Subscription Rates

The subscription rates of the Carolina Watchman are as follows: $1.50 per year, paid in advance...

Mr. A. C. Harris has bought out his former partner and will continue the Family Grocery business in his place on Main Street.

We invite special attention to an extract of a sermon on the first page of this paper.

PLANTING TREES.—Those who contemplate setting either fruit or shade trees or lawns, this year, are reminded that the best time for it has already passed...

LETTERS.—Every mail is largely augmented with circulars, all either wanting to sell you something or to induce you to do something to help the sender make money.

ORDERS.—Verbal business orders delivered on the street are not near so sure of attention as those given through the Post Office.

WINE.—Persons wishing to set out grape vines this spring, may not be aware that they can obtain choice from forty or fifty varieties of Mr. Wm Murdoch of this place.

SILVER MINE AT AUCTION.—The Silver Valley mining property, in Davidson county, will be sold under a mortgage made to Mr. Chas. L. Heitman, from the Court House steps in Lexington, Feb. 28, 1885.

SCOTT'S DEATH.—William F. Watson, Esq., of Locke township, died very suddenly at his place of business a few miles east of this place, Thursday night last, of abscess of the throat.

Editor of Watchman.—Does not the law restraining "stock" include poultry as well as other farm-yard animals?

OUR CORRESPONDENT X. is right in his demand for security for his garden against the depredations of fowls which are allowed to range abroad for a living.

POSTPONEMENT.—Owing to my continued bad health the sale of property which was advertised to take place on the 27th of January, is indefinitely postponed.

PHILADELPHIA MARKET.—Evans Bros., large Produce Commission Merchants, 56 North Water street, Philadelphia, report the following city markets:

EGGS.—Virginia and Southern, 30¢@31¢.—Live poultry 9¢@10¢ per pound; dressed 12¢@13¢; turkeys 10¢@15¢ according to quality;

Our Academy is in successful operation with sixty scholars, with seven or eight boarding pupils. We have a number of teachers, Mr. Geo. Wetmore, who is generally believed to be the right man for the place, and will therefore receive the encouragement due him.

The legislature will, if it has not already done so, reduce the fee on marriage licenses. Also, make some arrangements by which to prevent the crowded dockets of the Courts.

OSCEOLA LITERATURE.—Senator Conroy has introduced a bill in the Legislature to prohibit the sale of obscene literature in this State.

The mint assays of gold at Charlotte, last year, ran up $163,348.42. Of silver, only about $1,000.

FARMERS' MEETING.—The farmers, mechanics and laborers of Rowan are invited to meet at the Court House in Salisbury, on Saturday, January 31st, at 11 o'clock, to take into consideration matters in which they are interested, and to consult for their mutual welfare and protection.

Carl Schurz delivered a lecture in Raleigh, last week, on Dr. Ben. Franklin; and at Wilmington, Tuesday night, for the benefit of the Library Association.

The proposition to raise the salaries of certain State officers—the Governor, Superintendent of Public Instruction, &c., failed in the Senate.

POSTMASTER GENERAL.—The newspapers are still busily engaged in making up a cabinet for Mr. Cleveland.

THE RIVER AND HARBOR BILL.—The River and Harbor bill will be reported to the House to-day, or tomorrow.

A STITCH IN TIME SAVES NINE.—Dissemination in various forms is superinduced by the existence of worms in children and adults.

MRS. MERONEY.—Mrs. Mary Meroney, in this city, January 10th, at the residence of her son, Mr. Thos. J. Meroney.

THE SALT BRINE.—The salt brine, formerly of Rowan, in the 61st year of his life.

ARE YOU TIRED OF BEING SICK?—We want to say a word to the men, women and girls who work in stores, offices and factories.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, Rowan County. IS THE SUPERIOR COURT, JAN. 10, 1885.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS! All persons having claims against the estate of Lawrence Lingle, dec'd, are hereby notified to present the same to me...

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, Rowan County. In the Superior Court, JAN. 10, 1885.

Having purchased R. E. Reid's interest in the firm of Harris & Reid, I will continue the business at my old stand on W. Street.

LAND AND MILL PROPERTY FOR SALE! Price low and terms easy.

Dissolution Notice! The copartnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, under the firm name of Harris & Reid, was dissolved...

Taking Care of the Body. The Christian Index, the leading organ of the Baptist Church in the South, published in Atlanta, Ga., in its issue of Dec. 4, '84, has the following editorial:

These brethren speak adversely. But few preparations can bring forward such endorsements. The Index desires only to endorse these statements. We have witnessed the beneficial effects of this medicine, not only in our own households, but in several other cases where seemingly all other remedies had failed.

ATLANTA, GA., August, 1883. My six year old son had a terrible sloughing Scrophulous Eject of the neck for three years, attended with blindness, loss of hair, great emaciation, and general prostration.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER. Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kind, and cannot be beaten in competition with the multitude of low test, cheap weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in tins.

WASHED-OUT HAIR.—There is a sort of pallid, chalky complexion which the novitiate call a "washed out complexion." It is ghastly enough, and no mistake.

Salisbury Tobacco Market. CORRECTED WEEKLY BY JNO. SHEPPARD. Lugs, common to med. 4.00 to 5.00 Lugs, med. to good, 5.00 to 6.00

Two DANGEROUS REASONS.—Spring and fall are times when so many people get sick. The changes in the weather are severe on feeble persons, and even those naturally strong appear, as they say, "to be feeling miserable."
