The Flying Jenny will not run after the 4th of November. Take notice, cranks.

We believe, after a careful survey of the field from all standpoints, that Mr. Claudius Mills will be beaten.

No living man has saved the farmers of North Carolina so many dollars as Jno. S. Henderson. And he is entitled to their profound gratitude and hearty support.

If any man is dissatisfied about the black law, and refuses to vote for Mr. Henderson on that account, let him remember that Dr. Ramsay was as good a stock raiser as Mr. Henderson.

Great credit is due the young men of our town for their zeal and energy in the Democratic cause. Keep cool, boys, and work ahead, and all will be well on the tide.

Communion services will be held at St. Matthew's Lutheran church, on the Brangle Ferry road, Saturday and Sunday next, 25th and 26th Oct. Visitors will be welcomed with Christian greeting.

The Democrats of Rowan owe it to the 7th district, to themselves and to Mr. Henderson to give this gentleman 1,000 majority at the east. Get the Democrats of the county to the poll, and the work is done.

Col. Staples delivered a speech at McCreary's Hall last Saturday night, to a large audience; and it was one of the best of the campaign. There are few able speakers in the State than he—none in fact, whose style is more simple and whose language is more graceful and elegant.

His review of the "Civil Rights" question was so clear and plain that a child could understand it.

DANGEROUS.—Mr. R. W. Culbertson writing from Woodleaf, Unity township, says: "Last Sunday a fire, starting in all probability from a spark dropped the night before by some 'possum hunter,' was burning in the woods near this place, and but for perfect stillness of the air and prompt attention might have proved a serious matter."

We are called upon to warn persons against carelessness of this kind, for at this dry season "the woods are tinder and a single spark may start a fire which might prove an expensive luxury."

There were no services in the Presbyterian church last Sabbath, owing to illness of Mrs. Wharton, the pastor's mother-in-law. We regret to say that it proved to be her last illness. She is gone. Many of those who knew the late Rev. Jesse Rankin, may not know that Mrs. Wharton was a sister of his, and it is not out of place to say that brother and sister rarely more closely resembled each other than did they in both person and spirit.

God-fearing and God-honoring, they walked on the earth as if not belonged to it except as they might do good while here.

THE CANDIDATES put forward by the different parties are generally supposed to represent the intelligence and virtue of their respective parties. Thus the best man the Radicals could put forward for President is Blaine, the political prostitute; their best man for Governor of North Carolina is "the same old York," the illiterate penegade and traitor; while for sub-Elector, in Rowan, Mr. James F. E. Brown, the "Flying-Jenny Cat," is "preesen us."

What a trio—Blaine, York, Brown! Good men of Rowan, can you vote for this crowd?

If the Republicans of China Grove township can swallow Claudius Mills after the studied insult offered Jackson Sechler, one of the most respected Republicans in the county, their throats are made to swallow anything. We don't believe they will go for Mills. They will open him out as the better class of Republicans all over the land are spewing out Blaine. The wonder to us is that any of the old time Republicans can be content to take a back seat and hurrah for the mongrel crowd that is now leading their party.

WE MET A LIBERAL a few days ago and asked him why he was opposed to the Democratic party. "It's a party against the poor man," he replied. But he could not point to a single case where the Democracy had been opposed to the poor man. No man can point to such a case. He had just come from a place where men sit on whiskey barrels and impose such lies as this on the ignorance of their customers. If there is one thing in the history of the Democratic party in North Carolina most prominent, it is the fact that that party has labored to promote the poor masses. It has built asylums for the unfortunate poor; it has established an Agricultural Department to protect and encourage our poor farming class, it has opened wide school house doors from Cherokee to Currituck to educate the poor man's children; it has reduced the poor man's taxes to less than one-third collected under Radical administration; and it is pledged, when it gets control of the government, to still further reduce their taxes by modifying the tariff.

The Democratic party opposed to the interests of the poor man! This lie will taint the breath of Traitor leaders a little longer, but in November the good people of Rowan will hurl scorn and contempt in their faces.

STAD STEADY white men of Rowan, how would you like to have your children go to school with negro children? White men could you bear to see white women married to negroes? And white men with negro wives? And when you die, would you like to lie side by side with a negro? Isn't the bare suggestion of any of these things revolting! And yet this is the state of affairs to be expected if Senator Edmunds' civil rights bill, now pending in Congress, should become law. And there is great danger of its becoming law if the Radicals get a majority in the next Congress. Then, let nothing prevent your voting against the Radical party, which seeks to insult and degrade the brave men and noble women of our fair land.

Give the negro all his political rights, and treat him fairly, kindly; but let him know his place.

Enochville Items. Our quiet little village has been the centre of attraction politically for several weeks. The pole raising, the flag raising, the club meetings, the Democratic mass meetings, and the joint Democratic and Republican discussions, have worked our people almost up to fever heat. If you could send Senator Vance out here yet I think we would be ready for the election.

For the Watchman. A Nut for Colored Republicans to Crack. We learn from reliable authority, that one of the leading white Republicans of Franklin township, (of whom we are informed there are but few,) says he "will support the Republican party, because that party is in favor of sending the negroes out of the country!" He says that "the property holders are principally Democrats and need the services of the negro, and are, therefore, not willing to give them up, or send them away. Whereas, the Republicans are mostly poor men and non-property holders, and the negro is in their way as a working class. Consequently they wish them sent out of the country, so as to give the poor white laborer a better chance to obtain work."

Oct. 20, 1884. W. R. F. GUARD YOUR LIBERTIES. DESPERATE EFFORTS TO RE-TAIN POWER.

Address by the National Democratic Committee to the People of the United States. The National Committee of the Democratic party has issued the following address to the people of the United States.

HEADQUARTERS DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE, No. 11 WEST TWENTY-FOURTH ST., October 16, 1884. To the People of the United States: The result of the elections on Tuesday last in the States of Ohio and West Virginia is before you.

Ohio chose Republican Presidential electors in 1868, 1872, 1876 and 1880. West Virginia chose Republican Presidential electors in 1872, and Democratic electors in 1876 and 1880.

Garfield elected a plurality in Ohio in 1880 of 34,227 votes. The Republican candidate in the late election for secretary of State was a gallant soldier and a reputable man. The vote of the Republican party in that election was broken down by the weight of Mr. Blaine, a factional seeker after the Presidency.

The people then elected a Democratic majority of the Congressional delegation of the State. We may confidently expect a majority in Ohio for Cleveland and Hendricks in November.

West Virginia has, by its splendid declared majority for a Democratic Governor at the October election, already declared its purpose to give its electoral vote for our candidates in November.

The Blaine managers employed extraordinary methods in both States. They expended not less than $500,000 in Ohio and more than $100,000 in West Virginia in their political work.

They did not use money only. They called from every State the officeholders best fitted to do the work at which they were put. They crowded these two States with such men.

They employed in political jobs the men engaged in the postal service of the United States.

They left the veterans who had saved the life of the nation without the pay to which they were entitled, under the pretence of having insufficient clerical force in the pension bureau, and then used the commissioner of pensions and a great number of his clerks as parts of their political machinery in Ohio and West Virginia. It has been openly charged, without denial, that the commissioner of pensions has been delayed by him with the purpose of coercing them to vote for Mr. Blaine.

The abuses of political power have been committed under the overlooking eye of Mr. Blaine, and with his full sanction. They show the manner in which, if he were elected, the public officers would be subordinated to the personal service, and the bounty of the country be made the means of advancing his personal interests.

They made the marshals of the United States and their deputies, who ought to be the guardians of the rights of every citizen of the United States, the parts of their machine force. They armed them and incited them to violence and outrage. They expect to pay for the weapons and services of these men out of the treasury of the United States.

They made Mr. Blaine one of their country and ward workers in Ohio and West Virginia, and he entered with zest upon the familiar duties. They devised with his knowledge methods of compelling workmen to vote as their employers dictated. They kept him in daily association with the worst elements of their political organization. They made him their counsellor in every dangerous plan which they devised to promote his success. He could not have been a stranger to their purpose to make gains in Cincinnati, at the election on Tuesday last, by using armed deputy marshals and armed negroes to drive voters from the polls.

The methods of their campaign in Ohio and West Virginia and the share of their candidate in these methods have added to the opprobrium already resting upon his name, and have assured his defeat at the general election in November.

Mr. Blaine has been a member of the House of Representatives, Senator in Congress and Secretary of State for the United States. He has been accused of corruptly using his influence as a Speaker and as a member of the House of Representatives for his own individual profit.

His misconduct has been proven by his own letters. These have confronted him wherever he has gone. He has attempted no explanation. The phrases of these letters are so well known that they are by-words on the streets and jests on the stage.

A Speaker of the House of Representatives, a member of that House, who would barter his influence for money or property, might avail himself of the large opportunities which the office and powers of a President afford.

These are not words dictated by party rancor. They sum up the judgment of that independent press which is and always will remain the bulwark of good and constitutional government. They express the convictions of the leading Republican journals, and the belief of those distinguished Republican statesmen and citizens whose love of country has forced them to declare that the nomination of Mr. Blaine was one not fit to be made.

There is reason for our confidence that we will achieve a victory in November. The army of officeholders, engaged for a month past in the business of manipulating the votes in Ohio and West Virginia, must be disbanded. Each man of the number must go to his own place. The commissioner of pensions and his bureau clerks cannot be concentrated for political uses in the November elections. When they are acting individually in their several States they will be unable to do mischief.

The marshals of the United States, by reason of the powers which they exercise, may again do harm in November. They ought to understand that for what they may do they will hereafter be held to the strictest account. The hopes of reward and the promise of indemnity which have been held out to them will not avail them in the days which are close at hand.

C. E. Mills' crop on the 4th day of November will be small potatoes and few in the hill. Don't fail to read the new advertisements in this paper.

The "Flying Jenny" sub-electro of Rowan moves like a cat with its head in a mug—tail foremost and in circles.

Blaine's Great Falsehoods. Of course all lies are sins, and among theologians stand nearly on the same level. But among jurists and politicians a lie has to be weighed against its results. A lie which produces considerable effect is always a first-class lie. Therefore a lie told by a candidate for the greatest trust in the world is an important lie, as indicating dishonesty and deceitfulness, or, in one word, untrustworthiness of character.

The Blaine lies are, we think, the most important lies ever told—the only lies, in fact, which, like the first shot at Concord, have been heard around the world.

MINING. T. K. BRUNER, MANAGER. HOOPER HILL.—Sept. 9, A few shifts more will finish the work of cutting down the Briol's shaft to the 130. Good progress is being made in the drifts north and south from the Gallimore shaft at the 230, and both ends are looking fairly well.—Hawkins: In the No. 1 stope we have been following some stringers of ore going off in the north-west end, which have opened out into a bunch of fair ore. The exploratory drift west from the bottom of the Hawkins' shaft has been stopped for the present, and the men have been put to follow some stringers of ore going off in the south-west end of No. 1 stope.

In the No. 2 stope the communication has been made with the drift going west from the bottom of the Hawkins' shaft by means of a wize about 16 feet deep, for convenience in removing the ore. The ore we are breaking in the No. 2 stope remains about the same as when last reported. The yield in the mill has improved considerably compared to what it was last month, varying, I should judge from the amalgam, from 5 to 8 ozs. of gold per day. The weather continues very dry, and the water is getting so low that we have barely enough to run with: in fact to keep all 20 stamps dropping has had to bring in the water pumped from the Gallimore shaft. I propose having some prospecting work done in the Provost shaft where there are indications worth following. We shall have a few spare hands from the Briol's shaft in a day or two, whom I propose putting to work here. The ground is in dangerous condition in places, and is now being timbered up. The shaft we call the Provost is situated about 150 feet south of the Gallimore, and is marked "Old Whim Shaft" on the plan of the mine (surface) sent home shortly after I first came here.

Moravian Schools. In whatever part of the world Moravian Schools are to be found, they are based on the same general ideas.

The first is to produce as nearly as possible the home-life of the scholars with all its salutary checks and wholesome influences. On this account the pupils are gathered into room-companies with whom the teacher is always present.

The second idea is to train the mind into the power of acquiring knowledge rather than hastily to crowd it with information. Thorough grounding in essential studies, close supervision of study hours and attention to the mental peculiarities of the individual pupil are objects constantly to be held in view.

The third idea is to make the faith, the love and the obedience of Christ the chief school rule. Our institutions were founded, have prospered, and can only continue to exist as seminaries not for the enlargement of the Moravian denomination, but for the secular education but for the honor of Christ in the sound and Christian training of youth.—The Academy.

A vote for Grover Cleveland is a vote to put the people in charge of the Government, and if that result is accomplished then the full detection and exposure of those who have been in power these many years will inevitably follow.

It is amusing to see how tender-footed certain blood remedy proprietors have become of late. They make much ado about "apes and imitators," when none are in sight.

The proprietors of B. B. B. would say most emphatically that their remedy stands upon its own merit. Should we attempt to imitate, it would not be those who do not understand the modus operandi of that which they offer. Our own long experience in the profession precludes such an idea.

The field for blood remedies is large and broad affording ample room for all present aspirants. We do not desire to close the door against others, neither shall it be closed against us. B. B. B. is the quickest remedy, does not contain mineral or vegetable poison, does not imitate, and is in the field as an honorable competitor for public favor.

TAPE WORM. An eminent German scientist has recently discovered from a root extract, an absolute specific for Tape Worm. It is pleasant to take and is not distressing to the patient, but is peculiarly sickening and stupefying to the Tape Worm, which loosens its hold of its victim and passes away in natural and easy manner, entirely whole, with Head, and white still alive.

One physician has used this specific in over 400 cases, without a single failure to void worm entire. Success guaranteed. No pay required until removed with head. Send stamp for circular and terms. HAYWOOD & CO., 19 Park Place, New York. May 30, '84.—1y
