TAPE WORM.

An eminent German scientist has recently discovered from a root extract, an absolute specific for Tape Worm.

It is pleasant to take and is not distressing to the patient, but is peculiarly sickening and stupefying to the Tape Worm, which loosens its hold of its victim and passes away in a natural and easy manner, entirely whole with Head, and while still alive.

One physician has used this specific in over 400 cases, without a single failure to void worms entire. Success guaranteed. No pay required until removed with head.
 Send stamp for circular and terms.

Wood ashes are the best of fertilizers for the orchard. They contain all the required elements of plant nutrition, except nitrogen. One hundred pounds of wood ashes contains sixteen pounds of potash, three and a half pounds of soda, sixty-seven pounds of lime and magnesia, and five and a quarter pounds of phosphoric acid.
 No other fertilizer keeps fruit trees in so healthy a state as do wood ashes.

Profits of Farming.

After a good deal of figuring and footing up, the agricultural editor of the New York Times has managed to settle himself in the conclusion that 20 per cent. is a small return for money invested in a farm and stock; $200 for $1,000 or $2,000 for $10,- 000 is a common income from a well conducted farm, and there are abundant opportunities for doing better than that. Fruit growing, poultrymen, bee-keepers, and even dairymen, sometimes make 100 per cent. profit, and rarely less than 25 or 30 per cent. Let a farmer sell his farm for $10,000 and put it in a 20 per cent. mine, and get $2,000 a year income. He rents a house, buys his provisions and fuel, hires a horse or carriage when he wants to go out, and at the end of the year he will find his income quite insufficient to keep him in the comforts enjoyed on his farm, while all the time the mine is going out, and some day he is told "the bottom has fallen out of it," and he finds all of his money has fallen out with the bottom of his mine. No certain, sure and permanent investment can be expected to pay more than 5 per cent. now-a-days, and above all that has a proportionate element of risk in it. But what risk is there about a farm that is free from debt?
 The bottom never falls out of that, and one may securely enjoy it as long as he lives, and leave it to his children, knowing that a thousand years hence the soil will still be returning its generous dividends.—Mobile Register.

WHAT AN OLD FARMER SAYS.

This is the advice of an old farmer who has tilled the soil for forty years:

1. One acre of land well prepared and well tilled, produces more than two which receive only the same amount of labor used on one.
2. One cow, horse, mule, sheep or hog, well fed, is more profitable than two kept on the same amount necessary to keep one well.
3. No farmer who buys oats, corn or wheat, fodder and hay, can keep the sheriff from the door in the end.
4. The farmer who never reads the papers, sneers at book farming and improvements, always has a leaky roof, poor stock, broken down fences, and complains of "bad seasons."
5. The farmer who is above his business and entrusts it to another to manage, soon has no business to attend to.

The Wrong Man.

A tall, red-haired young man, with an innocent face and a black necktie, sat alone in a car seat on one of the swift flying trains of the Pennsylvania Railroad bound for Washington.
 He had just begun to read a copy of the Christian Advocate when a benevolent looking, middle-aged man entered and sat down beside him. For an hour the young man read his paper, and the old man watched the telegraph polls go by. Becoming tired of this amusement the stranger fished a half dozen little pill boxes out of a deep pocket in his overcoat and placed them in his lap. The young man put away his paper and eyed his neighbor, who pulling out a roll of bills from his vest pocket, selected a note and placed it in one of the pill boxes.

"Do you suppose you could select the box containing the bill?" he asked of the young man with a smile, and a look which seem to say, "Let us be sociable."

"Don't think I could," laconically replied the latter, pulling his mustache.
 The stranger himself picked out the box, took out the bill and put a $10 note in its place. This time however, a corner of the bill was left sticking out after the cover had been put on the box.

"Now do you think you could pick it out?" he said, showing his teeth.

"Of course I could," replied the young man.

"Well, if you will give me a dollar I will let you try."

"Oh, no, I wouldn't do that. You're not sharp at all. You've left a corner of that bill sticking out of the box so any fool could pick it out."

"Why, of course," said the sharper apparently confused by the discovery.
 "How could I make such a blunder?" Thereupon he took out the $10 bill and put in its place a bright, new $20 note. The corner of the bill stuck out as before, but the man pretended not to notice it.

"Now will you try it?" he continued, after wiping his forehead with a red handkerchief. "Give me a dollar and take your pick. You've got a chance to make $19 in clear money."

The young man's face did not show the least animation at this declaration.
 If there was the beginning of a smile hidden under his mustache it did not reveal itself when he answered:

"You are a stranger to me. I don't want to take $19 out of you; it would not be gentlemanly in me to do so.

 If we're old friends the case would be different. But I see plainly you are not used to the wicked ways of this world. You are not sharp. You have left the corner of that $20 note sticking out of the cover as you did the other. You ought to go and work on a farm awhile, you ought."

The perspiration poured from the sharper's forehead. He had caught a Tartar, and had had a hard time of it too. The red-headed young man took the boxes out of his neighbor's hand, and after returning the $20 note said:

"Perhaps you would like to try your hand at picking out the lucky box? I'll put this $50 bill in this one and a $10 note in this box. Give me five dollars and you shall try your luck."

The man reluctantly paid over the money, and after the young man had shaken up the boxes in his hat, took one from which the green corner of a note appeared. When he had pulled off the cover he found it only contained a piece of a revenue stamp.
 His face fell at the discovery.

"Try it again," said his tormentor.
 He tried again but with no better luck.

"Take the lot," laughed the young man, pouring them out into his neighbor's lap.

The swindler opened every box, but not a sign of a bill appeared.

"Here are the bills, safe in my pocket," said the bright young fellow, producing the notes from his vest pocket and shaking them in his neighbor's face.

"The next time you want to try your game on a stranger, don't pick out a man who is in the same business as yourself. Ta ta!"

The red-haired youth was an expert confidence man from Frisco.—N. Y. Mail.

Expelled From France.

A Number of Fenian Leaders Arrested in Paris and Sent Across the Frontier.

Paris, March 13.—An immense sensation has been caused in this city by the stand which the authorities have taken towards the Fenian agitators. In addition to the arrest of James Stephens, Eugene Davis and John Morrissey, which were made yesterday afternoon, the police have, this morning, arrested a journalist named Mortimer Leroy, and another Fenian whose name has not been learned. Mrs. Stephens was also arrested, but was subsequently released.
 The arrests already made are apparently only the beginning of what is contemplated on the part of the authorities. Warrants for the expulsion of other Fenian leaders have been issued, and further arrests are expected.

Stephens, Davis, Morrissey and Leroy were taken to the frontier of France today and warned not to return. Stephens begged permission to be allowed to proceed to Havre, so that he might take a steamer there for America, but the authorities refused to grant his request. Davis and Morrissey, who were confined at the prefecture, were subjected to an examining this morning. It is reported that the police have made an important discovery.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

An Attempt to Force a Union Which Met with Failure.

LIBERIA, SAN SALVADOR, VIA GALVESTON, MARCH 12.—On the 5th President Barrios, of Guatemala, declared in the assembly of that country that Central America should constitute one republic, and at the same time he made public announcement that he would assume command of all the military forces of the various States. The declaration was accepted by Honduras, but was rejected by San Salvador, Nicaragua and Costa Rica. The forces of Guatemala began immediately to march against San Salvador. The people of the latter republic rose as one man to resist the invasion, and yesterday Guatemala ceased hostilities. President Barrios, however, sent a request to President Saldívar, of San Salvador, that the latter country should appoint two commissioners, who should proceed to Guatemala, with the power to treat on the present crisis. Whether this request will receive any attention has not yet become known. Meanwhile President Saldívar had telegraphed an account of this situation to Gen.
 Diaz, President of Mexico, and had asked him to use his influence to prevent bloodshed. In answer to this Gen. Diaz sent the following telegram to President Saldívar: Your telegram of the 7th inst. is understood. I have taken necessary precautions against any contingency that may arise. I have telegraphed to President Barrios as follows:

Your telegram of the 7th instant, announcing your determination to declare Central America one republic and to assume yourself command of all the forces thereof, has been received. This declaration has been made by your assembly only, and has been rejected energetically by your sister republics. These cir-umstances have created such antipathy to your course among Mexican citizens that my government will be obliged to take immediate action to prevent the execution of your threat against the sister nationalities of this continent.

The people of San Salvador are enthusiastic in their determination to preserve their independence. The patriotic feeling now runs so high that President Saldívar has extreme difficulty in restraining his troops.

SAN JUAN DELSUR, NICARAGUA, VIA GALVESTON.—Active war preparations are being made throughout the country. The government has now ready several thousand men to send to the frontier. Strenuous efforts to resist Barrios are being made in Costa Rica, and a large number of soldiers are ready to move at short notice. Great enthusiasm is manifested, and confidence in the final result is displayed. It is thought very probable in some quarters that Guatemala will consider the matter before attempting coercive measures, and that a friendly solution of the difficult problem of uniting the five States may be arrived at.

A Valuable Hint.

"What are you buying now?" asked Ned Stevenson of Andrew Powell, on meeting the latter in Bell's jewelry store.

"I am looking for some present to give my wife for her birthday. I tell you, making presents costs a heap of money."

"Why don't you do as I do? I have never failed to make my wife a present on her birthday every year for twenty-five years, and I am not out a cent thus far."

"How do you manage it?"

"It is very simple. After we were married, when her birthday came around I gave her a twenty dollar gold piece. When my birthday came around she gave me the twenty dollar piece back, and we have kept up that ever since, and neither of us are out a cent."—Siftings.

Speculation in Trade Dollars.

There has been a remarkable decline in the value of the trade dollar. This "ex-coin," for it has no real value in this country now, except as so much bullion, has been an object of widespread speculation for the past two years.
 The speculation has been that Congress would redeem the trade dollar at par, and a bill for this purpose was before the last Congress, but the session ceased with no action taken upon it. In the belief that the government would redeem the dollar at par bullion speculators have been for two years buying up the coins and hoarding them till Congress should act. At least two well known Wall street firms have each held 500,000 of the trade dollars purchased all the way from 90 to 95 cents. Before Congress adjourned the market price of the dollar was 90 cents. Yesterday Zimmerman & Forsyth purchased 100,000 at 84 cents. At this rate a slight profit can be made by exporting them to China. The two firms alluded to above must have lost $100,000 on their speculation.—N. Y. World.

MRS. HUGHES'S PRESENCE OF MIND.

—Mrs. Nannie Hughes, living at Hall's Station, while on her way to see a sick neighbor, was attacked by a furious bull.
 Seeing no way of escape or any assistance at hand, she called to her two children, a little boy of 6 years and a little girl of 7, who were with her, to run for their lives, while she stood her ground, and taking off her shawl awaited the furious animal's approach, and as soon as he lowered his head for the fatal plunge she spread the shawl over his head and caught him by the horns.
 The animal pushed her back some twenty or thirty feet, when she loosed her hold, and springing aside, she ran to her children, who by this time had gained a safe distance. The animal, after pawing and goring the shawl to his satisfaction, lay down on it and took a rest, while she and her children proceeded to the neighbor's house.—Galveston News.

Make the bridge from the cradle to manhood just as long as you can. Have your child a child just as long as you can, especially if you live in a city. Be not in haste to force your child into premature development by intelligence or anything else. Let it be a child, and not a little ape of a man running about the town.—Spurgeon.

Mr. Cleveland proposes to run the White House on economic principles.
 One of the first things he did after entering was to reduce the clerical force giving notice that after the 15th inst., the services of the following gentlemen would be dispensed with: Henry C.
 Morton, of Ohio; J. S. Bolway, of Ohio, and W. B. Duke, of West Virginia, clerks at $1,800 $1,600 and $1,400 per annum respectively, and O. L. Judd, telegraph operator, who receives $1,400 per annum.

BEAUTIFY AND PURIFY yourselves and children by using Shiner's Indian Vermifuge twice a year. Worms ruin the complexion.

To Pay the Militia.

Representative Cox, of North Carolina, was very favorably impressed with the display made by the various State militia organizations which took part in the inaugural procession. At the next session of Congress he proposes to introduce a bill appropriating $600,000 annually for the militia of the country.
 He claims that each man in the regular army costs the Government more than $1,000 a year, and with the exception of a few regiments out on the frontier, they have an easy time. The Militia organizations have always supported themselves and performed good service whenever called upon. In case of a riot or an outbreak of any kind he says the militia have always proven themselves to be the real army of the Republic, and he is in favor of giving them substantial encouragement.—Washington Cor. Charleston News and Courier.

No Failure on the Social Side.

The administration will not fail on its social side. The advent of Jackson to the White House was distinguished by excesses that will have no place now.
 Mr. Cleveland came down here accompanied by his clergyman brother, and three cultivated sisters and several nieces and he took the oath of office on the little worn Bible that is hallowed by memories of a sainted mother. This was a genuine touch of moral feeling, and it illustrates the best side of Cleveland's character. His conduct of the White House will be such as to meet the approbation of the conservative people of the country, and in this regard is likely to be a wholesome improvement upon the pattern set by Mr.
 Arthur. Extravagant living has spread from the administrative circles to general society here in a way to embarrass people of moderate means.—Washington Letter in Springfield Republican.

A Yankee Who Climbed the South Pole.

Captain Nathaniel Palmer, of Stonington, the original discoverer of Palmer's Land, the farthest south of all known land, tells the following story of the way he saved the discovery. He was getting ready to leave it, when a Russian frigate hove in sight. Captain Palmer was ambitious to claim the land for the United States. How to contend with the ship of the Czar he did not know at first. He waited till the frigate ran to the leeward of him and hove to and then he put up his sheet and squared away for her, running under her stern and calling out as he shot past: "Aho, there, ship aho! Do you want a pilot in? The ruse succeeded, for the Russian at once fell away and left the harbor free to the Stars and Stripes.—Hartford Times.

This invaluable preparation is truly a triumph of scientific skill, and no more inestimable benefit was ever bestowed on the mothers of the world. It not only shortens the time of labor and lessens the intensity of pain, but better than all it greatly diminishes the danger to the life of both mother and child, and leaves the mother in a condition highly favorable to speedy recovery, and far less liable to flooding, convulsions and other alarming symptoms incident to lingering and painful labor. It is truly wonderful efficacy in this respect entitles the Mother's Friend to be ranked as one of the life saving appliances given to the world by the discoveries of modern science. From the nature of the case it will of course be understood that we cannot publish certificates concerning this Remedy without wounding the delicacy of the writers. Yet we have hundreds of such testimonials on file, and no mother who has once used it will ever again be without it in her time of trouble.

RHEUMATISM.

Although a practitioner of new treatment B. B. for her mother influence me to procure her several months with Rheumatism, which had stubbornly resisted all other remedies. Within twenty four hours after commencing B. B. B. I observed marked relief. She has just commenced her third bottle and is nearly as active as ever, and has been in the front rank as ever, and truly wonderful and immensely gratifying. G. H. MOSTROMBERG, M.
