A TALE OF TWO CRUTCHES. A Well Known Citizen of Atlanta Lays Down his Crutches.

I have only a few words to say, which are to state that I have been confined to my bed for two months with what was called Nervous Rheumatism, or Sciatics. I was only enabled to hobble about occasionally by the use of crutches, and in this condition I commenced the use of B. B. B., four bottles of which enabled me to discard the use of my crutches and attend to business. I had previously used all well recommended medicines without relief. It has been over two months since using B. B. B., and I consider myself a permanently cured man. J. P. DAVIS, Atlanta, Ga. (West End.)

FRIGHTFUL NASAL CATARRH.

Pieces of Bone. For four years I have been afflicted with a yery troublesome catarrh of the head. So terrible has its nature been that when I blew my nose small pieces of bones would frequently come out of my mouth and nose. The discharge was copious and at times exceedingly offensive. My blood became so impure that my general health was greatly impaired, with poor appetite and worse dig Numerous medicines were used without relief, until I began the use of B. B. B., and three bottles acted almost like magic. Since their use not a symptom has returned, and I feel in every way quite restored to health. 1 am an old citizen of Atlanta, and refer to almost any one living on Butler street, and more particularly to Dr. L. M. Gillam, who knows of my case.

MRS. ELIZABETH KNOTT. We will mail on application to anyone interested in blood and Skin Diseases, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Kidney Troubles, etc., wonderful and unquestionable testimony of cures effected by the use of B. B. B., the quickest Blood Put fier ever known. Large bottles $1.00 or six for $5.00. Sold by all Druggists, or Exreased on receipt of price. BLOOD BALM CO.,

For the Watchman. The Darkey and the Mule.

In Dixie's comfield college e'er Twin brothers went to school. And learned the "gee-haw" language here The darkey and the male, They were so much alike, I swan, Distinctions oft would fail ; Which was the mule and which the man Was known but by the tail.

The darkey talked in words to "bub"-The male to him in squeals; One gestured with a hickory club-The other with his heels. When male contrarivise, would go "Gee" for "haw," "haw" for "gee,"

Wise Sambo backwards plowed his row And so they did agree. When load the dinner trampet blew, Mule started for the barn, And darkey to the kitchen flew ; He fdidn't care a darn." When mellow twilight bathed the hills At eventide along The farm-vard tolled Jim's deafening squeals

And Sambo's echoing song.

Such mutual understanding reigned 'I wixt this congenial pair, old master's mind was never pained. Old mistress knew no fear. Thus when the mule and nigger came So punctual to the trough, Old master neither one would blame, Old mistress she would laugh.

All night the nigger roamed and danced, Prayed, shonted ; long-eared scratch Kicked down the stable door and prane'd All o'er the cabbage patch. Nig mortified his surplus flesh; Mule tuned his devilment; Each morn both trotted out, like fresh Twin dollars from the mint.

Bat oh! when 'Mancipation's trump Blew blasted doubtful sound. The nigger tumbled in a lump, The mule fell to the ground ! And when they rose, oh! what a tank Of parting tears they made ! Nig sought the trusty Freedman's Bank-The mule old master's shed.

"Good-bye, old partner," Sambo sobbed "Good-bye, old bub," Jim screeched, Both felt as if they had been robbed. Or else were bad bewitched. But soon a deed, for Sambo penned In lying Yankee school,

Claimed "forty acres of that land And that same partner mule !"
