National Democratic Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT GROVER CLEVELAND, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, OF INDIANA.

FOR ELECTORS AT LARGE: W. H. KITCHIN, JOHN N. STAPLES.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR ALFRED M. SCALES, OF CULFORD.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR CHARLES M. STEDMAN, OF NEW HANOVER.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE WILLIAM L. SAUNDERS, OF ORANGE.

FOR TREASURER DONALD W. BAIN, OF WAKE.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL THOMAS F. DAVIDSON, OF BUCKINGHAM.

FOR AUDITOR WILLIAM P. ROBERTS, OF GATES.

FOR DEPT. OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION S. M. FINGER, OF CATAWHA.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUSTICE SUPREME COURT AUGUSTUS S. MERRIMON, OF WAKE.

FOR CONGRESSMAN 7TH DISTRICT JOHN S. HENDERSON, OF ROWAN.

FOR ELECTOR, 7TH DISTRICT: R. C. PURYEAR, OF YADKIN.

We congratulate the Democrats of the District on having found in Rowan another man on whom they could agree as worthy of the honor they had to bestow. The nomination of John S. Henderson is a tribute to well attested worth. It is a good one, because he a good and true man—of the Cleveland type in his official character. He practically believes that the country and the government belong to the people, and that the officers whom they set over their business, are their servants, not their masters, and that the oath which they take must be obeyed in letter and in spirit. In other words, the Convention has chosen a man who knows what his duties are, and will perform them fearlessly and faithfully to the utmost extent of his ability, whether in the field as a canvasser, or as a member of the Congress of the United States.

THE Republicans of the 5th District, badly entangled by dissensions among themselves, sent all the way to Washington City for a man to come right on to the head centre, and untangle them and give them a fair start in the opening canvass. He came down—one ingenious Dr. Plumb; and after looking around a little bit he said, oh, fellows, here's the trouble—I see, I see. Wheeler is in the wrong—he's not the man to run against that Democrat, Jas. W. Reid, of Rockingham. Billy Wheeler, I'm sorry to interfere with your little Greensboro scheme, my good fellow, but they'll chop my head off at Washington if I go back there without straightening out this trouble—and you, Billy, you'd never get another nibble at the party cheese if you refuse to help me. Thereupon, Plumb and Billy put their heads together to work it out. Billy, the three-times-dyed-in-the-wool Republican threw away his Greensboro nomination, stepped aside, and Dr. Plumb drew out the name of Col. L. C. Edwards, of Granville, a recent renegade from the Democratic ranks, who went off offended because he was beaten for a Judgeship. The Doctor hastened back to Washington and reported all as straight as a string—a little "son" will make it smooth. But it turns out the Doctor was mistaken. There are some honest men about Winston who preferred a solid color and deep-dyed Republican to one of those of the spotted sort like Edwards, and they have set to freezing the party web at such a rate that there is no telling where it will end. It is now thought that nothing short of a big pile of "son" will ease Republican matters in the 5th.

The only practical utility in advertising to the sentiments expressed by this paper some weeks ago in regard to the attitude Rowan should occupy in the Convention of 9th Sept. is of rather local than general interest. We are not disposed to reproach our friends who could not, or would not, think as we thought, but persisted in an opposite course, whereby they put in jeopardy far more than the honor of furnishing a candidate for the District. To us it seemed that Rowan had the opportunity of proving both her gratitude and her magnanimity; and occupying a central position in the District had in that fact no mean motive for desiring to solidify the kindred feelings of her sister counties. If we may not say she sacrificed the opportunity to a sentiment she will not name, the reason must be sought in the action of delegates representing other counties—not her. It was indeed a lucky thing that she had the only man on whom the Convention could agree, and he was chosen; otherwise she had not only lost her opportunities but the lesser good—she had lost all; and that, we respectfully submit, was a great risk for the prize at stake.

The spontaneous out-pouring of the Democratic people of Western North Carolina in honor of their candidate for Governor is a great trouble to the revenue party. It makes them as mad as very mad hornets. They fill the air with angry buzzings, and now and then interjected cuss words slip out like stings or the tongue of the serpent.—What shall be done about it? It is not intended to offend them, nor can it be stopped now. Those boys (and girls too) away up on the crags and in the cool caves of the mountains started it. They are far enough out of the way of the world to do as they please in such matters, and the thing is just rolling on down from the "land of the sky" and will never stop until it strikes the Atlantic.

The "Liberal Democratic" Republicans are illiberal to the old original Republicans, for they are always ready to get in the way of one who aspires to office. The fact is, the Liberal Democrat is a chronic office seeker. He went into the Republican party for office and he is fully determined to have one or keep the Republicans out. We have an illustration of this temper or di'temper in Rowan at the present time.

Stately county exhibited at the Atlanta Exposition a lot of wheat which weighed 66 lbs. to the bushel. She has a lot now in hand for the N. C. Exposition which weighs 67 lbs. to the bushel, but she is holding it for the present under the belief that she can beat it by two or three pounds.

ELECTIONS.—The Maine election, just over, resulted in favor of the Republicans as was expected. Mr. Blaine lives in Maine as everybody knows, and his friends worked very hard to increase the party vote on his account. They succeeded in turning up the Republican vote from 15,000 to 19,000.

The Vermont election also went republican but by a diminished vote. No important significance attaches to either of these elections.

The political thermometer is on the rise most decidedly. Democratic fires are blazing in every direction you turn the eye—North, South, East and West. In this section of the State neighborhoods which have not been stirred for years, are now ablaze, and preparing for the conflict.

BRIEFS.

The National Bank of Brunswick, New Jersey, has failed by the dishonesty of its officers. The president and cashier have committed suicide. The city has suspended business. The people horrified.

The stove menders of Cincinnati are on a strike—also striking men who take their places in the foundries.

Texas has in the last ten years paid off half a million dollars on standing bonds left her by the republicans, and run up a capital of about $7,000,000.

Payne, Villy & Co., well known cotton factors of Louisville, Ky., have failed. The stealage is put down at $144,000.

Five men died in Philadelphia on Tuesday of excessive heat.

The distress at Naples, produced by cholera, has become awfully great.

Now that an important election is at hand, one thousand men have been given employment in the Navy Yard at Kittery, in Maine. Until now hundreds of applicants were refused because there was no work to be done.

It is getting to be the fashion now when a bank officer, treasurer, or other financial agent is found to be a rascal for him to take poison, cut his throat or blow out his brains. The recent homicide on the Court House steps in Lexington, is presented in full by the Davidson Dispatch, of Sept. 4th—the killing of Wm. D. Hedrick by David H. Reid. They lived only a few miles apart and there was an old feud between them. It appeared on the inquiry examination before Justices Smith, Nove and Conrad, that Hedrick was notorious as a violent man, and had been heard making threats against Reid. At the time of the killing, Hedrick drew his pistol and aimed at Reid, but was prevented from shooting by bystanders who seized his arm, and that Reid drew his pistol and fired on Hedrick while struggling to release himself from those who were holding and hindering him. Reid fired two shots—both taking effect. He was put under a bond of $4,000 for his appearance at the Fall Term of the Superior Court and discharged.

EXPOSITIONS.—No less than nine great expositions are to be held in the United States this year, to wit: In New Orleans, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Louisville, Chicago, Milwaukee, Boston, Denver, and Philadelphia, to say nothing of our North Carolina Exposition, making the number ten. The tendency of these great shows is to stimulate competition and enterprise in all the varied interests and industries of the country, and to break down the barriers between the people of the different sections of the country. Some of them are projected and managed by stock companies for the money they expect to make out of them, but the incidental benefits accruing to the State are all the same nevertheless, and must exert a great influence in the general development of a country comprising so many elements of wealth and greatness as ours.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

The Candidates for Congress in the 7th District, Hon. John S. Henderson and Dr. J. G. Ramsay, will address the people at the following times and places, viz: DAVIDSON COUNTY. Clemmonsville Friday Sept. 12 12:30. Bethany Saturday Sept. 13 12:30. Thomasville Monday Sept. 15 12:30. RANDOLPH COUNTY. Handlemans (night) Tuesday Sept. 16 10:00. Liberty Wednesday Sept. 17 10:00. Kelsch Thursday Sept. 18 10:00. Moffitts Mills Friday Sept. 19 10:00. MONTGOMERY COUNTY. Freeman's X Road Saturday Sept. 20 10:00. Troy Monday Sept. 22 10:00. Pekin Tuesday Sept. 23 10:00. Mount Gilead Wednesday Sept. 24 10:00. Eldorado Thursday Sept. 25 10:00. Wyncot Friday Sept. 26 10:00. DAVIDSON COUNTY. Jackson Hill Saturday Sept. 27 10:00. Lexington Monday Sept. 29 10:00. Haden's Store Tuesday Sept. 30 10:00. DAVIS COUNTY. Shady Grove Wednesday Oct. 1 10:00. Jerusalem Thursday Oct. 2 10:00.

A Bad Dog.

On last Friday Miss Mary Foust, a maiden lady aged about 45 years, living just south of Curtis' bridge, was attacked while in her orchard gathering fruit by a vicious bull dog belonging to her neighbor Dr. Foust. She screamed for help, but the dog made no halt. Her clothes were almost torn off, her legs bitten and lacerated in a horrible manner. After a while she quit, but was set upon her again by the marking of a small dog. When the dog had finally let her alone he crouched himself down to watch her as she lay bleeding on the ground. She managed to keep the beast from her throat by using the basket she had. The story she tells of her feelings while thus in the jaws of a brute, is sickening and pitiful. "When last heard from she was in a critical condition. Every person having such a vicious animal on his premises should confine him closely or kill him."—Alamance Gleaner.

Here is another argument against dogs for those who need it. To the annual loss of thousands of sheep, and not a few other animals and a less number of human beings by the rabies must be added the above remarkable feat. It is high time that some one should write up the profits and merits of the canine race. Surely they must be immense—away up in the millions—and it may be that some members of the family are so highly meritorious as to entitle them to seats in the Legislature, or in the Congress of the United States. The innumerable hests of fast friends of which they can most defiantly boast, puts their adversaries to the blush, and the little trick of teasing an old lady's life out of her, or the lesser one of throttling an entire flock of sheep in a night, must be passed over as peccadillos.

A Distinguished Bolt.

A Leading Wisconsin Republican Repudiates Blaine and tells the Reason Why.

A letter has been published from the Hon. Thad C. Pond, of Wisconsin, in which he announces his purpose to oppose Mr. Blaine and support Governor Cleveland for the presidency. Mr. Pond is perhaps the most distinguished Republican in Wisconsin, and his opposition to Mr. Blaine will cause a profound sensation throughout the North-west. He has for years been an unwavering leader in the Republican party, always supporting the entire ticket, and has been prominent in its councils for twenty years. He was a leading member of the State Legislature in 1864, 1866, 1867 and 1869. He was elected Lieutenant Governor in 1868, and was in 1876 elected to Congress from the eighth district, then embracing more than half the area of Wisconsin. He served three terms in Congress, taking a prominent part. He was chairman of the committee on public lands in the Forty-seventh Congress. At the end of his third term he voluntarily retired from public life to devote himself to private enterprise. His repudiation of Mr. Blaine proceeds from no personal grievance or disappointment, but from a firm conviction that the Republican nominee is not the man for the place. Mr. Pond has thousands of friends in Wisconsin. He was a close friend of Garfield, and was strongly urged for a cabinet position. The following are extracts from Mr. Pond's letter:

"Mr. Blaine, in my opinion, embodies most in American politics that is menacing to public morals and integrity in government. With a long public career, mainly distinguished for a sort of declamatory and pugilistic statecraft, he is not the inspiration of a single valuable policy or the author of an important statute, but, on the contrary, has often suggested and supported a bad and opposed good legislation. With a record clouded by accusation of jobbery and corruption undefended, he brings to us, personal antagonisms which have torn and weakened our party in the past, invading the administration of the lamented Garfield with demands of personal vengeance so violent as to influence the spirit of assassination and culminating in the defeat of Judge Folger and consequent plection of Grover Cleveland, Governor of the Empire State. Mr. Blaine's friends justified their opposition which defeated a most excellent man, by the plea of fraud in one proxy at the State convention.

"But returning to the candidate. Himself a speculator, enjoying a fortune too great to have been acquired by honest industry, legitimate enterprise, or his country's service at $5,000 a year, he sympathizes with and profits by speculative stock jobbing and gambling methods of acquiring wealth—methods which wrought ruin, disgrace and business disaster beyond computation, schooled youth and persuaded middle age to avoid honest and useful industry, made suicide and insanity commonplace, unsettled values, placed the fruits of honest toil in the power of the Gouls and Arrogants to beest down or built up to the markets as whim or interest may dictate; methods which recently gave us but an exaggerated illustration of their iniquitous consequences in the Grant & Ward fifteen-million-dollar failure and robbery.

acceptance is further betrayed by its significant silence touching the events of the past three years. Bringing down his historic figures to the present would have revealed the fiction involved in his statement. He would have shown a marvellous shrinkage in nominal values; would have noted the downfall of business prosperity and business morals, and would have pictured as few can do so graphically as he the furnace fires dying out, the wheels of factories standing still, wages reduced, beggary usurping the place of labor, bank and business failures, creditors and depositors wantonly defrauded, homes lost, and crookedness in public affairs. Mr. Blaine is objectionable for the company he keeps, for the friends he has made. "With no pronounced issues between the two great parties we can safely afford to yield temporary executive control at this time to an honest man, though he be a Democrat. And if grave questions of public policy were at issue they cannot be determined by the Executive. This is the prerogative of Congress, the law-making branch, heretofore for a time ago under Democratic control. It is vastly more important to good government that the Republican party be restored to supremacy in Congress than that the administration of law be entrusted to an unworthy partisan surrounded by bad counsel. While Mr. Blaine is known to be unworthy, Cleveland has demonstrated his fitness and worthiness for the position by his fidelity and integrity in the discharge of his executive duties as mayor of Buffalo and Governor of the great State of New York, and in my opinion a very large majority of intelligent and patriotic voters believe he should be elected. If one half the Republican voters who agree in this opinion have the courage of their convictions and vote conscientiously he will be triumphantly elected. The scandals affecting the domestic lives of our citizens should be committed to the political gladiators and hyenas. While it is my fixed purpose to support Cleveland and Hendricks, it is no less my determination to support all fit and worthy nominees of the Republican party."

The New York Graphic says a company is getting ready to build a line of pneumatic tube between New York and Chicago for carrying letters and small packages. It will be operated by stationary engines at each end. Packages of any kind enclosed in strong leather balls will be sent through in an incredible short time, obviating the necessity of telegraph dispatches. It is expected to pay a large per cent.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 2.—Letters from Tien Tsen state that Hong Chang, the distinguished viceroy of Pee Chi Li, has been degraded from his high position and deprived of his titles. His chief minister succeeds him as viceroy. The present condition of affairs here is most trying. It is declared that a state of war would be preferable. Frenchmen who are living here expect to be expelled at any hour. The Chinese officials are in a high state of excitement.

CELEBRATION.—There is to be a great celebration of the completion of the Western N. C. Railroad to the Nantahala river. The event is to take place at Charleston, Swain county, on the 12th Sept. inst. Gov. Jarvis and all the officers of State are expected to be present on the occasion, which bids fair to be one of the most interesting and memorable on record in the mountainous portion of the State.

ORCHILLA GUANO & GRASS. THE BEST AND CHEAPEST FOR ORCHILLA GUANO & GRASS. WE DESIRE TO CALL THE THOUGHTFUL ATTENTION OF FARMERS TO THE SUPERIOR MERITS OF ORCHILLA GUANO AS A FERTILIZER FOR WHEAT AND GRASS.

The advantages resulting from its use are not only an increased yield, but the permanent improvement of the soil from the abundant growth of grass which is sure to follow. "ORCHILLA" is no new thing. For eighteen years it has been undergoing trial—and well has it stood the test. At first, its progress to favor was naturally slow; but merit will, sooner or later, have its reward, and now its sales every year are largely increased over those of the preceding year, and the friends of its early days are its best friends now. It has been used extensively in Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia, and from its abundant success everywhere, we are justified in recommending it to you as being well adapted to your soil. No fertilizer for your use has had such unvarying success and continued popularity. Some of the largest and best farmers in these three States use it almost exclusively. It is successful, because it is Nature's own provision for her exhausted fields. It is Low Priced, because we have none of the expense of manufacturers; and, without regard to its high agricultural value, we base its price solely upon its actual cost to import. We refer you below to some of the farmers who have used it, and ask you to enquire of them as to its merits.

ORCHILLA FOR WHEAT. It is a remarkable fact that the complete analysis of Orchilla Guano shows almost identical results with the analysis of the ashes of a bundle of wheat in the straw. This doubtless furnishes the reason why Orchilla is a good wheat producer; it contains all the elements of wheat growth within itself. JOHN H. NUNNALLY, Esq., of Ruffin, N. C., June 23d, 1884, says:—Those who used Orchilla last fall speak in most flattering terms of its results, in which I concur, as my future purchases will demonstrate. I can see where I used Orchilla this spring a very perceptible difference. It is too early in the season to report results. R. B. DOBSON, Esq., of Clio, Iredell Co., N. C., July 15, 1884, says:—"I have used the Orchilla Guano for three years on light sandy land for wheat and clover. It has given satisfaction. My neighbors who used it last fall are well pleased. We used from one to three hundred pounds to the acre. We expect to use it again."

ORCHILLA FOR GRASS. If Orchilla has a specialty, it is in making grass. THAT NEVER FAILS. Col. RANDOLPH HARRISON, Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Virginia, Richmond, says:—"Orchilla certainly possesses special clover-producing virtues, or, if that is an inaccurate word, it enables clover to take hold, and helps it to stand drought—a great point. I watch its effect on my crops with much interest." Send for our Book of Testimonials from farmers who have used Orchilla Guano for years, and who say:—"It has made our poor lands rich." Respectfully, TRAVERS, SNEAD & CO., IMPORTERS' AGENTS, RICHMOND, VA. FOR SALE BY McNeely & Johnson, Salisbury, N. C. Statesville, N. C. Concord, N. C. 45:2m.

YOU CAN HAVE IT.—"My dear, what would I give to have your hair?" is often said by middle-aged ladies to young ones. Madam, you may have just such hair. Parker's Hair Balsam will give it to you. It will stop your hair from falling off, restore the original color and make it long, thick, soft and glossy. You need not stand helplessly envying the girls. The Balsam is not oily, not a dye, but is an elegant dressing, and is especially recommended for its cleanliness and purity.
