To illustrate how the western internal revenue district has been used as a political machine we cite some figures found in the Vance examination. The Secretary of the Treasury allows special run it in their own interest. The people of Rowan have not forgotten the men por the methods employed to this end. They defeated them again and again. Not one of the disturbers was in the County Convention this year, and consequently there was perfect harmony. The Democratic what they ask for it will trke $700,000 a people of the State are satisfied with the men they have put in power. The soreheads, if they could, would defeat the Republicans say yes. manly and able Robbins, and put in the sprace Chas. Price; turn out Vance, the man of national fame, and put in the driviling office-seeking Wm. Johnson; turn out Ransom, one of the ablest members of the U.S. Senate, and put in the revenuer Mott, and so on to the end of the chapter. They would make a job of it at which decent men would blush, and by which the State's honor would be trailed in the filth, and depravity of the revenue ring, and the outs would then back to compete with American facstand a chance to thrust their hands in the money bags of the State and the Federal treauries. That's what's the matter. The people are holding them back, and won't let them in; and so they stand off and jaw at the trusted, chosen servants of the people as if they were pick-pockets. We think their raving is all in vain but we shall see in November.
