WHO.

Mr. Editor :

In last week's Examiner appears an editorial paragraph which asserts that your correspondent reduced the town debt of 1878 from $5,000 to about $2,500. This is not so! The figures given to the public in the Watchman of May 17th, were, as stated, taken from the City records and are correct, and those given in Last week Dr. Clement, in riding a previous article made no reference to a sum as $2,500 mentioned in my communication of the 17 h r any o'er date. So it is plain that, unless the Examiner learns to make more accurate statements dent, it will display more wisdom in laying aside much of its assumed knowledge, pack" which contained a lot of bread in giving the public the promised light on the management of the town government, &c. ? The Shelby Bank Swindle.

Genuine Cheek for $20 is Raised t $1,200 and Cashed by the Unsuspecting Bankers-A Reward of $200 Out.

Further particulars of the swindle perpetrated on Messrs. H. D. Lee & Co. bankers of Shelby, of which mention was first made in the Journal Observer Sun lay morning, have been received through a friend from Shelby, and goes to show that the check was originally made out fer $20, but was "raised" to $1,200, presented at the bank and cashed. It seems that in January last a draft for $20 was issued by the Greenville, S. C., Bank on the Fourth National Bank of New York, and made pavable to one J. W. Simmons. But the after prefix of a "1" and suffix of an "0," with some change of the wording, and the draft was presented at the bank there as a $1,200 check, and a letter of introduction accompanied the draft, purporting to be from J. W. Simmons, the superintendent and treasurer of the Mica Mining Company. After being satisfied that the draft was genuine it was cashed, less the discount. The money was paid to a young man named Mason, from near Marion, N. C., by whom Simmons had sent the draft and message. Upon the testimony of young Mason in the justice's court, it seems that A. Bechtler and J. W. Simmons reaped the benefit of this raise, who, when last heard from, were going in the direction of Yaucey county. A reward of $200 is offered for their arrest. The intense hostility of the Irish to England has as a basis-a traditionary hostility founded on not merely the fact of repeated conquests and continued oppression -but also difference of religion.

The attachment of Ireland to the Papacy has been firm and unwavering during all the vicissitudes that have marred the fortune of that unhappy isle -and indeed much of the oppresion which made the iron enter into the soul of the Irishman had its origin in this circumstance. The clashing of religious beliefs has contributed largely to the want of harmony be tween the people of the two Islands. To Ireland the Pope was all in all. To-day however, we find the Papacy at points with those who hoist the ensign "Ireland for the Irish." It is a remarkable event Never before has Rome been mentioned by those lips but with reverence-yet now Rome is felt to be on the side of the oppressor, and a breech is made until no brassy conceit to screen such dazzling unknown in all the centuries. It may be that the matter will have no great significance; but it is not improbable that like the scratch upon the bark of the young oak, time will only serve to make the scar more ugly and more observable, Possibly HAMS the influence of Rome over the Irish mind may become much weakened by this di vergence of sentiment, and great historical results may spring from so slight a cause. - News Observer.
