THURSDAY, NOVEMBER, 8, 1883.

The Return. The elections on Tuesday last, in New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Minnesota and Nebraska, though the returns are not complete, from what is known, resulted in favor of the Republicans.

The Democratic press of the country is generally if not unanimously satisfied with the recent decision of the U. S. Supreme Court on the Civil Rights Bill. Good lawyers everywhere admit the righteousness of the decision, and expected it, whenever it should come before the Supreme Court.

Gov. Vance thinks farmers should have some organization for the purpose of protection against the enormous and growing monopolies of this country. Farmers are the most numerous class and on them all are dependent for a living.

A strange story comes from Waupun, Wisconsin, of one woman marrying another. It is related as follows: "Last spring a young woman named Gertrude Fuller became the bride of a young man—or a person supposed to be a young man—calling himself Frank Dubois, and to all outward appearances they have since lived happily together.

The Campaign Sugar Works in Rhinoceros is now in full operation, working up 120 to 140 tons of sorghum each day, and turning out a fine quality of sugar, closely resembling the best refined sugar of Louisiana.

Will not some enterprising man of means in this State take up this subject in a practical way? STAUNTON, Va., Nov. 7.—Two negroes were shot here yesterday by a white man named Croghan, one dangerously, the other but slightly hurt.

It is estimated that the New York Herald sustains a daily loss of $1,000 by the reduction in the price of the paper from 3 to 2 cents per copy. The Tribune, Times and Sun are all heavy losers also by the reduction made on them severally, and it is estimated that the stock in these papers is not worth as much as before by at least $5,000,000.

STANGE.—Texas negroes do not want to have cars for their own use on the railroads where the system has been inaugurated. The cars specially provided for them are in all respects as comfortable as those designated for the whites. Why the dissatisfaction.

THE NEW CODE.—The Raleigh Observer notes the arrival there of samples of the New Code, printed by contract in New York. The Commissioners have set to inspect the work before it will be received and ready for distribution.

The Governor of South Carolina has sent a special officer to Georgia, where Sells' circus is exhibiting, for the arrest of one of the employees of the Co., who killed a negro near Central City, S. C., Oct. 26th.

We publish in this paper the letter of I. J. Young to deputy collector, E. R. Dudley, and Dudley's answer thereto. It is spicy enough, take it all in all, and leaves Col. Young in a disgraceful attitude.

Not less than 10,000,000 cans of sweet corn were packed during the late season. Three companies alone packed 8,000,000 and they have all been sold to dealers.

The Boston Exposition closed on the 6th instant. We copy some well-timed thoughts on the subject from the Raleigh News and Observer.

The Wilmington Star notes the catching of a white shad thus early, in the waters near the city.

The First Fruits. Danville (Va.) Register.

The highest state of political excitement which has existed in this city for several weeks, and which has been fanned and inflamed by the incendiary speeches of Coalition leaders, culminated Saturday evening in riot and bloodshed. This was the first fruits of the Coalition teachings and efforts to band together negroes against the white people, and the natural result of the inflammatory appeals to race prejudices and party passion which have been made upon the hustings here, by Coalition orators, both white and colored.

At the very time when a meeting of the most orderly, respectable and quiet citizens of the town was being held to calmly consider the condition of affairs here, and when a resolution had just been passed, recommending the incendiary remarks made to the negroes on Friday night by Col. W. E. Sims, and commending the forbearance of the white people under the great provocation, a crisis was precipitated on the street by the blacks and a war of races begun.

The Cause. Danville (Va.) Register.

The effort is made in some quarters to have it appear that the conflict and bloodshed on our streets Saturday evening were the result simply of personal animosity. It is too late now to make any capital for this election out of this unfortunate affair, even if we could get our consent to do so, as we could not, and what we write now is for the cool and calm judgment of the future.

HARMONY AMONG NORTH CAROLINA REPUBLICANS. Collector Young to Deputy Collector Dudley.

UNITED STATES INTERNAL REVENUE, COLLECTOR'S OFFICE, 4TH DISTRICT, NORTH CAROLINA, RALEIGH, Oct. 16, 1883.

SIR:—Hon. J. E. O'Hara has just been to see me and insists on my removal. I hope you and your friends will appreciate my position and the part which I have played in the removal of Mr. O'Hara from the office of deputy collector.

I feel it due to you to say that I deem you a good officer and will gladly give you the chance to resign prior to that time. I would be glad to talk personally with you, and hope you will so act as to not cause a wider breach among our political friends, and trust to time, the great arbitrator of human grievances, to heal feuds and repair the wrong you may feel done you by appointing your successor.

Very respectfully, I. J. YOUNG, Collector.

DUDELEY TO YOUNG. NEWBURN, N. C., Oct. '83. COL. I. J. YOUNG, Raleigh, N. C.:

SIR:—Your letter of the 16th of Oct., notifying me to see me (you) and insist on your (my) removal and that I (you) shall appoint Mr. Palmer your necessary successor, has been received and its contents carefully noted. In reply, I would say that Mr. O'Hara is not my master, but I am truly sorry to learn that you are his slave.

The new cigar factory of F. O. Sticker and his residence were completely demolished. The family were absent at the time. A number of the employees of the factory were injured. St. Mary's Catholic church was wrecked. Great damage is reported at Brooklyn and Republic in the southwestern part of the county. The telephone communication between these points and Springfield was destroyed. Hazell Dell school house west of this city was blown down.

most good towards making you "our next M. C.," and if the report is true, it is a good move on your part; the government pays the expense. You say that you hope that I will "so act as not to cause a wider breach among our political friends."—"So long." I shall try to act like a freeman, and attend to my own business, and not allow "Our M. C." or any other master to do it for me. You ask me to "please work up all unfinished business by Nov. 1st." My office is in order and my work up at the close of business of each day. Unlike yourself, your money is not up for the month of September, for your duties have not been paid off yet. You, not I, am the one who kept me so long against the demands and wish of "Our M. C." (three months) have not paid me for near two months—seven more days you will owe two month's salary—September and October.

I shall send the President of the United States a copy of your letter to me, that he may see what kind of civil service reform one of his collectors has in motion among his deputies in the good "Old North State," and although your letter removing me from office is marked "Personal," yet I feel it my duty for the sake of civil service reform to have said letter published that the good people of the State and country may read its contents in full. The ghost of "Our M. C." seems to have frightened you to such an extent that you forgot and used government "Penalty Envelopes" for private and personal business, especially when the envelope had printed on it "penalty so paid." The grand jury of the United States may excuse you, and not make you pay that $300—"so long."

In conclusion I would say that I shall not resign. "Few die and none resign," and I hope that you will not think me an exception to the rule. I have sent you back a copy of your letter to me for fear that you had forgotten its contents. Keep it; it will be good Sunday reading for you "one of these days." "And may the Lord have mercy on your soul." Very respectfully, E. R. DUDLEY.

A Missouri Cyclone. KANSAS CITY, Nov. 6.—A special to the Journal from Springfield says, shortly after two o'clock yesterday afternoon this city was visited by a destructive cyclone. The storm struck the woolen mills destroying a portion of the buildings and doing great damage to the machinery. It then passed a little to the north, demolishing a number of residences, striking Division street at the corner of Bowling street. The storm followed the line between the city proper and north Springfield for three blocks, leveling dwelling in both towns. Then tending a little to the northward, the tornado passed to Bridgetown, a suburb of north Springfield. The total loss is estimated at between $150,000 and $250,000. There were probably seven persons killed and many injured.

The new cigar factory of F. O. Sticker and his residence were completely demolished. The family were absent at the time. A number of the employees of the factory were injured. St. Mary's Catholic church was wrecked. Great damage is reported at Brooklyn and Republic in the southwestern part of the county. KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE. Modesto, Cal., Aug. 9th, 1882. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gentles:—Before coming to this coast, and while at home, in Longmeadow, Mass., I had occasion to observe the benefits resulting from the use of your Kendall's Spavin Cure. My brother had a young horse which he had purchased from you which he cured at the same time removed the enlargement. A Mr. A. K. Mathews also cured a valuable stallion of a spavin, as well as another gentleman by the name of R. Combs, both of which came under my personal observation, being in my own town, and gentlemen with whom I was well acquainted, and in the interest of the horsemen in this vicinity, I offer this my experience. Respectfully yours, JAMES QUINN.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE. Colton, Cal., Oct. 27, 1882. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gentles:—While in the employ of C. C. Hastings, the well known horseman, of San Francisco, in the year ending 1880, we had a young horse of two years old that contracted a bone spavin and seeing your treatment known as Kendall's Spavin Cure advertised, upon my own responsibility I commenced using it and within thirty days from that time and after having used only three bottles the spavin was removed entirely, and therefore I naturally have no hesitation in recommending it to all who have occasion to use the medicine and should any one desire to consult with me I shall be glad to answer any communication relating to the case in question. Respectfully yours, J. D. GASKILL.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE. Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co., Enosburgh Falls, Vt. 35:1y
