

NEW TERMS.

From and after the 1st day of January, 1882, the subscription price of the Watchman will be as follows:

One year, paid in advance, $1.50

WANTED—15 cords of 2 foot wood apply at Watchman Office.

OATS—Mr. W. G. Chandler, at Chandler's Grove, Montgomery county, sowed oats in July last.

J. G. McConaughy's sale of corn, &c., will take place on Wednesday the 22d of November instead of the 21st as advertised in last week's paper.

The first frost of the season visited this place on the morning of the 6th inst. We have had several light frosts since, but there are still many things in the gardens not seriously damaged.

WEEK OF PRAYER.—The Young Men's Christian Association of this place is observing this week, the regular annual term for special religious services.

The new Tobacco Warehouse is now fully completed, and ready for the new tobacco crop. It is a substantial building, 50x100 and it is expected that at an early day it will be full.

Mr. Butts exhibited his panorama of scenes in the old testament to a very large audience last night. The Hall is seldom filled on this occasion; and they were well pleased with the artistic work.

DEDICATION SERVICES.—The Catholic church, recently erected in this place, will be dedicated next Sabbath, the Right Rev. Bishop Northrop officiating, assisted by several other clergymen.

CHEAP RATE TO WASHINGTON.—The Richmond and Danville railroad lines have issued a reduced rate to Washington City and return; tickets will be sold on 23d, 24th and 25th of November at the depot in Salisbury, for $14.20 round trip, good until December 5th.

There are several sporting men here with a number of trained dogs; among them are Mr. T. E. Smith, of New Jersey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heath, of Newark, N. J., and Mr. J. Heron Crossman of New York.

IN MEMORIAM. Whereas, We have received the sad news of the untimely death of Bro. Chas. Gordon, by an accident on the W. N. C. Railroad, while in the faithful discharge of his duty, and whereas, we desire to express our sympathy with the bereaved family, and also leave on record some testimonial of the character of this devoted Knight of Honor.

Resolved, That our Lodge has lost by the death of Bro. Chas. Gordon, one of our most devoted members. He was simple and sincere in manner, true in character, wise in council, and always ready to stand as a wall of granite against whatever he believed to be false in theory, or unwieldy in policy; and we loved him for his manly character and honesty of purpose, and we will ever cherish his memory, and meet him in the Great Lodge above.

Resolved, That this Lodge attend the funeral ceremonies in a body, and wear the usual badge of mourning thirty days in respect to his memory.

Resolved, That this preamble and resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge, and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family and also to the Watchman and Examiner for publication.

Two NORTHERN SPORTSMEN.—Mr. S. T. Hammond, editor of the Forest and Stream, one of the best sporting journals in the world, arrived in this city yesterday and registered at the Central. Two of the dogs that Mr. Hawks, the unfortunate crazy man, had under his training at Fort Mill, belonged to Mr. Hammond and he has gone down to see about them.

The dog killed by Hawks belonged to Mr. Wm. M. Williams, of New York who is now here with Mr. Hammond. Both these gentlemen are greatly interested in the approaching field trials at High Point and they say that it will be the greatest event of the sort ever held in the Southern States. Over a hundred dogs will be on exhibition, some of them the finest blooded dogs in America and valued all the way from $500 to $1,500.—Char. Observer.

We revolutionized the First District, but your speech at Wilmington seems to have helped in beating Canada. What do you expect for your services?—Leach to Price.—Wm. Star.

MINING INTELLIGENCE.

T. K. BRUNER, MANAGER.

MINING MEN.—Last Saturday a good many men interested in mining were in the city, among them were:

Dr. H. R. Rogers, of Beavertown, Montgomery county; Mr. Hambley, assayer, Gold Hill, Rowan county; Mr. Sherrin and Mr. C. Armstrong of the Sam Christian, Montgomery county; Mr. J. D. Stewart, Dunn's Mountain, Rowan county; Mr. C. G. Veile and Mr. A. D. Potts, Crowell mine, Stanly county; Mr. J. J. Newman, Dutch Creek, Rowan county; Judge Hughes, of Penn., interested in mining property near here; Mr. John Dewees, of Cabarrus county, interested in Rocky River gold property.

ROWAN MINE.—The assignment of Mr. L. Graf spoken of as a failure of $200,000 in last week's paper, will not, so Supt. Menninger says, affect the development of the Rowan mine. He says they will go right on and pay cash for everything they need. He also says that Mr. Graf will pull through his present troubles paying one hundred cents on the dollar for all his liabilities.

CONCORD, N. C., Nov. 15, '82. Editor Watchman: The Rocky River Gold mine was sold this week to Judge Hughes of Pa. for $40,000. The Reed & Allison was sold to a Philadelphia company, for about $5,000. Both companies will erect machinery at once and have already commenced taking out ore. Resp't, W. M. SMITH.

SAM CHRISTIAN MINE.—Between two and three hundred pennyweights of rough nuggets were shipped to the company in Philadelphia, last Saturday. Mr. Sherrin the Supt., has returned to Philadelphia, leaving Mr. W. B. Smith in charge as Supt., and Mr. C. Armstrong as assistant. We are glad to know the property is still producing in paying quantities. The largest piece seen in lot mentioned weighed 84 pennyweights, and came from what is known as "Moore's Dry Hollow"—one of the richest gulches on the property.

Mr. W. B. Smith of the Sam Christian mine is here to-day. He tells us that he is looking for Mr. Haslett, C. E., who is coming to run experimental lines, with the view of determining the practicability of bringing water from this source to supply the works. Should this be done placer washings would be a great deal more extensive on this property.

DEDICATION SERVICES.—The Catholic church, recently erected in this place, will be dedicated next Sabbath, the Right Rev. Bishop Northrop officiating, assisted by several other clergymen. The services will commence at 9 1/2 in the morning, and again at 7 1/2 in the evening.

CHEAP RATE TO WASHINGTON.—The Richmond and Danville railroad lines have issued a reduced rate to Washington City and return; tickets will be sold on 23d, 24th and 25th of November at the depot in Salisbury, for $14.20 round trip, good until December 5th. The occasion is the National Bazar Industrial and art exposition for the benefit of the Garfield Monument Fund.

There are several sporting men here with a number of trained dogs; among them are Mr. T. E. Smith, of New Jersey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heath, of Newark, N. J., and Mr. J. Heron Crossman of New York. Mr. A. Harry Craige, of Philadelphia, arrived here to-day. He is well known among the young people; and by-the-way, is a fine shot. He expects to try his hand among the birds this fall.

IN MEMORIAM. Whereas, We have received the sad news of the untimely death of Bro. Chas. Gordon, by an accident on the W. N. C. in the work are sanguine as to results. Next week all the machinery will be going.

They say that the Clerks in Washington who were made to stand and deliver to H. Hubbell's highway robbers are going to have an investigation into the question "what became of the money?" and that some of Hubbell's committee are quite willing for it—perhaps because they don't have the handling of it.

We have no doubt that the most interesting witnesses who could be summoned would be Boss Mahone and Boss Mott. They certainly know where some of it went, and ought to be politely invited to "give in their experience."—Charlotte Journal.

The Cotton Seed Oil Mill.

Messrs. Merrick & Apple, the Bradford county, Pennsylvania, gentlemen who have been here for the last week, looking after the establishment of a cotton seed oil mill, leave this morning, but will return in a few weeks, as it is understood they have positively determined upon the mill. Several of our own capitalists will be interested in the project. It is learned that the plant for the mill will cost $40,000 or $50,000, and that the entire enterprise will represent about $100,000.

It is shown by reasonable calculations that the absence of such a mill from Charlotte has been costing the cotton planters in our tributary territory considerably over $100,000 per year, in the single item of the waste of the oil in the cotton seed is not of the slightest value in enriching the soil and its extraction from the seed does not impair the value in this respect of the oil cake. The removal of the staple adhering to the seed, which is done in the process for extracting the oil also adds much to the value of the cake as provender, as the lint on the seed coming from the gin helps to form an indigestible mass in the stomach of cattle, while no such result follows with the cake.—Char. Journal.

Too Early.

As usual, after a Congressional election the friends of prominent men of the winning party have begun to nominate candidates for Speaker of the House, and even of Clerk, Sergeant-at-Arms and Door-keeper. If the newly elected members had to assemble immediately, or even on the 4th of next March, when their term of office will begin, there might be some propriety in this, but when it is remembered that the new Congress will not meet until the 1st Monday in December, 1883—more than a year hence—and that the contingencies which may happen in the meantime are beyond mortal foresight and may change the whole face of politics, it seems early to be setting forth the claims of this, or that man for this, or that office.

It is still more early to nominate candidates for President, and other offices which cannot be filled for more than two years hence—and, what is more, it is very often unwise in the friends of a particular candidate to enter him for the race so soon. Two years is a long time, and events rush over each other with wonderful rapidity—now-a-days. Something may be pardoned to enthusiasm in the first flush of victory, when a successful candidate's friends demand his further elevation, but the wise and cool political calculator does not seize that moment to proclaim his future tactics. Reversing the scriptural maxim, he says "sufficient unto the day is the good thereof," and then proceeds to watch and wait.—Char. Journal.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., Nov. 14.—The first killing frost of the season visited this locality this morning. Thermometer fell to 35 degrees.

KNOXVILLE, Nov. 14.—The heavy frost of this morning extended all over the valley of East Tennessee. It was the first frost of the season in the vicinity of Knoxville, the weather up to the present time having been unusually mild. The weather remains clear and favorable to gathering of late crops which are more abundant than they have been for several years, corn being 50 per cent above the average. The acreage of wheat just sowed is greater than it was ever before known to be in East Tennessee.

HICKORY PRESS: Nineteen young Indians passed down the road a few days ago for Trinity College where they will be educated at the expense of the government. They were from the Cherokee districts of this State.—There are about one hundred students attending Catawba High School at Newton. While every branch of the school is well managed it is said that the kindergarten department in charge of Miss Lindsay of Greensboro is specially attractive.

SUNK WITH ALL ON BOARD.—London, Nov. 15.—A dispatch from New Haven states that the third officer, two quartermasters and three seamen, constituting the crew of the boat sent from the steamship Westphalia in search of steamer which collided with the Westphalia have been landed there by a Belgian pilot boat. They report having seen the other steamer sink with all hands.

The first nine months of 1882 the exports as compared with imports exceeded by $54,309,644 the figures of 1881. In 1881 the exports were in excess by $121,171,904. This makes an actual difference of $175,000,000. That does not look favorable. It shows a most extraordinary change against the United States in less than one year. This is owing to two things, namely: the failure of the crops in 1881, and the increasing extravagance of the people in 1882.

CHARLESTON INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION.—Greatly reduced rates have been offered on all the roads leading to Charleston for the grand Industrial Exhibition which begins on the 21st inst., and continues to December 16th. The most prominent and attractive event of the Exhibition is to be a music festival on November 27, 28 and 29. Delegations of the best musical talent of the cities of Savannah, Atlanta and Columbia will be present to augment the grand chorus of 140 voices and orchestra of 50 performers.—Char. Journal.

The stockholders of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad company have declared forfeited the lease of their road to the Midland (N. C.) Railroad represented by W. J. Best of New York.—N. Y. Stock Report.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF ROWAN COUNTY.

Table with columns for candidates and counties (Salisbury, Franklin, Unity, South Irish, Mt. Ulla, Columbia, Enchville, Locke, China Grove, Litcher, Bernhardt's, Gold Hill, Morgan, Providence) and rows for candidates (Bennett, Dockery, Robbins, York, Cook, Klutz, Ramsay, Overman, Bingham, Krier, Lackey, Horat, Boyden, Woodson, Murphy, McCubbin, Wiley, Atwell, Miller) with corresponding vote counts.

Greensboro Patriot: Joseph C. King, of this place, charged with robbing the mails, was convicted at Asheville yesterday.

The Red river is frozen over at Winnipeg, Manitoba, and there is fair sleighing in that locality.

A colored man was found walking along Howard street, Baltimore, Monday, with the small-pox.

Mr. Beecher, notwithstanding the vehemence with which he advised his fellow-citizens to register and vote against Folger, did not himself deposit any ballot on election day.—New York Herald.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 15.—A construction train on the Alton road, while backing up from Grain Valley to Oak Grove, last evening, collided with a hand car. The train was derailed, six men killed, and eight or ten wounded.

FROST AND DEMOCRACY.—Wilmington, November 15.—There was a killing frost here last night, the first this season. The Democrats have elected their entire ticket for Judges of the Supreme and Superior courts.

The sharpest rebuke administered to "Liberalism" in North Carolina is the vigor and pertinacity with which the old-line Radicals have scratched George N. Folk, the "Liberal" candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court. The scratching also extended to the other candidates on the Judicial ticket, and the result is that not a mother's son of them is elected.—Wm. Star.

Wilmington Star: The receipts from November 1st to date foot up 10,067 bales of cotton, as against 8,365 bales for the corresponding period last year. The receipts for the year up to date foot up 46,179 bales as against 47,167 bales up to the same time last year, showing a decrease of 988 bales.

Wilmington Review: Mr. James M. Hewlett and his crew, with the Hewlett seine, caught yesterday at Wrightsville beach 2,000 bunches of mullets.

MONTEGOMERY, ALA., Nov. 14.—Legislature met to-day. Neither House organized and both branches adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow. Election for U. S. Senator to succeed Gen. Morgan was called off on the 28th, inst. There was heavy frost here this morning—first of the season.

The last frazzled fragment of the bloody shirt has disappeared—the lingering echoes of the old rebel yell have faded away amid the hills of New England, and a peaceful calm now rests upon the wooded heights around Skowhegan, and the pleasant valleys of Oskoshok. Let all the people rejoice—while North Carolina, like the poet's description of man, swings a pendulum betwixt a smile and tear.—Char. Journal.

THE WESTPHALIA DISASTER.—Portsmouth, Eng., Nov. 14.—Now that the Westphalia has been docked here the Captain says the collision between his vessel and another steamer was caused by the latter improperly starboarding. He remained on the spot two hours, burning lights, but the other steamer disappeared. There is no tidings of the Westphalia's missing boat.

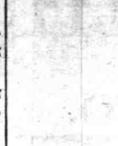

It is now the general belief that the steamer which collided with the Westphalia made off so as to avoid giving her name.

REWARD! A package marked plainly Mrs. H. T. Trantham, containing 8 pieces purple broadcloth and 10 watered silk, supposed to have been handed out with other packages by mistake. If returned to Jones, McCubbin & Co., a suitable reward will be paid.
