

dyspepsia with greater certainty and promptitude than any known remedy, and is a most genial invigorant, appetizer and aid to secretion. These are not empty assertions, as thousands of our countrymen and women who have experienced its effects are aware, but are backed up by irrefragable proofs. The Bitters also give a healthful stimulus to the urinary organs.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally

RHODES BROWNE, Pres't. WM. C. COART, Sec'y A Home Company, Seeking

Home Patronage. Reliable, Libera

Term policies written on Dwellings. Premiums payable One-half cash and bal ance in twelve months.

ALLEN BROWN, Agt.,

10 GREE Wagons, XLE FORD and 5 CR.

BELTIN 田 sale FU mutte E Eureka

MONUMENTS TOMBS GREAT REDUCTION

IN THE PRICES OF Marble Monuments and Grave-Stones of Every Description.

I cordially invite the public generally to an inspection of my Stock and Work. I feel justified in asserting that my past experience under first-class workmen in all the newest and modern styles, and that the workmanship is equal to any of the best in the country. I do not say that my work is superior to all others. am reasonable, will not exaggerate in or-der to accomplish a sale. My endeavor is to please and give each customer the valne of every dollar they leave with me.

PRICES 35 to 50 Per Cent CHEAPER than ever offered in this town before. Call at once or send for price list and designs. Satisfaction guarant'd or no charge. The erection of marble is the last work of departed friends.

JOHN S. HUTCHINSON. Salisbury, N. C., Nov. 1, 1881.

ERRORS OF YOUTH. GENTLEMAN who suffered for years from | are in the field. Nervous DEBILITY, PREMATURE DECAY, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, will for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the recipe and direction for making the simple remedy by which he was ucred. Sufferers wishing to profit by the advertisers experience can do so by addressingin perfect confidence. JOHN B. OGDEN, PLATFORM.

We congratulate the people of North Carolina on the era of peace, prosperity and good government which has been un broken since the incoming of a Democratic State administration; upon the pure and impartial admin-istration of justice and the honest enforce-ment of the laws; upon the efficiency of our common school system and great advance made in education, and the general im-provement and enterprise manifested in every part of the State, and we pledge our- had grown up with almost incredible ra-selves to exert all efforts to advance the pledge. It was not that he had preached material interests of all sections of the State in the future as we have done in the past. And we challenge a comparison between a not that his footsteps had been instant on Democratic administration of our State af- every threshold where sickness came or fairs and the crimes, outrages and scandals sorrow brooded. that accompanied Republican misrule. Affirming our adherence to Democratic principles, as defined in the platform adopted by the National Democratic Convention necessities were past. But it was because held at Cincinnati, in 1880:

Resolved, That we regard a free and fair expression of the public will at the ballot- about Joanna, his grandchild, the sole box as the only sure means of preserving remaining blossom on the gnarled old our free American institutions, and we de- family tree who was left quite unprovidnounce the Republican party and the interference of its federal officials for their gross frauds upon the elective franchise, whereby whole districts, States, and the Union have been deprived of their just political rights; that girl! and we believe the corrupt and corrupting use of federal patronage, and of public money drawn by taxation from the people

Resolved, That we are in favor of the entire abolition of the internal revenue systhat we denounce the present tariff laws as root!" grossly unequal, unjust and vicious. We favor such a revision of the tariff as will produce a revenue sufficient for the economical support of the government, with such tic manufactures a fair competition with those of foreign production. That there should be an immediate repeal of all laws he government of the United States, but if it should prove impracticable to abolish the internal revenue system with all its attending demoralization, fraud and corruption, then we urge upon our Senators and Representatives in Congress the importance of so amending the Law that the revenue officers whonow receive in salaries in North Carolina alone more than $500,000 shall be elected by the people of the localities to les shone like forked lightening. which they are assigned.

Resolved, That the course of the Democratic party since its accession to power in North Carolina in furtherance of popular education is a sufficient guaranty that we on the same bench at school. And as carnestly favor the education of all classes long as we s'posed Parson Fox had left of our people, and that we will advocate any legislation looking to an increase of the fund for that purpose that will not materially increase the present burdens of our people. Resolved, That the question of prohibition is not now, and never has been, a party question in North Carolina, and never been endorsed by the Democratic party. and the people of the State at the general election, in the year 1881, having by an pathetic wheeze. overwhelming majority voted against prohibition, and the Supreme Court having decided that the prohibition act is not and as finally settled, and any attempt to renew the agitation is merely a weak effort of designing persons to divert the minds of the people from the dangerous principles and corrupt practices of the Republican the scent of June honeysuckles floated

Resolved, That while we are not wedded to any particular form of county government, we recognize the fact that a large part of the taxes of the State are paid for our eastern counties, and that we consider it the bounden duty of the white men of the State to protect these people from the oppressive domination of ignorant blacks.

will secure this end. And whereas it is seriously suggested that vigorous effort will soon be made to compel the State by judicial proceedings, to pay the fraudulent and unlawful special would come when you heard--' tax bonds, amounting to $22,000,000, issued under legislation passed by the Republican Legislature 1868 and 1869; therefore

Resolved, further, That the Democratic party will resist such recovery and the payment of such bonds by every lawful

The above resolutions were read seriatim. and on motion were adopted as a whole as North Carolina. On motion of Mr. Furman, the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That the present faithful and chairman, be and is hereby continued as the executive committee of the party, triumphant results of their past services.

ivered an address of marked ability the it, Joanna? synopsis of which we regret we cannot print

On his conclusion Mr. Paul B. Means be tendered to Judge Merrimon by a rising anna. vote for his able, masterly, eloquent and instructive address. Which motion being carried, all the members of the convention rose to their feet with a shout of applause a compliment as handsome as it was deserv

J. W. Reid, of Rockingham being called on, made some handsome and eloquent remarks. Remarks were also made by Hon. Jos. J. Davis, Capt. Swift Galloway, of Greene; Capt. C. M. Cooke, of Franklin; Andrew Joyner, of Pitt; F. G. Skinner, of always wait for that. Perquimans; J. M. Gudger, of Yancey, and W. Foster French, of Robeson, and after the conclusion of his speech Mr. R. M. Furman moved to adjourn.

In the 2d congressional district conven- himself: tion O'Hara, colored, was nominated by the assemblage, and Hubbs, present incumbent, by the chairman. Both will run.

A Washington letter to the Greensboro of respect which we pay to the memory Patriot says Gen. Leach is to be the "Liberal" candidate for Congress in the fifth district. Was the Gen. nominate by the wire-workers at the capitol, or does he nominate himself? The people of the district ought to know by what authority their candidates

A large number of building lots are offered for sale in Asheville and Waynesville. There are 90 lots to be sold at public ane-tion at Waynesville on the 7th of August. -at New Orleans and elsewhere along our southern seaboard. Its prevalence in the Cedar St. New York West Indies is the exciting cause.

WHAT BECAME OF HER.

There was great commotion in Foxville when old Parson Fox died. It was not were one primeval mass of green, and himself having erected the old stone parsonage around which the thriving village pidity. It was not that he had preached the gospel to them for forty years; it was

All this had been received as a matter of course, and forgotten as soon as the Foxville curiosity was on the qui vire

'I declare to goodness,' said Mrs. Emmons, 'I don't know what is to bcome of

'She hain't no faculty,' said Sabine Sexton, the village dressmaker; 'and in influencing and controlling elections, to never had.' Books possessed no charm be dangerous to the liberties of the State to her!' signed Miss Dodge, who taught the Foxville district school. 'She always cried over her parsing and rhetoric, and I tem, with its attendant, corruptions, and never could make her understand cube

'There's no denvin' that the old minister was as near a saint as we often see in in this world,' said Mrs. Luke Lockedge, incidental protection as will give to domes- | pionsly. 'But he oughtn't to let Joanna run loose in the woods and fields the way he did. Why, I don't s'pose she ever imposing a direct tax for the support of made a shirt or fried a batch o' fritters in

> 'It is true,' said Miss Dodge, peering inquisitively up under her spectacle glasses, 'that she is engaged to your Simon, Mrs. Lockedge?'

Mrs. Lockedge closed her mouth, shook her head and knitted away until her need-

'Simon's like all other young men, Miss Dodge,' said she, 'took by a pretty face and a pair o' bright eyes. And they set property why there was no objection. But there wasn't nothing-not even a life insurance. So I've talked to Simon and made him hear reason. There can't no body live on air!'

'But that's ruther hard on Joanna, ain' it ?' said Mrs. Emmons, with a little sym-

'Reason is reason!' Mrs. Lockedge answered. 'My Simon will have property never has been a law, we regard the matter and the girl he marries must have sumthin' to match it.

, So that Joanna Fox sitting listlessly in her black dress by the window, where sweetly in, and trying to realize that she was alone in the world, had divers and sundry visitors that day. The first was Simon Lockedge, looking as if his errand the common benefit by the white people of were somehow connected with grand lar-

Joanna started up, her wan face bright ening. She was only sixteen-a brownand pledge ourselves to such legislature as haired, brown-eved girl with a solemn. red mouth and a round, white throat, banded with black velvet.

'Oh, Simon,' she cried, 'I knew you

Simon Lockedge wriggled uneasily into a seat, instead of advancing to clasp her outstretched hand.

'Yes,' said he. 'of course its very sad Joanna, and I'm awfully sorry for you.

Joanna stood still her face hardening the platform of the Democratic party of into a cold, white mask, her hands falling to her side.

'Yes,' said she. 'You were saying-'It's mother!' guiltily confessed Simon efficient State Executive Committee of the 'A fellow can't go against his own moth-Democratic party, with Col. Oct. Coke as er, you know. She says it's nonsense our engagement, and we shouldn't have anythanking them for the untiring zeal and thing to live on! And so, with a final twist, 'we'd better consider it all over. Hon. A. S. Merrimon being called on de- That's the sense of the matter-now ain't

She did not answer. 'I'm awfully sorry,' stuttered Simon. moved that the thanks of the convention I always set a deal of store by you, Jo-

'Did yon?' she said, bitterly. 'Ou would scarcely have thought it.'

'And you know, Joanna,' he added, awkwardly, mindful of his mother's drill, 'when poverty comes in at the door, love flies out at the window!'

Joanna smiled scornfully. 'I seems,' said she, 'that love does not

And she turned and walked like a young queen into the adjoining department; while Simon, slinking out of the door like a detected burglar, muttered to

I did in my life. Splitting stamps is nothing to it. But mother says it must be done-and mother rules the roost in our house!

Next came Mrs. Emmons. 'Joanna,' said she I'm deeply grieved at this 'ere affiction that's befell you!" 'Thank you, Mrs. Emmons!' said the girl mechanically.

'I've come to ask you about your plans.' added the plump widow. Because if zette. you have no other intentions, I'll be glad boarders, and there'll be a deal more and buy it; for I am sure quite sure that to amend the Constitution, work than me and Elviry can manage. I could write better there than anywhere Of course you won't expect no pay, but a good home is what you need most, and-'Stop a minute!' said Joanna. 'Am I to understand that you expect me to assume the position and duties of a servant without a servant's wages ?'

You'll be a member of the family. said Mrs. Emmons; 'and you'll set at the same table with me and Elviry, and-'I am much obliged to you,' said Joanna, but I must decline your kind offer.' And Mrs. Emmons departed in righteous wrath declaring her conviction that pride was certain sooner or later to have a fall.

'I have plenty of friends,' said Joanna courageously, for rather dear grandpapa had. I am sure to be provided for.' But Squire Barton looked harder than flint when the orphan came to him.

'Something to do, Miss Fox ?' said he 'Well, that's the very problem of the age -woman's work, you know; and I ain't smart enough to solve it. Copying? No, our firm doesn't need that sort of work. Do I know of any one that does ? N-no. I can't say I do; but if I should bear of an opening, I'll be sure to let you know. Ahem !- I'm a little busy this morning Miss Fox ; sorry I can't devote mors time to you. John, the door. Good-morning. my dear Miss Fox! I assure you, you have mine and Mrs. Barton's prayer in this sad visitation of an inscrutable Prov-

Old Miss Gringe, who had fifty thousand dollars at interest, and who had always declared she loved dear Joanna Fox like a daughter, sent down word that she wasn't very well and couldn't see com-

Dr. Wentworth, in visiting whose invalid daughter poor old Parson Fox had contracted the il ness which carried him to his grave, was brusque and short. He was sorry for Miss Joanna, of course; but he didu't know of any way in which she could be useful. He understood there was a kid-glove factory to be opened on Walling River soon.

'No doubt Miss Fox could get a place there; or there would be no objection to her going out to domestic service. There was a great deal of false sentiment on this subject and he thought-"

But Joanna without waiting for the result of his cogitations excused herself. She would detain him no longer, she said: and she went away with flaming checks, and resolutely repressed tears.

When she got home she found one of the trustees of the church awaiting her. He didn't wish to hurry her, he said, but the new clergyman didn't want to live in such a ruinous old place: and it was their calculation, as the parsonage, was mortgaged much beyond its real value, to self it out, and buy a new frame house near the depot, with all the modern conveniences, for the use of the Rev. Silas Speakwell.

'Am I to be turned out of my home?' said Joanna indignantly.

Deacon Blydenburg hemmed and hawed. He didn't want to hurt no one's feelings; but as to her home, it was well known that to all intents and purposes the old place had long ago passed out of Parson Fox's ownership; and they were willing to accord her any reasonable length of time to pack up and take leave of her friends-say

So Joanna, who could think of no remaining friend but her old governess, who had long ago gone to New York to fight the great world for herself, went down to the city, and appealed to Miss Woodin in her extremity; and Miss Woodin cried over her and kissed her and caressed her, like an old maiden aunt.

'What am I to do?' said poor, pale Joanna, 'I can't starve!'

'There's no necessity for any one starving | fetish which has many worshippers .in this great busy world, 'said Miss Woodin cheerfully. 'All one wants is-faculty.'

Joanna shrank a little from the hard, stereotyped word which she had so often heard from the lips Mrs. Emmons, Miss Sabina Sexton, and that sisterhood.

'But how do you live?' said she. 'Do you see that thing there in the corner?' said Miss Woodin.

'Yes,' answered Joanna. 'Is it a sewing

'It's a type writer,' announced Miss Woodin, 'and I earn my living on it.' 'But what do you write?' said Joanna.

'Anything I can get,' said Miss Woodin. And thus, in the heart of the great wilderness of New York, Joanna Fox commenced her prilgrimage of toil.

First the type writer, then promoted to a compiler's desk in the Fashion Department,' of a prominent weekly journal; then, by means of a striking original sketch, slipped into the letter box of the Ladies' Weekly with fear and trembling, to a place nothe contributors' list; then gradually ris-'It's the hardest job of work that ever | ing to the rank of a spirited young novelist, until our village damsel had her pretty 'flat' furnished like a minerature palace, with Miss Woodin and her type writer snugly installed in one corner. 'Because I owe everything to her,' said the young authoress, gratefully.

And one day, glancing over the exchanges in the sanctum of the Ladies' Weekly, to else in the world.

Woodin believed most firmly in whatever Joanna believed. In her loving eyes the young writer was always right.

So Joanna Fox and Miss Woodin, dressed in black and closely veiled, went up to Foxville to attend the auction sale.

an auction sale at Foxville every day in the discovery of the method of first work-Squire Barton was there, with a vague lic garden. 'It would be attractive,' said the Squire, These open air concert-gardens are making no end of money in the cities. 'I don't see ey that there is going.' Mrs. Emmons came because everybody else did. Miss Dodge, who had saved a little money, thought that if the place went iron, the texture of which, originally fibcheap she would pay down a part and give rous, became granular, and its surface man: 'My friend, I have not got a pair of a mortgage for the remainder.

considered, 'and I could always have a ingots, and again rolled out into bars it

But Simon Lockedge was most determined of all to have the old parsonage for his live there real comfortable. It's a dreadful had no doubt made the most important ries, the dog that trots after him, the house pretty location, and I'm bound to have itespecially since mother's investments have turned out bad and we've got to sell the tion perfected which must at one stride old farm. Nothing hasn't gone right with completely revolutionize the iron and us since I broke off with the old parson's granddaughter. It was'nt quite the square direct from the ore in the incredible time himself next and respectable, by being thing to do, but there seemed no other of one hour, is own by the NORTH STATE way. But, let mother say what she will, it MINING COMPANY, whose offices are at 52 civil and courteous, by respecting himself brought bad luck to us.

And rustic crowd surged in and out, and the auctioneer mounted to the platform on ed a system of manufacture at once new, an old kitchen table, and the bidding be- simple and effective, an invention which gan at five hundred dollars, and 'hung fire' in a few years will make his name heard for some time.

'Six!' said cautious Simon Lockedge at

'Seven!' piped Miss Dodge, faintly. 'Eight!' said Simon, resolutely. 'A thousand! uttered the voice of a quiet veiled lady in the corner. 'Tain'tworth that,' said-the Squire, sotto roce; 'all run down-fences gone to noth-

But Simon Lockedge wanted it very

'E-le-ven hundred!' said he slowly and unwillingly. 'Fifteen hundred!' spoke the soft voice decidedly. 'Fifteen hundred!' bawled the auction. eer. 'I'm offered fifteen hundred dollars for this very desirable property. Fifteen hundred-fifteen-teen-teen! Fifteen hundred, once-fifteen hundred, twice-fifteen hundred, three times and gone! What name, ma'am, if you please?'

And the lady, throwing aside her veil, answered calmly:

'Joanna Fox!'

The old parsonage was rebuilt, and studded with little bay windows and mediæval porches. Laurels and rhododendrons were set out in the grounds, the little brook was bridged over with rustic cedar wood, and Joanna Fox and Miss Woodin came there to live in modest comfort.

But Mrs. Lockekge and her son Simon moved out of Foxville when the mortgage on their old place was foreclosed, and the places that had known them once knew them

And Mrs. Emmons said :

'She's done real well, Joanna has. I always knew there was something in her.' And Mrs. Wentworth and the Misses Barton tried desperately to become intimate with the young authoress, but without avail. For there is nothing in all the wide world so successful as success, and it is a HELLEN FORREST GRAVES.

SCRAPS.

The yellow fever is at Matamoras. There have The malady has also broken out in spreading. The malady has also broken out in Brownsville, Texas.....Twenty-one cases of sun-stroke in New York last Saturday.....A great public meeting in Egypt declared in favor of supporting Arabi Pasha. The Khedive has forbidden such aid and comfort but is without power....Our public debt was reduced $14,000,000 last month....Hecker's flouring mill has been destroyed by fire. Loss nearly $1,000,000, mostly covered by insurance.... The President has vetoed the River and Harbor billThe distinguished Russian General, Shobeleff, was killed in a drunken brawl.....Democratics in Washington are counting on a Democratic House in the next Congress. The party was never in better spirits in this State thus early in the canvass than spirits in this State thus early in the canvass than now....The Wilmington Star says North Carolina is more ably represented in the Senate than any State in the Union....Winnesota's wheat crop is said to be about 41% million bushels...The Greenbackers are stronger in Newbern that anywhere else in this State....Senator Hill's condition is hopeless. Death may come very soon.....Popham, one of Mahone's pets, a plink of that stripe, was filling two offices, but not making money fast enough tried forgery and was snapped up for it....Officers in Charlotte were searching for a white man named in Charlotte were searching for a white man named Sheppered, yesterday, accused of assaulting a negro woman....Venor predicts cool moist weather for August.... A Belgiap stole money and fied to for August.... A Belgian stole money and fied to Canada, and sent back a Canada lawyer to alrange the matter on paying back part of the money, but the Belgians popped him into prison as an accemplice..... The London Times foreshadows English opposition to the Porte's proposed army into Egypt to aid in restoring order unless under English control...... Fasting is the latest remedy for acute rheumatism. May drink cold water and lemonade.

An exchange makes the assertion that the man who buys his way to Congress will sell his vote after he gets there.'

An Exchange asks, why should Arthur strain at the river and harbor gnat after New York 25,275; in Brooklyn 11,312. swallowing the pension camel.

Alabama lead off in the elections this year. It votes on the 7th of August. whose columns she still contributed, she Kentucky votes for minor State officers came across a copy of the Foxville Ga- the same day; Arkansas votes on September 4th, Vermont on the 5th, and Maine 'Hester,' she said, hurrying home, to Miss on the 11th. On August 3d, Tennessee Yellow fever is again exciting fears to have you help me with the housework. Woodin, 'the parsonage is to be sold at elects county officers and votes on the lain on the ground for one hundred ears. Title reserved until all the parchase money I'm goin' to have a house full o' summer auction to-morrow, and I mean to go up question of a call of a State Convention

Iron and Steel.

Miss Woodin agreed with Joanna. Miss The Trade Revolutionized-Steel Plate in Three Hours from Crude Ore.

Iron, known from remotest antiquity has received from its utility, more study and been the subject of more patents than any other known substance. Iron, tho' the most common, is the most difficult of Everybody was there. They didn't have all metals to obtain in a state fit for use, use of gold, silver or copper. It is certain that it was prepared in ancient Egypt idea of purchasing the old place for a pub- at a very remote epoch. Our space will in filling a proper furnace with alternate why the Germans need pocket all the mon- strata of bars of the purest-malleable iron red heat. Thus carbon penetrated the 'And my sister could keep boarders,' she forms "shear steel;" if melted, cast into forms "cast steel." As with iron, so with you ever drew a bow across." steel, within the past four years rapid strides have been made and important discoveries recorded in its manufacture to lessen the cost and improve its texture 'I could fix it up,' he said to himself, 'and and quality. Up to this date Bessemer now a common article of commerce. Not until this year, however, was the invenwho may be justly proud of having creat-

> The North State Mining Company is founded on immense beds of magnetic iron ore of great extent, richness and unexcelled purity, being free from sulphur, over 50 per cent. metalic iron.

> Special furnaces are building for the manufacture of steel direct from the ore by the new process owned by this com-seem they are now accomplished facts, and it is but a question of a few weeks before the products of the furnaces will be on the market. The slag coming from these patent furnaces is entirely and chemically free from metal, being as light and porous as punges stone; thus a conintention to enter at length into the de- years. tail of manufacture under this invaluable process; suffice it to say that samples of shown to and examined by a number of eminent metallurgists, who while at first denying that the result could be accomplished by the means adopted, now acknowledge their error and admit the success of the invention; by this process the finest kinds of cutlery steel have been made direct from the ore in one hour. Thus we claim that the most important North State Mining Company, a discov- H. Haines and H. A. Menough, dated April ery, which, as we before stated, must 21st, 1881, and registered in Book 59, p. 139 revolutionize the iron and steel trade, of the office of the Register of Deeds of and enable America not only to compete Rowan county, and upon which default has with England, but actually to ship steel been made; and the said parties of the seinto England and Europe at a handsome | cond part having assigned their inter est in profit. There can be no doubt that the said Morrgage Deed to M. E. Kirk for a stock of the North State Mining Company | valuable consideration, (who requires a forewill become one of the invaluable invest- | closure of same), we will sell at public aucments of the day, fully repaying those | tion at the Court House in Salisbury, on who have had confidence in their statements and promises. We admit we were among the most skeptical, openly laughing at their apparently incredible statements; but we have seen the manufacture, seen the product, seen steel made from crude ore in less than two hours, seen the bloom returned to the furnace and in less than three hours become marketable steel. We admit our incredibility and our convesion into warm believers in what we have seen actually accomplished, steel made from ore in less than two hours by one heat.

The colored vote of the State will not taken into serious consideration by th Republican politicians, who are convinced that the 'colored brother' always votes the 'straight ticket,' but there is some probability that a large number of colored voters will mark out and pursue a course of action for themselves, and that too, mainly because they are not 'taken into consideration' by the professionals. They will receive just as much by voting to suit themselves as they will by voting for the ticket | TERMS OF SALE .- Six months credit mapped out by A. B. Cornell and 'Me Teo.' Their leaders are not consulted in anything, even the smallest piece of consideration, they are told, 'No, you people want too much.' If this be the case -- if they get nothing as a voluntary offering, and less when they prefer a claim-what have they to gain and what to lose by the triumph or defeat of the Republican machine. - New York Globe, (a colored paper.)

The population of New York is estimated by the Times at 1,300,000. Of this number 500,000 are supposed to be Catholic population. Brooklyn is estimated to have 590,000 population and 200,000 Catholics, including men, women and children. The Episcopalian is next: in Presbyterian next: in New York 21,580; Brooklyn 11,631. Methodist fourth: in New York, 51,590; Brooklyu, 11,636. Baptist fifth: New York, 12,686; Brook-

A board from a catalpa log, which had was found to be sound, fair, and suscepti- is paid. le of a good polish .

One of the murderers of Lord Cavendish has been arrested in Venezuela. Several hundred colored peop'e-G. Samaritans—from Salisbury and Statesville, visited Asheville on Saturday last.

The Baltimore Day thus appreciatively refers to Senator Vance: 'Senator Vance, of North Carolina, frequently illustrates his speeches with anecdotes, or rather parables, which he relates in a manner that seling it seems to have been posterior to the dom fails to bring down the house, no matter how much the majority may disagree with him politically. Speaking not long not permit us to recapitulate the various ago against a bill which he considered inventions and improvements in its man- 'penny wise but pound foolish,' he said it ufacture. Steel was made by a process reminded him of a kind old man who lives called cementation, which briefly consists at the top of a hill in North Carolina. One day a wagoner came by and untuckily got and powdered charcoal; atmospheric air his team 'stalled' at the foot of the bill. was carefully excluded from the boxes, To the old man's house he went, asking the and the whole kept for some days at a loan of a pair of mules and a 'fifth chain' to help him up the hill. Said the kind old acquired a blistered character. Blistered mules or a fifth chain to save your life. steel, rolled or beaten down into bars, But I am always anxious to help a man in distress; I can lend you the best fiddle

FOR THE BOYS. -Let no boy think he is to be made a gentleman by the clothes he wears, the horses he rides, the stick he cardiscovery, and steel bearing his name is he lives in or the money he spends. Not one of all these things do it; and yet, every bey may be a gentleman. He may wear an old hat, cheap clothes, live in a poor house steel trade. This truly wonderful inven- and spend but little money. But how? By tion, by which iron or steel can be made being true, manly and honorable, keeping Broadway, New York. The credit of the and others, and finally, and above all, by invention is due to Mr. Wm. W. Chipman, fearing God and keeping his commandments .- Parish Visitor.

Some curious old customs are still obto the remotest parts of the civilized served in London on Good Friday. By the will of Peter Symonds made in the year 1568, sixty of the youngest boys in Christ's hospital receive, after divine service on Good Friday morning in Allhalphosphorus and titanic acid, averaging lows church, Lombard street. a new penny and a bay of raisins. On April 7th of this year, after a sermon by the prebendary, the requirements of the will were, for the 289th time, carried out. At St. Astonishing as these statements may Bartholomew's the Great, West Smithfield, twenty-one widows visited an ancient tomb in the churchyard, and each picked up a new sixpence. Though the name of the benefactress has been lost, the gift has been observed every Good steel made by this process have been Trustee's SALE OF VALUABLE

By virtue of a Mortgage Deed executed by Josiah Cope, president of the Bullion discovery of the age is that owned by the Gold Mining Company, to D. M. Taylor, H.

Monday, 4th Day of Sept. (September) next, the Land and Machinery and all property and fixtures on the said land belonging to the Bullion Mining Company, said lands adjoining the lands of Lena Miller, Rimer Mine and others, con taining twelve acres, more or less,

Terms of sale—Cash D. M. TAYLOR, H. H. HAINES, H. A. MENOUGH.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

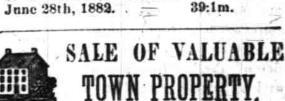

August 3d, 1882.

As Administrator of the estate of Robt, G. A. Love, deceased, I will offer for sale in the town of Waynesville, at public auction, on the first Monday in August next, that is, the seventh day of August, A. D. 1882, the following described town property: Seventy [70] regular shaped one-half lacre lots and eighteen [18] irregular shaped lots averaging one-half [1] acre each: All lying in the northern end of Waynesville and contiguous to the new Court House square and the depot of the Western N. C. R. R. with note and good security. Title retained until purchase money is paid. Title

Lots can be distinguished by stakes now on the ground which marks the lots and streets. Map showing entire location can be seen at Haywood Court House on and after the 15th of July next. M. H. LOVE, Ad'mr of ? R. G. A. LOVE, DEC'D.

J. Y. BARBER, Autioncer.

ON Monday the 4th day of September next, at the Court House door in Salisbury, I will sell that valuable property known as the RITZ PROPERTY, situated on Main Street in the Town of Salisbury .- TERMS OF SALE; The purchaser will pay one third of the purchase money as soon as the sale is confirmed, and he will have a credit of three and six months for the other two thirds, with interest from date of sale at 8 per cent. Biddings will be opened at $1,479 50 .-

JOHN S. HENDERSON. 42:1m Com'r.