Mr. D. R. Goodloe thinks there is inconsistency in the desiring the increase of mail facilities and demanding the repeal of the internal revenue system. He argues from the standpoint either that both are alike evils or both are blessings.

It is a remarkable discovery.

THE WIDOW'S HOME .- Mr. S. A. El liott, of Oxford, N. C., is making an urgent call for contributions to build at Oxford an institution to be known as "The Widow's Home." There is only a shadowing of the project in the article before us, and we therefore let it pass with this brief notice.

We are indebted to John P. Morton & Co., Louisville, Ky., for a copy of their "Western Farmer's Almanac," a publication of rare merit for the size of it. We are also indebted to G. G. Green for a copy of his Almanac, overflowing with valuable statistics. Also, to the proprietors of "Our Home Almanac," every page graced with a beautiful picture.

David Monat, a respectable man of Philadelphia, who was indicted for chang- FARM ing the election returns in a ward of that city, after considerable delay in the trial, finding that he could not escape the clutches of the law officers, brought his case to a termination by a full confession of his crime, hoping no doubt, in that way to lighten the penalty. But his offease was a flagrant one, and was comsentenced him to pay a fine of $1,000 and spend two years in prison.

A correspondent of the Chicago Intercean, under date of December 7th, reports the recent discovery of a cave near Litchfield, Ky., which is said to rival the celebrated "Mammoth" of the same State. newly discovered cave has been explored for a distance of 14 miles; that there is a stream of water flowing in it large enough for a small steamer; that minmies in rock sarcopagus have been found in it, which contains besides all the curious formations found in other similar caves. The story is doubted.

HALF SHEET, -This half sheet is issued midway between Christmas and the New Year-in the midst of the general joyousness of the season. So far as we know only a few have had sadness mingled with their festivities. It would be unlike human life if all were joyous and none were sad; since the ordinary incidents of good and evil have no fixed times for their coming. But Christmas, 4331, we are glad to say, has been a happy season to the people of this community, who have improved the precious hours as wisely, we suppose, as it is the lot of man to devise. We rejoice with our fellow citizens. and heartily wish they may live to see many returns of this gladsome season, and be happy through them all.

A GOOD SIGN.—One of the best evi dences of prosperity in a community is the payment of debts. It will gratify many to learn that the people of Rowan have done and are doing it, to an extent not generally known. One of our leading merchants had in hand during the year no less than 222 mortgages; but on the 24th Dec. inst., only THREE of these remained unpaid, and there was no uncasiness about them. This led us to take some little trouble to find out the general condition by calling on all the leading merchants, when the gratifying fact came out that, with a single exception, no selling out to satisfy mortgages is expected by the merchants of this place. All were pleased to tell us "our friends have come forward promptly."

This state of things in a droughty year, with crops cut down to nearly one-half the average, certainly speaks well for the country, and for the honor of its inhabitants.

DIED-At her residence five miles west of Salisbury, on the morning of the 24th Dec. 1881, Mrs. Clarissa E. Julian, relict of the late Benj. Julian, aged 51 years and 12 days.

The deceased was well known to and highly esteemed by some of the older citizens of this place, where she resided prior to the leath of her husband, in 1858. Her bereavement was the cause of long continued gloom and sadness; but she was emerging from this condition, and for several years before her last sickness ful. She was received as a member of hear our prices. continued her connection in good standing to the end of it. She leaves four children, two daughters and two sons, the younger of the latter, Mr. Kiah P. Julian, having recently entered upon ministerial work in a Presbyterian church in Lynchhurg, Virginia.

DIED.

In Augusta, Ga., on the 22d instant, Mrs. Kate Barnes, formerly Miss Kate Wilson, niece of the late Dr. Sam'l Kerr, of this county. The deceased had acquaintances and friends in this county who will regret to hear of her death. She was highly esteemed as a christian lady.
