CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

The delegates of Rowan County to the 7th Democratic Congressional District Convention held on 7th Aug. are hereby notified that, in consequence of the decline of Kerr Craig, Esq., the nominee of said Convention, the Democratic Congressional Executive Committee have called another Convention, consisting of the old delegates appointed heretofore to the Convention on the 7th of Aug. to meet in SALISBURY on the 9TH of SEPTEMBER 1884, to nominate another candidate.
L. H. CLEMENT, of the 7th Dem. Cong. District Committee.

"Catawba," in the Hickory Press, advocates the claims of Mr. Armfield to the nomination to be made on the 9th of September. It is not enough that the strength of Mr. Armfield's name was fairly tried on the 7th of August, and that he himself has declared since that it shall not, with his consent, come before the District again. In her devotion to her favorite, Catawba may, if she will, again testify her high appreciation of him by such a course as she may deem appropriate. And whilst the other counties of the District may award her due credit for her strong convictions, it is not at present apparent in any part of the District known to us that there has been any change in favor of Mr. Armfield. Rowan favors the idea of a new man, entirely disconnected with old jealousies and contentions.

It is impossible to know in advance what is to be the result of the next District Convention. If we were asked who are the most prominent individuals spoken of in this county, we would answer—Pinix of Lexington and Davis of Catawba. These names are frequently mentioned on our streets, and we believe either would give entire satisfaction to the Democracy of the county. There would be nothing to overcome as to either of them. On the contrary they would come before the people on an irrefragable record, and meet a cordial support.

A "Democrat" in the Charlotte Observer, names John S. Henderson as the man to beat Dr. Ramsey. No doubt he could do it. But Rowan has already been honored. Much as she values her available and worthy men she cannot afford to urge them for the next office. Theo. F. Klutz has also been mentioned in other counties and in Rowan; but both these gentlemen, as we have reason to believe, appreciate the delicacy of the circumstances attending the business.

There has been a fusion between the Democratic party in Kansas and re-submission or anti-prohibition party of that State, and they have jointly nominated candidates for Governor and Lt. Governor. Kansas, it will be remembered is a prohibition State; but there is a strong party in favor of another vote on the subject, who style themselves re-submissionists, and they have chosen the next election to test the question.

Gov. St. John, the prohibition nominee for President of the United States, is of Kansas. There was a great prohibition meeting at Cuba, N. Y., on the 25th to ratify the nomination of St. John, and Mr. Daniel, for Vice President. These gentlemen were present and accepted the nominations given them and made short addresses to the people. They have no expectation of being elected, and the movement seems to be designed to organize a permanent prohibition party looking to success in the distant future, when a majority of the public mind shall have matured in its opposition to the manufacture and sale of ardent spirits as a beverage. They propose to keep up the war from year to year, as was done by the abolition party in its war against slavery, and confidently expect final success, at what cost the future can alone reveal.

The Republican custom of assessing government clerks is unlawful. The N. Y. Nation editorially says: "This is the law of the subject, which has been already before the Supreme Court of the United States in the Curtis case; there is no hope of its being declared unconstitutional. A man who violates it and is tried will have to be punished. Under it an assessment or 'contribution' paid by a clerk in, on the one hand, blackmail, on the other, a bribe designed to secure him in his office; and the theory of the law corresponds with what everybody knows to be the facts of the matter. This is what the Supreme Court of the United States has said about such operations as the National Republican Committee are now 'indirectly' conducting, and as to the intention of the law?"

A feeling of independence under the law conduces to faithful public service, and nothing tends more to take away this feeling than a dread of dismissal. If contributions from those in public employment may be solicited by others in official authority, it is easy to see that what begins as a request may end as a demand (i. e., blackmail), and that a failure to meet the demand may be treated by those having the power of removal as a breach of some supposed duty growing out of the political relations of the parties. Contributions secured under such circumstances are quite as likely to be made to avoid the consequences of the personal displeasure of a superior or to promote a personal view of the contributor, to avoid a discharge from service more than to exercise a political privilege.

"Such was the language of the highest tribunal in the country in the Curtis case, not two years ago." Yet there are Blaine Committees whose business it is to force contributions from the government employees, thus daily defiantly breaking a law of the land. Ought the people expect anything good from a candidate who resorts to law breaking for his own personal aggrandisement? Not much.

PUT BACK INTO SLAVERY.—The negroes have been hoodwinked again. They are talking it among themselves that if the Democrats elect the next President "the negroes are to be put back into slavery." This is the old clap net to ensnare them. It has caught them many times before. It will catch them again. The more intelligent negroes know better, but the lie is in the interest of their party and they do not contradict it, and perhaps it would be useless if they were to. Ignorance and a fear of what they do not understand are motives of stronger force than truths they cannot comprehend. Hence it is that democrats waste no efforts in trying to gain the votes of the negroes; and thus it is that designing, unprincipled white men will continue to have a firm backing.

SENSIBLE LETTER.—We had the pleasure of presenting in the Watchman of last week the very sensible letter of acceptance of Hon. Grover Cleveland, which all may read with pleasure and profit. The New York Herald commenting on it says: "The interviews published in the Herald to day showing public opinion with regard to Governor Cleveland's letter of acceptance are remarkable for being general and not merely a partisan expression. Here are prominent men in all walks of life, financial, commercial, labor, professional, and of all parties who endorse Gov. Cleveland's position as representing the highest interests of the people."

The Southern Telegraph Company have reduced rates over their lines to about one-half. Night messages to New York city, which some months ago cost 55 cts. are now sent for 25 cts., and so a like reduction to all other points. A "message" is generally understood not to exceed ten words. For additional words, night messages pay one cent a word. Day messages to Boston 50 cts. and 3 cts. for each additional word; and the same to all other distant points. These are low rates, and will no doubt result in a large increase of business over the lines of this company.

This is what the New York Sun (which now shines for Butler) said of Governor Cleveland when he was running for Governor of New York:
"No one can study the record of his career since he has held office in Buffalo without being convinced that he possesses those highest qualifications of a public man, sound principles of administrative ability, luminous intelligence, and courage to do what is right, no matter who may be pleased or displeased thereby."

The State Exposition—Messrs. Wallace Bros. to Make an Exhibit.

Mr. Jacob Wallace, one of the directors of the State Exposition Association, has, after a visit here, returned to New York, where he spends the greater part of his time. He regrets being so situated as to business matters as to be unable to give that attention he would like to the affairs of the exposition, but he authorizes the statement that anything intended for exhibition on that occasion may be left with Messrs. Wallace Bros. here who will take charge of and forward it. We call attention of farmers, manufacturers, miners and others to this announcement. Prepare something for the exposition and bring it to Wallace Bros. for shipment.

In this connection we are exceedingly gratified to learn that the enterprising firm which has just been mentioned has finally determined to make an exhibit from their botanic warehouse at the State Exposition. The exhibit will be exactly like that they made at the Paris Exposition, which took a medal. There will be no more interesting feature in all the exposition buildings than this exhibit of the flora of North Carolina—in the gathering of which Messrs. Wallace Bros. have built up a peculiar industry and one with which their name will always be associated.—Statesville Landmark.

QUEER.—The N. Y. Sun supports old Ben Butler for President, and yet it says it would be the greatest thing that ever happened "if the Democratic party should be established in the permanent control of the National Government." Why, then, waste words and votes on Butler? There ought to be some method in a same man's madness.

Troops were ordered out to guard a jail in Lynchburg, Va., on the 25th. Eldredge Morris, a prominent young farmer, irritated at insulting language used to his mother by Lon Greep, a negro woman, threw a boot jack at her which struck her on the head and caused death. The negroes of the city gathered about the prison where Morris was confined, and troops were called out to prevent violence.

Charlotte Observer: Earnest Williams, colored, in the Mecklenburg jail, after passing through the Superior and Supreme Courts on the charge of burglary committed at Matthew's station last winter, will, without a pardon from the Governor, be hanged within the prison enclosure, on Friday the 31 day of October next.

A fire in a livery stable at Cynthiana, Kentucky, on the 25th, resulted in the death of one man, the burning of the residence of the livery stable proprietor, and the burning of a number of celebrated horses, varying in prices from $500 to $10,000, aggregating the sum of $55,000.

There is a man in the State of New York, Capt. Hetherington, who makes a specialty of bee culture, which returns him an income of about $25,000 a year. He turns out about 100,000 pounds of honey per annum.

A three day's shooting match commenced in Carolina Park, Charlotte, on Tuesday. Col. Walter L. Steele is president of the Association, the members of which are scattered in the Carolinas.

It was Jim Johnson, not Jim Wilson, who jumped off the train while on a trestle, on the Western N. C. Railroad, a few nights ago.

WARM SPRINGS.—The ownership of this valuable North Carolina property is changing hands. A syndicate recently formed will take the whole property at $80,000.

Gen. SCALES had an ovation in Wilkesboro, York's own county. He captured the ladies, and that is a straw of no mean significance.

Decidedly Mixed.

From the Charlotte Observer.
The N. Y. Sun is a luminary which claims to "shine for all." Just now, and for some weeks past, it has been doing most of its shining for Ben Butler, whom not very long ago it took pleasure in denouncing as the prince of political charlatans.

The Sun claimed to be democratic until Governor Cleveland was nominated, when it went looking around for a candidate, and finally settled on Ben Butler, the candidate of a party the Sun has always been opposed to, as its last chance. It couldn't support Blaine, whom it had branded as dishonest, and therefore took up an arrant and unprincipled demagogue. All this has, of course, placed the Sun in a very unpleasant attitude, and made its part, in supporting Butler and still claiming to be a Democratic journal, a very difficult one to play. Its chief excuse, as we understand it, in opposing Cleveland is that Cleveland can't be elected, but it fails to give any good reason why he can't be. Here is a sample from an editorial in the issue of Thursday last:

The nomination of Cleveland was a public proclamation that, so far as the Democratic managers were concerned, the Republican party should remain in power, and that James G. Blaine, all fattened as he is, should be elected President of the United States. The responsibility for that public calamity is theirs, and they will have to bear it.

Of what use is it to contend against such a decree? The case has been settled against us; the defeat of the Democracy in 1884 has been decided beforehand in the house of its friends, and the best that can now be done is to protest against such a wrong and such a folly, and to save as much as possible from the ruins. In such a condition it is a great comfort that there is so good a Democrat as Butler for Democrats and reformers to vote for.

And here is another from another editorial in the same issue:
The final truth is that the only chance of Democratic success in the present campaign lies in the course indicated by the Independent. The withdrawal of Cleveland and the substitution of Allen G. Thurman's name on the Democratic ticket would make sure a victory that otherwise is hopelessly thrown away.

Judging from these paragraphs one would naturally think that the Sun saw no chance for the Democracy with Cleveland at the head. Now read this from the leading editorial in the same issue, and say if the Sun is not decidedly contradictory of itself:

What gives this election its peculiar interest is its extraordinary complication and its tremendous uncertainty. Nobody can tell just how it stands to-day or how it will turn out eleven weeks hence. Nobody knows who is ahead at the present stage of the race, or who will come out the winner at the close.

Under ordinary circumstances in a Presidential year, we can tell pretty well by the middle of August who is likely to be elected; but now it is, if possible, more uncertain than ever. We know that neither Blaine nor Cleveland can have the strength of their party, but how much will each of them lose? Will the losses on one side balance the losses on the other? How many votes will Butler take, and will they be taken from Democrats or from Republicans? Will they weaken Cleveland, or will they disperse Blaine? What is the truth about the Prohibition party, and what strength will it really exhibit at the polls? What will be the effect of the Cleveland scandals? Will they turn voters away from him, or will they bring him more votes? Where will the Germans go? Will they be all for Cleveland or will Blaine get a part of their votes? Will they go to the Democrats in October? If they do Blaine's canvass will crumble to pieces. Will West Virginia vote for Blaine at her State election? If she does, Cleveland's canvass will crumble to pieces. Will the Irish Catholics stand by the Democrats? Will they have done hitherto? If they do, Cleveland may be elected. Will they go over to Blaine with all their enthusiasm and their passion? If they do, he certainly will be elected. Or will they rally around the flag of Ben Butler and give him States that Republican or Democratic voters have left for themselves? If they do, nobody may be elected, and the House of Representatives may have to decide; and in this event Cleveland may ultimately be successful.

We take it that in the extract which we quote from its leading editorial the Sun expressed its real belief that that didn't know who was going to be elected. It don't believe that Blaine will be, has no hope for Butler or St. John, don't want Cleveland to be, and is doing all it can, for some reason best known to Mr. Dana, but not known to the public, to prevent it.

The Republicans of Philadelphia are organizing a club of 20,000 torch bearers and marching men to vote for Blaine. It is estimated that it will cost about $2,000,000. The Republican candidate Blaine, can foot this bill and not feel it; for he has, strangely enough, made eight or ten millions by the Republican methods of members of Congress. But assessments upon government employees is going on, and it is not unlikely Blaine will come out of the campaign richer than when he went in.

WE DESIRE TO CALL THE THOUGHTFUL ATTENTION OF FARMERS TO THE SUPERIOR MERITS OF ORCHILLA GUANO AS A FERTILIZER FOR WHEAT AND GRASS.

The advantages resulting from its use are not only an increased yield, but the permanent improvement of the soil from the abundant growth of grass which is sure to follow.

"ORCHILLA" is no new thing. For eighteen years it has been undergoing a trial—and well has it stood the test. Its progress to favor was naturally slow; but merit will, sooner or later, have its reward, and now its sales every year are largely increased over those of the preceding year, and the friends of its early days are its best friends now.

It has been used extensively in Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia, and from its abundant success everywhere, we are justified in recommending it to you as being well adapted to your soil. No fertilizer for your use has had such unvarying success and continued popularity. Some of the largest and best farmers in these States use it almost exclusively.

It is successful, because it is Nature's own provision for her exhausted fields.

It is Low Priced, because we have none of the expense of manufacturers, and, without regard to its high agricultural value, we base its price solely upon its actual cost of import.

We refer you below to some of the farmers who have used it, and ask you to enquire of them as to its merits.

ORCHILLA FOR WHEAT.

It is a remarkable fact that the complete analysis of Orchilla Guano shows almost identical results with the analysis of a bushel of wheat in the straw. This doubtless furnishes the reason why Orchilla is a good wheat producer; it contains all the elements of wheat growth within itself.

JOHN H. NUNNALLY, Esq., of Ruffin, N. C., June 23d, 1884, says:—"I have used Orchilla last fall upon my wheat in the following terms of result, in which I exceed, as my future purchases will demonstrate, I can see where I used Orchilla this spring a very perceptible difference. It is too early in the season to report results."

R. B. DOBSON, Esq., of Clio, Ireland Co., N. C., July 13, 1884, says:—"I have used the Orchilla Guano for three years on light sandy land for wheat and clover. It has given me satisfaction. My neighbors who used it last fall are well pleased. We used from one to three hundred pounds to the acre. We expect to use it again."

Dr. F. CHAMBERS LAIRD, Haw River, Alamance Co., N. C., July 16, 1884, says:—"I have used Orchilla for two years, and am well pleased with the result. I expect to use it more largely this fall. I am convinced it is all you claim for it."

Mrs. A. H. DREWRY, of Westover, Charles City Co., Va., probably the most extensive farmer in the State, says:—"Orchilla Guano does quite as well on my soil as any fertilizer I ever used."

Col. PEYTON S. COLES, of Esontville, A. Bernabe Co., Va., equally prominent in the community, says:—"Orchilla has made what for me when everything else failed to do so."

ORCHILLA FOR GRASS.

If Orchilla has a specialty, it is in making grass. THAT NEVER FAILS. Col. RANDOLPH HARRISON, Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Virginia, Richmond, says:—"Orchilla certainly possesses special clover-producing virtues, or, if that is an inaccurate word, it enables clover to take hold, and helps it to stand drought—a great point. I watch its effect on my crops with much interest."

Send for our Book of Testimonials from farmers who have used Orchilla Guano for years, and who say:—"It has made our poor lands rich."

You Can Have It.—My dear, what would I give to have your hair? It is often said by middle-aged ladies to young ones: "Madam, you may have just such hair as I will stop your hair from falling out. You will store the original color and make it long, thick, soft and glossy. You need not stand helplessly envying the girls. The Balm is not only not a dye, but is an elegant dressing, and is especially recommended for its cleanliness and purity."

Notice of Land Sale.

By order of the Superior Court of Rowan county, I will sell for partition, on the premises, at public auction, on Saturday, August 30, 1884, the tract of land known as the "Old Baymer Place," about two miles eastward of Deal, Wm. Carvin, and others, containing 21 1/2 acres, about half of it timbered, with good dwelling, barn, outhouses, well, peach orchard, and other improvements. Persons wishing to view the place beforehand can call on Mr. Haysner on the premises; and those desiring fuller information about it, can apply to the undersigned or to N. L. Kilpatrick at Mooresville, N. C.

Terms of Sale.—One-half cash, and one-half on 6 months time, with bond and good security bearing interest from date; title retained till purchase money is paid.
