And just here we wish to say that the proposed celebration is very high above any ordinary event, and appeals to men and women who appreciate the never dying labors of Martin Luther in the cause of free thought and a true Christianity, to attend and participate in the exercises. The man who had the wisdom the courage, the ability and the fortitude to defy, for the truth's sake, all the powers of the Romish priesthood of his day, did a work for mankind beyond computation, the fruits of which seem destined to bless the world to the end of time.

Chas. G. Mason, of Sumter, S. C., it is said has constructed a cotton picker which he claims will reduce the expense of cotton picking to $1 per bale, or on a full crop in the Southern Sates, the handsome sum of $50,000,000. We quote from the Charleston paper:

"A staff reporter for the News and Courier saw the machine tested in a cotton field on Mr. Mason's place at Sumter lamation designating Thursday, Novema few days ago, and although the cotton ber 29th, as a day of national thankswas very wet from the long spell of wet weather and had been open ready for picking fully six weeks, the machine which was operated by one horse and one man harvested cotton at the rate of over is said there are no less than 250,000 miles 200 pounds an hour, which would be at of barbed wire fencing now up, to say the rate of 2,000 pounds a working day nothing of those built before the barbed satisfied with the present capacity of the wire was invented. machine and changes are now being made which it is believed will increase its capacity to about 4,000 pounds of seed cotton a day, or three bales of lint."

Tax Reduction.

There is much diversity of sentiment as o what should be the course of the Demoerats in Congress in regard to financial matters. Some of the leaders think it. wise or expedient that nothing should be done, remitting the whole subject to the next session-or even to a succeeding Congress, when the Democrats hope to have a succeeding Congress, when the Democrats hope to have a majority of the Senate and the President as well.
