Daily Bread in Hard Times.
"It's dreadful to live this way! I do wonder why God doesn't answer your prayers and send you some work," said Mrs. Wilson.
"Are you hungry, wife? I'm sure I thought we had a very good breakfast," responded John Wilson.
"But we've nothing for dinner!"
"But it isn't dinner time yet, my wife."
"Well, I must confess I'd like to know what we are to have just a little while before dinner time."
"God has said our bread and water shall be sure, but He has not promised that we shall know beforehand where it's coming from."
"Father," said little Maggie, "do you s'pose God knows what time we have dinner?"
"Yes, my dear child, I suppose He knows exactly that. I've done my best to get work, and I'll go out now and look about; you go to school, and don't be the least mite afraid, Maggie. There'll be some dinner."
"But we're out of soap and starch," said mother.
"As for starch, you couldn't use it if you had it. I'm sure I had soap when I washed my hands this morning," said John.
"Yes a little bit. But it's not enough to do the washing."
"But the washing will not come till next Monday. As for starch, it isn't one of the necessities of life."
"If I had some potatoes I could make some," said Mrs. Wilson musingly.
"Well, I'm going out now to try and find some work. You just cast your burdens on the Lord, mother, and go about your housework just as if you knew what was coming next, and don't go and take the burden right up again. That's the trouble with you. You can't trust the Lord to take as good care of it as you think you would, and so you take it again, and go round groaning under the burden."
"Well, I do wonder He lets such troubles come. Here you've been out of work these three months, with only an occasional day's work, and you've been a faithful, conscientious Christian ever since I knew you."
"I've been an unfaithful, unprofitable servant, and that's true, mother, whatever you may think of me," replied John Wilson humbly. "God is trying our faith now. After He's provided for us so long, what will He think of us if we distrust Him now, before ever it has touched us?"
John Wilson went away to seek work, and spent the forenoon seeking vainly. God saw that there was a diamond worth polishing. He subjected his servant's faith to a strain, but it bore the test. I will not say that no questioning of painful thoughts disturbed the man as he walked homeward at noon. Four eager, hungry little children, just home from school, to find the table unspread, and no dinner ready for them; an aged and infirm parent, from whom he had concealed as far as possible all his difficulties and perplexities, lest he should feel himself a burden in his old age, awakened to a realization that there was not enough for him and them - these were not pleasant pictures to contemplate, and all through the long, weary forenoon Satan had been holding them up to his view, and it was only by clinging to the Lord, and drowning men clinging to the rope that is thrown to them, that he was kept from utter despondence.
"Thou knowest, O Lord, that I've done my best to support my family. My abilities are small, but I've done my best. Now, Lord, I'm waiting to see thy salvation. Appear for me! Let me not be put to shame."
"Increase my faith, increase my hope, Or soon my strength will fail."
So he prayed in his own simple fashion as he walked along.
It was true as he had said. His abilities were not great. Some frivolous young people smiled at the phraseology of his prayers. But there were educated men and earnest women who were helped and strengthened by those very prayers. Religion had raised this man above mediocrity to whom nature had been niggardly. Without it he would have been a cipher in the community.
He drew near to his own door with something of a shinking and dread. But the children rushed out to meet him with joyous shouts.
"Come right in, father; quick! We've got a splendid dinner all ready. We've been waiting for you, and we're fearfully hungry."
The tired steps quickened, and strongly drawn lines in the weary face softened to a look of cheerful questioning, such as was oftentimes seen there. He came in and stood beside his wife who was leaning over the fire, dipping soup out of the big pot with a ladle.
"How is this, mother?" said he.
"Why, father, Mr. Giddings has been over from Bristol. He came just after you went out. And he says a mistake was made in your account last August, which he has just found out by accident; he owed you fifteen shillings more, and he paid it to me. So I -"
"I don't think it was by accident, though," said John Wilson, interrupting her.
"Well, I thought as we had nothing for dinner I'd better buy some meat and -"
"Do you think it was accident that sent us that money to-day, mother?" persisted the grateful man.

The Miner's Pet.
Some miners were busy in a new cross cut in a Nevada mine, when an old gray rat came traveling along "prospecting" for food rather than silver ore.
Quick as thought a young man, new in the works, sprang to dispatch him. Just as quickly an old miner checked him.
"Never kill a rat in the mines; they'll bring us luck. We'll make this little fellow welcome, and fix him a box for a house, and give him our scraps to tempt him to stay."
So the rat was made at home in a way very uncommon above ground - and the superstitious miners are looking for ore very confidently after this "sign."
But the rats are sometimes of real service to the dwellers under ground and deserving of their warmest gratitude and kindly care. Before one of the terrible "caving-in" accidents the earth seemed to feel the settling of the earth some minutes before men perceive it. They come hurrying out of their holes and scamper over the floor in a very excited way, and thus give warning, which sometimes enables the men to escape. No wonder they make pets of the sleek little fellows, which are really as friendly as kittens, when you come to know the best side of them. Often the men have individual pets among them, who come out at lunch time to be fed as orderly as if they were pampered dogs.
They clear up the refuse, and leave nothing to spoil in the hot air of the mines, which owes much of its cleanliness to these scavengers.
If the rats can be made of use, I wonder if there is anything that cannot? A man took one out of a trap one day, and put a little bell, of the sleigh bell pattern, about his neck, and set him loose. You might hear that little bell up stairs and down stairs in the walls of the house, by night or by day, and it was very apt to frighten anyone not in the secret. It did scare away all the other rats and mice in the building, so the little bell ringer had all the premises to himself. I am afraid he was lonesome, though, and if he went over to a neighbour's house it was just the same way. None of his friends dared stop long enough to have a chat with him. For all they knew, he might be some new-fashioned patent rat trap.

Wealth in the U. S. Senate.
The present Senate contains at least a score of Senators not one of whom is worth less than $200,000. The richest man is, of course, Fair of Nevada, who probably possesses as much as all the other Senators together. It is somewhat difficult to name the Senator whose fortune ranks second in size; but if Eugene Hale of Maine has received the mantle of his father-in-law, Zach Chandler, with its well-lined pockets, his fortune is large. The wife of Senator Hale is the only daughter of the late Senator Zach Chandler. Other very wealthy Senators are Miller of California, Mahon of Virginia, and Sawyer of Wisconsin, known to be worth more than a million each. S. Well of N. J. is a railroad man and is very wealthy. Senator John Sherman of Ohio, it is said, is worth more than $2,000,000, his property consisting largely of real estate in Washington. Among other Senators who write their fortune with seven figures are Cameron of Pennsylvania, Camden and Davis of West Virginia, Brown of Georgia, and Plumb of Kansas. Senators Hill of Colorado, Gorman of Maryland, McPherson of New Jersey and Pendleton of Ohio, are all worth more than $500,000. Many other Senators are comfortably fixed, possessing little hoards of from $200,000 to $400,000. Among those who have but little comparatively here below, that is, not more than $100,000 apiece, are Morrill of Vermont, Anthony of Rhode Island, Saunders of Nebraska, and Allison of Iowa. - Gath.

LIFE IN SALVADOR. - A young engineer from Philadelphia, now engaged in surveying in Salvador, Central America, in a letter to a friend gives some interesting information about that country. It is a republic, he says, in name only, an absolute monarchy in fact, inasmuch as the president has power to set aside the act of Congress, can pass laws without its sanction and can postpone the elections indefinitely. However, under the present occupant the country has been well governed, and the laws, which are excellent for law-abiding people, well carried out. The prisons are full, and have to hunt work and earn their food. Murderers are flogged to death. There is no need to carry arms at all, and even in the cities they merely tie the front door with a string.

Letter from a Gentleman Ninety Years Old. - Long Life from Use of Brandreth's Pills.
PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, Wis., Feb. 11, 1882.
I am in the ninetieth year of my earthly pilgrimage, and before passing to another, I trust, a better world, I wish to bear testimony to the great virtues of Brandreth's Pills as a household remedy. They are the best blood purifiers and cleansers of the stomach and bowels in the world. I have raised a family of 10 children, been blessed with three wives, and my family experience reaches over seventy years. For over forty-five years I have known and believed in Brandreth's Pills. They have cured me of indigestion, costiveness, dyspepsia, and the foulest of my family have found them invaluable at all times. I also wish to say that I have found ALCOCK'S PODOBASTERS very useful in breast pains, backache and weak muscles.
ALFRED BRUNSON, A. M., D. D.

CURE OF NEURALGIA.
Taken as a "Forsyth Hops," Brandreth's Pills Effected a Magical Cure. - Small-Fox Cured.
Schenck Ave., East New York, April 12, 1880.
I most cordially give my testimony as to the great value of Brandreth's Pills, verified by eighteen years' experience in my office (the late Mr. Dr. Geo. M. Brown's family and my own). They were at first taken as a "Forsyth Hops" for the cure of a very severe case of Neuralgia of several years' standing, the patient being completely prostrated by disease and the excessive use of opium, taken to deaden the pain (by advice of her physician). The effects were almost magical; in one month she was able to be up and walk around freely, and the disease has never returned. My mother was also cured of an attack of Inflammatory Rheumatism by the same means. About six years ago I was taken with what appeared to be a bad cold, but in a short time, symptoms of confluent Small Pox were developed, causing us much alarm. I determined to try Brandreth's Pills as a remedy, and their efficacy was soon apparent. I was well much sooner than was expected, and without receiving a single mark or trouble of any kind. It is my firm belief, judging from the severity of the case, that had I gone through the regular routine prescribed by physicians, I should have died. I know of many other instances of the value of Brandreth's Pills in disease and sickness, which I will be happy to give to any one who will apply to me.
Mrs. E. St. JOHN.

USED THIRTY YEARS.
COULD NOT GET ALONG WITHOUT BRANDRETH'S PILLS IN THE HOUSE.
84 Morton Street, New York City, Mar. 1, 1880.
I have used Brandreth's Pills for over thirty years. I am a great sufferer from Rheumatism, whenever I feel it I should have died, which give me immediate relief. I also take them for costiveness, with which I am also troubled, and they always give me relief. I could not get along without your pills in my house.
CHAS. F. HENNING.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.
They are a vegetable tonic purgative, absolutely harmless under all circumstances. They never injure the weakest female or the youngest child. One box is a medicine chest sufficient for a whole family. Suppose you have diarrhoea; nature is making a great effort to get rid of some irritating matter in the stomach or bowels. A dose of Brandreth's Pills removes the matter and the disease is cured. In costiveness one good dose of Brandreth's Pills, followed by one pill every night for a week or two, make the human machinery run as regular as clock work. In bad colds, where the pores of the skin are closed and the insensible perspiration thrown upon the blood, poisoning the fountains of life and filling the nose, the throat and the lungs with choking mucus; seven Brandreth's Pills taken at night on an empty stomach, will restore the perspiration, break up the cold and purge away all the watery secretions that should have passed off by the skin. Diphtheria, a family disease and a most dangerous one, is almost immediately cured by one or two doses of Brandreth's Pills, aided by a gargle of lime water. Rheumatism, which comes from too much acidity or too much alkalinity of the system, requires nothing but Brandreth's Pills and a few good sweats to make a perfect cure.
It is marvelous how they purify the blood. After two doses, the effect is seen in brightness of the eyes and clearness of the skin. All pimples and eruptions vanish like magic under the influence of this purifying purgative. We cannot stop the march of time with any medicine; but Brandreth's Pills will remove the excessive lime from the system and prevent grey hair. They improve the sight and tone up the human body, so that the old man's eyes will be undimmed and his natural force unabated even after seventy years.

Best in the World.
Brandreth's Pills have stood the test of forty-five years of use by the American people. They are entirely vegetable. They are absolutely universal, for there is no disease they will not cure, if taken in time. They are safe for infants and adults. They aim to accomplish three things: first, to purify the blood; second, to cleanse and regulate the stomach and bowels; third, to stimulate the kidneys and liver and purge away the ashes of the system and diseased matters of the body. By purging with these Pills constantly, a new body can be built up from fresh, healthy food in a few months. In this way, gout and rheumatism, ulcers and fever sores can be eradicated in a few weeks. The worst cases of dyspepsia and costiveness can be cured by taking one or two pills every night for a month. In cases of twenty years' standing, gentlemen have been cured by taking one pill a night for a year. Brandreth's Pills give to the human body, no matter how worn or decayed, the recuperative powers of youth. In their action, they imitate the rapid changes of the youthful body. We all wish to die of old age. A hundred years is the natural limit of life, which can only be reached by purging and purification.
In general debility, nervous tremor, and mental depression Brandreth's Pills have a marvelous effect. They have won the confidence of millions in all parts of the civilized world. Constitutions shaken by long residence in unwholesome climates, or by sedentary habits, are wonderfully renovated by a course of this extraordinary medicine, which, powerful as it is in its action on the whole system, is perfectly harmless to the tenderest frame. The Pills are composed of rare balsams, without the admixture of a grain of any mineral whatever, or of any other deleterious substance. They operate directly, powerfully, and beneficially upon the whole mass of blood; nor can we question the fact when we see indigestion cured, liver complaints arrested, the oppressed lungs brought into healthful play, and every physical function renewed and strengthened by their agency.

CURE OF NEURALGIA.
Taken as a "Forsyth Hops," Brandreth's Pills Effected a Magical Cure. - Small-Fox Cured.
Schenck Ave., East New York, April 12, 1880.
I most cordially give my testimony as to the great value of Brandreth's Pills, verified by eighteen years' experience in my office (the late Mr. Dr. Geo. M. Brown's family and my own). They were at first taken as a "Forsyth Hops" for the cure of a very severe case of Neuralgia of several years' standing, the patient being completely prostrated by disease and the excessive use of opium, taken to deaden the pain (by advice of her physician). The effects were almost magical; in one month she was able to be up and walk around freely, and the disease has never returned. My mother was also cured of an attack of Inflammatory Rheumatism by the same means. About six years ago I was taken with what appeared to be a bad cold, but in a short time, symptoms of confluent Small Pox were developed, causing us much alarm. I determined to try Brandreth's Pills as a remedy, and their efficacy was soon apparent. I was well much sooner than was expected, and without receiving a single mark or trouble of any kind. It is my firm belief, judging from the severity of the case, that had I gone through the regular routine prescribed by physicians, I should have died. I know of many other instances of the value of Brandreth's Pills in disease and sickness, which I will be happy to give to any one who will apply to me.

USED THIRTY YEARS.
COULD NOT GET ALONG WITHOUT BRANDRETH'S PILLS IN THE HOUSE.
84 Morton Street, New York City, Mar. 1, 1880.
I have used Brandreth's Pills for over thirty years. I am a great sufferer from Rheumatism, whenever I feel it I should have died, which give me immediate relief. I also take them for costiveness, with which I am also troubled, and they always give me relief. I could not get along without your pills in my house.
CHAS. F. HENNING.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.
They are a vegetable tonic purgative, absolutely harmless under all circumstances. They never injure the weakest female or the youngest child. One box is a medicine chest sufficient for a whole family. Suppose you have diarrhoea; nature is making a great effort to get rid of some irritating matter in the stomach or bowels. A dose of Brandreth's Pills removes the matter and the disease is cured. In costiveness one good dose of Brandreth's Pills, followed by one pill every night for a week or two, make the human machinery run as regular as clock work. In bad colds, where the pores of the skin are closed and the insensible perspiration thrown upon the blood, poisoning the fountains of life and filling the nose, the throat and the lungs with choking mucus; seven Brandreth's Pills taken at night on an empty stomach, will restore the perspiration, break up the cold and purge away all the watery secretions that should have passed off by the skin. Diphtheria, a family disease and a most dangerous one, is almost immediately cured by one or two doses of Brandreth's Pills, aided by a gargle of lime water. Rheumatism, which comes from too much acidity or too much alkalinity of the system, requires nothing but Brandreth's Pills and a few good sweats to make a perfect cure.
It is marvelous how they purify the blood. After two doses, the effect is seen in brightness of the eyes and clearness of the skin. All pimples and eruptions vanish like magic under the influence of this purifying purgative. We cannot stop the march of time with any medicine; but Brandreth's Pills will remove the excessive lime from the system and prevent grey hair. They improve the sight and tone up the human body, so that the old man's eyes will be undimmed and his natural force unabated even after seventy years.

Best in the World.
Brandreth's Pills have stood the test of forty-five years of use by the American people. They are entirely vegetable. They are absolutely universal, for there is no disease they will not cure, if taken in time. They are safe for infants and adults. They aim to accomplish three things: first, to purify the blood; second, to cleanse and regulate the stomach and bowels; third, to stimulate the kidneys and liver and purge away the ashes of the system and diseased matters of the body. By purging with these Pills constantly, a new body can be built up from fresh, healthy food in a few months. In this way, gout and rheumatism, ulcers and fever sores can be eradicated in a few weeks. The worst cases of dyspepsia and costiveness can be cured by taking one or two pills every night for a month. In cases of twenty years' standing, gentlemen have been cured by taking one pill a night for a year. Brandreth's Pills give to the human body, no matter how worn or decayed, the recuperative powers of youth. In their action, they imitate the rapid changes of the youthful body. We all wish to die of old age. A hundred years is the natural limit of life, which can only be reached by purging and purification.
In general debility, nervous tremor, and mental depression Brandreth's Pills have a marvelous effect. They have won the confidence of millions in all parts of the civilized world. Constitutions shaken by long residence in unwholesome climates, or by sedentary habits, are wonderfully renovated by a course of this extraordinary medicine, which, powerful as it is in its action on the whole system, is perfectly harmless to the tenderest frame. The Pills are composed of rare balsams, without the admixture of a grain of any mineral whatever, or of any other deleterious substance. They operate directly, powerfully, and beneficially upon the whole mass of blood; nor can we question the fact when we see indigestion cured, liver complaints arrested, the oppressed lungs brought into healthful play, and every physical function renewed and strengthened by their agency.

Letter from a Gentleman Ninety Years Old. - Long Life from Use of Brandreth's Pills.
PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, Wis., Feb. 11, 1882.
I am in the ninetieth year of my earthly pilgrimage, and before passing to another, I trust, a better world, I wish to bear testimony to the great virtues of Brandreth's Pills as a household remedy. They are the best blood purifiers and cleansers of the stomach and bowels in the world. I have raised a family of 10 children, been blessed with three wives, and my family experience reaches over seventy years. For over forty-five years I have known and believed in Brandreth's Pills. They have cured me of indigestion, costiveness, dyspepsia, and the foulest of my family have found them invaluable at all times. I also wish to say that I have found ALCOCK'S PODOBASTERS very useful in breast pains, backache and weak muscles.
