NEW TERMS.

From and after the 1st day of January, 1882, the subscription price of the Watchman will be as follows: One year, paid in advance, $1.50...

See advertisements in the mining department.

Messrs. Holmes and Bernhardt are improving their places of business by the use of paint.

Mr. Cooper, of Milldegeville, had a hand saw off at a circular saw table, one day last week.

Greensboro has a drug store that cannot sell common soda or apple vinegar without a prescription.

The Salisbury Pleasure Club gave a complimentary Hop last Tuesday night to Miss Scates, of Tenn., visiting Mr. S. F. Lord.

Some Editors in writing about the recent meeting of the Press, and at other times speak of "hungry editors." It would only be fair to speak for themselves.

Mr. J. S. Tomlinson of the Hickory Press has fallen heir to the mantle of Manning, the firing man of the Press. Tomlinson does honor to the mantle.

Prof. McAllister, the great magician and wizard exhibits his wonderful powers for three nights at Meroney's Hall; giving his first entertainment to-night.

The Salisbury Rifles are announced to appear in parade drill on the streets of the city next Thursday. They carried off the palm at Yorktown, and will compete for a prize at Charlotte on the 20th.

A young son of Rev. Mr. Bostwick, near Kirk's Mills, accidentally fell through the saw mill floor and fractured his skull on the rocks beneath. His recovery is supposed impossible.

Mr. Williams, the Cotton weigher, gives us the returns of this season, as 3340 bales of cotton. This is below the usual receipts by several thousand bales—occasioned by the short crops of last year.

Dr. and Mrs. Eames celebrated their Silver wedding on last Sunday. They were the recipients of several handsome presents—and enjoyed on Monday the general congratulations of their many friends.

YADKIN MINERAL SPRINGS INSTITUTE.—Invitations for the commencement exercises of this valuable school have been issued for Thursday, May 25th. The annual party on Thursday night.

A party of young people enjoyed a picnic yesterday on Dunn's Mountain. This is a delightful spot for such sport as the large moss covered stones offer a cool and inviting retreat for lovers (1) Many a nook could tell many a tale.

At an annual meeting of the Salisbury Gas Light Co., held on 6th inst., the old officers and Directors were continued, except that Mr. O. D. Davis was elected Secretary and Treasurer, in place of D. A. Davis, deceased.

The destruction of the Bingham school last week by fire, was a disaster not only to Maj. Bingham, but to the State. We are glad to know that by the time for the opening of the next session, he will have rebuilt the school and barracks, and will be ready for the opening. The property was insured for about two-thirds its value.

NEW TOWN OFFICERS.—The Commissioners have met and elected the new officers for this year. Treasurer, H. M. Jones; Clerk, E. B. Neave; City Attorney, Kerr Craigie; City Scales, D. R. Julian; Cotton Weigher, H. C. Williams; Tax Collector, T. H. Vanderford; Police, C. W. Pool and J. F. Pace. We commend the Aldermen for the good judgment displayed in this selection.

Our Postmaster has at last realized the necessity of affiliating more closely with the colored population. The sound rating he received at their hands during their public meeting in this place not long since, has borne fruit. We find his name and that of a colored leader on a hand bill—precinct meeting. David thou art wise.

MAGISTRATES' MEETING.—A quorum of the Justices of the Peace met in a called meeting, Saturday last, and organized by appointing J. K. Graham, Esq., to the chair. The following is in brief what they did:

A resolution introduced by T. J. Sumner, that the terms of the Inferior Court be restored to four per annum, was carried by a vote 13 to 8.

On motion of W. L. Klutz, it was resolved that the above is not to go into effect until after the next October term. Agreed to unanimously.

On a motion of A. Murphy, the per diem of the Associate Inferior Court Justices was raised to $3. No other business the meeting adjourned.

MINING INTELLIGENCE.

T. K. BRUNER, MANAGER.

Wm. F. Buckley, Esq., proprietor of Dunn's Mountain mine is in the city.

Julius Gorman, a miner at Gold Hill, had an arm badly fractured by the accidental falling of a stick of timber in a shaft—some 60 feet deep.

North Carolina Gold Mining and Reduction Company—shipped last week 65 ounces of pure gold. This is the result of their first run, which is considered very satisfactory. They are hauling the concentrates from Reimer to the chlorination works at the Yadin mine. We are glad to chronicle their success.

The types made us say last week that Mr. Stewart, Superintendent of Dunn's Mountain, was also working the Zeimer. This should have read, Bendleman. Mr. Stewart is sinking a shaft at the Rendleman—down 45 feet.

DUTCH CREEK.—They have made a test of their chlorine process and announce, it successful. They are now engaged in burning 100,000 brick, to be used in the building of huge rearing furnaces. They propose to handle 40 tons at a time.

We have on our table the Prospectus and By-laws of the "Southern Belle Mining Company," and the "Carolina Queen Mining Company." The former own valuable property in this county, while the latter own in fee 667 acres, in Burke County. Both of these companies are organized under the laws of New Hampshire, but are worked with Boston capital.

Conrad Hill.

Encouraging returns from the first run. From the first trial run of the 20 stamp mill, they shipped on Tuesday, 1880 pennyweights of very pure gold. The mill runs exceedingly well. The mines yielding large quantities of excellent ores. The product from the copper furnaces will much exceed in value the product of the gold ore.

The companies freight bills for coke in the last 60 days have exceed $4000. This shows on what scale the work at this mine is being carried on. We know of no property with more flattering prospects. The Conrad Hill Company are preparing to put up refining furnaces. These furnaces will make refined copper of a daily capacity of 10,000 pounds refined metal.

A BRILLIANT MARRIAGE.

Wednesday evening May 2d, at 4 o'clock, Mr. H. C. Butler, of Lagrange, Ga., was united in marriage to Miss Alice Smith, of Salisbury, N. C. The ceremony was performed at the residence near Linwood, N. C. Rev. J. B. Boone performed the ceremony. Music by Miss Ella Brown of Salisbury. The attendants were Mr. Lindsay Smith of Lexington, and Miss Fannie Smith of Linwood; Mr. Peter Boone of Salisbury, and Miss Annie Smith of Linwood; Mr. Jim Smith of Linwood, Miss Mollie Idol of Clemmons-ville, and Miss Annie Smith of Linwood; Mr. Jim Smith of Linwood, Miss Mollie Idol of Clemmons-ville; and two sweet little girls, daughters of Mr. Stokes Aderson of Lexington. At the conclusion of the ceremony the table was a waiting and groined under the weight of good things. At the hour of 10, the sad parting with the bride and bridesroom took place at the Depot—they took the train for their home in Lagrange, Ga. The marriage was very fashionable and elegant, and the pretty parlor was beautifully decorated for the occasion—Winst. Sen.

REPUBLICAN PRECINCT MEETING. There will be a Precinct Meeting of the Republicans of Salisbury Township on Thursday night, May 11th, in Carfield Hall, for the purpose of electing twelve Delegates to the Republican County Convention, to be held on the 20th of May. DAVID L. BRINGLE, J. K. COM. PINCKNEY HALL.

Bye, David.

'Tis in Carfield Hall they next will meet, All in top fold, each man in his seat; And 'midst this dark angust conclave Will bring the form of the gifted DAVE. The dodgers whisper, and cause us to think DAVE may feel strong from the strength of the PINK; But if this be surely the bent of his taste, We hesitate not but only make haste To bid farewell to the famed DAVID BRINK— He's joined to his idol, the demonstrative PINK! Can it be, in the scale you've fallen so low As the dots would so plainly lead us to know? You have played your ball and although 'tis black, You think that perhaps it will turn you up Jack, But how this grand move will pan out next fall You may get the 'count from your pard, Pink Hall. And now shall we not proclaim it in Gath, You're gone up sure on this line or war path! For it is this surely the bent of your taste We hesitate not but only make haste To bid farewell to the famed David Brink; It's you, not we, with your sweet attended Pink.

For the Watchman.

Married On the evening of the 2nd inst., at the residence of J. T. Ray, Esq., by Rev. W. S. Creasy, assisted by Rev. W. C. Wilson, Miss Ida P. Corbett and Mr. Joseph Hall, all of Mt. Ulla township. The above is the orthodox announcement of an auspicious event, deserving a much fuller notice. Early on the afternoon of the above-named day, might have been seen assembling a merry company, bent on good cheer and happy scenes; and truly they were not disappointed. The joyous event was consummated just in the gloaming, as Madame Luna, in all her splendor, was illuminating the eastern skies. The happy couple were attended by Miss Jennie Barber and Mr. William Barber, Miss Lina Barber and Mr. Geo. Hall. The ceremony was brief and just to the point, and the snowy whiteness of the mynental robes of the bride and her maids aided in presenting a fairy array of beauty and loveliness. Supper was soon announced, and to its merits, my pen fails to do justice. On a table literally groaning with good things, the epicure was especially struck with the great variety and abundance of cakes. The horse-shoe wreath of beauteous flowers, prophetic emblem of good fortune in store, hung gracefully over the centre. All went merry as a marriage bell, and to make the occasion more complete, music of many kinds was heard and enjoyed until the near approach of the "wee small hours" reminded all that "the best of friends must part."

For the Watchman.

With such a propitious launching of the life boat of this young couple, surely we may safely wish them a long and happy voyage adown the stream of time and a safe landing on the everlasting shore. Bear Poplar, N. C., May 3, 1883.

DIED.

Near Louisa, Ala., May 5th, Mrs. Selina W. Stewart, after an illness of several months, aged 66 years and 7 months. The deceased was a native of North Carolina, a grand daughter of the late Col. West Hatten of Montgomery County, and sister of the Senior editor of this paper. She removed to Ga., in 1827, where she married and raised a large family. She was a resident of Alabama of late years, surrounded by many of her children who settled near her. Her death was a christian triumph, for which she has been for many years preparing. She has left children who will bless her memory while life lasts, as they were devoted to her while living.
