Subscription Rates: The subscription rates of the Carolina Watchman are as follows: 1 year, paid in advance, $1.50...

A number of our farmers have purchased reapers this season.

Mr. T. J. Ray has bought a reaper and binder, and has probably got through with his work for the season.

Philip Lopp and Joseph Hyatt, Davidson county, have bought a traction steam engine to drive their threshing machine.

We acknowledge the receipt of a kit of fine mountain butter from Mr. C. G. Viele, Ore Knob, Ashe Co., N. C.

The Mt. Vernon Hotel is now open, and is fitted up with all the improved accessories necessary to insure comfort to guests.

Dr. K. H. Hines—The friends of this young gentleman will be glad to learn that he is expected to return from Honduras, within about two weeks.

We acknowledge tickets of invitation from Mr. Clarence W. Murphy to the closing exercises at Washington and Lee University, Va., June 22d, inst.

Peaches—Messrs. Geo. and J. A. Thompson were in with a lot of early Alexander peaches, the product of their farm, four miles north. They sold out readily.

GLENN SPRINGS, one of the most charming summer resorts of our delightful mountain country, has opened this year under the auspices of Mr. J. H. Pearson, of Morganton.

PERSONAL—Misses Anna and Nellie Holmes have returned from Hagerston (Md.) Female Seminary, and Miss Studie Murphy has returned from Lexington Female College, of Virginia.

FOURTH OF JULY PICNIC.—There will be a picnic held at or near the Hatter Shops, this county, on the 4th of July. The day will be spent in croquet-playing, addresses, music, balloon ascensions, &c.

NOTICE.—The Fruit Growers of Rowan county are invited to attend a convention to be held in the Court House at Salisbury, N. C., on July 6th, 1883, for the purpose of organizing effort to promote the fruit interest of the county.

Mr. O. W. Atwell has, in addition to a very fine bull and a lot of Plymouth Rock fowls, a pair of Jersey Red pigs, well formed and large. Mr. A. deserves to succeed in his efforts to supply the public with improved stock and poultry.

A lot is purchased and ground broken for the foundation upon which to erect a suitable building for the new Salisbury National Bank, on Innis street, just below and next to Messrs. Clodfelter & Co.'s furniture store.

DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO.—The proprietors of this popular brand have an artist out painting signs on houses, fences, rocks, &c. Mr. Kermer, of Kernersville, is now engaged on a sign nearly fronting our office, 14 x 50 feet. He expects to make the tour of the Southern States on this business, going probably as far out as New Mexico.

We are in the midst of the sweltering season. The mosquito and the thresher are abroad in the land, and that more mysterious agent, malaria, is creeping up from the low places of the earth, and spreading all around us.

The business men of Concord are diligent in their efforts to extend their business career. Shall the business men of Salisbury do nothing in this way? There are large communities within a day's ride of this place, who only need personal attention from, and acquaintance with, our business men to draw them to this place to trade. Some sacrifice should be made in this way by us just as the men of other business centres are doing.

PASTOR FLOWER and other poems, by Theophilus H. Hill, it is handsomely printed on heavy tinted, sized and super-calendered paper; bound in black and gold, full gilt, bevel edges. Price by mail, postpaid, $1.25.

Geo. Morrison, a clerk in the postoffice at Toledo, Ohio, was arrested on the 15th for stealing a letter. He confessed that he had been stealing for more than a year. Amount of operations not known.

THE HYMNAL ALTAR UNDER DIFFICULTIES.—Yesterday afternoon one of Salisbury's charming young ladies was seen to board the northern bound train in a closely veiled and, altogether, would-be inconspicuous. At the same instant a young gentleman, with a bland and innocent countenance, was observed to catch on to the smoker. This was very slender evidence, yet the bystanders immediately made out a case "beyond a reasonable doubt," and rendered a verdict of elopement in the first degree. A few hours after this another train brought a happy bride and groom back to friends innumerable.

MEMORANDUM of Mining work in the counties of Burke, McDowell and Rutherford, by Prof. G. B. Hanna: The operations at the Hancock vein continue unchanged. At the Carolina Queen the placer work is actively prosecuted, and several veins are opened to furnish the mill now in process of erection with an abundance of material for its work.

At the Vein Mountain mine the state of affairs is without change, and but little work is done. A considerable force of men is sluicing on the Hard Bargain, adjacent, and the superintendent reports satisfactory returns. The petty work of this section is not so actively prosecuted as in former years, as the returns from farming work are more remunerative than formerly.

Dr. C. W. Dabney, State Chemist, is traveling in this part of the State at present, in the interest of the North Carolina exhibit at the Mechanics' and Manufacturers' Fair to be held at Boston next fall, and spent yesterday at Statesville. We trust the people of our section will give the movement every encouragement.

Col. Bennet H. Young, of Kentucky, delivered the annual oration. After a few pleasing remarks on his first acquaintance with North Carolina and her men, he announced as his subject, "The True Test of Human Greatness." The effort was directed mainly to impress his hearers with the idea of unselfish aims, as the surest road to happiness and fame.

Mr. Andrew Kincaid had the misfortune to lose his new dwelling house and several outbuildings by fire, Tuesday night last. It is not absolutely known how the fire originated, but it is believed by the family that it was from matches which had been incautiously left on a shelf in the reach of mice.

Mr. John F. Eagle, who has been absent from his place of business for more than a week on account of sickness, hopes soon to be in place again.

Purely refreshing soda water, and Deep Rock on ice, are furnished in bon mode by Mr. J. H. Ennis.

Murder of Innocents. Panic among Children in a Show House—One Hundred and Seventy-Eight Trampled to Death.

LONDON, June 16.—An accident from a crash occurred at the children's entertainment at Sunderland, England, this evening and 178 of the children were killed. From details thus far received, it appears that an entertainment had been given in Victoria hall by a composer which was attended almost altogether by children to the number of several thousand. The accident occurred at the close of the performance. The body of the hall had been entirely cleared of its occupants when some 2,000 little ones came rushing down stairs from the gallery.

The Boston Exhibition. Dr. Chas. W. Dabney has returned from a trip to the western part of the State, where he secured great quantities of minerals, woods, &c., for the exhibit at Boston next autumn. He also made arrangements with the Messrs. Hyams, of Statesville, the largest dealers in the world in medicinal herbs, for a complete display of all herbs, &c., found in this State, including the famous "shortia." This exhibit will attract attention at Boston. Mr. T. K. Bruner, of the Salisbury "Watchman," who is a well known expert in mining, has been engaged to gather specimens of gold ore, iron nuggets, sand, &c. Some fine gold bricks will also be taken to Boston. This display of gold will be also a prominent feature of the exhibit made by the State at Boston.

Geo. Morrison, a clerk in the postoffice at Toledo, Ohio, was arrested on the 15th for stealing a letter. He confessed that he had been stealing for more than a year. Amount of operations not known.

MINING.

T. K. BRUNER, MANAGER.

FOR THE BOSTON SHOW.—Mr. J. D. Stewart, the Superintendent of Dunn's Mountain Mine, has promised to send a large gold brick from this mine to the Boston Exhibition.

Political Honors in China.

Wong Chin Foo, in Harper's Monthly.

In order to secure even the first fruits of political emolument, a mode of procedure diametrically opposite to that which obtains in most nations, and especially in the United States, is required. Instead of money or its equivalent in "backers" and "heelers," brain is there required, and an exceedingly well-balanced and disciplined brain at that. In no other nation upon the earth are political honors based upon scientific attainments in all branches of study as they are in China, wherein are illustrated the true principles by which talent and wisdom are honored and rewarded.

The avenues to station and power are open alike to all. There are no distinctions save those of education; none relative to nationality, color or previous condition of servitude. All are alike free to seek, and, if competent, to obtain positions of honor, from that of petty magistrate of a village to Grand Imperial Secretary—an office second only to that of Emperor.

Few there are, it is true, who possess the fortitude to undergo the necessary educational training consequent to, and upon which depends the sole hope of success. Of his studies there is no end. To diligence he must add patience, and to patience continuity, else will he fail to secure the coveted prize.

CHICAGO LARD BREAK.—Chicago, June 18.—The story in regard to the great lard break in Chicago appears to have been very completely told. This morning on change it was looked forward to with considerable fear that the market might take another downward turn, but it proved otherwise, and at 9:27 A. M. the market closed at 9:27 A. M., and risen to 9:35, and the feeling was comparatively firm. Beyond the firms reported in these despatches Saturday, none others have succumbed, and the firm of Ellis & Lightner who are among those reported as crippled, have transferred their deals, and in this manner have tided over. The associated press estimate of losses, putting them at $2,300,000, is as nearly accurate as can now be made. Some published accounts swell these figures to $3,000,000, but this is largely based on conjecture. The firm of McGeoch, Ervingham & Co. decline to furnish any additional data at this time, and can make no statement until some days have elapsed.

ADVICE FROM PERU.—LIMA, June 16, (via Central and South American cables and via Galveston).—The members of the new Arcequina Cabinet are as follows: Secretary of State, Mariana Valcárcel; Minister of the Interior, Federico Howard; Minister of Justice, Señor Velez; Minister of War, Col. Juan Ybarra; Secretary of the Treasury, S. de Lajarra. To-day's Diario officially reports the meeting of citizens at San Mateo, in the province of Huancabamba, on June 3rd, Señor José M. Sanchez presiding, which declared for peace and for Gen. Yglesias as President.

THE STAR ROUTE TRIAL has ended with the acquittal of the rogues. It does seem all but impossible for the people to get justice in the courts at Washington. The trouble is probably due to the corruption which pervades the air of that city. Society is tainted from top to bottom. Men in high official life give the tone to society, and a feeling seems to permeate all classes that the government is fair game, and that no one should be punished for peculation and fraud upon the public treasury. The remedy is to put new and more honest men in office.—News-Observer.

IMPORTANT CIVIL RIGHTS DECISIONS.—Austin, June 15.—In the U. S. District Court yesterday an opinion was rendered in the criminal prosecution, under the Civil Rights act, of Congress of March 1875, for the penalty of $500 for excluding Laura Evans, colored, from the lard car on the Houston & Texas Central Railroad. Nineteen similar cases were also disposed of. The Court held the law as unconstitutional, and that the things alleged were cognizable by the State tribunals only; also, that the act was an infringement on the rights of the several States.

RAILROAD SUIT IN CHAMBERS COURT.—An important railroad action is to be tried in the city to-day, before Judge Shipp, at chambers court. It is an action brought to make the Western North Carolina Railroad party to a case of Young vs. Rollins, the original suit being to compel Rollins, late president of the road, to surrender the assets to the receiver. Judge Schenck arrived in the city yesterday and will appear in the suit in the city to-day, before Judge Shipp, at chambers court. Mr. J. M. McCorkle will appear for Mr. B. F. Long, receiver.—Journal-Ob.

BUSINESS FAILURES.—New York, June 15.—Failures for the past seven days, as reported to R. G. Dru & Co., number 186, against 173 last week. The New England States had 24; Middle States, 26; Western States, 53; Southern States, 35; Pacific States and Territories, 18; New York city, 11, and Canada and the provinces 19.

HANGED BY A MOB.—Detroit, June 15.—A man named Warner, believed to be the person who outraged and stabbed little Hettie L. at Choboygan, on Tuesday night, was taken from jail at that place last night by a mob of 500 men and hung. The girl identified him as her assailant, but he maintained his innocence, even after being once led down to see if a confession could be extorted from him.

The anxiety of both political parties to evade the tariff issue is shown in the endeavor of each party to fasten on the other the intent of evasion. But the question cannot be delayed by the timidity or craft of party leadership. It has come to stay until the policy of the country is decided as between a tariff for protection and a tariff for revenue.—Phil. Record, Ind.

The old time feeling of superiority over every specimen of the African race, upon the part of the Southern whites, still prevails, and it is likely to be the controlling feature of the Southern life for many generations that are yet unborn.—Lancet Citizen. That is a mild statement of a solid fact, for all generations to come. Does the Citizen mean to indirectly assert that the same feeling does not prevail among the white people of Massachusetts? We should like to have the question answered.—Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, Dem.

Press Comments.

The N. Y. World.

To-day, speaking of the Star Route verdict, says: The verdict of the Republican jury is a tribute to Republican utility. It was prompted by gratitude for Republican services. It was facilitated by judicial Monte Bankism. It was assisted by legal stupidity and injudicious State evidence. It was clinched by the ten days' drive of fat-witted orators.

The N. Y. Sun, in an article on the recommendations of the Navy Yard Commissioner, says: The navy yards are at present hospitals for decrepit and useless craft, and centers of political intrigue and election bribery. All of them that are not imperatively necessary should be at once swept away.

The N. Y. Times says: The administration regards the miscarriage of justice in the Star Route trials as "a very serious blow." That is a good sign. It shows at least that the administration has a proper sense of its shortcomings in the past, for if it were short content to maintain an uncertain attitude toward these guilty men it would "acquiesce in the verdict," and stop further prosecutions.

Protection of Forests a Necessity. We make no apology for again returning to a theme that is worthy of any Southern pen. If the politicians and men in office would give their attention to the subject of forestry, and would study the best methods of protecting forests, they would be doing a needed and important work. Because, as in North Carolina there are tens of thousands of square miles of virgin forests, it need not be thought that there is no danger to the sections and that it is folly to plant trees. We have examined enough into the subject to know that there has been a shameful waste of trees, and a consequent evil attending it. The lessons to be studied are to be drawn from the old countries in Europe. There the devastation of forests through the centuries has been very great. There wise and thoughtful men have called to the aid of the despoiled and desolated provinces the best men of science, and with the most encouraging results.—Wil. Star.

Cleared. The Star Routes have been cleared by a verdict of not guilty. This is not unexpected, however shameful. Probably, there is not a man in the United States not connected with the alleged thieves or with the Government who does not believe in the guilt of the fellows who have been cleared by the bribed jury. But few, probably, hoped that the men who had been robbing the people would be convicted. It was understood that money, and a plenty of it, would be used, and that Brady and company must not be convicted. To prosecute them has cost the people many thousands and still the culprits are to go free. It is such trials as this that create a big disgust and bring the jury system under suspicion and reproach.—Wil. Star.

CATHOLIC COUNCIL.—A telegram from Peoria, Ill., June 15th, says, "In an interview to-day, Bishop Spaulding corroborated the statement that the Archbishops of the United States have been commanded to assemble at Rome next October, to arrange a programme for a Plenary Council, to be held in America. The business of the Council will only pertain to ecclesiastical offices of this country, not involving Irish affairs. It is three months since Bishop Spaulding left Rome, and the above was the Pontifical intention at the time of his departure. Plans for the establishment of a Catholic university in this country are immature."

It is asked how Minister Hunt and Admiral Baldwin could receive the gold medal, gold snuff box and portrait of the Czar, presented them by the Russian government after the late coronation, and the constitution forbids public officers receiving such gifts. It is common for such gifts, when mere expressions of esteem for our government, as in this case, to be legalized by Congress authorizing the recipients to accept and keep them, but they can't be accepted without the special assent of the government. The late Czar presented Minister Curtin with a life-size portrait of the Russian ruler, and Congress unanimously passed a joint resolution authorizing Curtin to accept and possess it.

The cigar makers have entered into a collusion to secure for themselves the reduction of the internal revenue and are succeeding in doing so. When domestic manufacturers can thus squeeze the consumer, such a further reduction of tax as will make foreign competition possible—the competition of Tuxpan, where a better cigar is retailed for a cent than we pay five cents for—is desirable. This is one remedy, the other is to stop smoking the article.

GALVESTON, June 19.—A dispatch from Austin to the News says: "The land office commissioner states that the peddlers of Texas land scrip are selling large amounts to purchasers in the Northern States at very good prices. This is simply swindling, as prices in Texas are down to nominal rates, and there is not public land on which to locate one in a thousand of these certificates.—News & Observer.

AN ABORTIVE TRIAL.—The action to make the Western N. C. Railroad a party to the suit of Young vs. Rollins, was heard before Judge Shipp, at chambers court, yesterday morning. The case was argued by Judge Schenck for the railroad and Mr. J. M. McCorkle for Mr. B. F. Long, receiver. After hearing the arguments, Judge Shipp declined to entertain the motion, on the grounds that he had no jurisdiction in the case.—Journal-Observer, June 18.

From "The Times." Editor Times—Seeing an article in your paper last week from Arnold Parker, I was impressed with the earnestness with which he appears to you to continue to enlighten the world in regard to the means by which he was so miraculously cured of rheumatism, and his kind liberality in using Kendall's Spanish Cure. The article to which he alludes has been published in your issue of May 1st, and I am glad to see that it has been so favorably received, as it completely removes the enlargement in every instance by continuing its use for several days after the business has subsided. The perfect success I always had with Kendall's Spanish Cure led me to use it on my own person, and for all the family with the very best results as a family liniment. While several of the cures made by it have been almost miraculous, none have been more satisfactory than several cures which I made with it of foot rot in either cows or sheep. With the satisfaction this remedy has always given to my family, I can not refrain from using with my friend Parker that you continue to make known to the world this, the greatest discovery of the nineteenth century.

Yours truly, JAMES A. CAMPBELL. The above letter, with the one published last week, and a copy of the book, are sent to you by mail, and to all our patrons, and we assure our readers who have been alike benefited by the use of Kendall's Spanish Cure, that they will find it a most valuable remedy, and that they will wish to make of the benefit of others.—21
