THURSDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1881.

NEW TERMS.

From and after the 1st day of January, 1881, the subscription price of the Watchman will be as follows: One year, paid in advance, $1.50...

MIXING PROPERTY.—Persons having mining property to sell would do well to advertise it. We propose to give room to such notices...

The Salisbury Rifles start Monday for Yorktown. The State Fair is now in its height. It is said that the display is exceptionally good.

Gen. Taylor, of Wilmington, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Jno. G. Young, of Charlotte, agent for Beckett & McDowell's Steam Engines and mining machinery, was here this week.

Mr. J. Allen Brown is to the front again with his Wheat Fertilizers. See his notice to "wheat raisers."

"Klutz's Chill Cure" continues to sell well. His orders are mostly from New York, Baltimore and Wilmington.

Mrs. W. R. Barker has opened a new stock of Millinery in the room formerly occupied by Mrs. Greenfield.

There is a protracted meeting of considerable interest going on at the Methodist church in this city. Nightly meetings.

Prof. W. H. Neave, Mr. E. B. Neave, Mr. Matt Went, and Mr. Thos. Marsh left this morning for Raleigh. They are to organize and rehearse the State Band, which is to play at Yorktown. The music will be one of the chief attractions of the centennial.

THE REV. H. C. DeBOSE of Soochow, China—the associate of Rev. Jno. W. Davis, it is learned, will be here at the approaching meeting of the Synod. It is expected that he will address the Synod on the second day (Thursday) in order to reach his own Synod, in Columbia S. C., on Friday.

POTATO CROP.—The sweet potato crop of Rowan seems to be pretty good, though the price, from 85 cts to $1 per bushel, is about double the usual rate at this season of the year. We are indebted to Mr. J. M. Harrison for the finest sample, a 3 lb. of 45 lbs, that we have yet seen.

THE SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA will meet in the First Presbyterian Church of this city on Wednesday evening the 2nd of November.—The opening sermon will be preached by the Rev. J. Henry Smith, D. D. of Greensboro.

The Presbytery of Concord will meet in the church on Wednesday morning—the day of Synod—to transact some business left unfinished at its late meeting in Lenoir.

Some repairs and improvements are going on at the church. The walls and ceiling have been freshly kalsomined—the doors and window facings newly painted. A new carpet is ready to be put down. Other repairs are in progress, and the church interior will have quite a fresh and tasteful appearance by the time the Synod arrives.

The North Carolina Farmer for October received. Among the numerous articles upon agriculture and other subjects in this valuable journal, we note the following as of special interest to farmers, viz: "Drought," "Improving our Crops," "Saving Manure," "Grass Growing," "Handling Cotton," "History of the Mink Grape," "Sheep Raising and Cotton Planting," "Cows and the Weather," "Eggs in Winter," "Storing Vegetables," "Farming in Alleghany Co.," "An Iredell County Farmer," "Experiments with Peas as a Fertilizing Crop for Wheat," &c. Price per year only $1. Jas. H. Emiss, Publisher, Raleigh, N. C.

"WESTWARD THE STAR," &c.—We are indebted to the Cincinnati Type Foundry for a copy of their latest specimen book, comprising some of the articles required by newspaper and job printers. It is in all respects beautiful; and having tried some of the type from this extensive house, we can say they are good. Perhaps not so highly finished as those of the Johnson, Philadelphia, Foundry; but the metal is very good—far better than some of Bruce's, whom we have seen sometimes called "the king of the Type Foundries." The prices we suppose, are the same as those of the Eastern Foundry; indeed, we believe it is no secret that the only competition in this line is in respects quality of work. By contracted arrangement they all sell at the same prices.

"BLACK-DIAUGHT" cures dyspepsia, indigestion and heartburn. At Theo. F. Klutz's.

MINING INTELLIGENCE.

T. K. BRUNER, MANAGER.

St. Catherine Mining Company.

This is the name of a new company, organized in Charlotte, last week. They expect to operate in Mecklenburg county, and have purchased several mining properties near the city of Charlotte. They begin work immediately. Mr. Pitcher is general superintendent, and Dr. Bertram, of 257, South Brooklyn, N. Y., is President of the Company.

The ores collected in this county, together with those of the North State Mining Company, (who have their office here) have been placed to advantage in the Railroad building, on the grounds of the Atlanta Cotton Exposition. Up to this time, very few articles have been placed in this department. Mr. C. C. McPhail, who has the exhibit in charge was delayed in getting the building, but since it has been turned over to him, he has pushed forward the work very vigorously. As yet, the display from "old Rowan" stands unequalled by any on the grounds. The indications are that North Carolina will take the lead in minerals. Mr. McPhail could not give a synopsis, as was desired, of what his display would be, but as soon as it could be opened and placed, he would furnish a list in detail.

It will be the place of all others in the Exposition that will make the North Carolinian proud. He may gaze, and feast his eyes on the wealth of gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, soapstone, kaolin, asbestos, marble, granite, crystals and gems from his native hills and vales. The Exposition will not be fully ready for visitors under a month. Large buildings are now going up, and the articles are on the ground, ready to be placed. As before stated, the Exposition has greatly outgrown the original plans, and it now seems that it will be the worlds fair for 1881. The States of Kansas and Texas have placed the finest displays of agricultural products that will grace the Exposition. These displays are marvels of beauty and taste. But we do not propose to go into description at this time.

Will only add, that the vast agricultural resources of North Carolina are not likely to be made known at this big show. Not because they are not here; but because our people do not take an interest in showing them.

The Exposition is a "big thing" and will be a success.

Notes on Mineral Localities in North Carolina, Recently Published by Wm. Earl Hidden.

MONAZITE from Mitchell's Mill, Alexander County.—In August last (1880) I obtained at this locality some very beautiful crystals of geniculated rutile, which had been found there loose in the soil. Permission having been obtained to work the property I succeeded on the first day's working in finding these rutiles in situ. In connection with the work I "panned down" some of the loose vein material, and in this manner the monazite crystals were first discovered. There is every probability that if the work at the locality is continued the monazite will be found in place in the vein. The rock is a greenish micaceous schist. The vein (or pocket as it may yet prove to be) is about a foot wide at its widest and thus far has been uncovered only about eight feet. My operations were necessarily limited, and the locality merits further examination. The associated minerals are muscovite (M), emerald green through the prism, very abundant and making up 95 per cent of the vein. Crystals thin hexagonal tables and unusually perfect; quartz crystals, elongated prisms commonly doubly terminated and parallel groupings, often cavernous; rutile finely geniculated and splendent; some decomposed pyrites with cavities containing native sulphur; a few pseudomorphs of limonite after siderite, in rhombohedral having the basal and scalenohedral planes.

In concentrating by "panning," say 15 lbs. of the loose vein material, five hundred minute crystals of monazite would be found, perhaps only a half dozen of which would exceed 1-20th inch in diameter; rarely crystals were found of 1/4 inch in length. Under the microscope, the majority of the minute monazite crystals are seen to be perfectly transparent and of a topaz color. The planes are very highly polished and lustrous. The crystals are uniformly long prismatic with modified terminations, the prism having the shape of an acute rhomboid, thus differing from those previously described. One of the monazites partly enclosed a crystal of mica, which fact would point conclusively to its formation in the vein and also to its later formation. The monazite of this locality, as regards occurrence and form, is essentially the favorite of Levy, which has been shown to be identical with monazite, as was long ago suggested by Prof. J. D. Dana. The mode of occurrence and the associated minerals are nearly identical with the Tavetsch Switzerland, locality; the titanate acid here taking the form of rutile instead of octahedrite. An analysis by Dr. J. Lawrence Smith is now under way, and the crystallography and general physical characters of the mineral will be described by Dr. E. S. Dana.

The soils of this region are the result of decomposition and disintegration on the spot; it is consequently an easy task to discover the source of minerals found on the surface.

After Marvin's trial in Richmond in which he pleaded guilty, a box which had arrived by express, was handed over to the court. It contained a dozen or so of very fine burglar's saws, which might have proved useful if they had reached him in time.

A singular exhibit at the Atlanta Exposition will be by a North Carolina firm of over two thousand specimens of the medicinal herbs which grow in this State.

In 1830, in the States of Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia, 8,000 acres in grapes yielded 1,600,000 gallons of wine, valued at $2,000,000.

Tae Rowan Teacher's Association.

At the eleventh meeting of the Association, held Oct. 8th, though the attendance was small the exercises were thought profitable.

One new member, Mr. C. H. Fisher, was added to our number. The report of the executive committee, amended as follows: "Time and place of next meeting, Salisbury, second Saturday in November at 10 o'clock."

1st topic for discussion, How to Teach the Writing of Compositions; Leaders, Rev. F. J. Murdock and Mr. C. R. Owen. 2nd topic: The Diagram System of Teaching Grammar; Leaders, Mr. G. R. McNeill and Rev. H. M. Brown.

3rd topic: What shall be done with Small Children in School? Leaders, Mrs. L. W. Crawford and Miss A. S. Rutledge. The Leaders appointed at the previous meeting to open the discussion on "The Diagram System of Teaching Grammar," not being present, short discussion was entered into by members of the Association.

The subject of "Corporal Punishment" was opened by Mr. L. W. Crawford in a very interesting address, and after being discussed at some length, the following was adopted, "Resolved, that corporal punishment should not be entirely abolished in our schools, under present existing circumstances, but that it should be administered with great care."

Reference was made to the small attendance of our meetings, in remarks by the President and others, and a committee of three was appointed to devise ways and means to secure a better attendance. LORENA REYNOLDS, Sec.

Rowan Inferior Court.

FALL TERM, 1881.

Mr. Editor: For the information of the people of Rowan, we send you the following synopsis of the proceedings of the Inferior Court at the fall term, 1881.

The Court met on Monday at 10 o'clock with 43 cases on the docket. By Friday evening the grand jury, with their efficient foreman, T. J. Sumner, Esq., had acted on 72 additional bills, thus running the number of cases on the docket up to 115. The grand jury was then discharged.

The cases on the docket were as follows: Assault and Battery, 32; carrying concealed weapons, 13; injury to buildings, 3; embezzlement, 1; sed. law, 7; Riots, 2; forcible entry, 1; gaming, 3; conspiracy, 3; attempt to steal, 1; appeal, 2; false pretense, 1; house breaking, 1; affray, 9; refusing to answer questions asked by the grand jury, 1; stock at large, 6; cruelty to animals, 1; retailing without license, 8; oppressing voter, 1; forcible trespass, 1; selling mortgaged property, 1; larceny, 16.

There were 3 convictions for larceny, to wit: Rufus Holsclaw, col'd, sentenced to State prison 3 years; Joe Whitaker, col'd, 1 year; and Wilson Honeycutt, white, 2 years. The latter was indicted for taking a mule from the stable of Col. John Long, at night, to use for a "special or temporary purpose," which is now made larceny by statute. Jack Parker, colored, was indicted for the larceny of Rev. R. W. Boyd's poultry. Defendant submitted and judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

There were 52 cases continued to next term, in some of which the parties had not been taken, others were called and failed, and a large number were continued for want of sufficient time.

W. R. FRALEY, Chm'n. Oct. 11, 1881.

The Charter surrendered.

From the Fayetteville Examiner.

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for a people to dissolve the municipal bonds which have connected them together as a body politic and corporate, and to assume among the people of the country the position simply of sovereigns, divested of all corporate rights and privileges, a decent respect for the opinions of mankind requires that they should assign some just and sufficient reasons for so extraordinary a step.

The people of Fayetteville, on Monday the 31 day of October, by a vote of 332 to 31, determined to give up their corporate existence. Their object was to get rid of a burden of taxation which they felt was too grievous to be borne.

It is almost impossible to get the exact figures in regard to the debt of the town, but the following may be regarded as an approximation:

Old Bonds.....$90,000
Fay. & F. R. K. Bonds.....35,000
Underwood Bonds.....22,000
Accumulated interest on above.....20,000

Total.....$167,000

Besides this amount the Fayetteville and Florence Railroad Company hold $40,000 of Town bonds which were believed to be non-collectable. Besides this there was a considerable floating debt. Here then was a total debt variously estimated at from $170,000 to $210,000, and to pay that debt what were the assets of the Town? The real estate of the town is assessed at something over half a million dollars and the personal property at three or four hundred thousand more. The people of Fayetteville sought relief from their crushing burden by compromising the Town Debt, and accordingly they obtained from the last General Assembly the passage of an Act, of which we published an abstract last week, authorizing the compromising of the bonded debt by the issuing of new bonds bearing interest at four per cent per annum, and at the rate of fifty cents per new bond of every dollar of the old bonds. These terms the bondholders thought proper to reject, and there was nothing left but to hold the election, the result of which we have announced.

We might speculate on the results of this and make predictions concerning the future, which might serve to pass away an idle moment or two, but we leave that for each intelligent reader to do for himself. We trust that good may come of it. We do not regard it as an act of clear and naked repudiation. The people would have gladly retained their charter and met fifty per cent of the debt placed at four per cent interest. Perhaps they would even have agreed to pay six per cent, as was proposed at one time in the negotiations which preceded the election. But all that is now passed, and we stand before the world divested of all chartered

A GREAT PREMIUM LIST. THE NEW YORK WEEKLY EXPRESS, established in 1835, is not only one of the oldest and cheapest but first of the New York Weekly Family Newspapers. It is now making a great and successful effort to reach a larger and more general circulation than any weekly newspaper in the United States, and to this end is offered an attractive list of substantial and valuable premiums to single and club subscribers. The long established reputation of the Weekly Express, but the New York Daily Evening Express, is a sufficient guarantee of the character of the premiums offered and the good faith that will govern their distribution. Besides the many other attractions of the Weekly Express, the publisher regularly, by authority, the Brooklyn Tabernacle Sermonist the Rev. T. Dewitt Talmage, D. D. The subscription price, One Dollar a year, places it within the reach of all. The office of the NEW YORK WEEKLY EXPRESS is 29 Park Row, New York.
