FOR ASSOCIATE JUSTICE SUPREME COURT AUGUSTUS S. MERRIMON,

SCALES AND YORK AT NEWTON .- We would be glad to publish the report given by the Charlotte Observer of the discussion between these gladiatorial representatives in this State of the two great parties of the country, but it is entirely two long and it would be unjust to cut it up. Nearly all the voters of the State will have an opportunity to hear the candidates this Summer, and should embrace it as a means of obtaining the best knowledge of the points in dispute beween the parties and on which enc voter must decide at the polls. The Observer's correspondent represents that Mr. Scales bore himself admirably and gained a very signal victory in the discussion. Thathi s opening speech was calm and dignified throughout, and that his rejoinder was masterly and powerful. We were prepared fo this, for we have seen something of Mr. York in a canvass and shall be surprised to learn that he is able to conduct his part with respectable de-

In a hasty glance at the Statesville Landmark's condensed report of Dr York's opening speech of the campaign made at Roaring Gap, Wilkes county, it is seen that he chants the same old song : "I am the same old York!" "Am as good a Democrat as ever !" "Havu't changed a one bit," &c. Yet he defended the Republican high tariff theety, and denounced Democracy and blamed it for all the evils the Republicans have brought on the country. He claims the honor of redeeming Wilkes county from debt, boasts had to leave his old political associations because of prohibition, which he says is now a dead issue, and complains that some people call him a prohibitionist beden't like him and will not support him, but claims that he is Republican enough to get the bulk of the Republican votes and enough from the Democrats to elect him the next Governor of North Carelina straddler? In one and the same speech he tells you he is positively no Repulican, and the Republicans that he is not a Demborat. He seems to be hankering after something with a most wonderful tenacity. He would be "all things to all men" if it were possible that by so doing he may obtain their votes.

FORTUNATE. - The Democratic party was never more fortunate than it has been this year in the matter of selecting candidates, from President and Governor. down. Men of high character and distingrished as wise and good men have been shosen almost without exception. We are highly gratified to learn that Davie county whose turn it was to nominate a candidate for this senatorial district, has named Dr. J. W. Wiseman, a gentleman of decided ability, and in all points worthy to represent the district. The nomination will be ratified by Rowan with hearty good will, and the Dr. will receive the full democratic vote of the county.

First we had the enchantment of the past, in the tower of London. Here we found things dating back to the age of William the Conqueror, eight hundred years ago. "The Tower is really a colection of half a dozen towers, enclosed with a wall and a broad moat, with large open spaces around the Towers. The tablished in right principles and correct oldest of these is the famous White Towpractice in the trust committed to his er, built by William the Conqueror, and then, and of all nations. There are thousands of modern rifles, muskets, pistols faithful and true as a Congressman will swords, bayonets, and trappings of all kinds ready for use in the field. But the to be strictly followed and enacted by curiosities are the medieval armor, effensive and defensive. Here are coats of mail, of steel and chainwork, capapie opened.
