe for curing diphtheria. It is certainly a simple and harmless, and is highly recommended: Apply to the throat a poultice of Irish potatoes and salt, making it as salty as possible. It is said that this remedy has never been known to fail even in extra bad cases.

Politics are as quiet in Unity as usual. Unless, however, the Democrats unite more on the sheriff question than now seems probable, Bringle has the probabilities in his favor as he will get the solid Republican vote, and the Democrats will divide. There is only about twenty-five Democratic majority at this box.

Thanks to "Zephyrus" and the Examiner for their kind notice of "Unity High."

BARRINGER'S Abject Apology to Dr. Worth.

The following correspondence is self-explanatory:

NORTH CAROLINA, TREASURY DEPARTMENT, RALEIGH, September 13th, 1880. Gen. Rufus Barringer, Charlotte, N. C.:

DEAR SIR—I am directly informed that on the 25th day of August at a public speaking in Stanly county, you charged me with "stealing $750.00 from the school fund and putting it in my pocket and the pockets of my bondholder friends;" that you made no qualifications, except to say: "There's your honest Treasurer!" On the next day you made some qualifications to your charge. I also find in the Enquirer and Mechanic, published in this city September 2d, an article taken from The Charlotte Observer, in which is a report of speeches made by yourself and Major Dowd, in Stanly, and that Major Dowd pronounced the charge as absolutely false, and that you then changed the charge by saying that "the Legislature had done it by Worth's recommendation."

"Thinking you for your former support and confidence, I beg to subscribe myself, very respectfully, Your obedient servant, C. F. WAGGONER, Salisbury, Sept. 8th, 1880.

TO THE VOTERS OF ROWAN COUNTY. I am the Republican candidate for your suffrages at the approaching election for the office of Sheriff. If elected, I promise to discharge the duties honestly and faithfully, and to do all in my power at any and all times to favor the whole people whenever I can. Very Respectfully, DAVID L. BRINGLE, Sept. 6th, 1880.

Dissolution Notice!

The Firm of Luckey, Rosebro' & Co., at Rowan Mills, was this day dissolved by mutual consent. This, Monday, Sept. 5th, 1880.

An Item of Appropriation.

In telling of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, the Republican, Hudson, N. Y., says in its Washington Items: "It seems to be generally understood that an especial appropriation will be made for the purchase, for the use of the members of the Senate and House of Warner's Safe Pills and Warner's Safe Bitters."

Hygienic.

The Express, Chicago, says of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure: "It is, in the highest sense, hygienic, and can be used by young and old with equal advantage. It gives the only relief yet attained, that can be termed permanent, in Bright's Disease, and this alone should rank it higher in the list of medical triumphs."

was fined a small amount for contempt of court. Afterwards he followed Mr. P. and cursed him most shamefully.

Burnes appealed from the magistrate's decision to the Superior Court, and his case came up on last Tuesday, when, although he was in town, he treated the court with utter contempt, failing to put in his appearance when called, thus forfeiting his bond of $200. (We learn that he gave as his excuse for not being present when his case was called, that he was putting on a clean shirt and the judge who is a republican, excused him.) We do not know what final decision was reached in the case, but all that was necessary for Burnes to do to get the case removed to the Federal Court, which would be equivalent to an acquittal, would be to make an affidavit that the outrage was committed in the discharge of his official duty, which, we suppose, he could not hesitate to do.

We do not wish to be understood as denouncing all persons engaged in the revenue business; we suppose, of course, there are some gentlemen among them. But generally they are the very scum of creation, the worst characters who can be picked up by the infamous Radical party with which to afflict our people. It is not so much that the people wish to evade the payment of the internal revenue taxes as it is that they object to having business relations with such men as do the business for the department, and all persons who are so afflicted no doubt congratulate themselves upon the relief which Hancock's election will bring them, in having gentlemen to deal with.

How they Lie!

The Daily Dish of Deception and Falshood Served Up by the Indiana Republicans.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 2, 1880.—A person living outside of the State of Indiana is wholly ignorant of the malignant bitterness with which the Republicans are fighting the Democrats in this campaign. They have from the start up to the present time invented and industriously circulated the most despicable, infamous, and unmitigated lies ever concocted in the brain of men claiming the least respectability. They have planned their faith on carrying Indiana or dying. Imported negroes! Money and the bloody shirt! Every minute, every hour, and every day of the campaign a miserable and contemptible lie is concocted and spread broadcast all over the State. On every train coming into the State negroes are brought to defeat the free white people out of their rights. From every stump the bloody shirt is unfurled, and the men who follow after Hancock are denounced as "rebels" and "traitors." And into every county in the State hundreds of dollars are being sent to corrupt the honest masses. Never before in the history of this country was a people subjected to such vindictive and villainous abuse as the Democratic party of Indiana are to-day by the party in power. Gen. Hancock does not escape. His bright and noble deeds in the war for the preservation of the Union are forgotten, and he is pursued with damnable lies and scoundrel lies. Since his clear, concise and emphatic letter, sitting down upon the rebel claims bugaboo, he has been more abused than ever. The more desperate cause of the Republicans the more numerous.

THEIR WICKED LIES.

The lie that a new United States Supreme Court is to be formed; the lie that the rebel war claims are to be paid; the lie that the negroes are to be again enslaved; the lie that the business interests of the country will suffer, all if General Hancock is elected, are constantly being told. They lie great and they lie small, and they lie big. They tell artistic lies and bungling lies, malignant lies and silly lies, bad lies and mean lies, hot lies and cold lies, fat lies and lean lies, scandalous lies and villainous lies, quick lies and slow lies, deliberate lies and passionate lies, ignorant lies and contemptible lies. Lying is their stock in trade, the bonanza upon which they expect to elect Porter.

AT THE HEADQUARTERS

but little can be learned beyond the boasting usual to partisan headquarters. Each side has, however, made a careful canvass of the State by townships, and each furnishes a result claimed to be genuine. The Democrats claimed that these returns give them 60 of the 92 counties by majorities that aggregate 30,875 and the Republicans 32 counties by 22,800 majority majority—leaving the Democratic net majority 14,000.

Republicans claim 47 counties out of the 92, by majorities aggregating 30,875 and give the Democrats 48 counties by 22,800 leaving a net Republican majority of 8,075. This a narrow margin in a poll of about 500,000.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, which has outsped all the papers in enterprise, has made a canvass of the State by its local correspondents, and shows up that in 4 townships of the 1,123 the Democrats have gained 2,067 on the vote of 1878 and the Republicans 1,550, while the Democrats have lost 1,016, while the Republicans have lost 1,438. At this rate of increase and decrease throughout the State the Democratic majority would be 12,500. The most striking result of the Enquirer's estimate was that the greenback vote will reach 40,000 this year, if the localities canvassed are samples of the whole State. This result will astound both sides and help the Democrats.

A special recently sent to the New York Times, from Richmond, Va., asserts that thousands of the negro voters of that State will, "of their own accord," cast their votes for the Hancock and English electoral ticket.

SHERIFF WAGGONER A CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION.

To the People of Rowan County:

I am the candidate of the Democratic Party for the office of Sheriff of Rowan County, at the ensuing November Election. Democratic conventions were held in each Township, Saturday, the 21st day of August, 1880. At these conventions I carried 32 Townships out of the eleven. According to the old rule of voting this would have given me the nomination. According to the new plan of organization, adopted by the Central Executive Committee of the County, these 32 Townships were entitled to cast 33 Electoral votes for me in the County Convention. But although I carried the Township of Salisbury by a clear majority of 19 votes, ten of the Salisbury delegates voted against me in the County Convention, contrary to the declared will of the Democratic voters of the Township as expressed at the ballot-box. I was better satisfied to the nomination than Frank Brown, who carried 32 electoral votes, or than J. L. Graeber, who carried 22. If twenty-nine Electoral votes are deemed sufficient to nominate a candidate, and thirty-three are not, then party conventions are a sham and a farce, and ought not to be allowed to exist any longer.

The ten delegates from Salisbury Township in voting against my nomination in the County Convention, openly and notoriously violated the expressed wishes of their constituents. I leave it to all fair-minded men to say whether these delegates had any legal, political or moral right to betray and disregard the declaring vote of the Democratic voters of the Township, who not only elected them to be Delegates, but also instructed them positively and unequivocally, to cast the vote of the Township for me and not against me. The Convention voted by Townships, and every Township obeyed instructions except Salisbury. By what authority did the Salisbury delegates cast the vote of the Township contrary to the wishes of their constituents? Those delegates represented the Democratic vote of Salisbury township—and nobody else—and yet they claimed the right to vote their individual sentiments, and not the wishes of the Democratic voters of the Township whom alone they represented or had authority to represent. I appeal to the people of Rowan County to see the seal of condemnation upon a system of "returning board" tactics which has not hitherto been able to find standing room, much less a home on North Carolina soil!

Fellow Citizens, I have served you faithfully and conscientiously in the past, and if elected again, I promise to discharge the duties of my office as I have always endeavored to do, with malice towards none, and with charity for all, without fear, partiality, or prejudice, and with an eye single to the good of the whole people.

Thanking you for your former support and confidence, I beg to subscribe myself, very respectfully, Your obedient servant, C. F. WAGGONER, Salisbury, Sept. 8th, 1880.

TO THE VOTERS OF ROWAN COUNTY.

I am the Republican candidate for your suffrages at the approaching election for the office of Sheriff. If elected, I promise to discharge the duties honestly and faithfully, and to do all in my power at any and all times to favor the whole people whenever I can. Very Respectfully, DAVID L. BRINGLE, Sept. 6th, 1880.
