

Subscription Rates: The subscription rates of the Carolina Watchman are as follows: 1 year, paid in advance, $1.50...

Mr. Cawth Rice, whose death was noticed in our last, was a member and vestryman of St. Andrew's (Episcopal) church, not an elder in Unity.

There will be religious services at the Catholic church next Sunday at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Preaching on both occasions. The public are cordially invited to attend.

TOBACCO.—It is nearly as common now to see wagon loads of tobacco coming into town as loads of wood. Not a day, and some days not an hour, but loads are being driven to one or the other of our warehouses.

There will be a grand Competitive Military Drill and Carnival of Music, at Nashville, Tenn., commencing Monday, May 21st, and continuing for six days. More particular information is obtainable by addressing Jas. M. Martin, general manager.

Mr. W. F. Gray has purchased a half interest in the Hayden House and has become a partner with Mrs. McNeely. The Hotel is still undergoing improvements as to furniture and decorations. It is run in first class style and is a great addition to the town.

A copy of the Hagerstown Seminary Monthly, published at Hagerstown, Md., has been received at this office. It is a neat attractive little College Magazine, of some 30 pages. In a recent concert given by the pupils of the Seminary, Misses Nettie and Anna Holmes of this city took part. "They did themselves great credit" is the remark used by one of the teachers in a personal note the Editor of this paper.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Spring and Summer Goods, J. D. Gaskill; Dry Goods, Groceries, Fertilizers, J. S. McCubbins, Sr.; New Spring Goods, Kluttz & Rendleman; Executor's Notice, Thos. D. Rice; Notice to Stockholders, G. P. Erwin; Beer, Cooler, G. M. Newman; For Sale, Gray Mare, apply at this office.

Our young townsman, E. Mitchell Summerell, has just finished his studies of Medicine and Surgery, and comes forth from the Medical University of Pennsylvania with "flying colors," having had the honor to stand second in the graduating class of over a hundred students. The success is highly gratifying to his numerous friends here, as it entitles him to rank with the learned men of his profession.

A DAILY PAPER.—We note as a matter of news, that some of our citizens held a meeting at the Mayor's office one night last week, for the purpose of giving an invitation to Mr. Chas. R. Jones, to come to Salisbury and start a "live paper." The proceedings of the meeting, duly accompanied by private notes from enthusiastic individuals, were sent to Mr. Jones and drew forth from him a reply through the columns of the Journal in which he pleads business engagements in Charlotte, for the present, at least, for not accepting the invitation.

EDWARD A. OLDFHAM, Esq., has taken control of the Western Sentinel, Winston, N. C. The first No. under his administration comes out in new type and is a very handsome one in all respects, and worthy the progressive town in which this gentleman has cast his lot. The Sentinel will be thoroughly Democratic in politics, but chiefly devoted to the general political and material prosperity of the State.

Mr. W. S. Negus and wife have gone to Bonndrop, N. J. They are called there by the illness of Mr. Negus' father who is not dangerously ill, but whose general health is failing. Mr. Negus will remain there for some months, and may conclude to make it his future home. His genial, pleasant manners have won for him many friends here, who will regret to lose him, should he decide to leave Salisbury permanently.

COTTON FACTORY FOR SALISBURY.—Mr. Hendrick has gone north to induce some of his friends to join him in a cotton factory to be established here. Mr. R. J. Holmes has given 4 acres on the old garrison lot, to be used as a building site, and other men have promised to take stock, so that the cotton factory will be launched among our other business interests in a short time. This is good news.

THE WAREHOUSES.—DISTINCTION IN PRICES.—Ware has it that the manufacturers concerned in Kluttz's Warehouse have combined to discriminate in prices paid for same grades of tobacco, in favor of their house, and the prejudice of Gray & Beall's house. This rumor is entirely without foundation, and is denied by all parties concerned. The G. & B. house have large manufacturers interested also, and farmers bringing tobacco to this market, will not be influenced by any such wild rumor. Special sales day at G. & B.'s, on Friday, there will be a large break-to-morrow. Special sales day at Kluttz on Wednesday.

GOING TO TEXAS!—A great many have gone and others are still going. It is not a small matter for a man to sell his farm and personal property in North Carolina and go to Texas. Hardships certainly await those who go there without a liberal supply of money. Money-making and money-making is more ardently pursued in Texas than in this State, and everything turns on money or very hard labor as its equivalent. The money, and time, and labor, spent in moving to Texas and gaining a sure foothold there, if expended upon the old North Carolina homestead would more surely and satisfactorily reward the farmer. It is easier to improve old lands than to clear away forests and build a new home, and they who dream of going to Texas should not fail to take into account this important fact.

The rainy season has afforded the farmer a chance to market their tobacco. Sales have been brisk every day at Gray & Beall's and at Kluttz's Warehouse. The business is increasing, and should the people of the town see proper to encourage, by putting idle capital into houses, both for business purposes and for places of residence, the probabilities are that the town will enter upon and enjoy a business prosperity unknown here for years. Enterprise and capital must be coaxed and courted, it is rarely forced on a community. These remarks are made because of the great scarcity of dwelling and business houses in Salisbury. The town came near losing an active, live man the other day from this cause, and should another like him come he would be forced away. Who will take hold and meet the matter face to face.

CONCORD PRESBYTERY will hold its semi-annual meeting this spring at Unity Church, in Unity Township, in this county, beginning on Wednesday, 11 A. M., the 18th, of this month. The exercises will be opened with a sermon by Rev. W. B. Arrowood, the retiring Moderator. There will probably be some important business, and some interesting discussions at this meeting that will well reward those who attend.

The day before the meeting of the Presbytery will be taken up with a Presbyterial Sunday School Convention, composed of the members of Presbytery, and such Presbyterian Sunday School officers and teachers as may be present. As this is the first meeting of the kind in the Presbytery, it is hoped the attendance will be good.

The Committee of arrangements of Unity Church advertise that they will meet delegates at Third Creek station on Monday evening and Tuesday morning to convey them to the places assigned to them during their sojourn in Unity.

THE TOWN BONDS.—There seems to be some opposition to the measure inaugurated by the present Board of town Commissioners, for the purpose of paying the city indebtedness and for the permanent improvement of the streets. The measure is intended and calculated to result in good and be a lasting benefit to the town, and as such should be considered carefully by our people. Those opposing the measure have perhaps only looked at one side, or are not fully posted as to the real value such improvements would add to the business prosperity and comfort of our citizens. Most of the objections are of a petty character, and all of them may be met, in the event that our citizens really mean to take advantage of the impetus given the business interests of the place. If there is no desire for improvement, and the people of the town are satisfied with affairs as they stand, then no argument can convince them. Probably the weakest objection urged is that it is not right to create a debt to run thirty years, which must be left for posterity to pay. To be plain, the whole work, as it is intended to be permanent, is bound to benefit those who come after, more than the present actors in the scene. They will enjoy the benefits and will scarcely feel the burden of paying for it. If those who urge this objection were without the blessings which have been handed down to them, at far greater cost, they would be pitiable indeed.

But it is undeniable that the proposed investment is meant for the improvement of the place, and in that light, irrespective of creed or political opinion, think carefully before expressing antagonism to plans carefully worked up for the general good of the town.

Curious Nuggets from Davie Co. A Mr. Murphy, tells us how a traveling man found gold on his place. Late in the night, there came a rap at his door, and he said: Come in! The door opened cautiously and an excited countenance peered in, the mouth fell open and these words fell out: "I have struck it rich! I have found gold on this place!" It seems that he had a rod with a pointed end which was used in the discovery of metallic veins. It could only be used after dark, and the nearer midnight the better the results. On this occasion when the traveler came near the house, he stuck his rod into the ground and a bright light, with something of the appearance of a butterfly, floated from the rod and hovered over a spot which the stranger had marked with a pine bough. It was necessary for him to stay over night in order to definitely locate the spot, and to dig, as he was sure the metal lay near the surface. Next morning the search revealed nothing except that a traveler had been refreshed by sleep and a substantial meal, which enabled him to journey onward bearing his magical rod. Mr. Murphy nearly exhausted himself with this story, and his companions strengthened him with a little peach and honey. Our cabarrus mines.—A party of Boston capitalists have bonded the old Dr. Hawkins place, in Bethel township, Cabarrus county and will begin mining operations in a short time. In Dr. Hawkins' life time this property was considered the finest gold bearing farm in Cabarrus county, and is known to have produced gold in great quantities. The veins are by no means exhausted, and under the operations of new and improved machinery, and the modern style of working, are expected to produce big results.

The Israel Faggar gold mining property, near Mt. Pleasant, has been sold to a Philadelphia company. Journal-Observer.

Annual Meeting! SALISBURY, N. C., March 15th, 1883. The Annual Meeting of the North State and Transportation Company, will be held at the office of the Company in Salisbury on the 18th day of April, 1883, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the election of three Directors, and such other business as may come before the meeting. EDWIN M. MULFORD, Sec'y.

MINING. T. K. BRUNER, MANAGER. Mr. J. Y. Barber has brought to our cabinet an interesting lot of ore from Haywood county.

Shreiber, the man who took bonds or powers of attorney on mineral lands in this section of the State, has opened a Southern Mining Bureau in New York City. We warned our people against giving bonds to adventurers for the purpose of speculation some time since, and here repeat that it is a dangerous business. Adventurers are unscrupulous in their dealings and thoroughly unreliable. It is pleasant to chronicle the thing referred to as being in New York.

WILMINGTON, N. C., April 7th, '83.

Mr. T. K. BRUNER, Dear Sir:—Your favor of 5th inst., to Southern Ore Company has been handed to me. The Southern Ore Company has ceased to exist, as Mr. Beno, who was its head, has absconded to New York, resigning his position and consumed its funds. You will please cancel any arrangement you may have made for samples of ore or shipments of any kind and discontinue sending the Watchman, as the Company has no money to pay freights or subscriptions. Yours truly, GEO. R. FRENCH, JR., for So. Ore Co.

The above letter is published for the purpose of giving information to a number of miners who had been induced to send specimens, and who contemplated sending ore to this Co. This is the same old story, and this kind of conduct on the part of managers of mines and mining interests in this State has done more to ruin the industry than any other one cause. Theft, waste and ignorance is the bane of mining here.

Two mothers in Israel have, their forces combined, one hundred and two children and grand children. Mrs. Sallie Deadman being the proud mater of 52, while Mrs. Haley Deadman boasts of 50 children and grand children.

Barometric observations on the depth of the mud in the public roads, give from 4 to 14 fathoms.

Judge Gresham is a man of conceded ability and great force of character, and as Postmaster General he will undoubtedly administer the office with energy and success.—Phil. Bulletin.

The scared citizens of England are charging Americans with the construction of the infernal machines discovered over there. They have never seen an American infernal machine. Wait till we send over some of our new cucumbers or green apples.—Cin. Times Star.

A MAIDEN'S TONGUE.—A Georgia maiden became so interested in a recent church wedding at that place that just as the clergyman had finished his list of questions to the bride, she unconsciously took up the response and answered "I will," in place of the bride. This unexpected event paralyzed the minister and caused a painful silence in the audience.

DEATH FROM CIGARETTES.—Young Charles, who died here Sunday night after an illness of forty eight hours, was an inveterate smoker of cigarettes. His attending physician says that congestion of the lungs was the result of that habit.—Atlanta Constitution.

A young man in Detroit has been engaged to five different girls, and hasn't eaten a Sunday supper at home for nine years. His object is not matrimony, but to save his poor old father table expenses.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Patrick Taaffe, a faithful employee of Peter Cooper, when he heard of the philanthropist's death said that he was heartbroken and that he had lost his best friend. On the following morning he was found dead in his chair. Taaffe was forty-three years old and unmarried. He has been thirty years in the employ of Peter Cooper.

NEW YORK, April 7.—There was a general display of flags at half mast throughout the city, in honor of the memory of Peter Cooper, whose funeral took place to-day. The funeral was largely attended. His remains lay in state in All Souls' Church, where the funeral occurred, from 9 to 3 o'clock.

English capital is turning its face to our Southern States, in search of eligible grazing lands, the climate being all that could be asked for in the enterprise of cattle raising. Shipments, too, can be made without driving and transportation by rail for such long distances. The advent of foreign capital to the South would almost certainly precede the influx of a foreign population.

Golding the new five cent pieces and passing them for gold coins appears to have suddenly become an active industry. Chief Brooks of the Washington Secret Service, says that arrests have been made for passing the spurious coin in St. Louis, Pittsburg, Chicago, New Orleans, Nashville, New York, Boston, Kansas City, Dubuque and San Francisco. The crime is defined by the Solicitor of the Treasury as counterfeiting. The fact that the word "cents" is to be added to the new coin will guard the public to some extent; but fraud will continue as long as the resemblance to the five-dollar gold piece is maintained on the reverse side.

The trouble in North Carolina has arisen from the fact that too many publishers are not business men, and do not publish their papers on business principles. If our publishers would act as do Northern publishers our State would not be such a newspaper graveyard. Too many of our publishers will fill up their columns with advertisements taken at any price (and sometimes without any pay—merely to "fill up") which not only cause the suspension of their papers, but by such cheap "John" business injure legitimate journalism, because advertisers too often regard the price charged rather than the character of the paper. And so with subscriptions.—Pittsboro Record.

Annual Meeting! SALISBURY, N. C., March 15th, 1883. The Annual Meeting of the North State and Transportation Company, will be held at the office of the Company in Salisbury on the 18th day of April, 1883, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the election of three Directors, and such other business as may come before the meeting. EDWIN M. MULFORD, Sec'y.

MINING. T. K. BRUNER, MANAGER. Mr. J. Y. Barber has brought to our cabinet an interesting lot of ore from Haywood county.

Shreiber, the man who took bonds or powers of attorney on mineral lands in this section of the State, has opened a Southern Mining Bureau in New York City. We warned our people against giving bonds to adventurers for the purpose of speculation some time since, and here repeat that it is a dangerous business. Adventurers are unscrupulous in their dealings and thoroughly unreliable. It is pleasant to chronicle the thing referred to as being in New York.

WILMINGTON, N. C., April 7th, '83.

Mr. T. K. BRUNER, Dear Sir:—Your favor of 5th inst., to Southern Ore Company has been handed to me. The Southern Ore Company has ceased to exist, as Mr. Beno, who was its head, has absconded to New York, resigning his position and consumed its funds. You will please cancel any arrangement you may have made for samples of ore or shipments of any kind and discontinue sending the Watchman, as the Company has no money to pay freights or subscriptions. Yours truly, GEO. R. FRENCH, JR., for So. Ore Co.

The above letter is published for the purpose of giving information to a number of miners who had been induced to send specimens, and who contemplated sending ore to this Co. This is the same old story, and this kind of conduct on the part of managers of mines and mining interests in this State has done more to ruin the industry than any other one cause. Theft, waste and ignorance is the bane of mining here.

Two mothers in Israel have, their forces combined, one hundred and two children and grand children. Mrs. Sallie Deadman being the proud mater of 52, while Mrs. Haley Deadman boasts of 50 children and grand children.

Barometric observations on the depth of the mud in the public roads, give from 4 to 14 fathoms.

Judge Gresham is a man of conceded ability and great force of character, and as Postmaster General he will undoubtedly administer the office with energy and success.—Phil. Bulletin.

The scared citizens of England are charging Americans with the construction of the infernal machines discovered over there. They have never seen an American infernal machine. Wait till we send over some of our new cucumbers or green apples.—Cin. Times Star.

A MAIDEN'S TONGUE.—A Georgia maiden became so interested in a recent church wedding at that place that just as the clergyman had finished his list of questions to the bride, she unconsciously took up the response and answered "I will," in place of the bride. This unexpected event paralyzed the minister and caused a painful silence in the audience.

DEATH FROM CIGARETTES.—Young Charles, who died here Sunday night after an illness of forty eight hours, was an inveterate smoker of cigarettes. His attending physician says that congestion of the lungs was the result of that habit.—Atlanta Constitution.

A young man in Detroit has been engaged to five different girls, and hasn't eaten a Sunday supper at home for nine years. His object is not matrimony, but to save his poor old father table expenses.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Patrick Taaffe, a faithful employee of Peter Cooper, when he heard of the philanthropist's death said that he was heartbroken and that he had lost his best friend. On the following morning he was found dead in his chair. Taaffe was forty-three years old and unmarried. He has been thirty years in the employ of Peter Cooper.

NEW YORK, April 7.—There was a general display of flags at half mast throughout the city, in honor of the memory of Peter Cooper, whose funeral took place to-day. The funeral was largely attended. His remains lay in state in All Souls' Church, where the funeral occurred, from 9 to 3 o'clock.

English capital is turning its face to our Southern States, in search of eligible grazing lands, the climate being all that could be asked for in the enterprise of cattle raising. Shipments, too, can be made without driving and transportation by rail for such long distances. The advent of foreign capital to the South would almost certainly precede the influx of a foreign population.

Golding the new five cent pieces and passing them for gold coins appears to have suddenly become an active industry. Chief Brooks of the Washington Secret Service, says that arrests have been made for passing the spurious coin in St. Louis, Pittsburg, Chicago, New Orleans, Nashville, New York, Boston, Kansas City, Dubuque and San Francisco. The crime is defined by the Solicitor of the Treasury as counterfeiting. The fact that the word "cents" is to be added to the new coin will guard the public to some extent; but fraud will continue as long as the resemblance to the five-dollar gold piece is maintained on the reverse side.

The trouble in North Carolina has arisen from the fact that too many publishers are not business men, and do not publish their papers on business principles. If our publishers would act as do Northern publishers our State would not be such a newspaper graveyard. Too many of our publishers will fill up their columns with advertisements taken at any price (and sometimes without any pay—merely to "fill up") which not only cause the suspension of their papers, but by such cheap "John" business injure legitimate journalism, because advertisers too often regard the price charged rather than the character of the paper. And so with subscriptions.—Pittsboro Record.

Annual Meeting! SALISBURY, N. C., March 15th, 1883. The Annual Meeting of the North State and Transportation Company, will be held at the office of the Company in Salisbury on the 18th day of April, 1883, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the election of three Directors, and such other business as may come before the meeting. EDWIN M. MULFORD, Sec'y.

THE MISSOURI LEGISLATURE has passed a bill providing that no railroad company in the State shall advance its freight rates without first giving thirty days' notice of the proposed change by posting the new schedule in three conspicuous places on each of its freight and passenger depots. The penalty for violating this new law is $500.

SURVIVING A TERRIBLE WOUND.—We have heard much lately about Justice of Pennsylvania, living many days after a bullet had been fired into his brain. A more peculiar case is now a resident of this country. George Sinsel, of New York was a private in the Eighth New York Heavy Artillery. At the charge on the Rebel works at Petersburg on the 16th day of June, 1864, a minnie ball struck him in the head, breaking the skull. The ball divided, part going outside and part going under the skull. For three days he lay on the field, and was reported dead. After that time he wandered into a hospital and was treated. The physicians taking out a number of bones from his head. He was then sent to St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester. While there he was under the care of Dr. Moore, and on the 23rd day of October following Dr. Bradley the assistant surgeon, took from the unhealed wound a piece of rebel lead, which had lain there ever four months. Now Mr. Sinsel is as well as ever, though he has a depression in his skull large enough to hold a walnut, and over which there is no skull bone. The case was a wonder to the surgeons at the time it occurred, and a great wonder to the man himself that he should be alive.

LEGISLATING AGAINST EXPLOSIVES.—London, April 9.—The government's bill to be introduced in the House of Commons by Sir William Harcourt, Home Secretary, relative to explosives, is published this morning. It contains nine clauses. It provides that the maximum penalty for causing an explosion by which life or property is endangered shall be life-long servitude. An attempt to cause an explosion or the making or keeping of explosives with intent to cause an explosion is made punishable by imprisonment for a term of twenty years, and the unlawful making or keeping of explosives under any special circumstances to be punishable by imprisonment for not more than five years. All accessories to such crimes are to be treated as principals. Provision is made in the bill for the ordering of official inquiries into crimes specified, for the arrest of absconding witnesses, and for searching for explosives. This bill was introduced and passed without the usual delays. Penalties are to be inflicted in respect of damage done by the explosives.

Elements of a True Marriage. From a Sermon by Rev. Charles H. Eaton. There are three elements that combine to make a true marriage—health, love and sympathetic companionship. No man or woman physically weak should marry, and thus entail suffering on others. Love does not mean passion; it is based on understanding. Men and women should not each other behind the curtain, and wait, before the marriage. Unhappy lives often result from imperfect knowledge before marriage, of the characteristics of the partner in the contract. Love makes sacrifices; passion never. No husband or wife has ever known true happiness until after the birth of a child. Men and women on the plain of marriage stand equals. There should be sympathetic companionship in the sense that an intellectual person one who is of opposite taste. There should be sympathy and fellowship between husband and wife in all parents of life.

IN MEMORIAM. The undersigned, having been appointed by the Council to draft a preamble and suitable resolutions as a last tribute of respect to the memory of our brother, who was ever faithful and devoted to the best interests of our order; and whereas he was a man of pure and noble character, and a devoted father, and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as a brother he was kind and good; and as a friend he was true and sincere; and as a citizen he was patriotic and brave; and as a man he was of high and noble character; and as a Christian he was true and sincere; and as a husband he was kind and good; and as a father he was true and sincere; and as