

Subscription Rates: The subscription rates of the Carolina Watchman are as follows: 1 year, paid in advance, $1.50...

HALF RATES.—The Richmond & D. R. R. Co. will sell half rate tickets to the Luther Celebration in Concord on Saturday.

Owing to the death of the Rev. Mr. Merloch's mother, the Convocation, that was to have taken place in Salisbury next week, is indefinitely postponed.

CHANGE.—R. B. Crawford's sale will take place at the Court House, on Monday of next week, Nov. 26th.

The Statesville Landmark will be issued as a daily, half size, during the week of the Methodist Conference, which meets in that town on the 29th November...

HOG STEALING.—We have heard of only one case this fall. Mr. Wm. H. Horah had one stolen.

A little son of Dr. R. L. Cowan, fell from the porch of his father's residence, in Locke township, last Saturday, and painfully fractured both bones of an arm.

BEAUTIFUL SWEETMEATS.—Mrs. Dr. Keen is certainly an artist in the making of preserves. We have seen and tested samples of her work in water melon rind, highly ornamented with carved figures of flowers, trees, vines, grape clusters, birds, butterflies, and various insects...

The "Howan School Times," is the title of a little monthly paper which made its appearance on Saturday, Mr. J. M. Hill, editor. It is designed to promote the cause of education in the county, and the first number is filled with articles especially interesting to teachers and pupils of schools.

KILLED.—On last Friday, the 2d inst., Mr. Luther C. Trexler, while working at a saw mill on South River, for Mr. Hairton, was caught between the mill and the rock wall and instantly killed.

FINE RESIDENCES.—There have been a number of residences built in this town this year, at least four of which are ornamental to the town, to wit: Dr. Griffith's, L. W. Klutz's, Joseph Horah's, and J. Gordon's.

The abolition problem was settled by the late war. The negro was set free and enfranchised. But the negro is yet a disturbing cause in the land, and from present appearances is likely so to continue.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—At the regular session of the Board of County Commissioners, held Monday Nov. 5th, the following business was transacted: A D M Starnes was exempted from service on public roads for one year; Henry Overcash from paying poll tax and road duty for 5 years; John L. Enfy from road duty 2 years, and W H Carter from poll tax 1 year.

They have examined the Treasurer's accounts for the quarter ending Oct. 31st, 1883, and find as follows: To cash on hand at last report $1888.41

A M Brown, keeper of the poor, reports 20 paupers. A number claims were approved, audited and ordered to be paid, when Board adjourned to meet the next day.

Tuesday, Nov. 6th.—The Board met according to adjournment and proceeded at once to the election of School Commissioners for all the various school districts of the county, which work being completed the Board received and approved the report of L. H. Rothrock, Co. Supt., when he was instructed to visit and inspect the public schools of the county.

DIED.—At her father's residence, in this county, on Saturday evening, the 3d inst., Miss Lillian Graham, second daughter of Jno. K. Graham, Esq., aged about 23 years. The deceased had suffered and been for some time an invalid from dyspepsia, but was able to be up knitting the day before her death, which proved quite a sudden shock to her parents and friends.

Diocese of North Carolina. BISHOP'S APPOINTMENTS. Nov. 14, Wednesday, St. Mary's, Rowan county. Nov. 15, Thursday, St. Luke's, Salisbury—Consecration.

Texas Charlie's FAIR WEST AND PICTURED INDIAN VILLAGE will exhibit on the "Garrison" Lot in Salisbury, on Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 14 & 15.

From the News and Observer. To day the Boston Institute fair closes, and with it ends the exhibition of our North Carolina products in that city.

DEAR SIR: As the only living manager of the great exhibition of 1851, and as one who has taken part in almost every European international exhibition since that date, you may like to have from me a few words of appreciation of the North Carolina contribution to the exhibition now open in Boston.

THE FIRST bale of cotton ever picked from the field by machinery was shown at the Cotton Exchange in Charleston, S. C., Tuesday. Its condition was pronounced as good as hand picked cotton of the same grade.

This is Wendell Phillips' opinion of the Republican party, which he helped to organize, in his hot youth—when it was a conscience—did much toward freeing the colored man. But I see that now, the willing tool of capital and the banks, and with a triple-rig system of national bonds, it is doing far more to undermine our institutions and enslave the white man.

MINING.

Morgan township is to have a Graded School. Everything bids fair, at present to warrant the opinion that, in less than twelve more months the school will be in full operation.

LET no teacher fail to do his full duty in behalf of the TIMES. It is a home enterprise. Teachers must see "eye to eye" and stand "shoulder to shoulder" in order to plan well and execute successfully.

Farewell to the Old South. BY E. P. H. The morning suns now bathe in gold The dark pine forests, as of old

Yes, statesmen's mother, dead art thou, And bathed in blood thy laureled brow; As in some weird prophetic dream

Mr. Newman, of Dutch Creek Mine, is now engaged in making a map of all the mineral properties north of Gold Hill to the Yadkin River.

The following letter from Sir, Lyon Playfair, an eminent English scientist, who is visiting the Boston exposition, to Mr. P. M. Wilson, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, shows how the North Carolina exhibit is appreciated by those who see it from at home and abroad:

DEAR SIR: As the only living manager of the great exhibition of 1851, and as one who has taken part in almost every European international exhibition since that date, you may like to have from me a few words of appreciation of the North Carolina contribution to the exhibition now open in Boston.

The first bale of cotton ever picked from the field by machinery was shown at the Cotton Exchange in Charleston, S. C., Tuesday. Its condition was pronounced as good as hand picked cotton of the same grade.

The following singular story is reported from St. Louis. Miss Aurelia Larieux, the young woman who eloped from here with Hurd, the sewing machine agent, and who was found by her father in Boston, is at home again.

and one day discovered an item that made him skip off to Philadelphia. I had to go with him. He remained there four or five days. Then Hurd saw another item in the St. Louis papers and took me to Boston, where we staid one week. Then he took me to his sister, Mrs. Sarah F. Brown, about 20 miles south of Boston, where I staid a month.

To All Christian People. Please Read, Ponder and Circulate. [At the request of the W. C. T. U., of Greensboro, we publish the following circular.]

Farewell to the Old South. BY E. P. H. The morning suns now bathe in gold The dark pine forests, as of old

Yes, statesmen's mother, dead art thou, And bathed in blood thy laureled brow; As in some weird prophetic dream

Mr. Newman, of Dutch Creek Mine, is now engaged in making a map of all the mineral properties north of Gold Hill to the Yadkin River.

The following letter from Sir, Lyon Playfair, an eminent English scientist, who is visiting the Boston exposition, to Mr. P. M. Wilson, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, shows how the North Carolina exhibit is appreciated by those who see it from at home and abroad:

DEAR SIR: As the only living manager of the great exhibition of 1851, and as one who has taken part in almost every European international exhibition since that date, you may like to have from me a few words of appreciation of the North Carolina contribution to the exhibition now open in Boston.

The first bale of cotton ever picked from the field by machinery was shown at the Cotton Exchange in Charleston, S. C., Tuesday. Its condition was pronounced as good as hand picked cotton of the same grade.

The following singular story is reported from St. Louis. Miss Aurelia Larieux, the young woman who eloped from here with Hurd, the sewing machine agent, and who was found by her father in Boston, is at home again.

and one day discovered an item that made him skip off to Philadelphia. I had to go with him. He remained there four or five days. Then Hurd saw another item in the St. Louis papers and took me to Boston, where we staid one week.

To All Christian People. Please Read, Ponder and Circulate. [At the request of the W. C. T. U., of Greensboro, we publish the following circular.]

Farewell to the Old South. BY E. P. H. The morning suns now bathe in gold The dark pine forests, as of old

Yes, statesmen's mother, dead art thou, And bathed in blood thy laureled brow; As in some weird prophetic dream

Mr. Newman, of Dutch Creek Mine, is now engaged in making a map of all the mineral properties north of Gold Hill to the Yadkin River.

The following letter from Sir, Lyon Playfair, an eminent English scientist, who is visiting the Boston exposition, to Mr. P. M. Wilson, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, shows how the North Carolina exhibit is appreciated by those who see it from at home and abroad:

DEAR SIR: As the only living manager of the great exhibition of 1851, and as one who has taken part in almost every European international exhibition since that date, you may like to have from me a few words of appreciation of the North Carolina contribution to the exhibition now open in Boston.

The first bale of cotton ever picked from the field by machinery was shown at the Cotton Exchange in Charleston, S. C., Tuesday. Its condition was pronounced as good as hand picked cotton of the same grade.

The following singular story is reported from St. Louis. Miss Aurelia Larieux, the young woman who eloped from here with Hurd, the sewing machine agent, and who was found by her father in Boston, is at home again.

-NEW GOODS!

KLUTTZ AND RENDLEMAN

Have Now Received From New York City One of the Best Fall and Winter STOCKS of GOODS EVER BROUGHT TO THIS MARKET, WHICH WAS SELECTED in Person, with Great Care as to Prices, Quality, Beauty and to suit the tastes of our Customers...

The VERY LATEST NEWS! J. S. McCUBBINS & CO., Are now in receipt of their FALL AND WINTER STOCK OF NEW GOODS, which will be found LARGE and COMPLETE.

DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, Boots and Shoes, CLOTHING, DRUGS, Queesware, & C. DON'T FAIL TO GIVE THEM A CALL.

MARRIED. HULBERT—ALLEN.—At the residence of the bride's parents, Duluth, Minnesota, Oct. 31st, by the Rev. H. C. Minton, Mr. Thos. H. Hulbert, of Middleton, Conn., and Miss Mary Allen.

BUSINESS LOCALS. A Medium MILCH COW and Calf for sale. Apply at this office for further information. 4217

SALISBURY MARKET. CORRECTED WEEKLY BY JNO. SHEPPARD. Bacon, common to med. 5.00 to 6.25 Lugs, med to good. 6.25 to 7.50

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE FOR THE WHISKERS. Has become one of the most important popular toilet articles for gentlemen's use. When the beard is gray or naturally of an undesirable shade, BUCKINGHAM'S DYE is the remedy.

Concord Market. CORRECTED WEEKLY BY CANNON & FETZER. Bacon, Hog round, 9 1/2 to 10 Butter, 17 1/2 to 20 Chickens, 1 1/2 to 20 Eggs, 9 to 10 Cotton, 9 to 10 Corn, 8 to 10 Flour, 2 3/4 to 2 40 Feathers, 40 to 50 Potatoes, 100 lbs., 1 00 Hay, 5 to 6 Meal, 8 to 10 Oats, 40 to 50 Wheat, 1 00 Wool, 25 to 40