The Pittsburg, Pa., iron producers have put down their figures at the lowest rate they can stand, which is $19 a ton. What will then most surely be the result of cheaper iron from the South? There figures set at defiance all competition, and the day is not distant when the South will be the great iron producing section of the Union.

RAEEIGH, N. C., August 24, 1883. - The following is an extract from the Tarboro Southerner of the 23d August:

"Passengers from Nags Head last Saturday had a novel experience on North were several ladies of color. For their meals separate accommodations had been prepared, which at supper time they declined, and went to the general table in The increase of deposits in the savings | the main saloon. Our informant states that one of the number was the wife of the colored ex-United States Senator from Mississippi, now registrar of the treasury, B. K. Bruce. She and the others at the table behaved with propriety. It caused, so our informant states, considerable excitement among the white clined to go to the table until the colored passengers had left the room. This is the first instance of the kind we have known in the State."

And has it come to this, under Repub- after, especially those intending to enter lican auspices? White ladies in North the vocal class. Carolina are crowded from the table by negro women. Where is the manhood of North Carolina? This man Bruce is a handsome, bright mulatto, who occupies one of the most important offices in Washington City, by appointment of President Garfield. He signs all our treasury notes national bonds. Mr. Arthur endorses him only at and continues him in office. Mr. Arthur and his predecessor, Gen. Garfield, were both original abolitionists and such men have no special regard for the Southern people or their habits and customs.

How many white men in North Carolina approve this action, by which white ladies were driven from the table by negro women? This constantly increasing tendency of things is one the "reasons why I have left the Republican party. W. W. HOLDEN.

Compte De Chambord.

VIENNA, August 25 .- The death of the Compte de Chambord at Frohsdorf was a painless one. The last sacraments were administered shortly before his disselution, which was so quiet and peaceful that the attendants at his bedside scarcely knew when he passed away. It was when Dr. Bardi, who had been in almost constant attendance upon the dying man during his illness, closed the eyes of the departed chief of the House of Bourbon, that the Comptesse became aware of her bereavement, fainted and was borne from the chamber. There will be no public funeral services at Frohsdorf. The obseques will be celebrated at Goritz probably on next Thursday. Telegrams of condolence have been received from all parts of Europe.

Dr. B. J. Kendall, & Co., Gent's:—Having used a good deal of your Kendall's Spavia Cure with great success, I thought I would let you know what It has done for me. Two years ago I had as speedy a colt as was ever raised In Jefferson County. When I was breaking him, he kicked over the cross bar and got fast and tore one of his hind legs all to pieces. I employed the best farriers, but they all said he was spoiled. He had a very large thorough-pin, and I used two bottles of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, and it took the bunch entirely off, and he sold afterwardsfor $1,800. I have used it for bone spavins and wind gails, and it has always cured completely and left the leg smooth.

left the leg smooth. It is a splendid medicine for rheumatism. I have recommended it to a good many, and they all say it does the work. I was in Witherington & Kneeland's drug store, in Adams, the other day, and saw a very fine picture you sent them. I tried to buy it, but could not; they said if I would write to you that you would send me one. I wish you would, and I will do you all the good I can.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 3, 1882.

B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—Being a sufferer from rheumatism, have tried a great many remedies for that complaint, using everything that I heard of or that my frienes knew of, and being treated by the best physcians in this city without effect. I had become discouraged and had concluded there was no help for this disease, when I fortunately met your agent, Mr. John Fish, who told me it was unnecessary to suffer any more, as Kendall's Spavin Cure would do the business, and as I was of the same profession he presented me with a bottle. Cincinnati, Ohio, June 3, 1882. cure would do the business, and as I was of the same profession he presented me with a bottle, which I used, and I must say without any faith, in one week I am able to walk without a cane or any other artificial help. I don't know that the Spavin Cure did it, but this I do know, I will never be without Kendali's Spavin Cure again, as I thoroughly believe it deserves its popularity, and has unqualified merit. 1 write this entirely unsolicited.
