> It is reported that the star route "ring" are going to open fire on the administratration; that they will charge that mail contractors were assessed last year to raise money for the republicans in Iudiana at General Garfield's request, and that the latter knew how the money was to be raised. The rumor also alleges that other attacks will be made on the President, some of them going back some years. The truth is undeniable that Dorsey, the secretary of the Republican National Executive Committee, spent a large amount of money in Indiana and at a grand dinner given in his honor after the election. Grant, Arthur, and all gave him the chief credit for electing Garfield. He is the man who has the big star route contracts, and it is his ring that threatens to blow on Carfield. The New York Sun says: What is known as the Dorsey branch of the postoffice ring held twenty-five contracts for star service, all of them in the remote Territories or States. Those regions were chosen for those operations because they are far removed from public view, and more readily managed by collasion with postmasters and with the accounting office. Those contracts, according to the scholnle prices, footed up $50,343 when awarded. But when Brady manipulated and "expedited" them they aggregated $463-, 000 a year, or nearly eight hundred per
