The Downward Path.

Ten years ago Selencus Garfield departed from Congress and became a professional gambler; shortly he died in a little room over a cigar shop in Washington. The story of Garfield's life, says a Washington letter, is that of a man who surrendered absolutely to the temptations of Washington. He was born sixty-one years ago in Vermont, went to Kentu ky when he was a boy, was graduated from Augusta college in that State, and began active life as a lawyer. When he was thirty years old he was a member of the Kentucky legislature, and a few years later was commissioned to codify the laws of the State. In 1860 he was receiver of public moneys for Washington Territory, and in 1869, after serving three years as surveyor-general, he came to Congress as delegate. He was

Peter and his Gal.

"Two Souls with but a Single Thought,

Two Hearts, etc., etc.

I hitched my cheer up close to hers, slept my eyes and tremulously sed, "Sal you're the very gal I've been hankerin' arter for a long time. I love you all over—from the foot of your sole to the head of your crown, and I don't keer who knows it; and if you say so we'll be jined the holy bonds of matrimony. E pluribus unio, gloria Monday morning, sic semper tyrannus, non compus mentis, world without end," sez I, and I felt as tho' I had throw'd up an allygator, I was so relieved. With that she fetched a scream, and after a while she sez, "Peter! 'What is it, Sally?" sez I, "Yes," says 'she, a hidin' of her face.

You may depend upon it I felt er-ful good. "Glory! glory!" sez I, I must holler, Sal, or I'll bust open.
Hoory! hoory! I can jump over a ten rail fence. I can do anything a fellow could, would, or should do."

With that I sorter slobbered myself down by 'er, and clinched the bargain with a kiss. Talk about yer sugar, talk about yer merlasses—they want nowbar; couldn't have got me to come nigh 'em, they would have tasted so sour after that. O broomstraws with sorghum lasses on 'em of Sal's daddy hadn't bawled out, 'It's time for all honest folks to be in bed,' I do believe I'd stayed all nite.

You'd orter seed me when I got lum. I pulled dad outen bed and hugged him, I pulled mam outen bed and hugged her; I pulled Aunt Jane outen bed and hugged her, I pulled the nigger servant outen bed and hugged her! "Dad," sez I, "I am going to git married." "Married!" bawled dad. "Marred!" squaled mam.
"Yes, git married all over; jined in wedlock, hooked on for worse or better, for life and for death to Sal; I am that very thing, Peter Spornum, Fq."

With that I up and told them from Alpha to Omega. They were mighty pleased and mighty willin', and (N. B., I mean Sal and I), was accordingly spliced.

positively cured with Eno's Standard Cure Pills in a reliable remedy never fails to cure the most obstinate, long standing cases where quinine and all other remedies had failed. They are prepared expressly for malarious sections, in double boxes two kinds of Pills, containing a strong cathartic and a mild breaker sugar-coated; containing no quinine or Mercury, causing no griping or purging; they are easy and efficient, certain in their action and harmless in all cases; they effectually cleanse the system and give new life and tone to the body. As a household remedy they are unequalled. For Liver Complaints the equal is not known; one box will have a wonderful effect on the worse case. They are

It is said that the ostriches upon arriving at the corral in Anaheim,
