Carolina Watchman.

THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1883.

☞No Southern mail this morning.

There is no doubt presented to the American people the choice between two evils in the tariff questions now before Congress. The present system is a heavy burden on every man who buys goods from a store; for there is not an article on the shelves which is not loaded with a tax. He pays in this way at least one-third more for merchandise than he would if there was no tax on them. But as the government must have money, free goods are quite out of the question. A modified or reduced tariff is the only possible relief, and this must not descend so low as to embarrass the public requirement. It is urged by some politicians, and we of Western North Carolina are of the number, that a repeal of the internal revenue system ought to be made at whatever cost, as the only means of getting clear of the great public evil of having a hoard of federal officers traversing the country, annoying and corrupting the people, and instigating crimes of many sorts. But it is contended by others that the repeal of this system would so reduce the income of the government as to render it impossible to accomplish any considerable reduction of the tariff on importations. Hence the choice of evils. If the internal revenue system is stricken down, the present tariff must stand. Or if the tariff be reduced, the internal revenue must stand,

For our part we would prefer to see the internal revenue system wiped out clean from A to Z, and take the chances for a revision and reduction of the general tariff system at some future time. We have good faith in a Democratic Congress —a Democratic administration—and we think it is coming at no distant day. We believe there will be patriotism enough in such a Congress and administration to reduce the expenditures of the government and also reduce the tariff accordingly. And abiding in this hope we would rejoice to see the internal revenue system obliterated, even if nothing should now be done with the tariff bills before Congress. Indeed, it is apparent enough that this republican Congress will not accomplish any measure or relief for the people of the country on this subject. Their purpose and aim is to make a show of doing something without any intention whatever of doing it—this and nothing more. It seemed probable when Congress first met that the odious internal system could be abolished, but the hope of that know seems clean gone. In a few days Congress will adjourn and the people will be left to groan under unjust burdens as heretofore.

MAKING UP THE TABLES.—The republican newspapers, evidently growing anxious in regard to the next Presidential election, for they have read the wall inscriptions of last fall, are endeavoring to persuade themselves into a hopeful belief of the result, and have, to this end, made up tables of figures in which New York is necessarily included to elect their party candidate. But New York don't belong to them and they know it, by nearly 200,000, and without that State their cause is hopeless. But this has induced the Rochester Union to make up a table on the other side which we present below as far more probable than any republican prophecy yet made.

Democrat.		Republican.
Alabama	10	California	8
Arkansas	7	Connecticut	5
Delaware	3	Colorado	3
Florida	4	Connecticut	6
Georgia	12	Illinois	22
Indiana	15	Iowa	13
Kentucky	13	Kansas	9
Louisiana	8	Maine	6
Maryland	8	Massachusetts	14
Mississippi	9	Michigan	13
Missouri	16	Minnesota	7
Nevada	3	Nebraska	5
North Carolina	11	New Hampshire	6
New Jersey	9	Ohio	23
New York	36	Oregon	4
South Carolina	4	Pennsylvania	30
Tennessee	12	Rhode Island	4
Texas	12	Vermont	4
Virginia	12	Wisconsin	11
West Virginia	6
Total	216	Total	185

The three C's—California, Colorado and Connecticut—should perhaps have been classed as doubtful, for the Democrats are as likely to carry them next year as the Republicans are. Add them to the Democratic column, and we can carry the country and lose New York, a feat which is impossible for our opponents to accomplish.

DEATH OF JUDGE CLOUD,

The announcement of the death of Judge J. M. Cloud, on Sunday last, was felt as a sorrowful event throughout this portion of the State. For notwithstanding the Judge had some eccentricities and peculiarities in his make up, he was yet believed to be an honest, good hearted man. And it is noted as a fact highly creditable to him as possessing good sense, that although he was not a learned lawyer, his judicial decisions were more generally sustained by the Supreme Court than those of any other Judge in the State.

He died suddenly, on a railroad train while returning from a visit to his orange groves in Florida. He was not feeling well on Sunday morning, and went into a sleeping car and laid down. Between Columbia, S. C., and Charlotte, he was discovered to be in a dying condition. Physicians were summoned on along the road, but it was found that he had had a stroke of appoplexy, and that his case was hopeless. He breathed his last at or near Charlotte, where his body was placed in a casket and given in charge of Mr. R. M. Pearson to be conveyed to his home in Winston. The deceased was about 72 years of age.

SORGHUM.

There is one small farmer in Rowan whose sorghum crop on 7½ acres land yielded over 2200 gallons. Allowing for swrinkage he estimates his income from this crop at $1,000,—better, by a very handsome margin, than 10 or 15 acres in cotton in this part of the State.

It is a demonstrated fact that sugar can be made from some varieties of the sorghum cane. The last census reports 509,731 pounds of sugar made in 1880. The amber cane has yielded as high as 65 pounds of sugar to the ton; but it is confidently expected by parties engaged in the manufacture, that with improved facilities the amber cane will yield 100 pounds to the ton, which is very little behind the Louisiana cane.

Now when we consider that sugar and molasses are the heaviest items of our foreign importations, amounting in 1881, to $88,000,000; on which we paid a tariff of $47,000,000, making the aggregate cost $136,000,000, it is apparent that here is a wide, rich, and inviting field of industry open to the tillers of the soil. Even at the low yield of 65 pounds to the ton, those engaged in the manufacture say it is remunerative; but if improved machinery shall bring out a yield of 100 pounds to the ton, it will be better than a gold mine.

The Legislature has refused to make any appropriation for either the State Board of health or the State Guard. This action was no doubt prompted by a desire to keep down State expenses—to reduce taxation. Our representrtives had all the lights before them and may have done right, though it would seem that both these subjects should have been sustained.

The "Indian Holes" in the rocks on a rocky projection in Lake George, described by a correspondent of the Scientific American, and said by the inhabitants to have been used by the indians for grinding or beating their corn into meal, are exactly like those in the rocks at the "Narrows" of the Yadkin river, where they occur in almost countless numbers, and from six feet down to two or three inches diameter, and of various depths.

They were undoubtedly produced by the action of water, and pebbles driven by it. The inner surfaces of these holes are almost as smooth as glass, the weather —frost, sun and rain—seeming to have no effect on them. The "slide rock," (on the east side of the river), a polished path on a rock at about 45° angle, 14 or 15 feet long, fully exposed to all sorts of weather, retains its high polish from age to age.

READY MADE HOUSES.—Within the memory of the present genecation of men the "ready made" clothing business came into existence, and by degrees drove out the country tailors. The ready made hardware did the same, in large measure, for the country blacksmiths. Ready made hats have long ago closed out all country hatters. Ready made shoes have reduced shoe makers to shoe repairers. And now ready made houses are coming along to rival local carpenters. There is a factory at Walkerton, in Canada, doing a huge business in this line, and their orders sometimes embrace an entire village, including stores, public houses and churches. All are transported by rail, and men are sent along to set up the work, each piece being prepared for its place before it leaves the factory.

Senator Wade Hampton, of S. C., it is said will retire from the Senate and enter public life no more.

The San Francisco Chronicle notes the fact that the Government does a good business in buying silver bullion costing $119,000,000 and in coining it makes 132,000,000 silver dollars.

It is proposed to bring from Georgia the mortal remains of Col. McLeod Turner for burial at Raleigh; and a stirring appeal to members of the Society of ex-Confederate Soldiers has been issued by President Green, inviting all Confederate soldiers to attend his funeral there on the 9th March.

It is said more charters have been granted by this Legislature than ever before. The Greensboro Patriot thinks County Commissioners could have done it just as well, and so they could, and at much less cost.

S. McDowell Tate of Morganton, is said to make the shortest and best speeches of any member of the Legislature, besides being one of the hardest working and most efficient members. Good for Mr. T. and it affords us pleasure to give him the credit due.

NO EXTRA SESSION.—The Wilmington Star having intimated that there would be an extra session of the Legislature, the Raleigh News, after conference with the Governor on the subject, shows that there is no probability of a extra session in any event now known.

The Asheville Citizen tells how to catch moles: Drive a cow's horn into the hole of the mole with the big end down, and when the mole gets into it, he is caught. But the Citizen speaks of moles as "pestiferous animals." We think the Citizen is slandering the mole—it is a harmless animal.

The "National Free School Advocates" of Washington, D. C., says a tea made of the trumpet flower plant, "pitcher plant," in botany, "Sorracenia Purpurea," has been poved to be a specific for small pox. Dose, a wine glassfull, from 4 to 6 hours apart.

The Wilmington Star says an immense bed of phosphates has been discovered in Brunswick county, 11 miles from Wilmington, on the line of the Carolina Central railroad. It has been pronounced of the best quality. This is good news for Wilmington and the State.

Minority Report.

We subjoin some extracts from a minority report of the Committee investigating the Internal Revenue office of this Collection District:

INCORRECT VOUCHERS.

Here follows a statement of the case of the vouchers made out by W. H. Kestler, running for nine months from October 1, 1872, to July 31, 1873, which is concluded thus:

It is entirely evident that this whole Kestler matter was simply a mistake, and a piece of gross carelessness on the part of Clarke, and that no fraud or dishonesty was attempted or contemplated by any one, nor, indeed, was it possible, under the well known regulations of the service, to get a dollar of money from the Treasury by any such means. In the absence of any possible motive for making out these vouchers in the name of Kestler instead of Walker, and the other errors occurring in them, the committee has not the least doubt of the truthfulness of the explanation given by Clarke. When this matter was first brought to the attention of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Collector Mott was promptly dismissed from office, and his successor appointed and installed in his place. But upon an investigation that was immediately had, on the demand of Collector Mott, he was exonerated, and within about three weeks after his dismissal he was reinstated in office.

About the same time of the error in the Kestler vouchers, and also afterwards when the office of supervisor of internal revenue was abolished, Mr. Clarke, as chief clerk, made out and sent up to the department the vouchers of some of the officers, enlarged above the monthly salary that had been allowed for them by the department, with the view, as he states, of inducing the department to allow an increase of salaries. On account of the new and additional duties thrown upon the collector's office by the abolition of the office of supervisor, several persons were employed by the collector above the number allowed in the regular allowance, and they performed service, and vouchers were sent in for them; but such vouchers were disallowed, because they were not provided for in the regular allowance at the beginning of the fiscal year. But this increase was refused by the department. This mode of suggesting it, by the enlargement of the vouchers sent in, and the employment of persons above the number authorized, seems not to have met with any rebuke or other mark of disapprobation from the department. It was not reasonable to suspect that any fraud was attempted, because it was clearly impossible to perpetrate a fraud in that way. It was quite evident from Mr. Clarke's testimony that he had derived the impression, from former service in other revenue districts, that the papers sent up were more in the nature of estimates or claims for an increased allowance than of vouchers. But that he was wrong in this view, and that his conduct was reprehensible, the committee cannot for a moment doubt. It is, however, evident from the testimony that his conduct was unknown to the collector until long afterward, and an investigation, had near the time, resulted in Dr. Mott's restoration to office.

* * * * * * *

The character of Dr. Mott has been sustained by every class of witnesses throughout the testimony, as above reproach, and as good as that of any man in that section of the State, and in all that goes to make up the character of a good, worthy, and useful citizen, and exemplary member of society. It is shown to be such by many witnesses of the highest character and standing in the State. It is further shown, and seems to be generally admitted, that the popular rumors and charges of fraud and misconduct in revenue matters, so much referred to in the evidence, and in this report, have not affected his character and standing in the least degree, because the general confidence in him has been, and is, so great, that no one would believe him privy to or in anywise abetting or conniving at wrong doing, if anything wrong was really going on.

Individual instances of bad conduct by officers were shown, and some instances of fraud upon the revenue by distillers and others. But it does not appear that such instances have been more frequent in this district than might be reasonably expected under the circumstances, and they do not appear to have resulted from carelessness or lack of either good judgment or faithfulness in the management and administration of affairs by the collector and his deputies. Officers were promptly dismissed for misconduct, and the violations of the revenue laws seem to have been diligently inquired into and presented for prosecution to the proper authorities. It is shown that during the time embraced in the investigation 1,107 illicit distilleries and 6 tobacco factories were seized and broken up in this district; that illicit distilling has been almost entirely suppressed, and lawful distilling greatly increased; that the selling of unstamped spirits and tobacco, which at one time prevailed largely, has almost ceased; and that the general improvement in all respects in the collection of the revenue has been very great, and a better disposition towards the collection of the revenue has been established among the people, and the system made to work smoothly throughout the district, where some years ago there was a most extraordinary amount of violent resistance and fraud, and all manner of difficulties and obstructions thrown in the way of the execution of the revenue laws.

THE DEFAULTING PRESIDENT OF THE EMPIRE COMPANY.—New York, Feb. 27. —Crowell was formerly a bank cashier, but resigned to become agent for the Tallman estate—belonging to three sisters of that name. He was given full power of attorney over property valued at a million and a half dollars. In 1879 he became interested in Utah and Nevada mining ventures, was made president of the Empire Mining Company, of Utah, sunk all his own money in that mine and then resorted to the property of his firm. He had borrowed from one of the Misses Tallman $40,000, and abstracted from the estate $60,000, and involved himself to the amount of $48,000 in other directions. His correctness had never before been questioned and his personal credit was good at banks for any amount he chose to ask. It is said that the Tallman sisters will not proceed against him under the law.

The individual who is unfortunate enough to be sentenced to be hung in New York, has some consolation in the fact that he will have a decent funeral. Last week a ball was given in New York to raise funds to provide a handsome funeral for one McGoin, who is to be hanged on March 9th.—Char. Journal.

The Charlotte Observer says a perfect gold fever is raging in Polk county, and the yellow metal is being brought to the surface in great quantities.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

They are a vegetable tonic purgative, absolutely harmless under all circumstances. They never injure the weakest female or the youngest child. One box is a medicine chest sufficing for a whole family. Suppose you have diarrhœa; nature is making a great effort to get rid of some irritating matter in the stomach or bowels. A dose of Brandreth's Pills removes the matter and the disease is cured. In costiveness one good dose of Brandreth's Pills, followed by one pill every night for a week or two, make the human machinery run as regular as clock work. In bad colds, where the pores of the skin are closed and the insensible perspiration thrownupon the blood, poisoning the fountains of life and filling the nose, the throat and the lungs with choking mucus; seven Brandreth's Pills taken at night on an empty stomach, will restore the perspiration, break up the cold and purge away all the watery secretions that should have passed off by the skin. Diphtheria, a family disease and a most dangerous one, is almost immediately cured by one or two doses of Brandreth's Pills, aided by a gargle of lime water. Rhumatism, which comes from too much acidity or too much alkalinity of the system, requires nothing but Brandreth's Pills and a few good sweats to make a perfect cure.

It is marvelous how they purify the blood. After two doses, the effect is seen in brightness of the eyes and clearness of the skin. All pimples and eruptions vanish like magic under the influence of this purifying purgative. We cannot stop the march of time with any medicine: but Brandreth's Pills will remove the excessive lime from the system and prevent grey hair. They improve the sight and tone up the human body, so that the old man's eyes will be undimmed and his natural force unabated even after seventy years.

Best in the World.

Brandreth's Pills have stood the test of forty-five years of use by the American people. They are entirely Vegetable. They are absolutely universal, for there is no disease they will not cure, if taken in time. They are safe for infants and adults. They aim to accomplish three things: first, to purify the blood; second, to cleanse and regulate the stomach and bowels; third, to stimulate the kidneys and liver and purge away the ashes of the system and diseased matters of the body. By purging with these Pills constantly, a new body can be built up from fresh, healthy food in a few months. In this way, gout and rheumatism, ulcers and fever sores can be eradicated in a few weeks. The worst cases of dyspepsia and costiveness can be cured by taking one or two pills every night for a month. In cases of twenty years' standing, gentlemen have been cured by taking one pill a night for a year. Brandreth's Pills give to the human body, no matter how worn or decayed, the recuperative powers of youth. In their action, they imitate the rapid changes of the youthful body. We all wish to die of old age. A hundred years is the natural limit of life, which can only be reached by purging and purification.

In general debility, nervous tremor, and mental depression Brandreth's Pills have a marvelous effect. They have won the confidence of millions in all parts of the civilized world. Constitutions shaken by long residence in unwholesome climates, or by sedentary habits, are wonderfully renovated by a course of this extraordinary medicine, which, powerful as is its action on the whole system, is perfectly harmless to the tenderest frame. The Pills are composed of rare balsams, without the admixture of a grain of any mineral whatever, or of any other deleterious substance. They operate directly, powerfully, and beneficially upon the whole mass of blood; nor can we question the fact when we see indigestion cured, liver complaints arrested, the oppressed lungs brought into healthful play, and every physical function renewed and strengthened by their agency.

Letter from a Gentlemen Ninety Years Old.—Long Life from Use of Brandreth's Pills.

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, WIS., Feb. 11, 1882.

I am in the ninetieth year of my earthly pilgrimage, and before passing to another, and I trust, a better world, I wish to bear testimony to the great virtues of Brandreth's Pills as a household remedy. They are the best blood purifiers and cleansers of the stomach and bowels in the world. I have raised a family of 10 children, been blessed with three wives, and my family experience reaches over seventy years. For over forty-five years I have known and believed in Brandreth's Pills. They have cured me of indigestion, costiveness, dyspepsia; and the females of my family have found them invaluable at all times. I also wish to say that I have found ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS very useful in breast pains, backache and weak muscles.

CURE OF NEURALGIA.

Taken as a "Forlorn Hope," Brandreth's Pills Effect a Magical Cure.—Small-Pox Cured.

Schenck Ave., East New York, April 12, 1880.

I most cordially give my testimony as to the great value of Brandreth's Pills, verified by eighteen years' experience in my mother's (the late Mrs. Dr. Geo M Browne) family and my own. They were at first taken as a "forlorn hope," for the cure of a very severe case of Neuralgia of several years' standing, the patient being completely prostrated by disease and the excessive use of opium, taken to deaden the pain (by advice of her physician.) The effects were almost magical; in one month she was able to be up and walk around freely, and the disease has never returned. My mother was also cured of an attack of Inflamatory Rhumatism by the same means. About six years ago I was taken with what appeared to be a bad cold, but in a short time, symtoms of confluent Small Pox were developed, causing us much alarm. I determined to try Brandreth's Pills as a remedy, and their efficacy was soon apparent. I was well much sooner than was expected, and without receiving a single mark or trouble of any kind. It is my firm belief, judging from the severity of the case, that had I gone through the regular routine prescribed by physicians, I should have died. I know of many other instances of the value of Brandreth's Pills in disease and sickness, which I will be happy to give to any one who will apply to me.
