The white people will see that full and fair justice is done them. But so long as they stand together with the men who so nearly ruined the State in 1865 and 1869, just so long will the white people stand for themselves. The administration of affairs under Democratic rule was such as to command public confidence. He defied any man to show that under that administration one dollar of the people's monsy had been expended save in accordance with law; and he defied any one to find one cent not properly accounted for. (Applause.) He forcibly contrasted with this the Republican rule of plunder and lavishextravagance. He went on to speak again of the revenue system, aptly termed "infernal," saying that it was doomed. Then he took up another very important matter, vigor of action on the part of Democrats. They must all vote, all be in carnest, be vigilant, be steadfast, have a speaker everywhere to meet and match each Republican speaker, and contrast the pure record of the Democratic party with the black and odious one of the Republican party. He pledged his personal efforts on the stump in the campaign. Now the State is pros perous and happy. Will the people go back to the dark days? (Cries of no.)

Col. Paul B. Means, of the committee to wait on Judge Bennett, said that that gentleman was unable to respond to the invitation to address the convention, as his court was in session.

We congratulate the people of North Carolina on the era of peace, prosperity and good government which has been un broken since the incoming of a Democratic State adminis tration; upon the pure and impartial administration of justice and the honest enforcement of the laws; upon the efficiency of our common school system and great advance made in education, and the general im-provement and enterprise manifested in every part of the State, and we pledge ourselves to exert all efforts to advance the material interests of all sections of the State in the future as we have done in the past. And we challenge a comparison between a Democratic administration of our State affairs and the crimes, outrages and scandals that accompanied Republican misrule. Affirming our adherence to Democratic principles, as defined in the platform adopted by the National Democratic Convention held at Cincinnati, in 1880 :

Resolved, That we regard a free and fair expression of the public will at the ballotbex as the only sure means of preserving our free American institutions, and we denounce the Republican party and the inter-ference of its federal officials for their gross frauds upon the elective franchise, whereby whole districts, States, and the Union have been deprived of their just political rights; and we believe the corrupt and corrupting use of federal patronage, and of public money drawn by taxation from the people in influencing and controlling elections, to be dangerous to the liberties of the State and the Union.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the entire abolition of the internal revenue sys tem, with its attendant corruptions, and that we denounce the present tariff laws as grossly unequal, unjust and vicious. We Tayor such a revision of the tariff as will produce a revenue sufficient for the economcal support of the government, with such incidental protection as will give to domestle manufactures a fair competition with those of foreign production. That there should be an immediate repeal of all laws imposing a direct tax for the support of the government of the United States, but if it should prove impracticable to abolish the internal revenue system with all its at- people to enrich northern manufacturers. tending demoralization, fraud and corruption, then we urge upon our Senators and of so amending the Law that the revenue Gazette, etc. Texas is right. officers whonow receive in salaries in North Carolina alone more than $500,000 shall be elected by the people of the localities to which they are assigned.

SUCCESS AT LAST.

WASHING MACHINE.

T. J. MERONEY, SALISBURY, N. C.

THIS MACHINE is a plain wooden tank lined with copper or galvanized iron, with perforated pipes in the bottom for the admission of steam, with corrugated Roler, made of same metal, and of sufficient weight. This Roller gathers the air while passe ing back and forth over the clothes, forcing air and water through the fabric. At same time the steam is thrown up through the perforated pipes underneath from the bottom of the tank. There are wooden strips between the pipes so as to protect them and form a smooth bottom in the tank.

The process is simple: any one can operate the machine. First, soap the clothes and distribute them evenly about four or five inches thick in the tank. Turn on enough was ter to cover them-turn on steam, and move the Roller back and forth until the water is colored. Turn the valve and let the water pass off. Add fresh water, and repeat this three or four times, and you find the clothes are thoroughly washed without the slightest injury, for there is no rubbing process employed, the Roller having rounded edges so as to prevent any wear or cutting. A lace handkerchief can be washed as well as a bed quilt. This Machine is in operation at Meroney & Bros. Machine Shop, where they will be manufactured at as small a cost as possible. Any one having a steam boiler in operation can use one of my machines at small cost and with satisfactory results. One persen can do the work of ten wash-women in one day and do the work better.

It is a splendid thing for boiling grain and vegetables for stock, It is also a good wool-washer.
